RECENT SUCCESS

THREE IN FOUR YEARS

Penn State was one of just eight teams to play in a New Year's Six Bowl game in three of four seasons between 2016-19. The Nittany Lions capped off the 2019 campaign with a trip to the Goodyear Cotton Bowl Classic. Penn State ended the 2016 season with an appearance in the Rose Bowl and closed out the 2017 season in the PlayStation Fiesta Bowl.

Jesse Luketa & Micah Parsons

TWO NY6 BOWL WINS

The Nittany Lions earned two wins in New Year's Six Bowl games over three seasons from 2017-19. Penn State was one of just seven teams to accomplish that feat. The Nittany Lions racked up 529 total yards on their way to a 53-39 win over Memphis in the 2019 Goodyear Cotton Bowl Classic. Two years earlier, Penn State earned a 35-28 win over Washington in the 2017 PlayStation Fiesta Bowl, highlighted by a 92-yard touchdown run by Saquon Barkley.

BACK-TO-BACK NEW YEAR'S SIX BOWLS

The Nittany Lions made appearances in consecutive New Year's Six Bowl games when they played in the 2017 Rose Bowl and 2017 Playstation Fiesta Bowl. It marked the first time Penn State played in back-to-back New Year's Six Bowl games since the 1985 Orange Bowl and 1986 Fiesta Bowl.

PRODUCING NFL PICKS

With six selections in the 2021 NFL Draft, Penn State is one of only five schools to produce at least five picks in each of the last four NFL Drafts. The Nittany Lions had six players drafted in both 2018 and 2019 as well as five players picked in the 2020 draft. Penn State also had five players selected in 2016.

Since 2016, the Nittany Lions have had 29 players selected in the NFL Draft. Fourteen of the 29 selections were taken on the first two days of the NFL Draft, including 2018 No. 2 overall pick, Saquon Barkley, 2021 No. 12 overall pick, Micah Parsons, and 2021 No. 31 overall pick, Jayson Owheh.

TRADITION OF EXCELLENCE

SUCCESS WITH HONOR

The true greatness of a program is measured over the long haul and since 1887, Penn State has demonstrated consistency and quality on and off the field. The nation's second-largest stadium is home to a powerhouse that ranks among the elite programs in producing NFL Draft choices and All-Americans, while ranking among the leaders in graduation rates and community service.

LINEBACKER U

63 / 20

Penn State has seen 63 linebackers selected in the NFL Draft and 20 earn first-team All-America honors.

BIG SUCCESS

INTO THE BIG

An offer was extended in 1990 from the oldest and most storied athletic conference to the iconic Blue & White. Since that day the Big Ten Conference and Penn State have been a perfect match. After playing the first 106 seasons of football as an independent, Penn State opened Big Ten play on the first day of the 1993 season vs. Minnesota and enters its 29th season as a marquee player in the conference.

BIG TE OF THE YEAR

Pat Freiermuth (left) became Penn State's first student-athlete to win the Kwalick-Clark Big Ten Tight End of the Year. Prior to a season-ending injury, Freiermuth was leading all FBS tight ends with 5.8 receptions per game and led all Big Ten tight ends with 310 receiving yards. Freiermuth ended his Penn State career catching a pass in 29-straight games. His 16 career touchdown catches are the most by a PSU tight end and rank eighth overall in program history.

CATCHING TOP HONORS

Allen Robinson won back-to-back Big Ten Richter-Howard Receiver of the Year awards in 2012 and 2013. The wideout was the first player to lead the Big Ten in receptions and yardage since 1985, compiling 2,445 yards on 174 receptions over the two seasons. Robinson's 97 catches and 1,432 yards in 2013 are both Penn State single-season records.

AND THE AWARD GOES TO...

In 29 seasons in the Big Ten, Penn State has claimed 29 individual awards, including six Defensive Player of the Year honorees and six Offensive Player of the Year winners (2016 & 2017 winner, Saquon Barkley, above). The list also includes three Freshmen of the Year and 15 positional award winners.

MAKING STOPS

In 2007, Penn State had the top two tacklers in the Big Ten, with Dan Connor (11.2, above right) and Sean Lee (10.6, above left) each averaging more than 10 tackles per game. Connor earned All-American, first team honors that season - the second of his career - while Lee was named All-Big Ten second team.

DYNAMIC DUO

ATOP THE BIG

Jason Cabinda & Brandon Bell

HEART OF A CHAMPION

The shoulders never slumped after Wisconsin built an early double-digit lead, instead the chinstraps were only cinched tighter and focus locked in by the Blue & White. Like they had all season, the Nittany Lions leaned on one another, offense supported defense and the sideline did everything possible to turn the game in favor of the Blue & White. Outscoring the Badgers, 24-3, in the second half, Penn State rallied to notch its fourth Big Ten crown since joining the conference in 1993.

James Franklin & Malik Golden

ADDING A FOURTH

Since winning its first Big Ten championship in 1994 - its second season in the conference - Penn State has consistently performed on a high-level in Big Ten play, ranking among the leaders in conference championships. The Nittany Lions brought their fourth Big Ten crown back to Happy Valley in 2016 with a victory over Wisconsin in the Big Ten Championship Game, making them one of just four teams to win at least four Big Ten titles since 1993.

GET UP, IT'S GAMEDAY

ESPN's "College GameDay" was on site for a Penn State football contest at the 2016 Big Ten Championship Game. In front of thousands of blue and white-clad supporters, Penn State alum Keegan-Michael Key represented the Nittany Lions as the show's guest picker and it was no surprise that he picked his Nittany Lions as the victor.

AIR RAID

Quarterback Trace McSorley lit up the Indianapolis skyline to the tune of a Big Ten Championship Game-record 384 passing yards and four touchdown passes, also a championship game record. It started with a scoring strike to Mike Gesicki, followed by a pair of touchdown passes to Saeed Blacknall and an 18-yard drop-in-a-bucket to Saquon Barkley on a wheel route that gave Penn State the lead for good.

Blacknall accounted for 155 of McSorley's 384 yards passing, setting a Big Ten Championship Game record. On Penn State's final offensive play of the first half, Blacknall hauled in a 40-yard touchdown reception and, on PSU's next offensive play, caught a 70-yard scoring strike from McSorley to start the second half.

POSTSEASON PROWESS

THREE NEW YEAR'S SIX BOWLS IN FOUR YEARS

Playing on New Year's Day is a dream of any college football student-athlete and Penn State has a track record of being among the last teams on the annual bowl schedule. With an invitation to the 2019 Goodyear Cotton Bowl Classic, Penn State played in its 23rd New Year's Six Bowl game. It marked the third time in four years that the Nittany Lions competed in a New Year's Six Bowl, joining appearances in Rose Bowl, to end the 2016 season, and the Fiesta Bowl, to close out the 2017 season.

Journey Brown

DOMINANCE IN DALLAS

Penn State finished the 2019 season with a 53-39 victory over Memphis in the Goodyear Cotton Bowl Classic. The Nittany Lions set or tied program bowl records for points (53), points in a half (35, first), points in a quarter (28, second) and rushing yards (396). Penn State racked up 529 total yards and scored five rushing touchdowns, tying a Cotton Bowl record.

Journey Brown rushed for a career-high 202 yards, breaking the Penn State bowl record previously set by Saquon Barkley (194 yards in 2017 Rose Bowl). Brown scored on runs of 32 and 56 yards. Micah Parsons tied a career high with 14 tackles and set career highs with three tackles for loss, two sacks and two forced fumbles. Parsons and the Nittany Lion defense held Memphis to 63 rushing yards.

FIFTY & COUNTING

The tradition began in 1923 with a trip to the West Coast and a berth in the Rose Bowl and continued in 2017 with Penn State's fourth appearance in the "Granddaddy of Them All." The 2019 Goodyear Cotton Bowl Classic marked the 50th overall appearance in the school's bowl history, which is tied for No. 9 in NCAA history.

SEVEN VICTORIES

Penn State is one of only two teams with an unblemished record in the desert (with at least three games played). The seven wins in the Fiesta Bowl are the most by any team in the bowl's history.

THAT TOOK A WHILE

The first triple overtime contest in BCS history ended with Kevin Kelly's 29-yard field goal, as Penn State toppled Florida State in 2006, 26-23, in the longest game in Orange Bowl history.

Penn State is one of two teams in Rose Bowl history (Georgia) with multiple scoring drives of 15 seconds or less. Two came against Oregon in the 1995 Rose Bowl, with Ki-Jana Carter breaking an 84-yard touchdown run and Jon Witman rumbled in from 9 yards out after a Ducks turnover for the scores. In the 2017 Rose Bowl, Trace McSorley found Chris Godwin for a 72-yard scoring strike, before McSorley converted a USC turnover into six points on the next snap.

HOMETOWN GUY

Koa Farmer (above) grew up just 15 miles from the Rose Bowl, but on February 5, 2014, the Lake View Terrace, California native decided to travel 2,500 miles to be a member of the Penn State football program with the hope of playing in the "Granddaddy of Them All." On Jan. 2, 2017, the Nittany Lions, with Farmer starting at linebacker, gave him a homecoming he will never forget.

LONG BEFORE KEITH JACKSON DUBBED IT THE "GRANDDADDY OF THEM ALL," PENN STATE'S HISTORY IN THE NATION'S MOST PRESTIGIOUS POSTSEASON GAME BEGAN. THE 1923 INVITATION TO THE ROSE BOWL STARTED PENN STATE'S LEGACY AS ONE OF THE MOST SOUGHT-AFTER BOWL PARTICIPANTS IN THE COUNTRY.

QUICK STRIKE

In four appearances, Penn State's offense has been as fast at scoring as any other program in Rose Bowl history. Of the 15 fastest scoring drives, the Nittany Lions own five of them. The Blue & White and Georgia are the only programs with multiple scoring efforts in 15 seconds or fewer, with Trace McSorley's 5-second touchdown run in the 2017 contest the fastest score in the event's history.

THOSE HALLOWED HALLS

When you walk around the Pro Football Hall of Fame, you will find the bronze profiles of six Nittany Lions. Inside the College Football Hall of Fame, you will view 25 individuals with Penn State ties.

Penn State is one of 12 schools to have six or more representatives in the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Jack Ham, Franco Harris, Mike Michalske, Lenny Moore, Mike Munchak and Dave Robinson are all enshrined in Canton, Ohio for their accomplishments on the field of play.

THE LEGACY CONTINUES

With Kerry Collins a member of the 2018 class, Penn State now has 24 players and coaches who are members of the College Football Hall of Fame. Five coaches and 19 players have earned their way into college football's Hall of Fame, with five of them being running backs and four more playing on both offense and defense during their careers.

The 25th inductee with Penn State ties was former Nittany Lion Bill Bowes, who was enshrined in 2016 for his accomplishments as the head coach at New Hampshire.

One of the nation's most sought after postseason programs also has its fair share of student-athletes enshrined in bowl game Halls of Fame. Most notable are Ki-Jana Carter (Rose), Lydell Mitchell (Cotton), Wally Triplett (Cotton) and Dave Robinson (Gator). Penn State also has five honorees in the Orange Bowl Hall of Fame, including Joe Paterno, who is also a member of the Gator Bowl Hall of Fame.

NATIONAL AWARD WINNERS

A STANDARD OF SUCCESS

When Richie Lucas claimed the Maxwell Award, given to the outstanding player in college football, in 1959, he set the standard for success at Penn State. Since that season, 37 Nittany Lions have either won or been named finalists for 69 major college football awards.

NASSIB ADDS TO HARDWARE

In 2015, Carl Nassib exploded onto the college football scene, as the former walk-on led the NCAA in sacks and forced fumbles, setting the school standard for sacks in a season with 15.5. For his efforts on the field and in the classroom, Nassib claimed a trio of national awards, winning the Lott IMPACT Trophy, Rotary Lombardi Award and the Ted Hendricks Award. He was named a finalist for six awards in 2015, the second-most all-time by a Penn State football student-athlete.

Carl Nassib

John Cappelletti

HEISMAN INSPIRATION

A running back built in steel country, Pennsylvania, John Cappelletti's 1973 season was highlighted by winning the Heisman Trophy. In what is considered the most moving speech ever given at the ceremonies, Cappelletti spoke from the heart about his brother, Joey, who was battling leukemia at the time. "A lot of people think I go through a lot...Only for me it is on Saturdays and it's only in the fall. For Joseph, it is all year round and it is a battle that is unending...He has always been a great inspiration to me."

Paul Posluszny made things happen on the field for the Blue & White and for that he was named a finalist for national awards a school-record seven times. He was a three-time winner, twice claiming the Bednarik Award for Defensive Player of the Year and earning one Butkus Award for the nation's top linebacker.

THREE FOR THREE

Running back Larry Johnson broke the Penn State single-game rushing record on three occasions in 2002, helping him win all three major awards in which he was named a finalist — Doak Walker, Maxwell and Walter Camp. He also finished third in the Heisman Trophy voting that season behind a pair of quarterbacks in Carson Palmer (winner) and Brad Banks.

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

Offensive linemen don't often get the credit they deserve on or off the field. John Urschel changed that, as he earned a pair of the most distinguished awards a college student-athlete can attain. He was named the William V. Campbell Trophy winner, the academic Heisman, and earned the James E. Sullivan Award, bestowed by the AAU upon the nation's top amateur athlete.

SIX IN '78

The 1978 team watched as a school-record six student-athletes were named first-team All-Americans. Ken Dorney earned his second-straight first-team nod, while Bruce Clark earned his first of two selections. Matt Bahr, Chuck Fusina, Pete Harris and Matt Millen also garnered the most heralded distinction in college football.

MULTIPLE FIRST-TEAMERS

Having one first-team All-American is a big deal, however, on 11 occasions the Penn State football program has placed three-or-more student-athletes on the top All-America squad. It first happened in 1969 and last occurred during the 2002 campaign.

The list reads like a veritable who's who of college football lore. From W.T. "Mother" Dunn in 1906 to Glenn Ressler in 1964. Ted Kwalick in 1967 and 1968 to Kyle Brady in 1994. It's names like Arrington, Bahr, Barkley, Collins, Mauti and Zordich. The list goes on and on, and college football's best continually put on the blue and white uniform to play for those who have come before them and continue laying the foundation for one of college football's most storied programs.

ALL-AMERICANS

LIVING UP TO THE MONIKER

Many times when college athletics are mentioned, the term “student-athlete” is used and at Penn State that is held with the highest regard. Seventeen different Penn Staters have earned both Academic All-America honors and on-field All-America honors (1st, 2nd or 3rd team) during their respective careers.

W.T. “Mother” Dunn led Penn State to an 8-1-1 record, as the center captained a team that shut out nine of its 10 opponents. Dunn was selected a first-team All-American by Walter Camp at the age of 29.

THREE IN A ROW

The latest in the line of two-time first-team All-Americans is Dan Connor, who earned the honors in 2006 and 2007. A year after he watched teammate Paul Posluszny win the Bednarik Award in 2006, Connor claimed the award given to the Nation's Defensive Player of the Year in 2007.

FORTY

Penn State has seen 40 different student-athletes named consensus All-American for 43 honors, including 10 since 2000. Of those 40, there have been 14 Penn Staters to earn unanimous All-America selection, with Saguon Barkley doing so in 2017.

HIGH FIVE

The 1994 squad placed an NCAA-best five student-athletes on the All-America first team, including unanimous pick Ki-Jana Carter, consensus selection Kerry Collins, along with Kyle Brady, Bobby Engram and Jeff Hartings.

DEFENSE AND OFFENSE

Linebacker Dennis Onkotz and tight end Ted Kwalick each earned All-America first-team honors in 1968 and both were two-time first-team selections in their respective careers. Kwalick earned his second nod in 1967, while Onkotz was also a first-teamer in 1969.

GAME DAY IN HAPPY VALLEY

"IF THIS ISN'T ONE OF THE BEST PLACES IN AMERICA, I DON'T KNOW THE OTHER ONE."

— Lee Corso, ESPN's "College GameDay"

IT TAKES A VILLAGE

It isn't just about the team arrival or the battle on the field; game day is about the cumulative efforts of everyone involved. From Nittanyville to the Penn State Blue Band, the spirit squads to the 'S' Zone, or the tailgaters to the ticket takers, every Penn Stater has a hand in making Happy Valley the best show in college football.

NITTANYVILLE

It's not the postal service, but Nittanyville's dedication to make Beaver Stadium the toughest venue in college football is unmatched. No matter sun, rain, snow or dead of night, Nittanyville is always there to create an avalanche of sound.

GAMEDAY BUILT IN HAPPY VALLEY

ESPN's "College GameDay" made the trek to Happy Valley for the first time in 1999 for the season-opening contest between No. 3 Penn State and No. 4 Arizona. The Nittany Lions have hosted the GameDay crew on nine occasions, including the 2019 Penn State White Out game vs. Michigan.

Sports Illustrated dubbed it the "Greatest Show in College Football," however Penn State fans refer to it simply as Saturday. Other than packing the nation's second-largest stadium with nearly 107,000 screaming fans, many more make the trek to campus to enjoy tailgating and camaraderie and maybe some of the famous Berkey Creamery ice cream.

When 107,000 fans reach full throat inside Beaver Stadium, the defense must have forced a third down or the Nittany Lion is dancing around celebrating a score. However, with so many fans, tickets are not easy to come by. More than 85,000 seats are sold on a season ticket basis each year, including 21,000 student season ticket holders.

THE TRADITION CONTINUES

As they have for years, the Penn State football team arrives at Beaver Stadium via the classic Blue Buses, however, they no longer take the left-hand turn onto Curtin Road. The team now exits the caravan at the corner of Porter and Curtin and the team walks through a sea of cheering fans on the way into Beaver Stadium.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL'S UNRIVALED SETTING

107K STRONG

Penn State fans fill Beaver Stadium to the brim every fall, providing an electric and exciting atmosphere for the Nittany Lions each Saturday inside the nation's second-largest venue. The eruption of 107,000 blue and white clad fans fill the valley as the team emerges from the South Tunnel and the steel foundation of the stadium shakes when "Zombie Nation" pumps through the speakers on a pivotal third-down stand.

3rd

The University Park campus becomes the third-largest city in Pennsylvania on game days, contributing to the local economy to the tune of $40 million annually.

PENN STATE WHITE OUT

On October 9, 2004, 21,000 students clad in white set the wheels in motion for one of the most replicated experiences in college sports, the Penn State White Out. The phenomenon evolved from a student-only event into a full stadium White Out in 2007.

GONE IN A FLASH

The No. 1 student section in the nation [NCAA.com, 2014] has sold out consistently for over four decades, with many of those sellouts occurring in just minutes. The 2019 allotment sold out, with the freshman, sophomore, junior and senior classes each taking under 17 minutes to gather up nearly 21,000 tickets.

HAPPY VALLEY

PLAN AN ADVENTURE

Looking to add some adventure to your life? State College was named one of National Geographic's Top 100 Adventure Towns. From the Waffle Shop to Mt. Nittany, local music and fly fishing, Penn State's central Pennsylvania positioning makes Happy Valley a hidden gem.

The Central Pennsylvania Festival of the Arts (Arts Fest) brings more than 125,000 people to Happy Valley over five days each July. The Festival is one of the nation's premier outdoor fine art events made possible by tremendous community support to produce a unique cultural experience.

WE ARE... A COLLEGE TOWN

Using a matrix of a dozen factors, including livability, education, safety and activities, Reviews.org rated State College as the No. 6 College Town, including the top campus in the Commonwealth. The University Park campus is also known as a top-25 public university and one of the top destinations for student-athletes in the country via Niche.com.

THERE FROM THE START

"The Corner Room" located on the corner of South Allen Street and College Avenue has been a State College staple since 1855. Originally named "Jack's Roadhouse," the establishment became the "The Corner Room" in 1926 and has been going strong ever since.

"Old Willow," planted in 1859 by William Waring, was revered for its ties to several campus traditions and lived on The Mall until 1976. Though the original tree perished in 1921, it was replaced multiple times by cuttings grown from it, until disease took the last tree at the spot in 1976. A Penn State historical marker sits at the site of "Old Willow" to highlight its place on the National Register of Historic Places.

16,000+

Fans pack the Bryce Jordan Center for special events and athletic contests. Acts have included Garth Brooks, Brantley Gilbert, Billy Joel, Kevin Hart, Bruce Springsteen and Jay Z. In 2013, a then-NCAA record crowd of 15,996 spectators watched the three-time defending National Champion Penn State wrestling squad take down Pittsburgh in the venue.

From Eisenhower Auditorium to Beaver Stadium, Penn Staters flock to every speaker, performance and event on campus. The Nittany Lion faithful enjoy some of the most historic venues, like Rec Hall, while laying claim to the most state-of-the-art buildings, like Pegula Ice Arena, as well.

A classic college town located in the Nittany Valley, State College is renowned for its beauty, charm and youthful lifestyle.

Quaint shops and popular restaurants share the cozy downtown area with contemporary retail stores and gathering spots for locals and students alike.

And it all lies in the shadow of the legendary Mt. Nittany in what is affectionately known as "Happy Valley."

TRUE COLORS

Penn State's student-athletes are instantly identified by their blue and white uniforms — but those weren't the original school colors. In October 1887, the student body unanimously chose dark pink and black. After the pink faded to white on many of the uniforms, the students opted for blue - in place of black - and white as the official school colors. The iconic blue and white became official on March 18, 1890.

In 1999, the Penn State Lion Ambassadors, the student alumni corps, revived one of the oldest traditions in college football - the Block 'S' - in the student section at Beaver Stadium. Now, 700 underclassmen don coordinated blue and white t-shirts to create the giant block 'S' each home Saturday. On Homecoming, the 'S' Zone bears the school's original colors of pink and black to pay homage.

THE LION SHRINE

Penn State's Lion Shrine was dedicated on Oct. 24, 1942, during Homecoming weekend. The 13-ton block of Indiana limestone was molded into the most recognizable symbol of Penn State by renowned sculpture Heinz Warneke. A gift of the Class of 1940, it rests in a natural setting of trees near the Recreation Building (Rec Hall) and is the second-most photographed landmark in the state of Pennsylvania.

The Lion Shrine's home was improved and enhanced thanks to a gift from the Class of 2012.

WE ARE

In the 1970s, the cheerleaders sought out a new cheer and so was born, “We Are... Penn State.” The cheer didn’t catch on right away, but it caught hold in the early 1980s and now echoes through Beaver Stadium each Saturday in the fall. The cheerleaders later added “Thank You...You’re Welcome.”

The first use of the phrase “We are Penn State” is often attributed to football All-American Steve Suhey. A captain on the 1947 Cotton Bowl team, Suhey used the phrase as the team, an early racially-integrated unit, was faced with several situations in which Penn State’s African-American players were not welcome to participate. Pointing at all of his teammates, Suhey said “We’re Penn State and we play together, or we don’t play.”

The Class of 2013 chose to have this slogan immortalized with a sculpture serving as a visual representation of what it means to be a Penn Stater. Created by Penn State alumnus Johnathan Cramer, the sculpture is made out of mirror-polished, stainless steel. The 12-foot-tall sculpture rests on a stone base and is located in the shadow of Beaver Stadium at the corner of Curtin Road and University Drive.

PENN STATE STAPLES

Old Main: Originally erected in the 1850s, the current Old Main has been in use since 1930. Used as student and staff housing in the early days, Old Main is now the administrative hub of the University Park campus. The clock tower was a gift from the Class of 1904 and was moved from the original building to the top of Old Main.

Protecting Our Turf: It is often said that the sun never sets on Penn State turfgrass surfaces. This is made possible through the Penn State Center for Turfgrass Science, a program that has been at the forefront of cutting edge research in its field since 1929.

Berkey Creamery: Dairy research began at Penn State in 1865, and the Creamery has been setting milestones ever since. From Baskin-Robbins to Haagen-Dazs, industry pros flock to Penn State to learn how to craft ice cream perfection.

THON: A student-run philanthropy committed to enhancing the lives of children and families impacted by childhood cancer, the Penn State IFC/Panhellenic Dance Marathon is a year-long effort, which culminates with a 46-hour dance marathon. The event has raised more than $180 million in its history for Four Diamonds at Penn State Hershey Children’s Hospital.

The HUB: Since the 1920s, Penn State students had been clamoring for a central gathering place, but it wasn’t until 1953 that vision became reality in what was known as the Hetzel Union Building. After a handful of temporary locations, the University broke ground on what is now named the HUB-Robeson Center, the most highly trafficked building on campus, spanning 305,000 square feet.

ON THE COVER

A PICTURE IS WORTH A THOUSAND WORDS

When a dramatic image graces the cover of a national publication, you no doubt find yourself immersed in the story. Penn State football is among the select few universities to have the staying power to continually see its images grace the covers of numerous national publications, creating memories for its student-athletes and all of Nittany Nation.

GIVING BACK

IN THE COMMUNITY

The Penn State football program has long prided itself on being active in the community and giving back to those that give so much to Penn State University. From participating in THON and Special Olympics, Penn State also volunteers countless hours to making sure the community knows their daily efforts are appreciated.

RECORD-BREAKING SERVICE

In 2016-17, the offensive unit claimed Penn State's CHAMPS Cup for community outreach for the second-straight year. As a team, the Nittany Lions have compiled more than 10,000 hours of community service-related activities since head coach James Franklin arrived on campus, including a program record 2,200 hours in 2015-16.

In each of the last five seasons, Penn State has accumulated more than 2,000 hours of community service.

HELPING OTHERS WITH NEEDS

The initiatives that Penn State football student-athletes are active with include Special Olympics, THON, United Way Day of Caring and Giving Tuesday. Along with those - and many others — the Blue & White consistently host groups at Lasch Building as a way of reaching out to the local community.

STILL GIVING

Staying connected is also something Penn Staters do and that is no different with football alumni. Devon Still and his daughter, Leah, came back to THON in 2016 to speak to the crowd. Leah was diagnosed with stage 4 neuroblastoma in 2015. She battled and beat cancer.

LIFT FOR LIFE

A CALL FOR ACTION

When Scott Shirley's father was diagnosed with kidney cancer in 2003, his family was told the disease didn't typically respond to traditional treatments, which made it rare and therefore didn't attract research and development. That wasn't good enough for his teammates, who used the platform as student-athletes to give the fight against rare diseases a voice — and thus Lift For Life was born.

Lift For Life is organized and run by Uplifting Athletes, a non-profit organization that inspires the rare disease community with hope through the power of sport. The national network of chapters is run by current football student-athletes, providing them with an opportunity to gain practical job skills while learning how to leverage their assets and abilities to make a positive and lasting impact.

RAISING THE BAR

For 17 summers the Penn State football team has gathered for Lift For Life, and though the format has changed from strictly weight lifting-based to a team fitness test format, the fans continue to come out and support. A program-record $150,990 was raised during the 2014 event. After bringing in $51,344 in 2019, the all-time total has been pushed to nearly $1.5 million raised to benefit patient-focused programs and rare disease research.

MAN BEHIND THE MISSION

With a master's in engineering, Scott Shirley (3rd from left) began his professional career designing buildings - his dream job - but upon his father's passing from kidney cancer in 2005, Uplifting Athletes became his mission. First, as a hobby, Shirley soon realized that the cause needed full time attention, so he packed up and moved home to get the non-profit off the ground in 2007. From two schools in 2007, Uplifting Athletes now has 24 chapters from coast-to-coast.

While the event was fun to watch, the Uplifting Athletes leadership thought there might be a way to get the younger fans more involved. So, in 2015 they decided to add the first ever Kids Combine, where the newest Nittany Lions - incoming freshmen - interacted with boys and girls, while running them through an NFL Combine-style event.

Presented annually to recognize a leader in the world of college football to make a positive and lasting impact on the rare disease community, the 2013 Uplifting Athletes Rare Disease Champion Award was bestowed upon Nittany Lion offensive lineman Eric Shrive (above). During his Penn State career, Shrive personally raised more than $112,000 to benefit the fight against kidney cancer.

MORE THAN A DEGREE

Todd Blackledge (center)

NATION'S LARGEST

The Penn State Alumni Association ranks as the largest organization of its kind among colleges and universities. There are more than 700,000 Penn State alumni worldwide. They are active in their University and they love football.

Penn Staters have distinguished themselves in a wide variety of professions. Former Nittany Lions are company presidents, business owners and leaders in the financial world. Others are lawyers, doctors, dentists, engineers, teachers, coaches, computer and technology specialists, administrators, consultants, supervisors and members of the media, to name just a few of the professions.

In 2018, LinkedIn named Penn State University as the No. 2 institution in the country for graduating CEOs. Penn State has three current CEOs of Fortune 500 companies.

KEEGAN-MICHAEL KEY

Earning his Master of Fine Arts degree from the University Park campus, Keegan-Michael Key may have done his best impression when playing head coach James Franklin during a team meeting in 2015. Key returned to campus as the Grand Marshal of Penn State's Homecoming in 2015 and again mimicked Coach Franklin during the 2018 Blue-White Game, leading the team out of the tunnel from halftime. The actor, writer and comedian is best known for his roles on "MADtv" and "Key & Peele", while also appearing on shows like "ER," "Fargo" and "Whose Line is it Anyway?"

LEADER OF THE PRIDE

PENNSYLVANIA KID WITH A PENN STATE HEART

From Langhorne, Pennsylvania, a Philadelphia suburb, James Franklin spent many summers in Pittsburgh during his youth, and graduated from East Stroudsburg University. He was a two-time All-Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference (PSAC) selection at quarterback, breaking or tying 23 school records during his career. Franklin coached one season at his alma mater and one year at Kutztown University, another PSAC institution.

The passion and vision that Franklin has for the Penn State program is built on a foundation of four core values: a positive attitude, unrivaled work-ethic, compete in everything you do and the willingness to sacrifice for the good of the group.

Just days before he was named the Nittany Lions' head coach, the engaging Franklin was in Pasadena, California, appearing on multiple ESPN platforms throughout the day during the network's coverage of the BCS National Championship Game in the Rose Bowl. Franklin began 2015 in Fort Worth, Texas as a part of ESPN's College Football Playoff National Championship Game coverage on College Football Live. He also provided analysis for the FOX's pregame, halftime and postgame coverage of the Big Ten Championship Game in 2015.

FAMILY MAN

When you are a football coach, you spend a lot of time at the office and on the field, however, James Franklin likes to say he has two daughters - Shola & Addison - and 125 sons and every decision he makes is based on that premise.

Franklin still owns the single-game record for rushing yards by a quarterback at East Stroudsburg, piling up 150 yards on 28 carries vs. Southern Connecticut State in 1994. Franklin left as East Stroudsburg's single-season total offense (3,129) and passing yardage (2,586) record holder. He finished his career as the all-time leader in quarterback rushing yards (1,077), becoming the first quarterback in school history to ever rush for 1,000 yards.

HEAD COACHING SUCCESS

In his 10 years as a head coach, Franklin has guided his teams to the postseason in nine seasons, including a victories in the 2017 PlayStation Fiesta Bowl and 2019 Goodyear Cotton Bowl Classic. In 2014, Franklin led Penn State to an overtime victory in the New Era Pinstripe Bowl, claiming a 31-30 victory inside Yankee Stadium, he guided the Blue & White to the 2016 TaxSlayer Bowl and arrived at the 2017 Rose Bowl as the Big Ten champion. The Nittany Lions concluded the 2018 season at the VRBO Citrus Bowl. Additionally, Franklin led Vanderbilt to three bowl appearances, including consecutive bowl wins for the first time in program history, winning the Music City Bowl over NC State and the BBVA Compass Bowl vs. Houston. The Commodores had played in four bowl games in the 121 seasons prior to his arrival; none in consecutive years.

Franklin has been instrumental in bringing success to every stop in his coaching career. His tenure as head coach at Vanderbilt was historic, as he led the Commodores to consecutive Top 25 finishes, a pair of nine-win seasons and two bowl victories, all for the first time in school history. During the 2013 season, Vanderbilt defeated Florida, Georgia and Tennessee all in the same season for the first time in program history. At Maryland, he helped the Terrapins improve from 5-6 the year before he arrived to a 10-plus win team in his second, third and fourth years on the coaching staff.

Franklin enters his 27th season in coaching, and 26th at the collegiate level, including 10 years as a head coach at Penn State and Vanderbilt. He also spent one season with the NFL's Green Bay Packers as the wide receivers coach.

BUILDING THE PRIDE

Defensive Coordinator and Linebackers Coach Brent Pry hails from just 40 miles southwest of State College in Altoona. He has coached 57 All-Big Ten selections and three All-America honorees over the last seven seasons. Pry first met head coach James Franklin at East Stroudsburg when Franklin was a quarterback and Pry served as an assistant coach.

Offensive Coordinator and Quarterbacks Coach Mike Yurcich arrives in Happy Valley after leading Texas to a 42.7 scoring average. In 15 years as an offensive coordinator, Yurcich's offenses have averaged 6.49 yards per play, first among OCs since 2013, and 14.03 yards per completion, which is first among Power Five OC's in that time frame.

Special Teams Coordinator, Outside Linebackers and Nickels coach Joe Lorig owns 24 years of college coaching experience, including eight years as a special teams coordinator. His "Change The Game" vision helped his units to rank among the top five in the FBS in kick return average twice in the last five years and return nine kickoffs for touchdowns in the past five seasons.

Co-Defensive Coordinator and Safeties Coach Anthony Poindexter joined the Nittany Lion coaching staff after spending the last four seasons in the same position at Purdue. As a player at Virginia, Poindexter was the ACC Defensive Player of the Year and earned three first-team All-ACC recognitions. He was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2020.

Tight Ends Coach Ty Howle returned to his alma mater before the 2020 season, serving as an Offensive Analyst. He was a four-year letterman for the Nittany Lions, starting at center and left guard and appearing in 47 career games. Howle made coaching stops at NC State and Western Illinois before returning to Penn State.

Wide Receivers Coach Taylor Stubblefield's first season at Penn State featured Jahan Dotson garnering honorable mention All-America honors after leading the Big Ten in receiving yards and Parker Washington being named a Freshman All-American. Stubblefield was a consensus All-American and Biletnikoff Award finalist at Purdue, where he set a Big Ten record with 325 career receptions.

Offensive Line Coach Phil Trautwein has guided 13 All-conference lineman over the last three seasons between Penn State and Boston College. Trautwein was recently named to the American Football Coaches Association class of 2021 "35 under 35" list and was the only Big Ten coach and only offensive line coach on the list. He was a two-time All-SEC selection as a left tackle at Florida.

Run Game Coordinator and Running Backs Coach Ja'Juan Seider arrived on the University Park campus in 2018 and immediately made his mark on the field and recruiting. Rated as the No. 8 recruiter in 2019 by 247Sports.com, Seider guided Miles Sanders to a 1,000-yard season and an All-Big Ten selection.

Defensive Line Coach John Scott Jr. mentored first-team All-Big Ten defensive ends Jayson Oweh and Shaka Toney in his first year at Penn State. Oweh was drafted in the first round, 31st overall, by the Baltimore Ravens. Prior to Penn State, Scott brought seven years of experience coaching at the Power Five and NFL levels.

As a player and coach, Terry Smith has spent 11 years with the Blue & White.

Smith tallied 108 receptions and scored 15 touchdowns as a student-athlete before being drafted by the Washington Redskins in 1992.

Associate Head Coach, Defensive Recruiting Coordinator and Cornerbacks Coach Terry Smith played for the Nittany Lions from 1988-91 and remains as one of the program's most decorated wide receivers. His passion for the Blue & White shows in his coaching and recruiting, working with nine All-Big Ten selections and helping secure five-consecutive Top 25 recruiting classes.

LASCH FOOTBALL COMPLEX

THE LASCH LEGACY

The Mildred & Louis Lasch Football Complex is the headquarters for Penn State football. The complex houses everything that the coaching staff and student-athletes need to be successful - on and off the field - on a daily basis. From the pristinely manicured outdoor practice fields to the Morgan Academic Center and everything in between, the Lasch Football Complex is a one-stop shop.

SECOND TO NONE

The Lasch Football Complex houses two full-size natural grass surfaces, one full-sized turf field outdoor and a full-sized turf surface inside Holuba Hall, as well as a newly-renovated player's lounge, fully-stocked nutrition bar, coaches offices, meeting rooms, athletic training facilities, whirlpool therapy room and a recently-renovated team locker room.

UPGRADING THE LAIR

Opened in 2000, the Lasch Football Complex has received a face lift each year since 2016. In 2016, modern updates were completed in the lobby, team locker room, athletic training facilities and various other corridors of the structure. The 21st century design features powerful and progressive themes that keep in line with the clean, classic Penn State tradition. The locker room concept continues the classic Penn State theme and features a new ceiling design with an integrated logo and new multi-functional lockers. The team auditorium was upgraded during the spring of 2018 and showcases the Penn State football core values with imagery displayed throughout the room, along with branding and a display for Penn State's National Championship trophies, which is a visual reminder of the on and off field expectations that head coach James Franklin has for his program. Recent projects have included renovations to the players' lounge, position rooms and hallways, as well as the addition of an influencer chamber.

IRON LIONS

THE SAYING GOES...

As iron sharpens iron, so one man sharpens another, and the John and Willie Leone Family Strength and Conditioning Center is where the Nittany Lions lay the foundation for success on the field. The veterans lead the newcomers in showing them exactly what is expected on a daily basis.

FOLLOWING A MASTER

Dwight Galt, the Assistant Athletics Director for Performance Enhancement, earned the prestigious distinction as a Master Strength and Conditioning Coach, while also holding his certification from the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches' Association.

Galt has worked with some of the top testers at the NFL Combine, including Saquon Barkley, Vernon Davis, Darrius Heyward-Bey, Shawn Merriman, Jayson Oweh and Micah Parsons.

HITTING THE WEIGHTS & REFUELING

More than 20,000 pounds of free weights stack on 24 stations inside the walls of the strength and conditioning center. Each station is prepared for every rep and set and contains equipment for full body workouts.

A state-of-the-art nutrition bar facility sits adjacent to the 13,000-square-foot strength and conditioning center, which is designed to provide pre- and post-workout fueling. The station features six Vitamix blenders for high volume smoothie making, refrigerators, coolers, shelves and display areas for more than 20 different products.

Master Strength and Conditioning coaches on Penn State's football staff.

Associate Director of Performance Enhancement Chuck Losey earned the distinction as a Master Strength and Conditioning Coach from the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association in 2016, joining Assistant Athletics Director for Performance Enhancement Dwight Galt on the Nittany Lion football staff.

PURSuing A DEGREE

"GROUP STUDY, PRIVATE TUTORING AND SOMETIMES A GOOD KICK IN THE REAR IS AVAILABLE TO EVERYONE. WE ARE VERY PROUD OF OUR ACADEMIC SUCCESS AND WORK HARD EVERY DAY TO MAKE SURE IT CONTINUES AND OUR STUDENT-ATHLETES LEAVE HERE WITH A VALUABLE EDUCATION AND A DEGREE."

– Todd Kulka

The Morgan Academic Center is a vital component in keeping Penn State's academic services and the academic performance of its 800 student-athletes at the forefront among the nation's premier Division I institutions. Todd Kulka and his staff keep the Penn State football program among the nation's top performers in the classroom with an 85 percent graduation rate.

UNDER ONE ROOF

The $7.2 million renovation of the former Greenberg Ice Pavilion gave the building new life and now serves as the 32,000-square-foot Morgan Academic Center. The academic services and support hub and its staff serve all 800 Penn State student-athletes in one physical location for the first time.

Among the numerous features in the new Morgan Academic Center are: staff offices for the student-athlete development and welfare unit, academic counselors, learning specialists and a sports psychologist; 15 collaborative learning rooms; two conference rooms; classroom space; three large study rooms; two open reading rooms; computer lab; student lounge; fueling station and displays of student-athlete academic recognition through the years and benefactor recognition.

2021 OUTLOOK NOTES

ILLINOIS IS HOMECOMING Foe

- When the alumni return to Happy Valley for the 2021 Homecoming game, the Penn State faithful will cheer their Nittany Lions on against Illinois on Oct. 5.
- This is the fourth time Penn State will square off against Illinois in a Homecoming game. The Nittany Lions are 2-1 against the Fighting Illini in those games with wins in 2000 (39-25) and 2006 (26-12) and a loss in 2010 (33-13).
- Penn State owns a 72-23-5 record all-time on Homecoming, including wins in 12 of its last 15 games.

SUSTAINED EXCELLENCE

- Prior to 2020, Penn State and Wisconsin were the only Big Ten teams to have posted a winning season the last 15 consecutive years.
- Penn State was one of five teams (Boise State, LSU, Oklahoma, Wisconsin) in the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) to have a winning record each of the last 15 years.
- Penn State holds the FBS record for most consecutive seasons without a losing record at 49 (1939-87).

ACADEMIC SUCCESS

- The Nittany Lions had 29 players selected as Academic All-Big Ten honorees in Fall 2020.
- A program record 10 Nittany Lions were named 2020-21 Big Ten Distinguished Scholars.
- Penn State posted its first 1,000 single-year APR in program history in 2018-19, topping the previous high of 993 in 2014-15.
- In the 2020 fall semester, 37 student-athletes made Dean's List (3.5 GPA or higher) and 86 posted a 3.0 GPA or higher with the University's alternative COVID-19 grading system in place.

COACHING STAFF CHANGES

- The Nittany Lion coaching staff will have three new faces for the 2021 season.
- Penn State added offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach Mike Yurich, tight ends coach Ty Howle and co-defensive coordinator/safeties coach Anthony Poindexter.
- Yurich, who has 22 years of collegiate coaching experience, including 15 as an offensive coordinator, joins the Nittany Lions after spending the 2020 season at Texas as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach.
- In his career as an FBS offensive coordinator, Yurich's offenses have averaged 6.49 yards per play, which ranks first among OCs since 2013 and 14.03 yards per completion, which is first among Power Five OCs in that timeframe.
- Howle, a Penn State Football letterman, served as an offensive analyst for the Nittany Lions in 2020, working closely with offensive line coach Phil Trautwein and former tight ends coach Tyler Bowen.
- During his 18-year coaching stint at the collegiate level, Poindexter has made stops at Virginia, UConn and Purdue. He's spent seven seasons with either a defensive coordinator or co-defensive coordinator title, including three years as the defensive coordinator at UConn (2014-16).

NON-CONFERENCE SUCCESS

- Penn State went 3-0 in non-conference play in 2018 and 2019.
- Penn State has won eleven consecutive games over non-conference opponents during the regular season, dating back to a win over Temple in 2016.
- Under James Franklin (since 2014), Penn State is 18-2 against non-conference opposition during the regular season and 21-5 when including bowl games.

900 WINS

- Penn State won its 900th game in program history with a 23-7 victory over Rutgers on Dec. 5, 2020.
- PSU became the nation's eighth program to reach 900 wins, joining Michigan (964), Ohio State (931), Alabama (929), Texas (923), Notre Dame (918), Oklahoma (917) and Nebraska (905).
- Penn State has the 10th-best winning percentage in the FBS (.688, 902-398-42).

FANS FLOCK TO BEAVER STADIUM

- Penn State ranked second in FBS with an average attendance of 105,678 in 2019.
- Three Big Ten teams led the nation, with Michigan ranking first (111,459) and Ohio State (103,383) trailing the Nittany Lions in third.
- The attendance total of 110,669 for the Michigan game was the fourth largest in Beaver Stadium history and the most since 110,889 packed Beaver Stadium in 2018 vs. Ohio State. It also marked the 10th-largest crowd to watch Penn State in any stadium.
- All six of Penn State's home games in 2019 ranked in the top 20 single-game attendance figures.
- The Penn State Student Section has consistently sold out for four decades, showing the unwavering passion and dedication of Penn State students.
- The Penn State Student Section was named the Taco Bell Live Más Student Section of the Year in 2019.

2021 OUTLOOK NOTES

2021 GAME THEMES

- The 2021 Penn State Football season will once again have a plethora of themes to go along with its home games.
- The 2021 game themes are as follows:
- Ball State, September 11: 107K Family Reunion
- Auburn, September 18: Penn State White Out
- Villanova, September 25: THON Game
- Indiana, October 2: Penn State Stripe Out
- Illinois, October 23: Homecoming; Generations of Greatness
- Michigan, November 13: Student Section Penn State White Out
- Rutgers, November 20: Senior Day; Military Appreciation Day; Seats for Servicemembers

Wide receiver Parker Washington was named a Freshman All-America second team selection by The Athletic following the 2020 season.

HOME SWEET HOME

- With a 299-77 all-time record in Beaver Stadium, Penn State owns the sixth-best winning percentage (.795) in its current home venue amongst current FBS schools and leads the Big Ten.
- Only Alabama (.834) and Oklahoma (.814) have higher winning percentages in facilities older than Beaver Stadium.

PENN STATE VS. THE BIG TEN

- Penn State is 32-13 in the Big Ten since 2016.
- PSU won 13 consecutive games against Big Ten opponents from 2016-17, breaking its record of 12 from 1993-94.
- Penn State owns a 226-110-3 mark against Big Ten Conference teams since the Nittany Lions first opposed Ohio State in 1912.
- The Nittany Lions began play as a member of the Big Ten Conference in 1993 and have a 144-86 mark.
- Penn State played 109 games vs. the current Big Ten alignment when either or both Penn State itself (prior to 1993) or the opponent (Nebraska prior to 2011; Maryland and Rutgers prior to 2014) was not yet a member of the Big Ten. The Nittany Lions went 80-26-3 in those games.

LIONS UNDER THE LIGHTS

- The 2021 season marks the 21st straight with at least one regular-season night game on the schedule.
- In 2019, Penn State played its most regular-season night games in program history with four primetime tilts.
- Penn State is 55-32 at night all-time. The figure breaks down to 16-11 at home, 27-14 on the road and 12-7 in neutral site games.

Roster as of July 1, 2021

Note: Penn State Athletics chose to advance classes as though 2020-21 was a normal year of eligibility. Student-athletes listed as redshirt freshmen in 2021-22 did not officially redshirt in 2020-21, but would have in any other normal year. Extra years of eligibility will be marked on the back end of student-athletes' career (a "+" symbol will be added on the end of "Sr." to indicate the extra year of eligibility being used).

NITTANY LION CLUB

FOREVER BLUE & WHITE Athletic Endowments

Join Penn State's proud athletic tradition. This is an opportunity to link your name in perpetuity with the accomplishments of all of Penn State's athletic teams.

By endowing a specific playing or coaching position on a team of your choice, you will help ensure that the University will always have funds available for expenses such as room and board, tuition and books; and that Penn State will be able to employ a first-rate coaching staff that will set a positive example for our young men and women.

As of July 2021, 28 benefactors already have seized the chance to endow a football position for the White Squad (see diagram below). Most of the Blue Squad remains available.

This program is open to all positions on any of Penn State's 31 intercollegiate athletic teams in consideration of a gift of $300,000 and for a minimum commitment of $50,000 you can establish a named endowed scholarship to support the team of your choice.

Coaching endowments also are available in all 31 sports, with gift levels for assistant coaches starting at $500,000 and head coaches starting at $1 million. Patrick and Candace Malloy previously created the Malloy Paterno Head Football Coach Endowment at Penn State.

The Malloys' gift will provide important resources for the football program. Income from the Malloy Paterno Head Football Coach Endowment will be directed, at the head coach's discretion and with approval from the Vice President of Intercollegiate Athletics, to purposes ranging from academic support and special medical care for team members, to recruiting and coaching expenses, excluding salary supplements. Penn State Intercollegiate Athletics receives no state support for its programs and must cover the cost of fielding 31 varsity teams from ticket revenues and private giving.

The University invests endowed gifts in perpetuity and uses a portion of the annual income for the purposes intended by the donor. The remaining income is added to the principal to protect it from inflation and ensure its growth.

For more information on becoming a part of Penn State's proud athletic tradition, please call the Nittany Lion Club office at 814-865-9462.

James Franklin, a 26-year football coaching veteran, was appointed Penn State's 16th head football coach on January 11, 2014 and enters his 11th season as a collegiate head football coach. Franklin's career head coaching record is 84-43 and is one of only six current FBS coaches to lead his team to a bowl game in each of his first nine seasons as a head coach. Franklin attributes his success on the field to the strength of his teams' dedication to four core values: positive attitude, great work ethic, compete in everything you do and must be willing to sacrifice.

Under Franklin's direction, Penn State has finished in the top 12 of the final College Football Playoff rankings in four of the last five seasons, has earned berths in three New Year's Six bowl games with two wins and won the 2016 Big Ten Championship. Franklin has guided the Nittany Lions to an 86 percent graduation success rate, a perfect single-year 1,000 APR for the 2018-19 school year and record-breaking performances in the classroom.

CAREER AT A GLANCE

- Franklin was named the 16th head football coach in the storied history of the Nittany Lion program on January 11, 2014.
- Franklin is one of six current FBS head coaches to lead his teams to a bowl game in each of his first nine seasons as a head coach.
- Franklin is one of three current Big Ten coaches (Ryan Day, Kirk Ferentz) to have won a Big Ten Championship and became the first African American head coach to win a Big Ten title after Penn State's 2016 victory.
- He owns an 84-43 career record, with a winning record in eight of 10 seasons at the helm.
- Franklin has led his teams to three Top 10 finishes (3 at Penn State) and six Top 25 finishes (2 at Vanderbilt; 4 at Penn State).
- In the last five seasons under Franklin, Penn State is one of six teams to rank in the top 12 of the CFP final rankings at least four times.
- From 2016-19, Franklin led the Nittany Lions to three New Year's Six bowls - 2016 (Rose), 2017 (Fiesta) and 2019 (Cotton) - making Penn State one of eight teams to accomplish the feat during the four-year span. It also marked the first time Penn State as a program went to three New Year's Six bowls in four years since 1980-83 (1980 Fiesta, 1982 Fiesta, 1983 Sugar).
- Franklin's squads won two New Year's Six bowl games in a three-year span (2017-19), making the Nittany Lions one of seven teams to do so. It also marked the first time PSU has won two New Year's Six bowl games in a three-year span since 1995 (Rose) and 1997 (Fiesta).
- Franklin guided Penn State to back-to-back New Year's Six bowls in 2016 (Rose) and 2017 (Fiesta) for the first time since 1985 (Orange) and 1986 (Fiesta).
- Penn State was ranked in the AP Top 25 for the 63 consecutive polls in which it was eligible from 2016-20, marking the third-longest streak in program history and longest streak since 1993-2000 when PSU was ranked for 121-straight weeks.
- From 2016-19, Franklin led Penn State to 42 wins, the most in program history for the Big Ten era in a four-year span, and 28 league wins, a program record.
- Franklin has 26 years of coaching experience at the collegiate and NFL level.
- In his first 10 years as a head coach, Franklin mentored 82 players who have gone on to the NFL ranks.
- Twenty-three Penn State players have been selected in the last four NFL Drafts, the most in a four-draft span since 1993-96 (27 players drafted). In addition, five-plus Nittany Lions have been drafted in four consecutive years, the longest streak for PSU since 1978-84.
- Franklin has secured top-25 recruiting classes each of his last nine seasons, including a top-5 class at Penn State in 2018.
- Franklin is second all-time in winning percentage by an FBS African American head coach (minimum 80 wins) and is third in total wins.
- Franklin's victories in the Fiesta Bowl, Pinstripe Bowl, Music City Bowl and Birmingham Bowl (formerly the Compass Bowl) marked the first time in each bowl's history an African American head coach earned the win.

NITTANY LIONS ON THE FIELD

2020 Season

- With Franklin's emphasis on safety, along with the precautions he, the coaching staff, medical team and support staff established, the Nittany Lions were one of only two Big Ten teams to play all nine of its scheduled games during a shortened 2020 season due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

- The Nittany Lions paced the Big Ten in first downs (223) and were second in total offense (430.3).
- Tight end Pat Freiermuth was selected as the Kwalick-Clark Big Ten Tight End of the Year, becoming Penn State's first tight end to win the award.
- Despite missing five of Penn State's nine games due to a season-ending injury, Freiermuth led all Big Ten tight ends in receiving yards (310). Prior to his injury, Freiermuth led all FBS tight ends with 5.8 receptions per game and ranked fifth averaging 77.5 receiving yards per game.
- Wide receiver Jahan Dotson led the league in receiving yardage (884; 19th nationally) and was tied for the nation's lead in catches of 60-plus yards (4). Dotson also finished the year averaging 24.6 yards per punt return, a school record.
- Penn State ranked third in the Big Ten in total defense (328.8; 17th nationally), second in passing defense (198.6; 24th), second in tackles for loss (6.7 per game) and fourth in rushing defense (130.2).
- With a 100-yard kickoff return for a touchdown by Lamont Wade vs. Illinois and an 81-yard punt return for a score by Dotson vs. Michigan State, PSU was one of four Power Five schools in 2020 to have a kick and punt return for a TD.
- The Nittany Lions earned 16 All-Big Ten honors (six on offense, nine on defense, one on special teams), including first-team laurels for Freiermuth, defensive end Jayson Oweh and defensive end Shaka Toney.
- Oweh and Toney became the first Penn State defensive end duo to receive first team honors since Courtney Brown and Brad Scioli in 1998.
- Penn State had an emergence of true freshmen skill players on offense in running backs Keyvone Lee and Cazia Holmes, wide receivers Parker Washington and KeAndre Lambert-Smith, and tight end Theo Johnson, with true freshmen accounting for 1,486 of Penn State's 3,873 yards (38 percent), marking a school record for most combined scrimmage yards by true freshmen in a single season.

2019 Season

- Penn State earned its third 11-win season in four years with an 11-2 record, including a win over No. 17 Memphis in the Goodyear Cotton Bowl Classic.
- Penn State posted its fourth-straight top 12 finish in the final CFP rankings, coming in 10th.
- The Nittany Lions were ranked ninth in the final Associated Press and Amway Coaches polls to earn their 25th AP Top 10 finish.
- The Nittany Lions ended the season in the AP Top 25 in four consecutive seasons for the first time since a seven-year stint from 1993-99.
- Franklin was a finalist for the Paul "Bear" Bryant National Coach of the Year award for the second time at Penn State (2016) and third time in his head coaching career.
- Defense was dominant for the Nittany Lions, finishing in the top 10 in FBS in yards per rush (1st; 2.55), forced fumbles (1st; 22), rushing defense (5th; 95.0), sacks (7th; 3.46), scoring defense (8th; 16.0) and fumble recoveries (10th; 12). Penn State was also 11th in tackles for loss (7.8).

- The Nittany Lions' 22 forced fumbles were the second-most in program history behind the school standard of 25 set in 1968 and the 2.55 yards per rush was seventh in the program record books.
- Offensively, the Nittany Lions continued to put up big numbers, ranking 15th in FBS in scoring offense with a 35.8 average, which ranked eighth in program history. The 58.8 completion percentage by Penn State quarterbacks sat seventh and the 141.78 passing efficiency was 10th in the program annals.
- The Penn State special teams unit made big gains in 2019, recording three blocked punts to finish third in the nation and four blocked kicks overall, which was sixth.
- Jonathan Sutherland led the way with a pair of blocked punts in the season-opener against Idaho, marking the first time since 2000 the Nittany Lions had two blocks in a game.
- The Nittany Lions had 19 players garner All-Big Ten accolades, including two first-team selections in Micah Parsons and Yetur Gross-Matos.
- Parsons was also selected as the Big Ten Butkus-Fitzgerald Linebacker of the Year to become the third Nittany Lion to claim the award, joining Mike Hull (2014) and Michael Mauti (2012). Parsons was the first sophomore to win Big Ten Linebacker of the Year.
- In addition, Parsons became the 101st first-team All-American and 43rd consensus All-American in Penn State history. He collected first-team accolades from Associated Press and American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) and second-team laurels from the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA), Walter Camp and Sporting News.
- Tight end Pat Freiermuth was a finalist for the John Mackey Award for the nation's top tight end and also took home All-America accolades with a bid on the AFCA second team.

2018 Season

- The Nittany Lions posted their third-straight season with at least nine wins in 2018 with a 9-4 overall record.
- Penn State finished No. 12 in the final CFP rankings and No. 17 in the Associated Press and Amway Coaches polls.
- The defense led the way for the Nittany Lions in 2018, finishing in the top 20 nationally in team passing efficiency (8th; 106.10), red zone defense (11th; .750), passing yards allowed (15th; 181.5) and third down conversion defense (19th; .336).
- The Penn State defense was a permanent fixture in the opposition's backfield, leading the country in sacks (3.62) for the second time in four years and ranking fourth in tackles for loss (8.2).
- On the offensive side of the ball, the Nittany Lions posted their highest rushing average (204.9) since 2008 (205.8) and were No. 16 nationally in red zone offense (.897).
- The Nittany Lions had 15 players garner All-Big Ten accolades, including two first-team selections in Amani Oruwariye and Yetur Gross-Matos.
- Trace McSorley capped his Penn State career as the program's career leader for passing yards (9,899), completions (720), 300-yard passing games (10), 200-yard passing games (28), rushing yards by a quarterback (1,697), rushing touchdowns by a quarterback (30), passing touchdowns (77), total offensive yards (11,596), touchdowns responsible for (107), wins as a starting quarterback (31) and consecutive games with a touchdown pass (34).
- In addition, McSorley set eight season records during his time in the Blue & White - passing yards, passing touchdowns, completions, 200-yard passing games, 300-yard passing games, rushing touchdowns by a quarterback, total offense yards, touchdowns responsible for - and the game record for yards of total offense.
- Blake Gillikin set the Penn State record for punting average in a season with a 44.00 mark, besting the previous record of 43.55 set by Ralph Giacommato in 1981.

2017 Season

- Penn State continued to be among the nation's elite in 2017, climbing as high as No. 2 in the rankings and appearing in a second-straight New Year's Six bowl, earning a 35-28 win over No. 11 Washington in the PlayStation Fiesta Bowl.
- The Nittany Lions earned back-to-back 11-win seasons for the fifth time in program history and first time since 2008 and 2009 with an 11-2 record.
- Penn State finished the season No. 8 in the Associated Press and Amway Coaches polls and No. 9 in the final CFP rankings.
- The Nittany Lions used a balanced attack with a high-scoring offense and a stingy defense to lead FBS in scoring differential with a +24.6 margin.
- Offensively, Penn State finished seventh in FBS with a 41.1 scoring average, the third-highest in program history, and 19th in total offense with a 460.3 average, which also ranked third in PSU history.
- Defensively, the Nittany Lions were seventh in FBS in scoring average (16.5 ppg) and sacks (3.23 spg), while coming in 17th in total defense (329.5).

- Running back Saquon Barkley finished a stellar collegiate career by winning the Paul Hornung Award for the nation's most versatile player, three major Big Ten awards - Graham-George Big Ten Offensive Player of the Year, Ameche-Dayne Big Ten Running Back of the Year, Rodgers-Dwight Big Ten Return Specialist - and the Chicago Tribune Silver Football for the second-straight season. Barkley was just the fifth player since 1924 to win two career Silver Football honors.
- Barkley became the 100th first-team All-American in program history with Consensus All-America honors and finished fourth in the Heisman Trophy voting.
- The Nittany Lions had 18 players garner All-Big Ten accolades, including four first-team selections in Barkley (running back and return specialist), Marcus Allen and Mike Gesicki.
- McSorley, who was the Offensive MVP of the PlayStation Fiesta Bowl, followed up his record-breaking 2016 campaign with another outstanding season. In 2017, McSorley broke the Penn State single-season record for completions (284), total offense (4,061), touchdowns responsible for (37), 300-yard passing games (5) and 200-yard passing games (11).
- McSorley also became the second player in Big Ten history with 25 passing touchdowns and 10 rushing scores in a season, joining Ohio State's J.T. Barrett (2014, 2017).
- Wide receiver DaeSean Hamilton ended his Penn State career as the program's career receptions leader (214) and second in school history in receiving yards (2,842).
- The Nittany Lions sent nine players to senior all-star games, which was the most since 2003 when nine student-athletes were in postseason games (Senior Bowl: Allen, Gesicki, Hamilton, Christian Campbell; East-West Shrine Bowl: Hamilton, Jason Cabinda, Curtis Cothran, Parker Cothren, Grant Haley; NFLPA Collegiate Bowl: Troy Apke). Apke was the MVP of the NFLPA Collegiate Bowl.

2016 Season

- The Nittany Lions surged in 2016, winning nine consecutive games en route to the Big Ten Championship, a Rose Bowl berth and an 11-3 overall record.
- Penn State finished the season ranked No. 5 in the College Football Playoff rankings and No. 7 in the Associated Press and Amway Coaches polls. It was Penn State's highest finish in the polls since 2005.
- The Nittany Lions claimed their fourth overall Big Ten Championship and first outright title since 1994 with a thrilling 38-31 comeback win over Wisconsin in the Big Ten Championship Game.
- In 2016, Franklin was honored as Sporting News National Coach of the Year and the Woody Hayes National Coach of the Year, as well as the Dave McLain Big Ten Coach of the Year and Associated Press Big Ten Coach of the Year.
- Franklin was also a finalist for the Paul "Bear" Bryant, Eddie Robinson and Associated Press National Coach of the Year awards.
- The 2016 season brought record-breaking performances from the Nittany Lions as the offense set marks for total offense (6,056), passing yards (3,650), points scored (526) and double-digit comeback wins (4).
- The Nittany Lions' +14.4 scoring improvement in 2016 ranked fourth in FBS and second among Power 5 schools.
- Barkley was selected as the Graham-George Big Ten Offensive Player of the Year, Ameche-Dayne Big Ten Running Back of the Year and Chicago Tribune Silver Football winner for the conference's top player.
- McSorley was named the Grange-Griffin Big Ten Championship Game MVP, as well as earning Maxwell Club Tri-State Player of the Year and All-Big Ten second-team honors. He was the first Penn State quarterback to win all-conference honors since Daryll Clark in 2009.
- Defensively, the Nittany Lions finished seventh in FBS in tackles for loss (8.1) and 19th in sacks (2.86).

2015 Season

- Franklin guided the Nittany Lions to a 7-6 record in 2015 and a berth in the TaxSlayer Bowl.
- Under Franklin's tutelage, Carl Nassib claimed a trio of national awards – Lombardi Award, Lott IMPACT Trophy and Ted Hendricks Award – and became Penn State's 13th unanimous Consensus All-American.
- Nassib also led the nation in sacks with a school-record 15.5.
- The 2015 season also saw Christian Hackenberg break every Penn State career passing record, including passing yards, passing touchdowns and completions, and true freshman Saquon Barkley set the freshman season rushing record with a 1,000-yard campaign.
- Barkley was named the Big Ten Network's Freshman of the Year and claimed second-team All-Big Ten honors, while wide receiver Chris Godwin (second team) and defensive tackles Austin Johnson (second team) and Anthony Zettel (third team) also earned All-Big Ten accolades.

2014 Season

- Franklin's first season was bookended with a pair of thrilling victories for the Nittany Lions. The Penn State head coach's inaugural season began with a final-play 26-24 victory over UCF in Dublin, Ireland, in Penn State's first-ever international game and ended with a comeback, a 31-30 overtime win over Boston College in the New Era Pinstripe Bowl in Yankee Stadium. The Nittany Lions overcame a 14-point deficit late in the third quarter, tying the largest comeback in Penn State's bowl history.
- With the Pinstripe Bowl win, Franklin became just the third Penn State coach to lead the team to at least seven wins in his first season, joining Dick Harlow (1915) and Bill O'Brien (2012).
- Franklin guided the Lions to a 4-0 start, joining Harlow as the only first-year Penn State coaches to win their initial four games.
- In Franklin's first season at Penn State, he helped Mike Hull to the Butkus-Fitzgerald Big Ten Linebacker of the Year award to carry on the "Linebacker U" tradition.
- Zettel earned All-Big Ten first-team honors, while receiver DaeSean Hamilton garnered All-Big Ten second-team accolades after pulling in 82 catches for 899 yards.

NITTANY LIONS IN THE CLASSROOM

- The Nittany Lions posted their first 1,000 single-year APR in program history in 2018-19, topping the previous high of 993 in 2014-15.
- In 2019, punter Blake Gillikin took home CoSIDA Academic All-America® first-team honors for the second-straight year to become the 12th two-time first-team selection in Penn State history. He graduated with a perfect 4.0 grade-point average in May 2020.

- Gillikin's two first-team CoSIDA Academic All-America honors increased Penn State football's total to 67 honorees, which ranks second in Division I football history (FBS and FCS).
- Trace McSorley was selected as a 2018 National Football Foundation (NFF) Scholar-Athlete and a finalist for the Campbell Trophy, known as the "Academic Heisman." He was the 18th Nittany Lion to be selected as an NFF Scholar-Athlete.
- Tyler Yezjian collected a berth on the CoSIDA Academic All-America® first team in 2016 after an appearance on the second team in 2015.
- In the 2020 fall semester, five student-athletes earned a perfect 4.0 grade-point average (GPA), 37 made Dean's List (3.5 GPA or higher) and 86 posted a 3.0 GPA or higher with the University's alternative COVID-19 grading system in place. The team posted a 3.39 mark with 29 players earning Academic All-Big Ten recognition.
- In the 2020 spring semester, 14 Nittany Lions posted a perfect 4.0 GPA and 89 squad members with at least a 3.0 GPA with the alternative grading also in effect.
- A program-record nine Nittany Lions were named 2019-20 Big Ten Distinguished Scholars.
- A total of 56 Nittany Lions earned a 3.0 GPA or higher during the 2015 fall semester, which set a school record.
- Fifty-two squad members compiled at least a 3.0 GPA in the fall of 2019, which was the second-highest semester total in program history.
- The Nittany Lions had a program-record 35 student-athletes claim Academic All-Big Ten honors in the fall of 2017.

NITTANY LIONS IN THE COMMUNITY

- The Nittany Lions are active in the community, participating in activities such as Uplifting Athletes, THON, Pennsylvania Special Olympics Summer Games, State College Area Food Bank and Penn State Hershey Children's Hospital visits.
- On June 15, 2020, Franklin was named to the Big Ten Equality Coalition, which includes student-athletes, coaches, athletic directors, chancellors, presidents and other members of the Big Ten family representing all 14 member institutions.
- Franklin and his wife, Fumi, established the Franklin Family Educational Equity Scholarship to help make the Penn State experience affordable for students who haven't had access to enroll in the past.
- As part of the Cotton Bowl festivities in 2019, Franklin and his family made a $10,000 financial commitment to the Dallas Children's Hospital.
- In August 2019, Franklin was named a Penn State University Renaissance Fund honoree, which awards outstanding community members for helping students in need.
- In 2017, linebacker Brandon Smith was selected to the Allstate AFCA Good Works team for his selflessness and community service. He was one of 11 FBS honorees in 2017 and was the first Nittany Lion to claim the award since Ben Kline in 2015, and the fourth overall.

- The football team's 2,100 hours of community service in 2014-15 equated to nearly 40 percent of the 5,300 community service hours by Penn State student-athletes.
- The engaging and enthusiastic Franklin is a popular speaker and media interview subject. He was a guest analyst on ESPN's coverage from the site of college football's National Championship game, spending a day appearing on various ESPN platforms in 2013 and 2014. In 2015, Franklin joined the FOX studio crew for pregame, halftime and postgame coverage of the Big Ten Championship Game.
- In February 2015, Franklin was the lone college head coach among the speakers and panelists at the prestigious MIT Sloan Sports Analytics Conference in Boston. He was a panelist for the session, "The Formula to Win: College Football Analytics," which was moderated by ESPN reporter Rachel Nichols.
- Franklin has also been an ardent supporter of "Be the Match," encouraging community members to join the national bone marrow registry.

RECRUITING SUCCESS

- Franklin's recruiting classes in the last five years have been ranked an average of 13.8 nationally, which is a significant jump from the 40.8 average from 2012-14.
- Ninety-eight of the 180 signees (54 percent) under Franklin are from within a 250-mile radius of State College.
- Seven of the 15 highest-ranked 247Sports Composite recruits at Penn State since 2000 have been signed by Franklin.
- The 2020 recruiting class finished No. 12 according to ESPN.com, No. 14 by Rivals and No. 15 per 247Sports.
- The 2019 class featured a pair of 247Sports five-star recruits, including Brandon Smith, and three No. 1-ranked recruits in their respective states (Smith, Adisa Issac, Sal Wormley).
- The 3.83 average star ranking for the 2019 class was the highest in program history since the inception of the 247Sports Composite in 2000.
- The 2018 recruiting class was ranked No. 4 among by ESPN.com, the highest finish in program history. The class was also ranked No. 5 by Rivals and No. 6 by 247Sports.
- Penn State signed a Rivals No. 1 Pennsylvania recruit in three-straight years (2018 – Micah Parsons; 2017 – Lamont Wade; 2016 – Miles Sanders) for the first time since 2004 (Anthony Morelli), 2005 (Justin King) and 2006 (Jared Odrick).
- In 2018, Penn State inked three 247Sports Composite 5-star recruits for the first time since rankings began in 2001.
- The Nittany Lions also signed 12 ESPN300 recruits in 2018, the first time since 2006 when ESPN rankings started.

- Parsons was the No. 5-rated recruit in the 247Sports Composite, which is the highest recruit signed by Penn State since 2005 when Derrick Williams was the No. 4 overall recruit.
- In 2017, the newest set of Nittany Lions finished in the Top 15 in the country, ranking as high as 12th by Rivals.
- The Class of 2016 at Penn State finished in the top 20, ranking as high as 18th by ESPN, and featured a pair of five-star recruits.
- In 2016, Franklin secured the No. 1 player in the state of Pennsylvania (Sanders) for the first time since Jared Odrick (2006).
- The Nittany Lions laid claim to the No. 1 running back in the state of Pennsylvania in 2015 (Saquon Barkley) and 2016 (Sanders).
- In February 2015, the Nittany Lions' highly-regarded class of 25 signees was ranked in the top 15 nationally by the four major recruiting services.
- Franklin and his staff organized a top-25 recruiting class in short order after being hired at Penn State in January 2014.
- While at Vanderbilt, Franklin assembled a recruiting class that finished as high as 19th in 2014.
- In each of his three seasons in Nashville, Franklin signed classes that finished in the top 50 nationally. Prior to Franklin's arrival, the Commodores average class rank was 64.6 since 2000 (based on 247Sports composite).

HELPING THE COMMODORES GET THEIR STRIPES

- Franklin directed Vanderbilt to consecutive Top 25 finishes for the first time in the 124-year history of the program (No. 23/24 – 2013 & No. 23/20 – 2012).
- The Commodores finished 23rd in the final 2012 Associated Press poll, marking their first AP final ranking since 1948.
- Franklin's 24 wins tied Dan McGugin for the most by a Vanderbilt coach in his first three seasons.
- Franklin led Vanderbilt to a bowl game in each of his three seasons in Nashville, with the last two years resulting in wins over NC State (Music City Bowl) and Houston (BBVA Compass Bowl). The Commodores had played in four bowl games all-time in the 121 seasons prior to his arrival, none in consecutive years.
- Vanderbilt had posted four nine-win seasons in program history, with Franklin's last two teams comprising half of the total.
- Over the last 20 games during the 2012-13 seasons, the Commodores' 16-4 record was second-best in the SEC to Alabama's 17-3 mark.
- Franklin guided the Commodores to a 6-6 regular-season record and earned a berth in the Liberty Bowl during his first season after inheriting a Vanderbilt team that finished 2-10 in both 2009 and 2010, with a combined mark of 1-15 SEC play.
- The 2011 bowl berth was Vanderbilt's second since 1983 and running back Zac Stacy broke the Commodores' season record with 1,193 rushing yards.
- The Commodores had a breakthrough campaign in 2012 under Franklin, finishing on a seven-game winning streak (longest since 1948) to post a 9-4 mark, Vanderbilt's most wins in 97 years, and a berth in the Music City Bowl, in which VU defeated NC State, 38-24.
- A victory at Missouri sparked an 8-1 finish, which included three consecutive SEC road wins for the first time in program history.
- The Commodores were 5-3 in SEC play, winning five SEC games for the first time since 1935, and posted two shutouts for the first time since 1968.
- Franklin was among five finalists for the Bear Bryant National Coach of the Year award in 2012.
- Stacy became the first player in Vanderbilt history to rush for 1,000 yards in consecutive seasons, gaining 1,141 yards to finish his career with a school-record 3,143 yards and 30 rushing touchdowns.
- Wide receiver Jordan Matthews broke the Vanderbilt season receiving record with 1,363 yards on 94 catches.
- Vanderbilt continued its historic rise under Franklin during the 2013 season, capping a school-record 9-4 campaign with a 41-24 win over Houston in the BBVA Compass Bowl.
- The Commodores defeated Florida, Georgia and Tennessee in the same season for the first time in program history, winning in Gainesville and Knoxville.
- Franklin helped Matthews develop into a two-time All-American and the SEC's career leader in receptions (262) and receiving yardage (3,759). Matthews broke the SEC season record with 112 receptions for 1,477 yards and seven touchdowns in 2013, becoming the first SEC receiver to make 100 catches in a season.

RIISING UP THE RANKS

- Franklin began his coaching career as the wide receivers coach at Kutztown (Pa.) University (1995) and was a graduate assistant coach at his alma mater, East Stroudsburg (Pa.) University in 1996, working with the secondary.
- He then was the wide receivers coach at James Madison (1997), a graduate assistant (tight ends) at Washington State in 1998 and the wide receivers coach at Idaho State (1999).
- In 2000, Franklin was named the wide receivers coach at Maryland under head coach Ron Vanderlinden, who would go on to coach the Penn State linebackers from 2001-13.
- Franklin continued in that role under new head coach Ralph Friedgen in 2002 and 2003 and helped the Terps to three consecutive 10-win seasons, including an appearance in the 2002 FedEx Orange Bowl. In 2003, Franklin added duties as recruiting coordinator and directed back-to-back recruiting classes ranked in the Top 25 nationally. Franklin and former Nittany Lion head coach Bill O'Brien (running backs) were Maryland assistant coaches in 2003 and 2004 under Friedgen.
- After five successful years at Maryland, Franklin was named wide receivers coach on Mike Sherman's Green Bay Packers staff in 2005. During that season, Green Bay ranked third in the NFL in receptions (383) and seventh in receiving yards (3,766). Donald Driver was among the top receivers in the NFL, ranking second in receptions and eighth in receiving yards, with a then-career-high 86 catches for 1,221 yards.
- Franklin served as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Kansas State during the 2006-07 seasons under head coach Ron Prince. In 2006, he helped the Wildcats to their first winning season in four years. Franklin coached quarterback Josh Freeman and oversaw an offense that produced a 3,000-yard passer (Freeman), 1,500-yard receiver (All-American wide receiver Jordy Nelson) and 1,000-yard rusher (James Johnson) during the 2007 season, a first in school history. Freeman would go on to become the Wildcats' highest NFL offensive draft pick since 1954 when the Tampa Bay Buccaneers selected him 17th overall in the 2009 NFL Draft.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT JAMES FRANKLIN

"Coach Franklin has a lot of energy. He has a great vision. He's a terrific coach. He's an outstanding recruiter. You've got to be able to get both players who are talented and ready to go, and players who can develop into elite level players. James has been able to do both. His staff has coached them well and they've established expectations and standards for the program. He's developed a culture that really is a championship level culture at Penn State."

- Rece Davis, ESPN

"I have known Coach Franklin for almost a quarter of a century. His dedication to the development of his student athletes competitively, through community service and in the classroom is admirable. His intensity and attention to detail in regards to game preparation always impressed. In summary, he is a terrific role model in every regard."

- Debbie Yow, Former Director of Athletics at N.C. State and Maryland

"I have always believed Penn State is one of the most spectacular college football environments. James Franklin's recruiting panache and on-field energy has continued that tradition to make it a special place to be. I can't wait to see what he continues to build."

- Holly Rowe, ESPN

"Coach Franklin embodies all of the characteristics you want in a head football coach but also a mentor of young men. He was instrumental to our team success as well as my individual success throughout my four years with the program. I am so happy for his continued success and wish him and Penn State Football nothing but the best moving forward."

- Mike Gesicki, Miami Dolphins/Penn State ('17) Tight End and Former Player of Franklin

"Coach Franklin took a personal interest in me. He and the staff knew I had a lot of potential and made me into the person I wanted to be. The environment he's built is tremendous. The relationship he builds when he's recruiting you, he tells you this is a forever relationship, and he truly means it. He's one of the smartest people you will meet on and off the field. When you have a guy who cares about what you are going to be doing 20 years from now, that's someone you want to have in your corner."

- Micah Parsons, Former PSU Linebacker, 2019 All-American and B1G Linebacker of the Year

"I think right now Coach Franklin has proven to be one of the three best coaches in college football because of what he's accomplished the past decade. What he did at Vanderbilt was remarkable. He led the Commodores to Top 25 poll finishes in two of his three seasons. Keep in mind, that was a program that hadn't finished in the Top 25 for more than 60 years before his arrival. I don't think he gets anywhere near enough credit for that transformation. Then, he takes over a Penn State program that was still reeling from hefty sanctions and also was thrust into arguably the toughest division in college football, stacked with top coaches. By his third season, Franklin led the Nittany Lions to a Big Ten title. His team is 42-11 in the past four seasons, and he keeps on elevating the talent level."

- Bruce Feldman, The Athletic/FOX Sports

"James Franklin is an elite coach. This is one of the best coaches in the game of college football. He did it at Vanderbilt. He's doing it at Penn State."

- Gus Johnson, FOX Sports

"I think the greatest thing about Coach Franklin is he makes you believe in yourself more than you believe in yourself. I think he's the greatest maximizer of your individual capacity that I've ever been around. He made us believe in things that we didn't believe in ourselves. He made us become of what he saw of us and were that good because of what he did."

- Jordan Rodgers, ESPN Analyst/Vanderbilt ('13) Quarterback and Former Player of Franklin

"There are a few things that I believe make Coach Franklin one of the best in the business — his relentless passion for wanting the very best for his program, whether it's the video department, weight room, academics resources...you name it. Coupled with his leadership and coaching acumen, Coach Franklin continues to keep Penn State as one of the premier programs in America."

- Howard Griffith, Big Ten Network

"What else can you say about James? He won the Big Ten Championship in his third year following what was the most difficult time in Penn State's football history. Here's what else you can say - He's a student of the game, highly organized, coach's his coaches and is one of the best recruiters in the country."

- Gerry DiNardo, Big Ten Network

"Coach Franklin is a builder. I think sometimes people minimize in their heads the impact of some things that happened from the NCAA on the program. The impact of that and what Coach Franklin has done to overcome that, normally it is something that takes years to overcome, and I applaud him for the way he has done it without making any excuses. When they won the Big Ten Title in 2016, I thought that was one of the best coaching jobs in Penn State history. He has always optimized the team and has got the most out of his teams."

- Matt Rhule, Carolina Panthers Head Coach/Penn State ('97) Linebacker

"James Franklin is one of the best football coaches in America — his record speaks for itself. However, I'm more impressed with his character and the family atmosphere he creates that permeates through the program. Coach Franklin's biggest attribute is that he loves his players like they are his sons and prioritizes their academic development, so they're well prepared for life after football. Coach brings a unique mix of enthusiasm, determination, and authenticity, which inspires everyone around him. We're lucky to have James Franklin as our coach."

- Brandon Short, Penn State ('99) Linebacker

"James worked for me at the Green Bay Packers. I noticed early on that he always saw the big picture. He didn't just coach his players on the field, but saw the need for them to be accountable off the field as well. He took an interest in every aspect of their lives and coached not just the player, but the person."

- Mike Sherman, Former Green Bay Packers and Texas A&M Head Coach

"It was an honor to have James Franklin as a coach. He brings out the passion and the love for the game in everyone. He is a leader, he knows how to win, and he brings a relentless work ethic. He is a tremendous motivator on and off the field. He's done an amazing job and will continue to be an asset to the Penn State campus, community and football program."

- Donald Driver, Former Green Bay Packers Wide Receiver and Player of Franklin

"Coach Franklin has a lot of energy, a lot of passion for the game, and obviously knows what he is doing. He cares about his players and is a great family guy. He is intense, but yet has fun and like I said, he has his passion for the game, his love for the game and a love for his players, and he cares about his players like family."

- Jordy Nelson, Former NFL/ Kansas State ('09) Wide Receiver and Player of Franklin

"I got to know James when he was at Kansas State and I enjoyed being around him a great deal. I think he is a quality person and is a very fine football coach. I liked his integrity and the way he carried himself. He is a coach that does things the right way and treats people with respect. He truly cares about the student-athletes that he coaches and he is a guy that seems to get along with everyone he interacts with."

- Bill Snyder, Former Kansas State Head Coach

"James is a great coach, a great leader and tireless worker. His players play tough, but they are old-school and disciplined. He brings new approaches to the field for the players and offenses, and he is an innovator and a cutting-edge type of coach. You would love to have that type of guy be your son. He is a wonderful person with great character and great integrity. He is a wonderful husband and a wonderful father. He's a great friend, who never forgets where he came from, and his friends. He's just a wonderful human being."

- Mike Price, Former Washington State Head Coach

"I've had the chance to work closely with Coach Franklin and I can't say enough good things about his approach, his work ethic, his passion for the game and his ability to teach the game. He's a tireless recruiter and one of those coaches who can get the most out of his players and is excellent at making and maintaining relationships."

- Darrell Bevell, Offensive Coordinator, Detroit Lions

"Coach Franklin has earned the opportunity to be a leader at a program like Penn State. I had a greater appreciation for him after I left (Maryland). He wants you to be the best you can be as a student and a player and brings a family environment. He is very passionate about what he does and has all the tools to be successful."

- Torrey Smith, Former NFL/Maryland ('10) Wide Receiver and Player of Franklin

"Coach Franklin is a great person and a great coach. He transformed the program and my career during my time at Vanderbilt. He took us from the bottom of the SEC to the upper tier of college football's toughest conference and a national contender. It was amazing to see what he was able to do at Vanderbilt. For him, there is only one goal in mind; a National Championship. I feel like he has the right mindset as a coach, can put the right coaches around him and with the student-athletes, resources and fan base at Penn State, he will continue to do a tremendous job."

- Casey Heyward – Los Angeles Chargers/Vanderbilt ('12) Cornerback and Former Player of Franklin

"Coach has meant so much to me, both on and off the field. One of the best things that ever happened to me was getting to work with Coach Franklin. I was very raw, and needed development in really every area. Coach taught me proper footwork, how to better understand pass routes and schemes, just how to play the position. Truly, to this day, my fundamental foundation as a quarterback came from the time with him."

- Josh Freeman, Former NFL First Round Pick/Kansas State ('09) Quarterback and Player of Franklin

"From the day he stepped on Vanderbilt's campus, Coach Franklin changed the atmosphere around the football program. He did a tremendous job instilling confidence in the players and the fan base, as a whole. He's a great motivator. He is a young, energetic players' coach. And he is always confident in everything he does."

- Zac Stacy, Former NFL/ Vanderbilt ('12) Running Back and Player of Franklin

"Coach Franklin was an outstanding player and has been an outstanding coach. James is the type of individual who has a great passion for the game of football. He has goals and aspirations. He is enthusiastic and has an outstanding work ethic. He applied those attributes as a player and has applied them to his coaching and that is why he has been able to have so much success everywhere he has been. He is an outstanding communicator and that parlayed into being a great recruiter. He brings as much enthusiasm and passion for Penn State as the fan base does."

- Denny Douds – Franklin's College Head Coach at East Stroudsburg

COACHING ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- A native of Altoona, Pennsylvania, Brent Pry's coaching career enters its 30th year and began during James Franklin's final two seasons as an All-PSAC quarterback at East Stroudsburg University.
- Pry has helped each program he's coached to success, including 14 bowl appearances, with top-25 finishes in total defense in eight of his last 11 seasons (4 at Penn State; 3 at Vanderbilt; 1 at Georgia Southern).
- Penn State's defense has been disruptive over the last five seasons. According to Coaches by the Numbers and Pro Football Focus, PSU ranks third nationally in QB hurries (876), fourth in total pressures generated (1305), tied for fourth in sacks (195), fifth in fewest passing TDs allowed per game (1.16), seventh in tackles for loss percentage (10.76) and ninth in fewest rushing yards per attempt (3.51) over that span.
- In 2020, Penn State ranked third in the Big Ten in total defense (328.8; 17th nationally), second in in passing defense (198.6; 24th) and tackles for loss (6.7 per game) and fourth in rushing defense (130.2).
- Penn State earned nine All-Big Ten honors on defense in 2020, including first team laurels for defensive ends Jayson Oweh and Shaka Toney.
- In 2019, Penn State (16.0 ppg) ranked eighth nationally in scoring defense, led the nation in fewest yards per carry (2.6) and was fifth in rushing yards allowed per game (95.0).
- On top of leading the nation in forced fumbles (22), the Nittany Lions posted 45 sacks (3.46 per game; 7th nationally), marking their fifth consecutive season with 40 or more sacks.
- Linebacker Micah Parsons became Penn State's 43rd all-time Consensus All-American in 2019 and was named the Big Ten Butkus-Fitzgerald Linebacker of the Year, while linebacker Jan Johnson was a Pro Football Focus All-America honorable mention.
- Penn State had 10 All-Big Ten selections on defense in 2019, led by first team honors for Parsons and defensive end Yetur Gross-Matos.
- The Penn State defense was a permanent fixture in the opposition's backfield in 2018, leading the country in sacks (3.62) for the second time in the last four years and ranking fourth in tackles for loss (8.2).
- In 2018, the defense paced the Lions, finishing in the top 20 nationally in yards per pass attempt (5th; 5.67), passing efficiency (8th; 106.10), red zone defense (11th; .750), passing yards allowed (15th; 181.5), yards per play (15th; 4.72) and third down conversion defense (19th; .336).
- The Nittany Lions landed a pair of players on the 2018 All-Big Ten first team (Amani Oluwariye, Gross-Matos) and had six defensive selections on the all-conference squad.
- Pry, who was a 2017 Broyles Award nominee for top assistant coach in the country, led a defense that finished in the top 25 in the FBS in scoring defense (7th; 16.5), sacks (7th; 3.23), rushing defense (14th; 118.0), total defense (17th; 329.5), team passing efficiency defense (21st; 114.88), takeaways (23rd; 25) and tackles for loss (25th; 7.2).
- In his first season as defensive coordinator, Pry helped the Nittany Lions to the 2016 Big Ten Championship by guiding a defense that finished seventh in tackles for loss (8.1) and 19th in sacks (2.86) despite a significant number of injuries to the linebacking corps.
- As co-defensive coordinator for Penn State, Pry helped direct a unit that had back-to-back Top 15 finishes in total defense. In 2015, the Nittany Lions finished 14th (324.5), while in 2014, PSU finished second (278.7).
- Mike Hull earned the Butkus-Fitzgerald Big Ten Linebacker of the Year award and eight All-America honors in 2014.
- Pry tutored the Vanderbilt linebackers and was co-defensive coordinator from 2011-13. He helped Chris Marve earn All-SEC honors in 2011.
- At Georgia Southern in 2010, his top-10 defense helped the Eagles to a win over No. 1 Appalachian State and an FCS semifinals appearance.
- He coached at Memphis (2007-09), Louisiana-Lafayette (2002-06), where the Ragin' Cajuns won their first Sun Belt title, Western Carolina (1998-2001), where he coached a top-10 defense, and Virginia Tech (1995-97), helping the Hokies to three bowls and a Sugar Bowl win.
- Pry coached the East Stroudsburg outside linebackers and defensive backs in 1993-94. Pry's father, Jim, was a college football coach for 40 years and was Franklin's offensive coordinator at East Stroudsburg.

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/QUARTERBACKS

MIKE YURCICH

@Coach_Yurcich

COACHING ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- Mike Yurcich was named Penn State's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach on January 8, 2021.
- Yurcich, who has 22 years of college coaching experience, including 15 as an offensive coordinator, joins the Nittany Lions after spending the 2020 season at Texas as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach.
- In his career as an FBS offensive coordinator, Yurcich's offenses have averaged 6.49 yards per play, ranking first among OC's since 2013 and 14.03 yards per completion, which is also first in that timeframe.
- Since 2013, Yurcich's offenses have scored 50 or more points 26 times and 40 or more points 51 times (50 percent of games coached), both of which are tops among FBS offensive coordinators since 2013. His teams average 61.5 touchdowns per year.
- In 2020, the Longhorns ranked eighth in FBS in scoring offense (42.7 ppg; second in Texas history), 16th in passing efficiency (156.2) and 19th in total offense (475.4 ypg).
- Under Yurcich's guidance, Longhorn quarterback Sam Ehlinger completed 60.1 percent (184-306) of his passes with a Big 12-leading 25 touchdowns, earning second-team All-Big 12 honors.
- Prior to his time in Austin, Yurcich served as the passing game coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Ohio State in 2019.
- The Buckeyes posted a 13-1 record and earned a trip to the College Football Playoff, while quarterback Justin Fields was a finalist for the Heisman Trophy, Walter Camp Player of the Year Award and Davey O'Brien Award.
- Fields was the Big Ten's Offensive Player of the Year and earned second-team All-America honors from Walter Camp, Associated Press, AFCA and the FWAA.
- Yurcich was the architect of one of Oklahoma State's greatest offensive eras as the program averaged 38.0 points and 478.3 yards per game in his six-year stint as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. OSU scored 40 or more points 35 times and 50 or more points 15 times.
- Oklahoma State finished 10th in FBS in total offense (500.2 ypg) and passing offense (309.8 ypg) in 2018. Yurcich developed walk-on quarterback Taylor Cornelius into a top-10 ranked player nationally in passing yards (4th; 3,978 yds), touchdowns (8th; 32), total offense (6th; 337.3 ypg) and points responsible for (5th; 252).
- The 2017 Oklahoma State offense featured 4,000-yard passer Mason Rudolph, two 1,000-yard receivers in James Washington and Marcell Ateman and 1,000-yard rusher Justice Hill. The Cowboys led the country in passing yards (389.2 ypg), finished second in total offense (568.9 ypg) and fourth in scoring offense (45.0 ppg).
- In 2017, the Cowboys set eight single-season school records in total offense, yards per play, passing yards, first downs and passing efficiency.
- In 2016, Oklahoma State was one of two Power Five teams to produce a 4,000-yard passer (Rudolph), a 1,000-yard rusher (Hill) and a 1,000-yard receiver (Washington). OK State ranked in the top 20 in four categories.
- With a two-quarterback system in 2015, OK State threw for 34 touchdowns and ranked seventh in FBS in passing yards per game (353.2 ypg) and 14th in scoring offense (39.5 ppg). Yurcich produced the Big 12 Offensive Newcomer of the Year in Tyreek Hill in 2014 and Oklahoma State was 14th nationally in scoring (39.1) in his first season in 2013.
- Yurcich served as the offensive coordinator for two seasons (2011-12) at Shippensburg University. In his first season, the Raiders set numerous program records, including points scored, touchdowns and total offense.
- In 2012, Shippensburg led NCAA Division II in total offense (529.2 ypg) and was second in scoring offense (46.9 ppg) and passing yards per game (387.7 ypg). Under Yurcich's tutelage, quarterback Zach Zulli won the 2012 Harlon Hill Trophy as the top player in Division II. Zulli tied the NCAA Division II record with 54 passing scores.
- The native of Euclid, Ohio also coached for six seasons at Edinboro University, working with the quarterbacks and wide receivers in 2005 before becoming the offensive coordinator from 2006-10.
- Yurcich also coached at Saint Francis (Ind.) from 1999-2002 and was an offensive graduate assistant at Indiana University in 2003 and 2004.

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR/OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS/NICKELS

JOE LORIG

@CoachJoeLorig

COACHING ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- Joe Lorig enters his third season as Penn State's special teams coordinator.
- He added nickels to his title in 2021 and outside linebackers in 2020 after spending the 2019 campaign as a defensive assistant in addition to his role as special teams coordinator.
- Lorig has 24 years experience as a college coach, including eight seasons as a special teams coordinator and eight years as a defensive coordinator.
- With a 100-yard kick return for a touchdown by Lamont Wade vs. Illinois and an 81-yard punt return for a score by Jahan Dotson vs. Michigan State, PSU was one of four Power Five schools in 2020 to have a kick and punt return for a TD.
- Dotson finished 2020 averaging 24.6 yards per punt return, a school record, and earned honorable mention All-Big Ten honors as a returner.
- In 2019, the Nittany Lions' special teams unit was ranked first among Power Five schools in special teams efficiency and tied for second nationally overall according to ESPN.com.
- Three of Lorig's specialists in 2019, including punter Blake Gillikin, kick returner KJ Hamler, and kicker Jake Pinegar, all earned All-Big Ten honorable mention laurels.
- Penn State's special teams unit allowed 1.7 yards per punt return (5th nationally) and 17.0 yards per kick return (8th) in 2019.
- In his three seasons at Memphis, Lorig's special teams unit finished in the top five in FBS in kick return average twice and in the top 20 in kick return defense every year.
- As the outside linebackers coach, Lorig's group helped the Tigers force 81 turnovers in a three-year span, which was fourth nationally in the FBS.
- Under Lorig's tutelage, Memphis' Tony Pollard posted a school-record and FBS-record-tying seven kickoffs returned for a touchdown in his career, including four returns for scores in 2017.
- Pollard was selected as the American Athletic Conference (AAC) Special Teams Player of the Year in 2016 and 2017 and was a first-team All-American in 2017.
- In Lorig's first season in Memphis, the Tigers had three kickoff returns for touchdowns, snapping a 21-year drought for a kickoff return touchdowns, believed to be the longest such streak in FBS history.
- Memphis led the AAC and finished in the top 10 nationally in kickoff return defense (2nd in FBS, 16.04), kickoff return average (5th, 26.57) and net punting (8th, 41.10) in 2016.
- In 2017, Memphis finished fourth in the country and led the American in kickoff return average (26.02), while coming in No. 14 in FBS and No. 2 in the AAC in kickoff return defense (17.75).
- Memphis finished No. 16 nationally and No. 2 in the AAC in kickoff return defense in 2018, allowing just 17.88 yards per return.
- Lorig spent two years at Utah State as linebackers coach in 2014 and safeties coach in 2015, where the Aggies made two bowl appearances.
- Lorig mentored Zach Vigil, who was selected as the 2014 Mountain West Conference Defensive Player of the Year and was a second-team USA Today All-American after posting 156 tackles and 20.5 tackles for loss.
- Lorig was the special teams coordinator and cornerbacks coach at Arizona State for two seasons, prior to moving to Utah State.
- During his time at ASU, punter Josh Hubner earned All-America honors in 2012 and kicker Zane Gonzalez was a Freshman All-American in 2013.
- Lorig spent four seasons as assistant head coach and defensive coordinator at Central Washington, where the Wildcats won three Great Northwest Athletic Conference titles and made two NCAA appearances.
- He was named the Division II Assistant Coach of the Year by the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) following 2010 and was a finalist for FootballScoop.com's Division II Coordinator of the Year in 2009.
- Among the other stops in Lorig's coaching career were one season as the linebackers coach at UTEP (2007), eight seasons at Idaho State (2003-06, defensive coordinator; 2001-02, linebackers; 1999-2000 cornerbacks) and two seasons as the secondary coach at Western Oregon (1997-98).
- Lorig and James Franklin spent the 1999 season together at Idaho State under head coach and current Penn State football analyst Larry Lewis.

- Ty Howle was named Penn State's tight ends coach on February 5, 2021.
- A four-year letterwinner on the Penn State offensive line (2009-13), Howle made his return to Happy Valley in 2020.
- Howle served as an offensive analyst for the Nittany Lions in 2020, working closely with offensive line coach Phil Trautwein and tight ends coach Tyler Bowen.
- During the 2020 season, the Nittany Lions paced the Big Ten in first downs (223) and were second in total offense (430.3).
- Tight end Pat Freiermuth was selected as the Kwalick-Clark Big Ten Tight End of the Year, becoming Penn State's first tight end to win the award, while four Penn State offensive linemen earned All-Big Ten honors including Will Fries (second team), Mike Miranda (second team), Michal Menet (third team) and Rasheed Walker (third team).
- Prior to his return to Happy Valley, Howle spent four seasons on the coaching staff at Western Illinois.
- He was hired by then-WIU head coach and former Penn State quarterbacks coach Charlie Fisher to coach the offensive line in 2016.
- After adding recruiting coordinator to his title in 2017, Howle was elevated to assistant head coach and co-offensive coordinator in 2018.
- During the 2018 season, Howle was the play caller for a WIU offense which ranked 21st nationally in passing offense.
- In 2017, Western Illinois' offensive line led the Missouri Valley Conference in fewest sacks allowed per passing attempt (16 total out of 408 attempts), paving the way for an FCS Playoffs appearance for the Leathernecks.
- Howle tutored Jacob Judd, who earned All-American laurels in 2017 and was a two-time all-conference selection.
- Offensive tackle Josh Baldus also earned All-MVC honors twice in 2016 and 2017.
- Judd and Baldus were part of a 2016 offensive line that helped the offense rank 17th nationally in passing and 12th in time of possession.
- Howle spent the 2014 and 2015 seasons at North Carolina State as a graduate assistant with the offensive line, working with current Pittsburgh Steelers offensive coordinator Matt Canada.
- During his two-year tenure with the Wolfpack, Howle worked with four linemen that went on to be either drafted or signed a free-agent contract with an NFL team.
- In 2015, Joe Thuney was the first Wolfpack offensive lineman to earn All-America honors since 1979 and did not allow a sack in 589 snaps during 2015 ACC play from his left tackle spot.
- NC State had one of the more balanced offenses in the country in 2014, as the Wolfpack averaged 204.5 yards rushing and 204.0 yards passing.
- Howle played a role in helping the NC State offensive line decrease its tackles for loss and sacks allowed, going from 102 TFLs and 36 sacks in 2013, to 59 TFLs and 29 sacks in 2014.

COACHING ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- Anthony Poindexter was named Penn State's co-defensive coordinator and safeties coach on February 23, 2021.
- Poindexter comes to Penn State from Purdue, where he spent the last four seasons holding the same position.
- During his 18-year coaching stint at the collegiate level, Poindexter has made stops at Virginia, UConn and Purdue.
- He's spent seven seasons with either a defensive coordinator or co-defensive coordinator title, including three years as the defensive coordinator at UConn (2014-16).
- Poindexter tutored a Purdue safety duo of Navon Mosley and walk-on Brennan Thieneman, who finished second and fourth on the team, respectively, in tackles in 2018, while Thieneman finished second on the team with five sacks. That was followed by Mosley and Thieneman finishing fourth and fifth, respectively, for Purdue in tackles in 2019 and Thieneman finishing fourth in 2020.
- Thieneman went on to earn All-Big Ten honors three times (2017, 2018 and 2020) while Cory Trice also earned All-Conference laurels in 2020.
- In his first season with the Boilermakers, Poindexter helped lead the defensive unit to a 17.7-point improvement in scoring defense from 38.2 points allowed per game in 2016 to 20.5 in 2017.
- Thieneman (80) and Mosely (65) finished third and fifth on the team in tackles, respectively, in 2017.
- Thieneman secured Purdue's victory in the Foster Farms Bowl with an interception on Arizona's final drive.
- Prior to his time at Purdue, Poindexter was the defensive coordinator and safeties coach at UConn for three seasons. During the 2016 campaign at UConn, Poindexter coached Senior Bowl-bound safety Obi Melifonwu to All-American Athletic Conference (AAC) honors. Melifonwu paced the Huskies with 118 tackles, including 73 solo stops, and four interceptions.
- In 2015, UConn earned a berth in the St. Petersburg Bowl, thanks in large part to its efforts on defense. Poindexter guided a defense which led the American Athletic Conference in total defense (33rd in FBS), red zone defense (7th), scoring defense (15th) and passing yards allowed (20th).
- Safety Andrew Adams earned second-team All-AAC honors under Poindexter's watch in 2015, as he led the team in tackles with 103. The Husky defense had a total of five players earn all-conference recognition that season.
- Prior to joining UConn, Poindexter was a member of the Virginia coaching staff for 11 seasons, spending the final five seasons coaching safeties.
- He joined the Cavaliers' coaching staff in 2003 as a graduate assistant, was UVA's running backs coach from 2004-05, running backs coach and assistant special teams coordinator from 2006-08, defensive backs coach and assistant special teams coordinator in 2009, safeties coach and special teams coordinator from 2010-12 and safeties coach in 2013.
- During the 2012 season, Poindexter mentored safety newcomers Anthony Harris and Brandon Phelps, who started all 12 games and finished among the team's top five tacklers. Harris was third for the Cavaliers with 87 tackles while Phelps accounted for 48 stops.
- In 2011, Poindexter's unit helped hold opponents to a completion percentage of just 53.7 percent, the second-lowest mark in the ACC. Rodney McLeod led the team with four interceptions and earned honorable-mention All-ACC accolades in 2011.
- Under Poindexter in 2009, UVA's defensive backs helped the Cavalier defense rank fourth in the ACC and 21st nationally in pass defense. Highlighting the group of defensive backs was second-team All-ACC honoree Ras-I Dowling and Chris Cook, who was chosen by the Minnesota Vikings in the second round (34th overall) of the 2010 NFL Draft.
- As running backs coach at Virginia, Poindexter coached Cedric Peerman, a nine-year NFL veteran, to 1,749 career rushing yards and 15 touchdowns.

JOHN SCOTT JR.

@CoachJScott_DL

COACHING ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- John Scott Jr. enters his second season in 2021 as Penn State's defensive line coach.
- In his first season, Scott tutored Jayson Oweh and Shaka Toney, who became the first Penn State defensive end duo to receive All-Big Ten first team honors since Courtney Brown and Brad Scioli in 1998.
- Oweh and Toney each earned 2021 NFL Combine invitations while Toney accepted an invitation to the Reese's Senior Bowl.
- Oweh was picked in the first round (31st overall) by the Baltimore Ravens in the 2021 NFL Draft, making him the first Penn State defensive end selected in the first round since 2009 (Aaron Maybin).
- Toney was selected by the Washington Football Team in the seventh round (246th overall) as he and Oweh became the first defensive end duo to be drafted in the same year for Penn State since 1975 (Mike Hartenstein and Greg Murphy).
- Toney finished the 2020 season ranking tied for fourth in the Big Ten in sacks.
- Scott came to the Nittany Lions after spending the 2019 season at South Carolina as the defensive line coach.
- Under Scott's guidance at South Carolina, Javon Kinlaw was named first-team All-SEC by the coaches.
- Kinlaw went on to be drafted in the first round of the 2020 NFL Draft by the San Francisco 49ers while defensive tackle Kobe Smith signed a rookie free-agent deal with the Tennessee Titans.
- Prior to joining the Gamecocks staff, Scott Jr. spent two seasons at Arkansas as the defensive tackles coach in 2018 and defensive line coach in 2017.
- Two Razorback defensive linemen earned NFL opportunities in 2020, as McTelvin Agim was selected in the third round by the Denver Broncos, while T.J. Smith inked a free-agent deal with the Los Angeles Chargers.
- The native of Greer, South Carolina worked with the NFL's New York Jets in 2015 and 2016.
- The Jets led the NFL in rushing touchdowns allowed and red zone defense and were second in rushing defense and fourth in total defense in 2015.
- In 2016, the Jets finished fifth in the AFC in rushing defense and rushing touchdowns allowed. Defensive tackle Leonard Williams earned Pro Bowl recognition that season.
- As the defensive line coach at Texas Tech (2013-14), Scott guided Kerry Hyder and Branden Jackson to the NFL Combine.
- Hyder earned All-Big 12 second-team accolades in 2013.
- Scott spent three seasons as the defensive line coach and special teams coordinator at Georgia Southern (2010-12), including one with Penn State defensive coordinator Brent Pry.
- Scott helped the Eagles to a pair of FCS semifinal appearances.
- He mentored Brent Russell, who was a three-time All-American under Scott and finished as the GSU career sacks leader.
- Scott led Roderick Tinsley to All-America status and helped John Douglas earn All-Southern Conference laurels in 2011.
- Tinsley was also a finalist for the Buck Buchanan Award for FCS's top defensive player in 2010.
- Scott also spent time at Missouri State (2009; outside linebackers), Western Carolina (2006-08; defensive ends/outside linebackers), Norfolk State (2005; defensive line), Louisiana-Lafayette (2002-04; defensive graduate assistant) and Western Davidson (N.C.) (2001).
- He spent three seasons at Louisiana-Lafayette working with Pry.

COACHING ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- Ja'Juan Seider is in his fourth season as the running backs coach at Penn State and his 14th season as a collegiate coach.
- He added run game coordinator to his title following the 2019 campaign.
- Seider was rated as the No. 8 recruiter in 2019 by 247Sports.
- After Journey Brown was forced to retire from football prior to the 2020 season and Noah Cain was lost for the year after being injured on the first drive in the opener at Indiana, Seider was tasked with mentoring a young running back group that consisted of one sophomore (Devyn Ford) and two true freshmen (Caziah Holmes and Keyvone Lee).
- With a youthful rushing attack, Penn State ranked fifth in the Big Ten in rushing, with Lee leading the way with 438 yards and four touchdowns in 2020, averaging 4.9 yards per carry (team high).
- In 2019, Brown posted 202 rushing yards in the Cotton Bowl, the most in a Penn State bowl game, breaking the record of 194 yards set by Saquon Barkley in the 2017 Rose Bowl.
- Brown ended the 2019 season with 11 rushes of 20 or more yards, including seven of 30 or more yards, three rushes over 40 yards, and two rushes over 50 yards.
- In 2018, Penn State posted its highest rushing average (204.9) since 2008 (205.8), led by second-team All-Big Ten selection Miles Sanders.
- Sanders posted the 26th 1,000-yard rushing season in program history, finishing with 1,274 yards to rank 11th on the single-season chart.
- Sanders became the 28th player in program history to rush for 200 yards against Illinois (9/21/18) and is one of six players in program history (nine occasions) to rush for 200 yards and three touchdowns in a game.
- Seider came to Happy Valley after serving as the running backs coach and recruiting coordinator at the University of Florida in 2017, where he guided a running backs room that finished with more than 1,500 rushing yards, including a pair of 500-yard rushers, with 13 touchdowns.
- As a unit, the Gator running backs averaged 4.0 yards per carry with freshmen Malik Davis (6.7 ypc) and Adarius Lemons (7.2 ypc) leading the way. Davis earned SEC All-Freshman honors for his efforts.
- Prior to Gainesville, Seider spent four seasons at West Virginia University as the running backs coach where he coached a pair of NFL backs.
- In 2015, Seider guided Wendell Smallwood as he led the Big 12 with 1,519 yards on the way to second-team All-Big 12 accolades. Smallwood was drafted in the fifth round of the 2016 NFL Draft by the Eagles.
- Seider was part of an offensive staff that led the Mountaineers to finish ninth in FBS in passing offense, 12th in total offense and 34th in scoring offense in 2014.
- In his first season at WVU, Seider recruited Charles Sims to Morgantown for his final collegiate season. Sims garnered first-team All-Big 12 honors and was the Big 12 Offensive Newcomer of the Year after rushing for 1,095 yards and 11 touchdowns, while catching 45 passes for 401 yards and three scores. Sims was the first Mountaineer to rush for 1,000 yards since 2009. He was drafted in the third round of the 2014 NFL Draft by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.
- During his tenure at Marshall, Seider helped the Thundering Herd win the Beef O'Brady's Bowl in 2011 and recruited quarterback Rakeem Cato, who was the 2012 Conference USA Player of the Year and two-time Conference USA Offensive Player of the Year.
- Seider also mentored two Conference USA Freshmen of the Year Kevin Grooms (2012) and Corey Tindal (2013).
- Seider joined the college coaching ranks at West Virginia University, where he served as a graduate assistant for two seasons.
- Seider worked with quarterbacks Jarrett Brown, Geno Smith and Pat White during his first stint in Morgantown. All three quarterbacks spent time in the NFL with White being a second-round selection in the 2009 NFL Draft and Smith going in the second round of the 2013 NFL Draft.
- Seider spent seven seasons as a high school football coach in Florida. He was the quarterbacks coach at Lake Worth High School (2006-07), offensive coordinator at Palm Beach Lakes High School (2003-05) and running backs coach at Glades Central High School (2001-02).

- Seider, who was the 1999 MEAC Offensive Player of the Year, was selected in the sixth round of the 2000 NFL Draft by the San Diego Chargers.
- He was inducted into the Palm Beach County Hall of Fame in 2017.

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH/DEFENSIVE RECRUITING COORDINATOR/CORNERBACKS

TERRY M. SMITH

@CoachTerryPSU

COACHING ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- A standout wide receiver at Penn State, Terry M. Smith is in his eighth season as the Nittany Lions' defensive recruiting coordinator and cornerbacks coach.
- Smith added the title of associate head coach following the 2020 season after being assistant head coach the previous five years.
- In his role as the defensive recruiting coordinator, Smith has helped the Nittany Lions secure eight consecutive top-25 classes, including a top-5 class in 2018 and top-15 classes in five of the last seven seasons.
- Over the last six years, Smith has played a pivotal role in helping develop six Nittany Lion defensive backs that were drafted, tied for the ninth most in the nation during that span.
- Both of Penn State's starting cornerbacks earned All-Big Ten honors in 2020, as Joey Porter Jr. picked up third team recognition and Tariq Castro-Fields earned honorable mention laurels from the league.
- During the 2019 season, Penn State's secondary allowed just 10 passing touchdowns (T-3rd nationally) and broke up 52 passes (T-23rd). The secondary contributed to 11 of PSU's nation's best 22 forced fumbles.
- Cornerbacks John Reid and Castro-Fields earned honorable mention All-Big Ten honors in 2019 and Reid was drafted in the fourth round of the 2020 NFL Draft by the Houston Texans.
- In 2018, the secondary limited opponents through the air, finishing fifth in yards per pass attempt (5.67), eighth in team passing efficiency (106.10) and 15th in passing yards allowed (181.5) in FBS.
- Cornerbacks Amani Ouwariye (first team) and Reid (honorable mention) each earned 2018 All-Big Ten honors.
- The Nittany Lions held three opponents to 60 or less yards through the air (Pittsburgh, 55; Wisconsin, 60; Rutgers, 46) in 2018. It was the first time since 1976 that PSU has held three teams to 60 or less passing yards.
- On the recruiting front, the 2019 signing class finished No. 11 according to Rivals and No. 13 per 247Sports and ESPN.com.
- Both of Smith's starting cornerbacks, Christian Campbell and Grant Haley, earned 2017 All-Big Ten honorable mention accolades and were invited to the NFL Combine. Campbell went on to be selected by the Arizona Cardinals in the sixth round of the 2018 NFL Draft, while Haley signed a free agent contract with the New York Giants.
- In addition, Ouwariye collected second-team All-Big Ten honors in 2017 after grabbing a team-high four picks to go with eight pass breakups.
- The defense finished in the Top 25 in FBS in scoring defense (7th; 16.5), total defense (17th; 329.5) and team passing efficiency defense (21st; 114.88) in 2017. Penn State's 16.5 points allowed per game were the fewest since the 2009 squad gave up 12.2 tallies per contest.
- In 2016, Haley scooped up the blocked field goal attempt and returned it 60 yards for the game-winning touchdown in the win over No. 2 Ohio State. Haley also made the game-sealing tackle on fourth-and-1 on Wisconsin's final drive of the Big Ten Championship Game.
- Reid earned All-Big Ten honorable mention accolades in 2016 after leading the Nittany Lions with 10 passes defended.
- Smith's second season saw the secondary rank eighth in the FBS in passing yards allowed (173.5).
- Cornerbacks Trevor Williams and Haley each earned honorable-mention All-Big Ten accolades in 2015.
- In his first year back at Penn State, he developed a secondary that pushed the Nittany Lions to finish No. 2 nationally in pass efficiency defense.
- Smith was the wide receivers coach at Temple in 2013, where the Owls set a school record for passing yards (2,996) and tied the school standard with 23 receiving touchdowns in 2013, with current Carolina Panther Robby Anderson gaining a school game-record 249 yards.
- A standout player at Gateway High School near Pittsburgh, Smith was a highly successful head coach at his alma mater from 2002-12, compiling a record of 101-30 and posting four WPIAL AAAA runner-up finishes.
- Smith coached in three U.S. Army All-American and Semper Fidelis All-America games.
- Smith also coached at Duquesne University (four years) and Hempfield (Pa.) High School.

COACHING ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- Taylor Stubblefield enters his second season in 2021 as Penn State's wide receivers coach and added the role of offensive recruiting coordinator following the 2020 campaign.
- In Stubblefield's first season leading the Nittany Lion receivers, Jahan Dotson earned honorable mention All-America honors from Phil Steele after leading the Big Ten in receiving yardage (884; 19th nationally), finishing third in receptions (52) and sitting fourth in yards per reception (17.0).
- Dotson also tied for the nation's lead in catches of 60-plus yards (4), as he caught at least one pass of 20 or more yards in eight of Penn State's nine games.
- Dotson's three-touchdown performance against Ohio State was a PSU receiver's first three-touchdown game since DaeSean Hamilton vs. Indiana in 2017, while his 75- and 70-yard touchdown receptions vs. Illinois marked the first time a Penn State player has had two catches of 70 or more yards in a game.
- Additionally in his first season, Stubblefield was tasked with tutoring a youthful receiving corps, which included true freshmen Parker Washington and KeAndre Lambert-Smith, who became the first pair of true freshmen receivers to start in a game for PSU since Saeed Blacknall and Chris Godwin in 2014.
- Washington, who was named a freshman All-American by The Athletic, set a true freshman record for Penn State with nine receptions in the win at Michigan.
- Washington finished the season tied for second nationally among true freshmen receivers in touchdowns (6) and sixth in receptions per game (5.0). Overall, he was tied for fifth in the Big Ten with the six touchdowns, 10th in yards (489) and tied for 11th in receptions (36).
- Stubblefield came to Penn State following the 2019 season where he was the wide receivers coach at the University of Miami, helping the Hurricanes to the Independence Bowl.
- Prior to his time at Miami, Stubblefield spent two seasons at the Air Force Academy where his receivers averaged 17.7 yards per reception during that span.
- Marcus Bennett finished his career averaging 21.6 yards per catch, which was fifth in Falcons history.
- The native of Yakima, Washington was the wide receivers coach for the Canadian Football League's (CFL) Toronto Argonauts in 2016 and was at Utah from 2014-15.
- Toronto wide out Kenny Shaw posted a 1,000-yard season with 77 receptions under Stubblefield's guidance.
- Stubblefield tutored three receivers at Utah that went on to have professional careers in the NFL in Kaelin Clay, Dres Anderson and Tim Patrick.
- During the 2013 season as the wide receivers coach at Wake Forest, Stubblefield mentored Michael Campanaro to second-team All-ACC honors with 67 receptions for 803 yards and six touchdowns.
- Campanaro went on to be a 2014 NFL Draft seventh-round pick by the Baltimore Ravens.
- Stubblefield also had coaching stops at New Mexico (2012), Central Michigan (2011), Illinois State (2009-10), Eastern Michigan (2008) and Central Washington (2007).
- While at CMU, he coached three third-team All-Mid-American Conference receivers in Titus Davis, Courtney Williams and Cody Wilson. Davis also earned Freshman All-America accolades from Phil Steele.
- While at Illinois State, Stubblefield led Eyad Salem to first-team All-Missouri Valley Football Conference honors as he set the school records for receptions in a season with 92 catches.

OFFENSIVE LINE

PHIL TRAUTWEIN

@CoachTrautFB

COACHING ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- Phil Trautwein enters his second season in 2021 as Penn State's offensive line coach.
- Trautwein was named to The American Football Coaches Association Class of 2021 "35 Under 35" list, recognizing the top-35 football coaches under the age of 35.
- He was the only Big Ten coach featured on the 2021 list as well as the only offensive line coach.
- Over the last three seasons between Penn State and Boston College, Trautwein has mentored 13 All-Conference offensive linemen.
- In his first season where the Nittany Lions ranked second in the Big Ten in total offense (430.3), four Penn State offensive linemen earned All-Big Ten honors including Will Fries (second team), Mike Miranda (second team), Michal Menet (third team) and Rasheed Walker (third team).
- Fries (Indianapolis Colts) and Menet (Arizona Cardinals) went on to get drafted in back-to-back picks in the seventh round of the 2021 NFL Draft.
- Trautwein previously served as the offensive line coach for two seasons at Boston College, helping the Eagles to a pair of bowl berths.
- Trautwein guided all five of his starting offensive linemen to 2019 All-ACC honors in John Phillips (first team), Zion Johnson (second team), Ben Petrula (second team), Alex Lindstrom (third team) and Tyler Vrabel (honorable mention).
- In addition to earning All-ACC honors, Vrabel was named a Freshman All-American by The Athletic.
- The Eagles allowed just 11 sacks in 2019, which was the third-fewest in FBS, and 57 tackles for loss, which was 13th in FBS.
- In addition, BC averaged 267.8 rushing yards per game to rank fifth in FBS in rushing offense.
- According to ESPN's Bill Connelly, Boston College was first in FBS in blitz down sack rate and third in power success rate (percentage of runs on third or fourth down with 2 yards or less to go that achieved a first down or touchdown) in 2019.
- SportSource Analytics also rated the Eagles sixth in offensive line efficiency that season.
- In his first season as BC's offensive line coach, Trautwein mentored Chris Lindstrom to All-America accolades and first-team All-ACC honors as BC's top offensive lineman.
- Lindstrom, who did not allow a sack and just three hurries in his final season, went on to be the first guard and second offensive lineman selected in the 2019 NFL Draft with the 14th overall pick.
- In addition to Lindstrom, he guided Aaron Monteiro, John Baker and Ben Petrula to All-ACC laurels. Monteiro also signed with the NFL's Miami Dolphins in 2019.
- Trautwein spent two seasons (2016-17) as the tight ends coach at Davidson College. He also served as special teams coordinator in 2017.
- The native of Voorhees, New Jersey, broke into the coaching ranks as a graduate assistant for three seasons (2013-15) at Boston College.
- During his time as a GA, he worked with the offensive line, tight ends and fullbacks.

COACHING ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- Dwight Galt is in his eighth year with the Nittany Lions and was promoted to Assistant Athletics Director, Performance Enhancement in March 2015.
- He oversees the performance enhancement regimen for all of Penn State's 31 varsity programs and works directly with the football program.
- With more than 36 years of strength and conditioning experience at the collegiate level, Galt worked with James Franklin at Maryland for eight years, before joining him at Vanderbilt from 2011-13.
- Galt has played a significant role in the Nittany Lions' 2016 Big Ten Championship run, as well as six of nine-plus win seasons under Franklin (4 at Penn State; 2 at Vanderbilt).
- At Penn State's 2021 Pro Day, linebacker Micah Parsons and defensive end Jayson Oweh put together top performances as they became the first set of PSU defensive players to be drafted in the first round since 2003.
- Eight of Galt's protégés participated in the 2018 NFL Combine and posted jaw-dropping numbers, which included top-5 positional finishes in 16 categories with top positional performances in 12.
- Galt and his performance enhancement staff design and administer dynamic and diverse strength and power training, speed enhancement, flexibility, conditioning, and agility training programs to maximize each athlete's athleticism.
- To bridge the gap between preparation and competition, Galt and his staff also focus on sport specificity, nutrition, and injury prevention to aggressively prepare each athlete for competition.
- Galt-trained athletes have consistently impressed NFL scouts, including running back Saquon Barkley, tight end Vernon Davis, tight end Mike Gesicki, wide receiver Darrius Heyward-Bey, and defensive end Shawn Merriman.
- Galt worked with a pair of Maryland's ACC Championship football teams and also served as the conditioning coach for the Terps' men's basketball program.
- From 1993-2011, Galt was responsible for the strength and conditioning for the student-athletes in all 27 Maryland sports.
- Galt is a prestigious Master Strength and Conditioning Coach (MSCC), certified with the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches' Association.
- One of his twin sons, Dwight Galt IV, is in his second season as the director of sports performance at Old Dominion. His other twin son, Tommy, is the offensive coordinator at Assumption College and spent two seasons as a graduate assistant football coach with the Nittany Lions.

- He also received his master's degree in health and physical education from Virginia Tech.
- Takach and his wife, Maggie, have a daughter, Samantha.

FOOTBALL

- Andy Mutnan is in his fourth year at Penn State as the head athletic trainer for football and his 19th overall.
- With an emphasis on safety, along with the precautions Mutnan, the rest of the medical team, the coaching staff, and support staff established, the Nittany Lions were one of only two Big Ten teams to play all nine of its scheduled games during a shortened 2020 season due to the COVID-19 pandemic.
- Prior to coming to Penn State, he spent five seasons at Washington State University as the head football athletic trainer.
- In addition, he spent five seasons at the University of Nevada as the associate director and head football athletic trainer.
- In his role at Washington State, Mutnan was responsible for daily medical coverage and training room operations.
- He developed and oversaw rehabilitation and reconditioning protocols and collaborated with the strength and conditioning staff to help student-athletes maintain and reach optimal performance.
- While at Nevada, Mutnan worked closely with student-athletes as the primary athletic trainer for football and golf.
- Mutnan served as an assistant athletic trainer (2004-08) and graduate assistant (2003-04) at the University of Minnesota.
- He spent the 2002-03 season at the University of Colorado as an athletic training professional intern.
- A native of Arvada, Colorado, Mutnan earned his bachelor's degree in athletic training with a minor in psychology from the University of North Dakota in 2002 and his master's degree in sports administration from the University of Minnesota in 2005.
- Mutnan is a member of the National Athletic Training Association.
- He and his wife, Amy, have two sons, Xander and Gavin, and a daughter, Sylvie.

TODD KULKA

ASSOCIATE DIRECTOR OF THE
MORGAN CENTER, DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL ACADEMIC SERVICES

- In his 29th year with the Penn State football program, both as a player and academic counselor, Todd Kulka is in his 18th year directing the Penn State Football Academic Support Center.
- Kulka works with the underclassmen in their transition from high school to college and assists the upperclassmen in selecting and finishing their degree programs and with their transition into their career path.
- The Nittany Lions posted their first 1,000 single-year APR in program history in 2018-19, topping the previous high of 993 in 2014-15.
- Kulka coordinates the structured study program, provides counseling and advising, tracks and monitors grades and eligibility and assists with on-campus recruiting.
- A 1995 Penn State graduate, Kulka is in his 23rd year on the academic support staff. He was a graduate assistant for three years and received his master's degree in education from Penn State in 2000, moving into a full-time academic counselor position in 2000.
- The Nittany Lions have earned 20 first-team CoSIDA Academic All-America honors during Kulka's tenure as director, including Penn State's first three-time recipient Stefan Wisniewski (2008-10) and first Campbell Trophy recipient John Urschel (2013).
- Penn State football broke its program record for the second consecutive year with an NCAA Graduation Success Rate of 91 percent, tied with Rutgers for the No. 7 graduation rate among all 120 Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) teams, according to the NCAA in October 2012.
- Kulka and his wife, Meghan, have three children, McKenna, Connor and Cole.

BIG TEN TIGHT END OF THE YEAR

- TE Pat Freiermuth was selected as the 2020 Kwalick-Clark Big Ten Tight End of the Year.
- Freiermuth is Penn State's first tight end to win the award.
- Freiermuth started the first four games before a season-ending injury.
- Prior to his injury, Freiermuth led all FBS tight ends with 5.8 receptions per game and ranked fifth averaging 77.5 receiving yards per game.
- Freiermuth sat seventh overall in the Big Ten in receptions, eighth in receiving yards (310) and ninth in receiving yards per game. He still led all Big Ten tight ends in receiving yards.
- Freiermuth finished his Penn State career catching at least one pass in 29-straight games, dating back to the Pitt game (9/8/18), which was tied for the longest active streak among FBS tight ends with Wisconsin's Jake Ferguson through November 14.
- Freiermuth was a preseason first team All-American by multiple outlets and was a member of the John Mackey and Biletnikoff Award Watch Lists.

ALL-BIG TEN SELECTIONS - OFFENSE

- TE Pat Freiermuth led PSU's six selections. He was selected as first team All-Big Ten by the coaches and second team All-Big Ten by the media.
- Freiermuth was a second team All-Big Ten selection in 2019 and an honorable mention selection in 2018.
- OL Will Fries and OL Mike Miranda were both named second team All-Big Ten by the coaches. Miranda was also named second team All-Big Ten by the media, while Fries was voted honorable mention by the media. Fries and Miranda both started all nine games in 2020.
- WR Jahan Dotson and OL Michal Menet were picked third team All-Big Ten by the coaches and media. Dotson led the Big Ten with 884 receiving yards and was one of three Power Five receivers with at least 52 receptions, 884 receiving yards and eight receiving touchdowns through the first nine games of the season. Menet started all nine games at center.
- Menet was an honorable mention All-Big Ten selection in 2019.
- OL Rasheed Walker earned third team All-Big Ten as voted by the media and honorable mention All-Big Ten as voted by the coaches. Walker started all nine games at left tackle.
- Fries also earned the Big Ten Sportsmanship Award.

WASHINGTON A FRESHMAN
ALL-AMERICAN

- As a true freshman in 2020, WR Parker Washington earned Freshman All-America second team honors from The Athletic.
- Washington finished tied for fifth in the Big Ten in receiving touchdowns (6; T-47th nationally), 10th in yards (489), and tied for 11th in receptions (36).
- He led all Big Ten freshmen in receptions, yards and touchdowns was tied for second among true freshmen receivers nationally in touchdown receptions and sixth in receptions per game (4.0).
- The Sugar Land, Texas native was seventh among Power Five true freshmen receivers in yards per game (54.3).

ALL-BIG TEN SELECTIONS - DEFENSE

- DE Jayson Oweh and DE Shaka Toney both earned first team All-Big Ten honors. Toney was selected first team by the coaches and media. Oweh was a first team selection by the coaches and a second team honoree by the media.
- Oweh and Toney became the first Penn State defensive end duo to receive first team honors since Courtney Brown and Brad Scioli in 1998.
- Toney ranked second on the team with 7.5 tackles for loss, while Oweh had 6.5 TFL. Toney paced the squad with five sacks.
- Toney was a second team honoree by the coaches in 2019.
- S Jaquan Brisker was selected third team All-Big Ten by the coaches and honorable mention by the media. He had 57 tackles and a team-high six pass breakups in 2020.
- CB Joey Porter Jr. and S Lamont Wade were voted third team All-Big Ten by the media and honorable mention by the coaches.
- Wade was named honorable mention by the coaches and media in 2019.
- CB Tariq Castro-Fields, DT PJ Mustipher, DT Antonio Shelton and LB Brandon Smith were all named honorable mention All-Big Ten by the coaches and media.
- Castro-Fields was a third team selection by the media and an honorable mention pick by the coaches in 2019.

DOTSON HONORED AS A RETURNER

- PR Jahan Dotson was named honorable mention All-Big Ten as a return specialist by the coaches and media.
- Dotson led the Big Ten with a 24.6 punt return average, which is good for first all-time at Penn State.

DOTSON'S IMPRESSIVE PRODUCTION

- WR Jahan Dotson's 884 yards ranked 17th nationally and his eight touchdowns ranked tied for 15th among teams who have played at least nine games. His 52 receptions ranked 33rd.
- Dotson averaged 17.0 yards per reception (minimum 50 catches) through his first nine games of 2020, which ranked fourth nationally and led the Power Five for a player's first nine games of the 2020 season.
- Dotson's 17.0 yards per reception (minimum 50 catches) ranked fourth in the FBS and second among Power Five players for the 2020 season.
- Dotson was one of four Power Five receivers to total at least 50 receptions, 880 yards receiving and eight receiving touchdowns in their first nine games of the season in 2020, joining Alabama's Devonta Smith (80 rec, 1,305 yards, 15 TD), Ole Miss' Elijah Moore (86 rec, 1,193 yards, 8 TD) and Wake Forest's Jaquarii Roberson (62 rec, 926 yards, 8 TD) and one of nine in FBS.

2020 SEASON IN REVIEW

YOUNG WEAPONS STEP UP

- Penn State had an emergence of true freshmen skill players on offense in running backs Keyvone Lee and Caziah Holmes, wide receivers Parker Washington and KeAndre Lambert-Smith, and tight end Theo Johnson, with true freshmen accounting for 1,486 of Penn State's 3,873 yards (38 percent), marking a school record for most combined scrimmage yards by true freshmen in a single season.
- True freshmen accounted for 267 of Penn State's 417 total yards (64%) against Michigan.
- With 73 receptions by true freshmen in 2020, Penn State ranked fourth among FBS programs behind Mississippi State (158), LSU (112) and Texas Tech (80).
- Against Michigan, Johnson, Lee and Washington all started. It marked the first time in program history that Penn State started a freshman at all three of those positions.
- Lee rushed for a career-high 134 yards and a touchdown on a career-best 22 carries in his first career start against the Wolverines.
- Washington hauled in a career-high nine catches for 93 yards at Michigan.
- Washington's nine receptions were the most by a PSU true freshman in program history.
- Lee led PSU with 438 rushing yards and four rushing touchdowns. His 4.9 yards per carry also paced the team. Lee's 12 catches lead PSU running backs.
- Washington ranked second on the team with 36 receptions, 489 receiving yards and six touchdowns.
- Lambert-Smith had 15 catches for 138 yards, while Johnson made his first two career catches against the Hawkeyes.
- Holmes rushed for 227 yards and two touchdowns and caught six passes.

ALLOWING FEW POINTS

- Penn State held Rutgers to seven points, marking the 21st time holding an opponent to seven or less points since 2014. That is tied for the fourth-most among FBS teams.
- Fifteen of the 21 times holding opponents to seven or less points have come against Big Ten opponents.

BALANCED DEFENSIVE EFFORT

- One of the strengths of the Penn State defense in 2020 was a balanced effort in getting to the ball carrier.
- Nine players had at least 31 tackles on the season, led by LB Ellis Brooks' 60 stops.
- LB Jesse Luketa tallied 59 tackles, while S Jaquan Brisker collected 57 stops. DE Jayson Oweh had 38 tackles and LB Brandon Smith and S Lamont Wade owned 37.
- Four players recorded double-digit tackle games in 2020: Brooks (11 vs. Ohio State), Oweh (10 vs. Maryland), Wade (10 vs. Iowa) and Luketa (10 vs. Rutgers).
- It was also a balanced effort to stop plays behind the line of scrimmage. Twenty-two players contributed to Penn State's 59 tackles for loss.
- Smith led the team with 8.0 tackles for loss, while DE Shaka Toney had 7.5 and Oweh had 6.5. Brooks owned 5.5 tackles for loss.

Keyvone Lee led all PSU running backs in 2020 with 438 rushing yards.

BEHIND THE LINE

- Penn State's 2.44 sacks per game in 2020 ranked fifth in the Big Ten.
- Penn State's 21 sacks were tallied by 12 different players.
- The Nittany Lions tallied 10 tackles for loss and four sacks against Michigan State.
- Penn State registered its 24th game with 10 or more tackles for loss in the James Franklin era.
- DE Shaka Toney notched three tackles for loss, two sacks and a forced fumble against Iowa.
- It was Toney's second game with multiple sacks in 2020. He also had two at Indiana.
- Toney collected two or more sacks in five career games and recorded two or more sacks in a quarter three times in his career (2018 at Indiana, 2019 vs. Purdue, 2020 at Indiana).
- Toney finished with 20.5 career sacks, tied for eighth all-time at Penn State.
- Penn State's 3.10 sacks per game over the last five years (77 games; 2015-20) trail only Clemson (3.36).
- Penn State's 239 sacks over the last six years (2015-20) are third only to Clemson (289) and Alabama (256).
- Over the last six years, Penn State has cumulated a 9.03 percent sack percentage (239 sacks on 2,829 plays), which ranks third behind Clemson (10.25%) and Michigan (9.39%).
- PSU posted five consecutive 40-plus sack seasons for the first time in program history after totaling 45 in 2019, 47 in 2018, 42 in 2017, 40 in 2016 and 46 in 2015.
- Toney also had 29.5 career tackles for loss. He had seven career games with at least two tackles for loss.
- Penn State's 3.10 sacks per game over the last five years (77 games; 2015-20) trail only Clemson (3.36).
- Penn State's 239 sacks over the last six years (2015-20) are third only to Clemson (289) and Alabama (256).

GAME RECAP

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. — Penn State quarterback Sean Clifford accounted for four touchdowns, including a late go-ahead touchdown pass and an overtime touchdown throw, but Indiana rallied to defeat No. 8/7 Penn State, 36-35, in the extra frame.

Clifford accounted for four touchdowns (3 passing, 1 rushing) and 357 yards of total offense, throwing for 238 yards on 24-of-35 passing and rushing for 119 yards — the seventh-most by a quarterback in Penn State history. Pat Freiermuth became Penn State's career leader in touchdown receptions by a tight end and caught seven passes for 60 yards. Wide receiver Jahan Dotson had four catches for 94 yards, including a late 60-yard touchdown reception. Shaka Toney led the Penn State defense with seven tackles, which were all solo and included two sacks. Safety Lamont Wade recovered a fumble and made his first career interception.

For Indiana, quarterback Michael Penix Jr. went 19-for-36 passing for 170 yards with a touchdown throw in overtime and two successful two-point conversion rushes — one to force overtime and one to win the game — while running back Stevie Scott III rushed for two touchdowns in the first half. Safety Jamar Johnson made 10 tackles, an interception and forced a fumble the Hoosiers recovered, while cornerback Jaylin Williams also added an interception.

How It Happened

With Penn State trailing by six late in the fourth quarter, Clifford found Dotson over the middle for a 60-yard touchdown strike and a 21-20 Penn State lead. Then after stopping Indiana on fourth down, running back Devyn Ford rushed for a touchdown with 1:42 remaining for a 28-20 PSU advantage. However, Indiana's Penix led the Hoosiers on a game-tying touchdown drive, rushing for both the touchdown and ensuing two-point attempt.

In overtime, Clifford threw a 9-yard touchdown pass to Parker Washington for a 35-28 Nittany Lion lead, but Penix answered with a 9-yard touchdown pass to Whop Philyor on Indiana's possession, and the Hoosiers elected to go for two to decide the game. Penix ran left and dove, extending the football towards the pylon, making contact with both it and the ground out of bounds, for what was ruled a touchdown. The play was reviewed, but the call stood.

Penn State took the game's first lead with Freiermuth's touchdown catch on the opening drive, converting on fourth-and-goal from the 2-yard line.

Williams intercepted Clifford late in the first quarter leading to the Hoosiers' first score, a field goal, early in the second quarter. Scott then gave Indiana a 17-7 lead with a pair of rushing touchdowns.

Clifford scampered for a 35-yard touchdown run to cut the deficit to three at the end of the third quarter, before Indiana added a field goal for a 20-14 advantage. Penn State was able to retake the lead on the Clifford-Dotson score, but Indiana answered.

Notes

- Penn State dropped to 22-2 all-time against Indiana, including an 11-2 mark in Bloomington. The Nittany Lions snapped a six-game win streak against the Hoosiers.
- Penn State converted 27 first downs, tying the ninth-most by the team in the James Franklin era.
- The Nittany Lions tallied 52 rushing attempts, equaling the fourth-most by the program under James Franklin. Penn State last had 52 rushing attempts against Iowa in 2016.
- The Nittany Lions scored on their opening drive, covering 7:01. It was Penn State's longest time-covering drive since a 9:01 drive against Indiana in 2019.
- WR Parker Washington became the first true freshman wide receiver to start a season opener since Brandon Polk against Temple in 2015.
- Washington caught a 9-yard touchdown pass in overtime, marking the second-straight season opener with a freshman catching a touchdown pass. Brenton Strange caught a 4-yard touchdown reception against Idaho in 2019.
- QB Sean Clifford ran for a career-best 119 yards on 17 carries. It was his first career 100-yard rushing game and Penn State's first 100-yard rushing game by a quarterback since Will Levis ran for 108 yards against Rutgers in 2019.
- Clifford scored on a 35-yard run at the end of the third quarter. It was Clifford's second career rushing touchdown over 30 yards, joining his 38-yard run against Indiana in 2019.
- TE Pat Freiermuth owns the Penn State career record for receiving touchdowns by a tight end with 16 career touchdown grabs. He broke a tie with Mike Gesicki (2014-17).
- WR Jahan Dotson hauled in a 60-yard touchdown reception in the fourth quarter. It was Dotson's fifth career touchdown catch and his fourth of 40 or more yards.
- The Nittany Lions held Indiana to 211 total yards, the ninth-fewest allowed under James Franklin.
- Indiana attempted only 26 rushes, tied for the sixth-lowest by any opponent in the James Franklin era.
- DE Shaka Toney matched a career high with seven tackles, tying his performance against Michigan in 2019.
- S Lamont Wade intercepted a pass in the third quarter, his first career interception.
- CB Joey Porter Jr. registered his first career sack in the first quarter and collected a career-best five tackles, topping two tackles against Rutgers in 2019.
- LB Ellis Brooks forced his first career forced fumble.

GAME RECAP

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. — Wide receiver Jahan Dotson scored three touchdowns and totaled 144 yards receiving for No. 18/17 Penn State, but No. 3 Ohio State made an early lead last for a 38-25 win over the Nittany Lions.

It was Dotson's second career 100-yard receiving game and a career-high total, and his three touchdowns and eight receptions were also career highs. Quarterback Sean Clifford completed 18-of-30 passes for 281 yards and the three touchdowns. Of Clifford's passing yards, 252 came in the second half.

Ohio State was paced by quarterback Justin Fields, who completed 28-of-34 passes for 318 yards and four touchdowns. Garrett Wilson caught 11 passes for 111 yards and had a 62-yard rush, while Chris Olave caught seven passes for 120 yards and 2 touchdowns and Jeremy Ruckert added a pair of receiving touchdowns.

Linebacker Ellis Brooks paced the Penn State defense with a career-high 11 tackles, while linebacker Brandon Smith and defensive tackle Antonio Shelton both tallied sacks. Tommy Togiai led Ohio State with seven tackles and three sacks and Marcus Hooker had six tackles and an interception.

How It Happened

Ohio State jumped out to an early two-touchdown lead. Wilson broke free for 62 yards on the first play from scrimmage and Master Teague III scored from four yards out two plays later to give the Buckeyes a 7-0 lead. Penn State failed to convert on fourth-and-two at its own 45 on the ensuing drive, and Ohio State took advantage of the short field when Olave hauled in a 26-yard touchdown catch.

Penn State put together a field goal drive for its first score with 2:57 remaining in the first quarter, but the Buckeyes added another touchdown before the end of the half on a 10-yard throw to Jeremy Ruckert over the middle. Jordan Stout drilled a 50-yard field goal for the Nittany Lions as the half expired to go to halftime down 21-6.

Penn State opened the second half with the ball and marched down the field for an eight-play, 75-yard drive capped by a 14-yard touchdown reception by Dotson. Ohio State answered midway through the third quarter with a 49-yard touchdown catch by Olave and added a field goal before the end of the quarter.

The Nittany Lions made it a 31-19 game at the start of the fourth quarter after a pair of highlight reel catches by Dotson. On the first play of the final stanza on third-and-17, Dotson caught a 37-yard pass with one hand and the side of his helmet. On the next play, he made a one-handed snag for a 21-yard touchdown catch.

Fields found Ruckert again in the end zone with 9:14 to go and Clifford connected with Dotson on a 20-yard strike with 6:27 to go to make it a 38-25 game. Hooker sealed the game for Ohio State with an interception in Penn State territory in the game's final minutes.

GAME RECAP

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. — Penn State tried to rally from an early deficit with 290 yards of total offense in the second half, but Maryland's explosive scoring plays in the first half were enough for a 35-19 victory in Big Ten football action Saturday in Beaver Stadium.

Penn State held Maryland to 70 yards with no scores on offense in the second half, but was unable to overcome a 28-7 halftime deficit.

Penn State quarterback Sean Clifford attempted a school-record 57 passes and threw for 340 yards and three touchdowns as he tried to rally the Nittany Lions late, and freshman wide receiver Parker Washington caught eight passes for 70 yards and two touchdowns. Wide receiver Jahan Dotson finished with nine catches for 123 yards - his second-straight 100-yard receiving game - and tight end Pat Freiermuth caught six passes for 91 yards, as both surpassed 1,000 yards receiving for their careers in the game.

Maryland scored all of its touchdowns from 34 or more yards out. Quarterback Taulia Tagovailoa completed 18-of-26 passes for 282 yards and three touchdowns, while wide receiver Rakim Jarrett caught five passes for 144 yards and two touchdowns and wide receiver Dontay Demus caught six passes for 86 yards and one touchdown. Running back Jake Funk ran 16 times for 80 yards and a 38-yard touchdown run.

Defensive end Jayson Oweh led the Nittany Lions on defense with a career-high 10 tackles and two tackles for loss, while safety Nick Cross led the Terps with eight tackles, a sack, interception and two pass break ups.

How It Happened

Maryland took a 14-0 lead in the first quarter on a pair of big touchdown receptions by Jarrett, who caught a 42-yard touchdown the Terps' first possession and a 62-yard score with 19 seconds remaining in the opening frame, and then went up three touchdowns with a 38-yard rush by Funk early in the second quarter.

Penn State got on the board with 6:32 remaining in the half, as Clifford engineered a 10-play, 75-yard touchdown drive capped by a 20-yard touchdown toss to Dotson, but Tagovailoa connected with Demus for a 34-yard touchdown before the break for a 28-7 halftime lead.

Maryland extended its lead in the second half on a fumble recovery for a touchdown. Clifford connected with Washington for a 23-yard touchdown with 10:16 remaining to complete a 16-play, 98-yard drive, and again in the final seconds for a 1-yard score.

Notes

- Penn State dropped to 40-3-1 against Maryland all-time, snapping a five-game win streak.
- The Nittany Lions are now 23-2 at home against Maryland.
- Penn State is 5-2 against Maryland since the Terrapins joined the Big Ten in 2014.
- The Nittany Lions snapped a streak of 14-straight wins against teams within 250 miles of Beaver Stadium.
- Freshman receivers KeAndre Lambert-Smith and Parker Washington both started for the Nittany Lions, marking the first time two true freshman receivers started for Penn State since Saeed Blacknall and Chris Godwin at Michigan in 2014.
- Penn State's 93 plays on offense were its most since having 99 at Iowa in 2017.
- QB Sean Clifford attempted a program-record 57 passes. The record was previously held by Christian Hackenberg (55; at Indiana, 2013).
- Clifford finished with 340 passing yards, marking his third career 300-yard game. He is tied with Daryll Clark (2006-09) for fifth place on Penn State's all-time list.
- His nine career games of 200-plus yards passing moves him into a tie for 10th with Todd Blackledge (1980-82) and Wally Richardson (1992, 94-96).
- The 340 yards ranks tied for 16th in program history, matching his own mark at Minnesota in 2019 and Christian Hackenberg's performance at Indiana in 2013.
- WR Jahan Dotson became the first Penn State football player to have a touchdown catch in each of the first three games of a season since Allen Robinson accomplished the feat in 2013 (vs. Syracuse, Eastern Michigan, UCF).
- Dotson's five touchdowns in the first three games of the season tie the Penn State record set by Joe Jurevicius in 1997.
- WR Parker Washington became the first Penn State true freshman to have two touchdown receptions in a game since Pat Freiermuth did so against Rutgers in 2018.
- DE Jayson Oweh is the first Penn State defensive lineman with 10 or more tackles in a game since Yetur Gross-Matos against Indiana in 2018 (10 tackles).
- DE Shane Simmons recorded a career-high 1.5 sacks.
- K Jake Pinegar registered his 200th career point on an extra point in the second quarter.

GAME RECAP

LINCOLN, Neb. — Penn State trimmed a 21-point halftime deficit to just seven points late, but Nebraska took advantage of early turnovers and made a pair of fourth-down stops in the red zone in the final minutes to hang on for a 30-23 victory.

The Nittany Lions outscored Nebraska 17-3 over the final 30 minutes, but it was not enough to overcome a 27-6 halftime deficit.

Will Levis threw for a career-high 219 yards on 14-of-31 passing and rushed for 61 yards after entering the game in the second quarter, and running backs Keyvone Lee and Devyn Ford ran for a touchdown each in the second half. Pat Freiermuth led Penn State in receiving with seven catches for a career-high 113 yards, including a career-long 74-yard reception, while Parker Washington caught five passes for 70 yards. Jayson Oweh and Jesse Luketa paced the defense with nine tackles each, and Oweh made 1.5 stops behind the line while Luketa made one.

How It Happened

Penn State trimmed its first-half deficit to 11 in the third quarter with a 31-yard rushing touchdown by Keyvone Lee followed by a field goal. Nebraska added a field goal early in the fourth quarter for a 30-16 lead, but on the Nittany Lions' next possession, Levis spun away from a blitz to connect with Freiermuth for a 74-yard gain to the Nebraska 1, which led to a Ford rushing TD with 9:20 to go.

Trailing 30-23 during the ensuing Nebraska drive, Oweh pressured McCaffrey, forcing him to throw a ball up for grabs, and linebacker Brandon Smith snagged it for Penn State at the Nebraska 48 with 7:39 remaining. Penn State drove to the 11-yard line, but the Huskers forced four-straight incompletions and took over on downs with 3:37 to go. However, the Nittany Lion defense forced a three-and-out to get the ball back with 2:34 left.

Levis started the offensive drive from the Penn State 31 with a 14-yard rush, and then went 5-for-6 passing for 46 yards to lead the Lions to the Nebraska 9. However, the Huskers drew incompletions on the next two plays, Luke Reimer sacked Levis on third down, and Penn State was unable to convert on fourth down from the 13.

Nebraska had built a 27-6 lead through halftime, including 10 points off turnovers. The Huskers opened the game with a McCaffrey touchdown run, and an interception by Cam Taylor-Britt led to a field goal for a 10-0 lead. Penn State kicked a field goal at the start of the second quarter, but then Nebraska's Xavier Betts broke free for a 45-yard touchdown reception and Deontai Williams scored on a 26-yard strip-sack fumble recovery touchdown run for a 24-3 lead. Both teams added field goal before the break.

Notes

- Penn State is now 8-10 all-time against Nebraska.
- The Nittany Lions moved to 2-6 at Nebraska.
- The Blue & White is now 1-4 against Nebraska since the Cornhuskers joined the Big Ten in 2011.
- Penn State's 501 yards of total offense is its most since the 529 it recorded in the 2019 Cotton Bowl vs. Memphis.

GAME RECAP

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. — Penn State trimmed its third-quarter deficit to 13 with touchdowns on back-to-back throws by Sean Clifford, but the Nittany Lions fell 41-21 against Iowa in Big Ten action at Beaver Stadium on Saturday. The Hawkeyes found success on the ground, scoring four rushing touchdowns.

Penn State quarterback Sean Clifford entered the game in the third quarter and immediately sparked the Nittany Lion offense. He found Brenton Strange (28 yards) and Jahan Dotson (68 yards) for touchdowns on back-to-back throws. The Nittany Lions' late rally was not enough to overcome a 24-7 halftime deficit. Iowa added a late touchdown on a 71-yard interception return by Daviyon Nixon.

Clifford finished the game completing 13-of-22 passes for 174 yards, while starter Will Levis completed 13-of-16 passes for 106 yards. Dotson caught eight passes for 139 yards to earn his third 100-yard receiving game of the season. Lamont Wade led the Penn State defense with 10 tackles and a fumble recovery to setup a touchdown. Shaka Toney recorded three tackles for loss, including two sacks, while Jayson Oweh had six tackles, including 1.5 for loss. Iowa rushed for 175 yards, led by Mekhi Sargent's 101 yards and two touchdowns. Tyler Goodson added 78 yards and a touchdown. Spencer Petras completed 18-of-28 passes for 186 yards and rushed for a 3-yard score. Nick Niemann led the Hawkeye defensive unit with 17 tackles. Jack Campbell contributed seven tackles, a sack and a forced fumble.

How It Happened

Penn State answered an Iowa field goal with a 6-yard rushing touchdown by Keyvone Lee late in the first quarter. A methodical drive included 44 rushing yards and six completions by Levis. On third-and-goal, Lee took a handoff through the middle.

The Hawkeyes responded with three rushing touchdowns, including a 10-yard run by Goodson and a pair of 1-yard runs by Sargent, to take a 24-7 lead into halftime. Iowa pushed its lead to 31-7 in the third quarter on a 3-yard sneak by Petras.

The Nittany Lions trimmed the deficit on a 28-yard touchdown pass by Clifford to Strange along the right sideline. The score was setup by an Iowa botched snap at their own 30, recovered by Wade and returned to the 28-yard-line.

Following a missed field goal by Iowa, Clifford's first throw of the ensuing drive connected with Dotson for a 68-yard touchdown. Clifford got the Hawkeyes' defense to bite on a pump-fake before finding an open Dotson deep down the field. Lee scored on a run to convert the two-point conversion. The Nittany Lions trailed 31-21 with seven seconds left in the third quarter.

Iowa answered with a 24-yard field goal by Keith Duncan. The Hawkeyes added to their lead on Nixon's pick-six late in the fourth quarter.

GAME RECAP

ANN ARBOR, Mich. — Penn State collected a season-high 254 rushing yards as it earned a 27-17 win over Michigan on Saturday. It was Penn State's first win in The Big House since 2009.

Penn State gained 417 total yards, its fourth time this season reaching the 400-yard mark. The Nittany Lions were led by Keyvone Lee, who rushed for a career-high 134 yards on 22 carries, while adding a 6-yard score. Sean Clifford completed 17-of-28 passes for 163 yards. He added 73 yards on the ground, including a 29-yard touchdown run. Will Levis added a 2-yard rushing touchdown in the fourth quarter to help put the game away. Parker Washington led the PSU receivers with nine catches for 93 yards, both career marks.

The Nittany Lions held Michigan to 126 total yards in the second half. Penn State limited the Wolverines to 112 passing yards for the game. A balanced defensive effort saw five players record at least five tackles, led by Ellis Brooks' six stops. Jaquan Brisker, PJ Mustipher, Brandon Smith and Marquis Wilson each had five tackles.

How It Happened

Penn State scored on its opening drive for the first time this season, finishing the drive on a 6-yard run by Lee. On the drive, Lee gained 39 yards on six carries, while Clifford completed a 20-yard pass to Washington and a 16-yard strike to Isaac Lutz to setup the Nittany Lions in the red zone.

Michigan answered late in the first quarter. Haskins scored on a 2-yard run after having a 59-yard burst on the first play of the drive.

Clifford found the end zone on a 28-yard run in the second quarter. On a draw play, the Nittany Lion offensive line created a huge hole up the middle for Clifford to run through and find his way up the left sideline, untouched into the end zone.

The Nittany Lions added to their lead with a 22-yard field goal by Jake Pinegar to close out the first half. Penn State benefitted from a muffed punt return that bounced right into the hands of Drew Hartlaub at the Michigan 27-yard line. A 9-yard connection from Clifford to Dotson and a 10-yard run on a draw by Clifford setup an easy kick for Pinegar.

The teams traded field goals in the third quarter with Jake Moody hitting a 40-yard kick for the Wolverines and Pinegar converting a 33-yard field goal for the Nittany Lions.

Michigan cut the Nittany Lions' lead to three early in the fourth quarter on a 2-yard touchdown run by Haskins.

However, Penn State responded with a 12-play, 75-yard drive covering five minutes. The drive finished on a 2-yard touchdown run around the right side of the line by Will Levis. A key 24-yard run by Lee took the Nittany Lions into Michigan territory. The drive was aided by two catches by Dotson that resulted in first downs. Levis' score put the Nittany Lions ahead by two possessions, 27-17.

GAME RECAP

PISCATAWAY, N.J. — Penn State added to its impressive football history on Saturday as it earned the program's 900th win. The Nittany Lions' used a strong defensive effort to pick up a 23-7 win over Rutgers at SHI Stadium.

The Nittany Lion offense gained 248 yards on the ground, its third time running for over 245 yards in the last four games. Keyvone Lee led Penn State with 95 yards on 17 carries, while Devyn Ford rushed for 65 yards and a touchdown. Sean Clifford completed 15-of-22 passes for 133 yards, including a 29-yard touchdown pass to Parker Washington. Will Levis added 65 yards on 17 carries. Jake Pinegar hit both of his field goal attempts, while Jordan Stout converted a 47-yard kick.

Penn State held Rutgers to 205 total yards, including just 83 rushing. Jesse Luketa led the unit with 10 tackles, a tackle for loss and a fumble recovery. Ellis Brooks and Joey Porter Jr. each recorded seven tackles with Porter adding a tackle for loss. Brooks forced a fumble in the third quarter.

The Nittany Lions held Rutgers to just 43 yards in the first half, including just 12 yards on the ground. Rutgers' first six drives resulted in four three-and-outs and two turnovers. Penn State held Rutgers to zero or negative yards on 13 plays in the half.

How It Happened

After stopping a Rutgers run on fourth down, the Nittany Lions found the end zone on a 29-yard strike from Clifford to Washington. After starting the drive on the Rutgers 45 yard-line, Penn State got on the board as Washington caught a slant pass over the middle and went untouched into the end zone.

The Nittany Lions added a field goal on their next drive. An 11-play, 74-yard drive was capped by a 30-yard boot from Pinegar. All 74 yards coming through runs.

Penn State expanded its lead to 17-0 on a 7-yard touchdown run by Ford. After another stop on a Rutgers fourth down attempt, a 21-yard run by Lee placed Penn State just outside the red zone. A connection from Clifford to Isaac Lutz set up the Nittany Lions inside the Rutgers 5 yard-line. Two plays later, Ford found open space around the right side of the line.

Stout converted a 47-yard field goal early in the third quarter. The Nittany Lions took advantage of another short field after a fumble was forced by Brooks and recovered by Luketa at the Rutgers 39 yard-line.

Penn State extended its lead to 23-7 in the fourth quarter. After a punt pinned the Nittany Lions at their own 2 yard-line, Lee broke a 31-yard run and a penalty moved the ball to the 50 yard-line. A 14-yard run by Lee and a 12-yard carry by Levis got the blue and white into the red zone. The drive finished with a 27-yard field goal by Pinegar.

GAME RECAP

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. — Penn State outscored Michigan State, 29-3, in the second half on its way to a 39-24 win on Saturday at Beaver Stadium. A pair of touchdown connections from Sean Clifford to Parker Washington and a punt return touchdown by Jahan Dotson highlighted a big second half.

Sean Clifford completed 17-of-27 passes for 232 yards and two touchdowns. He added 48 rushing yards, including a 31-yard score. Will Levis completed all three of his pass attempts for 54 yards and scored on a 1-yard run. Jahan Dotson caught eight passes for 108 yards, his fourth 100-yard receiving game of the season. Dotson also had an 81-yard punt return for a touchdown. Parker Washington hauled in four catches for 95 yards and two touchdowns.

Shane Simmons led the Penn State (3-5, 3-5 Big Ten) defense with a career-high seven tackles, including two for loss and 1.5 sacks. Jaquan Brisker tallied nine tackles, 1.5 tackles for loss and an interception.

How It Happened

The Nittany Lions got on the board on their opening drive on a 24-yard field goal by Jake Pinegar.

Michigan State responded with a touchdown early in the second quarter. Thorne hit Nailor in the end zone for a 45-yard score.

A 37-yard kick return by Lamont Wade jumpstarted Penn State's ensuing drive. On third-and-4 at the Michigan State 31-yard line, Clifford found a hole up the middle on a draw and went untouched into the end zone.

Michigan State answered with a 26-yard strike from Thorne to Tre'Von Morgan. The Spartans added to their lead with a 7-yard touchdown grab by Nailor in the corner of the end zone. Michigan State led 21-10 at halftime.

Penn State opened the second half with a 75-yard scoring drive. The drive ended as Clifford found Washington in the back of the end zone for an 8-yard touchdown. The Nittany Lions converted a two-point conversion as Clifford hit Dotson over the middle.

The Nittany Lions took a 25-24 lead in the closing seconds of the third quarter as Levis scored on a 1-yard run. The drive was boosted by 36-yard completion from Levis to Dotson and a 26-yard completion from Clifford to Washington to setup Penn State at the Michigan State 7-yard line.

After forcing a three-and-out, Penn State extended its lead early in the fourth quarter on a 49-yard strike from Clifford to Washington.

Penn State forced another three-and-out before an 81-yard punt return for a touchdown by Dotson. He broke a pair of tackles around the Penn State 40-yard line and followed a key block by Isaac Lutz to free him for the final 40 yards.

Notes

- Penn State is now 18-16-1 all-time against Michigan State.
- The Nittany Lions are now 16-9 in Land Grant Trophy games (since joining Big Ten in 1993).
- Penn State is now 7-4 all-time in December regular season games.
- The Nittany Lions played the latest game in a calendar year in Beaver Stadium history. The previous latest game was December 7, 1968 vs. Syracuse.
- Senior DE Shane Simmons made his first career start.
- After trailing 21-10 in the first half, Penn State outscored Michigan State 29-3 in the second half.
- The Penn State offense did not allow a sack for the first time this season. This was the first time since the Maryland game (9/27/19) the Nittany Lions did not give up a sack.
- The Penn State defense totaled 10 tackles for loss, the 24th time registering 10 or more tackles for loss in the James Franklin era.
- The Nittany Lions held Michigan State to 64 rushing yards, marking the third time this season they have kept their opponent under 100 rushing yards.
- QB Sean Clifford now has 4,447 career passing yards to move into 11th all-time.
- Clifford threw two touchdowns, both to WR Parker Washington, and now has 39 career passing touchdowns to his credit. He moved into a tie for eighth with Kerry Collins (1991-94).
- WR Jahan Dotson recorded 108 receiving yards, his fourth 100-plus yard receiving game of the season (Ohio State, 144; Maryland, 123; Iowa, 139).
- Dotson ran back an 81-yard punt return for a touchdown in the fourth quarter. The 81-yard punt return is tied for the eighth-longest in program history.
- Dotson is one of three Big Ten players to have 100 receiving yards and a punt return for a touchdown in the same game since 2000. Michigan's Steve Breaston (2006; vs. Indiana) and Wisconsin's Brandon Williams (2005; vs. Indiana) were the others to accomplish the feat.
- Washington recorded a career-high 95 receiving yards.
- Washington has six receiving touchdown this season, which ranks third in program history for freshmen (true or redshirt) behind Deon Butler (9; 2005) and Pat Freiermuth (8; 2018). It is also second among true freshmen in Penn State history.
- Simmons recorded a career-high seven total tackles and a career-best 2.0 tackles for loss.

GAME RECAP

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. — Penn State scored 42 unanswered points to earn a 56-21 win over Illinois on Saturday in Beaver Stadium. The Nittany Lions and Fighting Illini played as part of the inaugural Big Ten Champions Week.

Penn State (4-5, 4-5 Big Ten) gained a season-high 580 total yards. Sean Clifford completed 16-of-22 passes for 285 yards and two touchdowns. Dotson hauled in six catches for a career-best 189 yards, including touchdowns of 75 and 70 yards. Keyvone Lee rushed for 85 yards and a touchdown, while Cazia Holmes ran for 77 yards and two scores. Will Levis completed three passes for 42 yards, including a 7-yard touchdown pass to Brenton Strange. Lamont Wade added a 100-yard kick return for a touchdown.

The Nittany Lion defense was led by Brandon Smith, who registered eight tackles, three tackles for loss and a fumble recovery. Jaquan Brisker and Jesse Luketa each made seven stops. Shaka Toney had six tackles, including a sack, and PJ Mustipher recorded 1.5 tackles for loss and a sack. Antonio Shelton added a strip-sack. Keaton Ellis notched an interception and a pass breakup.

How It Happened

The Nittany Lions got on the board quickly, scoring on the first play of the game. Clifford hit Dotson on a comeback route along the left sideline. Dotson turned to his left and had nothing but grass in front of him, taking it 75 yards for the score.

Penn State answered an Illinois score with a 100-yard kick return for a touchdown by Wade. The senior made an Illinois defender miss at the Penn State 15-yard line and outran the rest of the Illinois coverage team to the left sideline and broke one last tackle at the Illinois 20-yard line before running free into the end zone.

Following two Illinois touchdowns, Penn State tied the game on a 4-yard run by Levis later in the first quarter.

After forcing a three-and-out, the Nittany Lions got a boost on their next drive on a 50-yard punt return by Dotson. Two plays later, Holmes scored on a 3-yard run for his first career touchdown.

Penn State extended its lead to 35-21 midway through the second quarter, scoring on a 15-play, 91-yard drive. Lee finished the drive with a 1-yard touchdown run.

After holding Illinois to another three-and-out, the Nittany Lions scored again on the first play of their drive. Clifford hit Dotson on a screen play and Dotson followed a block by Juice Scruggs and did the rest for a 70-yard score.

Penn State added a touchdown late in the third quarter on a 7-yard pass from Levis to Strange.

The Nittany Lions scored again late in the fourth quarter on a 1-yard run by Holmes.

BIG TEN CHAMPIONS

2016

Since its inception in 1896, the pursuit and attainment of academic excellence has been a priority for every Big Ten member institution. But maintaining the conference's standard of competing at the highest level in athletics also endures as an important component of the Big Ten experience. Striking that balance between academics and athletics is integral to the Big Ten's identity. Recognized as one of intercollegiate sports' most successful undertakings, the Big Ten strives for success from its students not only on the field and in the classroom, but around the world as well.

PREMIER ACADEMIC INSTITUTIONS

- The Big Ten Academic Alliance is an academic consortium of all 14 Big Ten universities, which is widely considered to be the model for effective and voluntary collaboration among top research universities.
- Every Big Ten Academic Alliance institution ranks among the top 70 universities in the nation according to the 2019 Academic Ranking of World Universities, including six in the top 30.
- The Big Ten leads all conferences with more than 1,800 Academic All-Americans, including 27 honorees during the 2019-20 academic year.
- Big Ten Academic Alliance schools annually conduct $10 billion in funded research, $5 billion more than any other conference.

A HISTORY OF ATHLETIC SUCCESS

- Big Ten schools have won at least five national championships in 23 of the last 26 years, averaging nearly seven per year over that span.
- Since the 2008-09 academic year, current Big Ten institutions have claimed 76 team national championships in 21 different sports.

BROAD-BASED PROGRAMMING

- The Big Ten will administer over $200 million in direct financial support to more than 9,800 students competing in intercollegiate athletics for more than 11,000 participation opportunities on 350 teams in 42 different sports.
- The Big Ten sponsors 28 official conference sports, 14 for men and 14 for women, including the addition of men's ice hockey and men's and women's lacrosse in this decade.
- The Big Ten leads the nation in total students competing in intercollegiate athletics and participation opportunities, and sponsors more official sports than all conferences except the Ivy League.
- Almost 1,400 Big Ten competitors have participated in the Olympics, winning more than 600 medals, including nearly 300 gold. In the 2016 and 2018 Olympic Games, more than 200 representatives from Big Ten institutions including current or former students and coaches were members of Olympic teams. Big Ten Olympians collected more than 50 medals in the most recent games in Rio and PyeongChang.

PASSIONATE FOLLOWING

- The Big Ten leads all conferences with 5.7 million alumni and nearly 580,000 students.
- Each year more than 11 million patrons attend Big Ten home contests, as the conference has led the nation in attendance for men's basketball, ice hockey, volleyball and wrestling.

LEADERS IN INNOVATION

- Took part in the nation's first bowl game, winning the 1902 Rose Bowl Game, and signed an exclusive contract with the Tournament of Roses in 1946, making it the first bowl with permanent conference affiliations.
- Awarded the first Big Ten Medal of Honor in 1915, honoring outstanding seniors who demonstrated excellence in academics and athletics.
- Formed the Big Ten Advisory Commission in 1972, enlisting former students that competed in conference athletics to serve as liaisons to the NCAA's Diversity and Inclusion Department, the Big Ten Student-Athlete Advisory Commission and other organizations.
- Became the first conference to voluntarily adopt male and female participation goals after launching its Gender Equity Action Plan in 1992.
- Implemented the first collegiate football system of instant replay in 2004, which the NCAA approved for use among all conferences in 2006.
- Launched the Big Ten Network (BTN) in 2007, the first national conference-owned television network.
- Began partnering with the Ivy League to study the effects of head injuries in sports in 2012.
- Accepted Johns Hopkins University as the conference's first sport affiliate members in men's and women's lacrosse in 2013 and 2015, respectively, and added Notre Dame as a sport affiliate member in men's ice hockey in 2017.

EXTENSIVE TELEVISION EXPOSURE

- Through the Big Ten's current media agreements with BTN, ABC/ESPN, CBS and FOX, more than 2,000 Big Ten events are produced and distributed nationally and globally on an annual basis.
- BTN is in almost 60 million homes across the United States and Canada, and is also available internationally via the Fox Sports App, delivering live and on-demand programming to computers, smartphones and tablets. BTN Plus streams hundreds of additional events each season.

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

- For more than 30 years, through the Big Ten's SCORE (Success Comes Out of Reading Everyday) program, the conference has partnered with Chicago elementary schools to improve reading performance.
- Surrounding the Big Ten Football Championship Game and Basketball Tournaments, the conference has held numerous community initiatives, partnered with the College Football Playoff Foundation and other events such as the Big Ten Career Expo, SaturDAY of Service and Youth Football Clinics. In addition, the Big Ten has hosted a downtown 5K, collaborated with a local breast cancer awareness group and provided unique event experiences for military veterans.

LAND GRANT TROPHY

The Land Grant Trophy, established in 1993, is awarded to the winner of the Penn State-Michigan State game. It honors the universities as the nation's two pioneer land-grant schools. Each was founded in 1855: Michigan State on February 12 and Penn State on February 22. The schools were the prototypes after which the land-grant system was patterned.

The trophy features images of the schools' landmark buildings - Penn State's Old Main and Michigan State's Beaumont Tower - and replicas of the Nittany Lion and the Spartan, the schools' mascots.

GOVERNOR'S VICTORY BELL

Commissioned in 1993 by Pennsylvania Governor Robert Casey and Minnesota Governor Arne Carlson, the Governor's Victory Bell is presented to the winner of the Penn State-Minnesota contest.

Acting Governor Mark Singel of Pennsylvania and Carlson of Minnesota established the Governor's Victory Bell on Sept. 4, 1993, the date of the first Minnesota-Penn State game.

The trophy features a brass bell bearing the medallion of the Big Ten Conference, the state seals of Minnesota and Pennsylvania and the athletic logos of each institution.

BROWN, KWALICK BIG TEN TROPHIES

The Big Ten initiated the presentation of 18 trophies following the 2011 season and honors some of its all-time premier football student-athletes with the newly named awards, including Penn State's Courtney Brown and Ted Kwalick.

The Big Ten awards the Smith-Brown Defensive Lineman of the Year, recognizing the Nittany Lions' Brown and Michigan State's Bubba Smith. Brown was a consensus first-team All-American in 1999, breaking school records in career tackles for loss (70), career sacks (33) and season TFL (29). The 1999 Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year, Brown was a three-time all-conference selection. Brown was the first overall pick in the 2000 National Football League Draft by the Cleveland Browns.

The conference also presents the Kwalick-Clark Tight End of the Year, honoring Penn State's Kwalick and Iowa's Dallas Clark. Kwalick was a first-team All-American in 1967 and '68 and finished fourth in balloting for the 1968 Heisman Trophy. A first-round draft choice by the San Francisco 49ers and a three-time All-Pro, Kwalick was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 1989.

A collage of college football players in action. The central figure is a player in a dark blue jersey with the number 9, wearing a white helmet with a blue stripe, holding a football. He has a tattoo on his left arm. In the background, there are faded images of two other players, both wearing jerseys with the number 26. In the foreground, two more players are shown: one on the left in a dark blue jersey with number 26, and one on the right in a dark blue jersey with number 40. The word "RECORDS" is overlaid in large, bold, blue letters.

HISTORY & HONORS

NATIONAL COACH OF THE YEAR AWARDS

AFCA COACH OF THE YEAR

The AFCA's Coach of the Year award is the oldest of all Coach of the Year awards, it is one of only two Coach of the Year awards recognized by the NCAA in Football Bowl Subdivision and the only Coach of the Year award recognized in the NCAA's three other divisions. The NCAA does not select a "coach of the year" for college football. When a coach is referred to as "NCAA Coach of the Year," he is usually the AFCA Coach of the Year winner.

HALL OF FAME SCHOLAR-ATHLETES

The National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame honors the nation's outstanding scholar-athletes annually with graduate school fellowships.

A recipient must be a senior and in his final year of eligibility, have shown outstanding football ability and performance, exhibited academic application and performance, demonstrated outstanding leadership and citizenship, and be a candidate for graduate study and must not have received his diploma.

Recipients of the prestigious honor receive an $18,000 fellowship. Penn State is tied for third nationally with its 18 NFF honorees.

WILLIAM V. CAMPBELL TROPHY

Considered the "Academic Heisman," the William V. Campbell Trophy is given annually the National Football Foundation to the nation's premier college football scholar-athlete.

Candidates must be a senior or graduate student in their final year of eligibility, have a GPA of at least 3.2 on a 4.0 scale, have outstanding football ability as a first-team player or significant contributor and have demonstrated strong leadership and citizenship. Twelve finalists for the Campbell Trophy receive an $18,000 postgraduate scholarship as a member of the NFF National Scholar-Athlete Class with the winner earning a $25,000 postgraduate scholarship.

NCAA POSTGRADUATE SCHOLARSHIPS

Forty-six Penn State student-athletes, including 18 football players, have received NCAA Postgraduate Scholarships. The award carries a $7,500 scholarship for postgraduate study at the university or professional school of the student-athlete's choice.

To qualify for consideration, each recipient must have earned at least a "B" cumulative average (3.0 on Penn State's 4.0 grade-point scale) and also must have performed with distinction in his or her sport, thus epitomizing the term "student-athlete."

LAMBERT-MEADOWLANDS TROPHY

Penn State won an unprecedented 31st Lambert-Meadowlands Trophy in 2017 as Eastern football's top team. Penn State has won more Lambert-Meadowlands trophies than any four schools combined.

In 1936, the Lambert brothers, Victor and Henry, of the distinguished New York City jewelry house that bears their name, established a memorial to their father, August — a trophy to be awarded to the outstanding Division I college football team in the East. In 1957, the Lambert Cup was instituted for Division II teams and, in 1966, the Lambert Bowl was added for Division III schools.

Jackson was Penn State's first All-American wide receiver, catching 41 passes for 697 yards and seven TDs in 1982. He owned 27 school records after his senior year. Jackson, a No. 1 draft pick, played with Philadelphia (1984-88, 90-91) and Houston (1989) in the NFL. He served on the Penn State football coaching staff 1993-2000 and was an assistant coach with the Pittsburgh Steelers from 2001-03.

MARK ROBINSON

Safety, 1982, Silver Spring, Maryland, selected by the Football Writers Association of America, Newspaper Enterprise Association and Sporting News. Robinson finished second on the team with 70 tackles and intercepted four passes. He also had two interceptions and was credited with nine tackles in the National Championship win over Georgia. He played with Kansas City (1984-87) and Tampa Bay (1988-91) of the NFL.

MICHAEL ZORDICH

Strong safety, 1985, Youngstown, Ohio, selected by the Football Writers and Scripps-Howard. Zordich was credited with 60 tackles. His top play of 1985 came in the first minute of the opener at Maryland when he returned an interception 32 yards for a TD. He played for the New York Jets (1987-88), Phoenix (1989-93) and Philadelphia (1994-98) of the NFL. Zordich served as a Philadelphia Eagles assistant coach for two seasons (2011-12).

SHANE CONLAN

Outside linebacker, 1985 and 1986, Frewsburg, New York, selected by Newspaper Enterprise Association in 1985 and by Walter Camp Football Foundation, The Football News, Football Writers Association of America, American Football Coaches Association, Associated Press, United Press International and College and Pro Football Newsweekly in 1986. The sixth Penn State two-time All-American, Conlan led the 1986 squad in tackles with 79, including a team-high 63 solo stops. In the 1986 National Championship game with Miami (Fla.) in the Fiesta Bowl, Conlan's second interception and his 38-yard return to the five-yard line, set up the Lions' winning touchdown. The 1987 NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year and No. 1 draft pick of Buffalo, Conlan played with the Bills (1987-92) and the Los Angeles/St. Louis Rams (1993-95). He was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 2014.

CHRIS CONLIN

Tackle, 1986, Glenside, Pennsylvania, selected by the Football Writers Association of America. Although he missed two games with a knee injury, Conlin was one of eight players nominated for the Outland Trophy as the nation's top lineman. A three-year starter, he was chosen by Miami in the fifth round of the 1987 NFL Draft. He played with the Dolphins (1987) and Indianapolis (1990-91).

D.J. DOZIER

Halfback, 1986, Virginia Beach, Virginia, selected by Walter Camp Football Foundation. It was Dozier's 6-yard TD run in the 1987 Fiesta Bowl that brought the Lions their second National Championship. Dozier became the first back to lead Penn State in rushing four consecutive seasons when he posted 811 yards on 171 carries. Dozier was selected in the first round of the 1987 NFL Draft by Minnesota, where he spent four seasons (1987-90). He played with Detroit in 1991. He also played baseball in the New York Mets' farm system.

TIM JOHNSON

Defensive tackle, 1986, Sarasota, Florida, selected by Walter Camp Football Foundation. Johnson led the defensive linemen in tackles with 33 and made five sacks for 30 yards in losses. He was a sixth-round pick by Pittsburgh in the 1987 NFL Draft. He played with the Steelers (1987-89), Washington (1990-95) and Cincinnati (1996).

STEVE WISNIEWSKI

Guard, 1987 and 1988, Houston, Texas, selected by Sporting News in 1987 and by Sporting News and the Football Coaches (Kodak) in 1988. The third Penn State offensive lineman to win two-time All-American honors, Wisniewski was a three-year starter and capped his senior season by playing in the Hula and the Japan bowl games. Selected by the Dallas Cowboys as the first pick overall in the second round of the 1989 NFL Draft, he was immediately traded to the Los Angeles Raiders. Wisniewski played his entire career with the Raiders (1989-2001).

ANDRE COLLINS

Inside linebacker, 1989, Cinnaminson, New Jersey, selected by the Football Writers Association of America. One of five finalists for the Butkus Award as the nation's top linebacker, Collins' season total of 130 tackles is fourth-best in school history. He also tied Jack Ham's season and career records for punt blocks with three and four, respectively. A second-round pick of the Washington Redskins in the 1990 NFL Draft, he played with the Redskins (1990-94), Cincinnati (1995-97) and Chicago (1998-99).

BLAIR THOMAS

Tailback, 1989, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, selected by Walter Camp Football Foundation and The Football News. Thomas was the first back in Penn State history to gain 1,300 or more yards in two seasons. His lifetime totals are 3,301 rushing and 4,512 all-purpose. Thomas came back from major reconstructive knee surgery to turn in a brilliant senior season with eight 100-yard games, including six straight to close the campaign, and 1,341 yards on 264 carries. He finished 10th in voting for the 1989 Heisman Trophy. As the No. 2 pick overall by the New York Jets in the 1990 NFL Draft, Thomas became the highest drafted Penn State player at the time since the first combined NFL-American Football League Draft in 1969. Thomas played with the Jets (1990-93), New England (1994), Dallas (1994) and Carolina (1995).

DARREN PERRY

Hero, 1991, Chesapeake, Virginia, selected by the Football Writers Association of America. Perry led the team with six interceptions, pushing his total to 15 for a share of second place on Penn State's career list. He had back-to-back touchdown interception returns (Boston College, Temple) to tie the Lions' season and career marks. Perry was a Top 20 finalist for the Jim Thorpe Award as the nation's top defensive back. He was an eighth-round pick of the Pittsburgh Steelers in the 1992 NFL Draft and played with the Steelers from 1992-98, after winning a starting spot as a rookie. He also played for Baltimore (1999) and New Orleans (2000). He was the safeties coach for the Green Bay Packers and has served as an assistant coach with the Pittsburgh Steelers (2003-06), the Oakland Raiders (2007-08) and Green Bay Packers (2009-17).

O.J. McDUFFIE

Wide receiver, 1992, Warrensville Heights, Ohio, selected by the Associated Press, United Press International, American Football Coaches Association, The Football News, Walter Camp Football Foundation and Athlon Publications. McDuffie broke or tied 15 Penn State receiving, return and all-purpose yardage records. He had a record 63 receptions for 977 yards in 1992. His career total of 125 catches and his season all-purpose yardage (1,831) were records at the time. McDuffie, the first wide receiver to make the list, is 12th on Penn State's all-time chart with 3,817 all-purpose yards. McDuffie played in the 1993 Japan Bowl. He was selected in the first round of the 1993 NFL Draft by the Miami Dolphins, the 25th player selected overall. He played nine seasons with the Dolphins (1993-2001).

LOU BENFATTI

Defensive tackle, 1993, Green Pond, New Jersey, selected by Walter Camp Football Foundation. Started all 49 games in his career and was Penn State's first semifinalist for the Lombardi Award since Sean Farrell in 1981. He was the 60th Penn Stater to earn first-team All-America recognition and the 45th under coach Joe Paterno. Benfatti recorded 64 tackles, six tackles for loss, five sacks, an interception, three pass breakups and one fumble recovery. He also forced a fumble in each of the last four regular-season games. Benfatti made 179 career tackles (109 solo), including 25 tackles for loss, 10 sacks and two interceptions. A team captain, he played in the 1994 East-West Shrine and Senior Bowl games. He played three seasons for the New York Jets (1994-96) after being selected in the third round of the 1994 NFL Draft.

HISTORY & HONORS

KYLE BRADY

Tight end, 1994, New Cumberland, Pennsylvania, selected by American Football Coaches Association and College Sports Magazine. Brady made his farewell season his best with 27 receptions for 365 yards and an average per catch of 13.5 yards — all career-highs. His intimidating blocking was an important element of Penn State's exceptional rushing attack, which ranked No. 6 nationally with 250.9 ypg. Brady was named first-team All-Big Ten for the second consecutive year. With 76 career receptions, Brady was second only to two-time All-America and Hall of Famer Ted Kwalick among Penn State tight ends at the end of his career. Brady, a first-round pick by the New York Jets in the 1995 NFL Draft (ninth player overall, third Nittany Lion in the first nine picks), played from 1995-98 with the Jets. He played eight seasons with Jacksonville (1999-2006) and one (2007) for the New England Patriots.

KI-JANA CARTER

Running back, 1994, Westerville, Ohio, selected by the Associated Press, United Press International, Football Writers Association of America, Walter Camp Football Foundation, American Football Coaches Association, Sporting News and College Sports Magazine. Carter staked a claim to being one of the most decorated Penn State running backs of all time with a junior season in which he was fourth nationally in rushing (139.9), second in scoring (10.8 ppg) and fifth in all-purpose yardage (158.4). Carter led the Big Ten Conference in all three categories. His 7.8 yards per carry easily was the best among the nation's Top 25 rushers. Carter enjoyed a career game in the season-finale with Michigan State by piling up 227 yards on 27 carries and scoring five touchdowns. Carter was runner-up to Rashaan Salaam of Colorado for the Heisman Trophy and a finalist for the Maxwell Award. His 1994 statistics included 1,539 yards rushing, the then-No. 2 season total in Penn State history, and 23 touchdowns. Carter was named co-MVP of the Rose Bowl with 156 rushing yards on 21 carries, including an 83-yard touchdown bolt on the Nittany Lions' first offensive play. Carter opted to forego his final season of eligibility to enter the pro draft, but still earned a position among Penn State's all-time Top 10 in rushing, ranking No. 5 at the time with 2,829 yards in his three seasons. When the Cincinnati Bengals selected him as the first overall player picked in the 1995 NFL Draft, Carter became the first Nittany Lion to be chosen No. 1. He spent six seasons with the Bengals (1995-2000), two years with Washington (2001-02) and two seasons with the New Orleans Saints (2003-04).

KERRY COLLINS

Quarterback, 1994, West Lawn, Pennsylvania, selected by the Associated Press, United Press International, The Football News, Football Writers Association of America, Walter Camp Football Foundation and Sporting News in 1994. He also captured two of college football's major postseason prizes - the Maxwell Award (nation's outstanding player) and the Davey O'Brien Award (nation's top quarterback). Collins finished fourth in the Heisman Trophy balloting and garnered Player of the Year honors from ABC-TV/Chevrolet and the Big Ten. Collins posted the fourth-best season passing efficiency mark in NCAA history (172.8). At the end of his career, he had broken Penn State season records for total offense (2,660), completions (176), passing yardage (2,679), completion percentage (66.7), yards per attempt (10.15) and passing efficiency (172.86). He also set the mark with 14 consecutive completions at Minnesota, which was broken by Trace McSorley in 2017. Collins was the linchpin of an explosive offense that shattered 14 school records and led the nation in scoring (47.8 ppg) and total offense (520.2 ypg.). The first-round pick of the Carolina Panthers in the 1995 NFL Draft and the fifth player selected overall, Collins enjoyed a 17-year career in the NFL. He played for Carolina (1995-98), the New Orleans Saints (part of the 1998 season), the New York Giants (1999-2003), Oakland Raiders (2004-05), Tennessee Titans (2006-10) and the Indianapolis Colts (2011). He capped the 2000 season by leading the Giants to Super Bowl XXXV. He will be inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame on December 4, 2018.

BOBBY ENGRAM

Wide receiver, 1994, Camden, South Carolina, selected by the Walter Camp Football Foundation. Was the first Penn State receiver to amass more than 1,000 yards in a season, Engram was the initial recipient of the Biletnikoff Award, presented to the nation's top receiver. A three-time first-team All-Big Ten selection, Engram finished the 1994 season with 52 receptions and a record 1,029 yards. He ended his career by making 63 receptions, tied for most in school history, for 1,084 yards (breaking his own mark) and 11 touchdowns in 1995. He capped his career with his selection as the MVP of the 1996 Outback Bowl. Penn State's finest receiver, Engram held 12 school records upon his graduation. The Chicago Bears' second-round pick in the 1996 NFL Draft, he has played with the Bears (1996-2000), Seattle Seahawks (2001-08) and Kansas City Chiefs (2009). He is an assistant coach with the NFL's Baltimore Ravens.

JEFF HARTINGS

Guard, 1994 and 1995, St. Henry, Ohio, selected by the Associated Press and Walter Camp Football Foundation in 1994 and the American Football Coaches Association, United Press International, Walter Camp Football Foundation and Sporting News in 1995. Hartings was the cornerstone of a Penn State offensive line that surrendered only three sacks in all of 1994 and helped the Nittany Lions lead the nation in scoring and total offense, setting 14 school records. A starter in the final 31 games of his career at long guard, Hartings was the 11th Nittany Lion to twice earn first-team All-America honors. He was a three-time first-team All-Big Ten choice and a semifinalist for the Rotary Lombardi Award. Hartings also was just the fourth Lion selected to the GTE/CoSIDA Academic All-America first team on two occasions and was chosen a National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame Scholar-Athlete. Hartings was selected by the Detroit Lions in the first round of the 1996 NFL Draft. Now retired, he played for the Lions (1996-2000) and the Pittsburgh Steelers (2001-06), earning All-Pro honors in 2004 and 2005.

KIM HERRING

Free safety, 1996, Solon, Ohio, selected by Sporting News. A three-year starter, Herring's seven interceptions in his senior season led the Big Ten and were tied for third nationally. Also chosen as an Associated Press second-team All-American and first-team All-Big Ten, his 13 career interceptions are the third-highest total in school history. He made 212 career tackles. Selected by the Baltimore Ravens in the second round of the 1997 NFL Draft, he played with the Ravens (1997-2000), the St. Louis Rams (2001-03) and Cincinnati Bengals (2004-05).

CURTIS ENIS

Tailback, 1997, Union City, Ohio, selected by the Associated Press, Football Writers Association of America and Walter Camp Football Foundation. Enis also was chosen a second-team All-American by Sporting News and was the Big Ten Offensive Player of the Year. In becoming the 12th Nittany Lion running back named a first-team All-American, Enis rushed for 1,363 yards on 228 attempts (6.0 avg.), a 123.9 ypg. average, and 19 touchdowns. He also made 25 catches for 215 yards and one score. He rushed for more than 100 yards in each of his last eight games to break Blair Thomas' school record. At the end of his career, his 17 career 100-yard games were tied for second-best in school annals. Enis became only the fifth Lion to rush for more than 1,000 yards twice in a career and had 3,256 career rushing yards, good for third place. Enis was selected in the first round of the 1998 NFL Draft by the Chicago Bears, the fifth pick overall. He retired after the 2000 season.

Bobby Engram was the first Penn State receiver to amass more than 1,000 yards in a season and was the inaugural winner of the Biletnikoff Award.

LaVAR ARRINGTON

Outside linebacker, 1998 and 1999, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, selected by Sporting News in 1998 and by the Associated Press, American Football Coaches Association, Football Writers Association of America, Walter Camp Football Foundation, Sporting News and The Football News in 1999. He also was a second-team All-American choice of the Associated Press and The Football News in 1998. In 1999, he was selected winner of the Butkus Award as the nation's top linebacker and Chuck Bednarik Award as the country's top defensive player. He also was a finalist for the Bronko Nagurski Trophy and Rotary Lombardi Award. The 12th Nittany Lion selected a two-time first-team All-American, Arrington finished ninth in balloting for the 1999 Heisman Trophy. Was the first sophomore selected Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year in 1998. In 1999, he made 72 tackles, with 20 TFL, nine sacks, one interception, one forced fumble, two fumble recoveries (one TD) and two blocked kicks. His leaping tackle over the offensive line of an Illinois runner was selected the 1998 Compag Defensive Play of the Year. Arrington was selected by the Washington Redskins as the second overall pick of the 2000 NFL Draft and played with the Redskins (2000-05) and the New York Giants (2006), earning Pro Bowl honors in 2001, 2002 and 2003.

COURTNEY BROWN

Defensive end, 1999, Alvin, South Carolina, selected by the Associated Press, American Football Coaches Association, Football Writers Association of America, Walter Camp Football Foundation, Sporting News and The Football News. He also was a finalist for the Bronko Nagurski Trophy, Rotary Lombardi Award and Chuck Bednarik Award. Brown shattered school records for career tackles for loss (70) and sacks (33) and the season mark for TFL (29). A three-year starter, he was tied for third in Big Ten career TFL and was named 1999 Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year. He was the fourth Nittany Lion selected All-Big Ten three times and finished his career by earning the Hall Foundation Award as the team's Senior MVP. He made 55 tackles (33 solo), with 29 TFL (minus-150), 13.5 sacks (minus-107), an interception (TD) and three forced fumbles. The Cleveland Browns selected Brown as the first overall pick of the 2000 NFL Draft. He played with the Browns (2000-04) and Denver Broncos (2005-06).

BRANDON SHORT

Middle linebacker, 1999, McKeesport, Pennsylvania, selected by the Associated Press, Football Writers Association of America and Walter Camp Football Foundation. He also was chosen a second-team All-American by Sporting News and third-team by The Football News. A finalist for the Butkus Award as the nation's top linebacker, he and LaVar Arrington were the first teammates to be finalists for the honor. Chosen a team co-captain prior to the season, Short was a four-year starter and two-time first-team All-Big Ten pick. He concluded his superlative career second on the school's career tackles for loss list with 51, the 17th-best total in Big Ten annals. He also was sixth on the school career tackles list with 273. Just the 12th Nittany Lion to crack 100 tackles in a season, he had 10 or more stops six times in '99. Short led the Lions with 103 tackles (62 solo), including 12 TFL, four sacks, three pass breakups, a fumble recovery, an interception and a blocked kick. He was the North squad's Defensive MVP in the Senior Bowl. Short was selected by the New York Giants in the fourth round of the 2000 National League Draft and played with the Giants (2000-03, 06) and the Carolina Panthers in (2004-05).

MICHAEL HAYNES

Defensive end, 2002, Columbus, New Jersey, selected by the Football Writers Association of America. He also was a second-team All-America selection by the Associated Press and Sporting News. Haynes was one of four finalists for the inaugural Ted Hendricks Defensive End of the Year Award and was the 2002 Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year. He led the Big Ten in sacks (15.0 for minus-126 yards), tackles for loss (23 for minus-140 yards) and with a school-record seven forced fumbles. Haynes recorded 80 tackles, recovered one fumble, made four pass breakups and logged at least one tackle for loss in every game. His 15 sacks tied Larry Kubin's school season record and ranked fifth nationally. His 25.5 career sacks were good for third place at Penn State. A first-team All-Big Ten selection, his 23 TFL on the season were tied for second-best at Penn State. In the 2003 Senior Bowl, Haynes was selected the North's Defensive MVP. The Chicago Bears selected Haynes with the No. 14 overall pick in the first round of the 2003 NFL Draft. He played three seasons (2003-05) for the Bears and one year for the New Orleans Saints (2006).

LARRY JOHNSON

Running back, 2002, State College, Pennsylvania, selected by the American Football Coaches Association, Associated Press, Football Writers Association of America, Sporting News and Walter Camp Football Foundation. Johnson also was the recipient of the Maxwell Award and Walter Camp Player of the Year Awards and the Doak Walker Award, presented to the nation's top running back. He was third in balloting for the Heisman Trophy and was the Chevrolet National Offensive Player of the Year. A unanimous first-team All-Big Ten selection, Johnson became just the ninth player in NCAA Division I-A history — and the first in the 107-year history of the Big Ten Conference — to rush for more than 2,000 yards in the regular season. He finished the season with 2,087 yards on 271 carries, for an outstanding 7.7 average, and 20 rushing touchdowns. Johnson led the nation in rushing (160.5 ypg) and all-purpose yardage (204.2) and was fourth in scoring (10.8 ppg). He became the first Nittany Lion to lead the nation in rushing or all-purpose yardage. Johnson shattered the Penn State game rushing record three times and blew by the 200-yard mark on four occasions. His final record-breaking effort was a spectacular 327 yards at Indiana. He also tallied 279 yards against Illinois, 257 against Northwestern and 279 yards — all in the first half — in his home-finale with Michigan State. His 2,655 all-purpose yards in 2002 shattered the Penn State record by more than 800 yards and were the fifth-highest total in NCAA history. His 5,045 career all-purpose yards also were a school record. Johnson was selected by the Kansas City Chiefs in the first round of the 2003 NFL Draft. He played six seasons (2003-08) with the Chiefs and was selected All-Pro in 2005 and 2006. He set a NFL record in 2006 for the most carries in a season. Johnson joined the Cincinnati Bengals in 2009 and was with the Washington Redskins in 2010 and the Miami Dolphins in 2011.

JIMMY KENNEDY

Defensive tackle, 2002, Yonkers, New York, selected by Sporting News and Walter Camp Football Foundation. He also was a third-team All-America choice by the Associated Press. A four-year starter, Kennedy was named the 2002 Big Ten Defensive Lineman of the Year and was a two-time first-team All-Big Ten selection. He recorded 87 tackles during the 2002 season, second on the squad, and the most by a Penn State defensive tackle since starting Big Ten play in 1993. A semifinalist for the Lombardi Award, he ranked fourth in the Big Ten with 16 tackles for loss, made 5.5 sacks and broke up three passes in 2002. Kennedy finished his career with 39 tackles for loss. He tied the Penn State record with four sacks and made five tackles for loss in a win at Wisconsin. The St. Louis Rams made Kennedy the No. 12 overall selection in the first round of the 2003 NFL Draft. He played for the Rams (2003-06), the Chicago Bears (2007), split the 2008 season between the Jacksonville Jaguars and the Minnesota Vikings, and played for the Vikings in 2009 and 2010. He helped the New York Giants win Super Bowl XLVI during the 2011 season.

TAMBA HALI

Defensive end, 2005, Teaneck, New Jersey, selected by the American Football Coaches Association, Associated Press, Football Writers Association of America, Sporting News and Walter Camp Football Foundation. Hali was a finalist for the Nagurski Trophy, presented to the nation's top defensive player, and the Ted Hendricks Defensive End of the Year Award. Hali was a unanimous selection as the Big Ten Defensive Lineman of the Year and first-team All-Big Ten. He led the conference with 11.0 sacks and 17.0 tackles for loss. Hali made 65 tackles, with 17 TFL (minus-86), 11 sacks (minus-79), four pass breakups and a forced fumble, which the Lions recovered in the waning minutes to preserve a 17-10 win over Ohio State. Hali's 36 career TFL are tied for 11th in program history. The first-round pick of the Kansas City Chiefs in the 2006 NFL Draft, Hali played 12 seasons (2006-17) for the Chiefs. He led the AFC in sacks in 2010 and was selected to the Pro Bowl in 2010, 2011, 2012, 2013, 2014 and 2015. He is also a two-time second-team All-Pro selection.

PAUL POSLUSZNY

Outside linebacker, 2005 and 2006, Aliquippa, Pennsylvania, selected by the Associated Press, Football Writers Association of America, Sporting News and Walter Camp Football Foundation in 2005 and the Associated Press and Walter Camp Football Foundation in 2006. Posluszny became just the second two-time winner of the Chuck Bednarik Award, presented to the nation's top defensive player, in 2006. In 2005, he also won the Butkus Award, presented to the nation's top linebacker and was a finalist for the 2006 honor. The 13th Nittany Lion to be named a two-time first-team All-American, Posluszny also was a two-time finalist for the Rotary Lombardi Award. He was selected Big Ten Defensive Player of the Week a conference-record five times in his career. The Nittany Lions' first two-time team captain since 1968-69, he became Penn State's career tackle leader with 372. A starter in the last 37 games of his career, Posluszny became the first Nittany Lion to lead the team in tackles three times and to post three 100-tackle seasons, recording 116 in 2006. Posluszny also was a two-time first-team ESPN the Magazine Academic All-American and was selected the 2006 Academic All-American of the Year among Division I football players. He and Jeff Hartings (1994-95) are the only Nittany Lions to earn first-team All-America and Academic All-America honors twice. The Buffalo Bills' second pick of the second round in the 2007 NFL Draft, he played four seasons (2007-10) with the Bills and seven seasons for the Jacksonville Jaguars (2011-17).

DAN CONNOR

Connor was the recipient of the 2007 Chuck Bednarik Award, presented to the nation's top defensive player, giving Penn State three consecutive recipients of the honor. He also was a finalist for the Butkus Award and was a semifinalist for Walter Camp Player of the Year and the Rotary Lombardi Award. The 14th Nittany Lion to be named a two-time first-team All-American, Connor finished his career as Penn State's all-time leader with 419 tackles. A tri-captain, Connor was named Big Ten Defensive Player of the Week four times in his career and Walter Camp National Defensive Player of the Week twice in 2007. A starter in the last 33 games of his career, he made 145 stops in 2007, the second-highest total in school season history. Connor was a third-round pick of the Carolina Panthers in the 2008 NFL Draft. His first season with the Panthers was cut short by a torn ACL. He played for Carolina through 2011, with the Dallas Cowboys in 2012 and the New York Giants in 2013 before re-signing with Carolina for the remainder of the 2013 season.

AARON MAYBIN

Defensive end, 2008, Ellicott City, Maryland, selected by the Associated Press, Football Writers Association of America and Walter Camp Football Foundation. Sporting News and SI.com named him a second-team All-American. Maybin was one of three finalists for the Bednarik Award, presented to the nation's top defensive player, and was selected the 2008 National Defensive Player of the Year by the Pigskin Club of Washington, D.C. He also was among the six finalists for the Ted Hendricks Defensive End of the Year Award. A first-team All-Big Ten selection, Maybin was seventh in the nation with 12 solo sacks and was tied for ninth nationally with 20 tackles for losses. He made 49 tackles (30 solo) and also recorded three pass breakups during the 2008 season. He was the No. 11 overall selection, by the Buffalo Bills, in the 2009 NFL Draft. He played with the Buffalo Bills in 2009-10, the New York Jets (2011-12) and the Toronto Argonauts in the Canadian Football League (2013).

A.Q. SHIPLEY

Center, 2008, Coraopolis, Pennsylvania, selected by ESPN.com, the Football Writers Association of America and the Walter Camp Football Foundation. He also earned second-team All-America honors from the Associated Press and SI.com. Shipley was the recipient of the Dave Rimington Trophy, becoming the first Nittany Lion to be selected the nation's outstanding center since the award's inception in 2000. The 2008 Big Ten Offensive Lineman of the Year, Shipley anchored Penn State's offensive line, helping the Lions lead the Big Ten in total and scoring offense, ranking second in rushing and third in passing offense. He played a major role in helping Penn State lead the Big Ten (No. 4 in the nation) in fewest sacks allowed in 2008. A co-captain and first-team All-Big Ten selection in 2007 and '08, Shipley started the final 39 games of his career at center. He has played eight seasons in the NFL, including stints with the Indianapolis Colts (2012, 2014), the Baltimore Ravens (2013) and the Arizona Cardinals (2015-19).

Paul Posluszny was a two-time winner of the Bednarik Award and was the first Nittany Lion to lead the team in tackles three times.

JARED ODRICK

Defensive tackle, 2009, Lebanon, Pennsylvania, selected by the American Football Coaches Association and CBSsports.com. He also received All-America honors from the Associated Press, Sporting News and Rivals.com. Odrick became the sixth Penn State defensive lineman to earn first-team All-America accolades since 1999. The Big Ten coaches selected Odrick the 2009 Defensive Player of the Year and Defensive Lineman of the Year. He became the first interior defensive lineman selected for the Big Ten's top defensive honor since Dan Wilkinson in 1993. Odrick garnered first-team all-conference honors in consecutive years (2008, 2009). Odrick was fifth on the team with 43 tackles and had 11.0 tackles for loss (minus-72), a blocked field goal in the win at Northwestern during the 2009 season. Odrick played five seasons with the Miami Dolphins after being selected in the first round of the 2010 NFL Draft. He played for Jacksonville for two years (2015-16).

STEFEN WISNIEWSKI

Guard, 2010, Bridgeville, Pennsylvania, selected by the American Football Coaches Association. He also received All-America honors from the Associated Press, Walter Camp Football Foundation, CBSsports.com, Rivals.com and Scout.com. Wisniewski became the 11th Penn State offensive lineman to receive first-team All-America honors under Joe Paterno. He was first-team All-Big Ten in 2009 and 2010 and became the Nittany Lions' eighth three-time all-conference honoree. A starter in 38 of the last 39 games of his career, Wisniewski became the program's first three-time CoSIDA Academic All-American, earning first-team honors in 2009 and 2010. He also was selected a National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame Scholar-Athlete and was named to the AFCA Good Works Team. Wisniewski, a second-round pick by the Oakland Raiders in 2011, played four seasons with the Raiders before moving to the Jacksonville Jaguars in 2015. He was a member of the Super Bowl LII Champion Philadelphia Eagles, whom he played for from 2016-18 and the Super Bowl Champion Kansas City Chiefs in 2019. He joined the Pittsburgh Steelers this offseason.

Sports. Still became the sixth Penn State defensive lineman to earn first-team All-America accolades since 2002. Still was a finalist for the Chuck Bednarik Award, Bronko Nagurski Trophy and Outland Trophy. A two-year starter, who overcame two serious injuries early in his career, Still was selected the 2011 Big Ten Smith-Brown Defensive Lineman of the Year and the conference's Nagurski-Woodson Defensive Player of the Year. He was second in the Big Ten in solo tackles for loss with 15, made 4.5 sacks (minus-36) and recorded 55 total tackles, with one forced fumble and one fumble recovery. He was selected by the Cincinnati Bengals in the second round of the 2012 NFL Draft and played three seasons with the Bengals. He also spent one season with the Houston Texans (2016).

MICHAEL MAUTI

Linebacker, 2012, Mandeville, Louisiana, selected by ESPN.com. He was a semifinalist for the Butkus Award and was the Big Ten Butkus-Fitzgerald Linebacker of the Year. Returning to the field after his second serious knee injury, Mauti earned first-team All-Big Ten honors. A passionate leader and team co-captain, Mauti was the only Big Ten player ranked in the top 10 in the conference in tackles (6th, 96), interceptions (7th, 3) and forced fumbles (3rd, 3). He also led the Big Ten in interception return yards (125). Mauti recorded 4.0 TFL, 2.5 sacks (minus-25), three interceptions, three forced fumbles, one fumble recovery and two pass breakups in 2012. He was selected Penn State's 2012 Outstanding Senior Player. He played for the Minnesota Vikings (2013-14) after being a seventh-round pick in the 2013 NFL Draft. He joined the New Orleans Saints from 2015-17.

ALLEN ROBINSON

Wide receiver, 2013, Southfield, Michigan, selected by Sporting News and CBSsports.com. Robinson also earned second-team All-America honors from the Football Writers Association of America and SI.com and third-team accolades by the Associated Press. The 2012 and 2013 Big Ten Richter-Howard Receiver of the Year, Robinson was the first player since at least 1985 to lead the conference in receptions and receiving yardage in consecutive seasons. His combined 174 receptions and 2,445 receiving yards in 2012-13 rank No. 3 in Big Ten history for consecutive seasons. A semifinalist for the 2013 Biletnikoff Award as a junior, Robinson attained first-team All-Big Ten honors from the coaches and media in 2012 and '13. He led the Big Ten with school season records in receptions (97) and receiving yardage (1,432) for the second consecutive year. He made six TD catches in 2013 (17 career, fifth place). At the end of his career, Robinson ranked second in school history in career receptions (177) and career receiving yardage (2,474 yards), with numbers compiled almost entirely in the 2012 and 2013 seasons (3 catches for 29 yards in 2011). His eight 100-yard receiving games in 2013 also were a Penn State season record. Allen played for the Jacksonville Jaguars, who selected him in the second round of the 2014 NFL Draft, for four seasons (2014-17). He was selected to the Pro Bowl in 2015. Robinson signed with the Chicago Bears in 2018.

CARL NASSIB

Defensive end, 2015, West Chester, Pennsylvania, selected first-team All-American by American Football Coaches Association, Football Writers Association of America, Walter Camp Football Foundation, Associated Press, Sporting News, ESPN.com, SI.com, CBSsports.com and Athlon Sports. Nassib became the 13th unanimous consensus All-American in program history and the 41st overall after a superb senior campaign. He was also the winner of the 46th Rotary Lombardi Award for the nation's top lineman (offense or defense) or linebacker, the 14th Ted Hendricks Award for the nation's top defensive end and the Lott IMPACT Trophy for the top defensive player that represent the qualities embodied by Hall of Famer Ronnie Lott — Integrity, Maturity, Performance, Academics, Community and Tenacity. He was named the CBSports.com National Defensive Player of the Year, as well. Nassib was also a finalist for the Burlsworth Trophy (top player who started his career as a walk-on), the Nagurski Trophy (nation's top defensive player) and Bednarik Award (nation's top defensive player). The West Chester, Pennsylvania native was picked as the Big Ten's Nagurski-Woodson Defensive Player of the Year and earned first team All-Big Ten honors. Despite playing only four snaps in the last two regular-season games due to injury, Nassib led FBS in sacks (15.5) and forced fumbles (6) and was 11th in FBS and second in the Big Ten in tackles for loss (19.5). He became the first Nittany Lion to lead the nation in sacks and forced fumbles and joined placekicker Matt Bahr (1978) and running back Larry Johnson (2002) as the only Penn Staters to lead the nation in two statistical categories in the same season. He was the first Nittany Lion to lead the country in a statistical category since Larry Johnson's 2002 rushing title. With one sack at Northwestern, Nassib broke the Penn State single-season sacks record by upping his total to 15.5. He surpasses the mark of 15 sacks set by Larry Kubin (1979) and Michael Haynes (2002). Nassib was selected in the third round of the 2016 NFL Draft by the Cleveland Browns. He played for the Browns from 2016-17, before moving to the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (2018-19). This offseason he signed with the Las Vegas Raiders.

SAQUON BARKLEY

Running back, 2017, Coplay, Pennsylvania, became the 100th first-team All-American in program history after being selected as first-team All-America running back by American Football Coaches Association and Walter Camp Football Foundation and first-team all-purpose player by the Associated Press, Football Writers Association of America, CBSsports.com, ESPN.com, Phil Steele, Sports Illustrated and The Athletic. Barkley became the 14th unanimous consensus All-American in program history and the 42nd overall. He was the recipient of the Paul Hornung Award, as major college football's most versatile player, and finished fourth in the Heisman Trophy voting, the highest finish by a Penn State player since 2002. Barkley was also a finalist for the Maxwell Award, Doak Walker Award, Lombardi Award and Walter Camp Player of the Year Award. He won his second-straight Chicago Tribune Silver Football for the conference's top player, becoming the fifth student-athlete in Big Ten history to win the honor twice since the award's inception in 1924. Barkley also claimed the Big Ten's Graham-George Offensive Player of the Year and Ameche-Dayne Running Back of the Year awards for the second-straight season. In addition, he claimed the Rodgers-Dwight Big Ten Return Specialist of the Year. Barkley finished his career as Penn State's all-time leader in rushing touchdowns (43), total touchdowns (53), all-purpose yards (5,538) receiving yards by a running back (1,157), receptions by a running back (102) and finished second in rushing yardage (3,843) and scoring (318). He is the only player in Penn State history and just the fourth Big Ten student-athlete to gain 3,000 rushing and 1,000 receiving yards in a career. Barkley was the No. 2 overall selection in the 2018 NFL Draft by the New York Giants. He was the highest Nittany Lion selected since Courtney Brown was the No. 1 overall pick of the 2000 NFL Draft. He was selected as the NFL's Rookie of the Year in 2018.

MICAH PARSONS

Linebacker, 2019, Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, tabbed first team All-American by the Associated Press, USA Today, ESPN, the AFCA, Sports Illustrated, Bleacher Report and Pro Football Focus. Parsons became the 43rd overall consensus All-American in program history. The sophomore was voted the Butkus-Fitzgerald Linebacker of the Year in the Big Ten, becoming the first sophomore in Big Ten history to win the award. Parsons was additionally a finalist for the Butkus Award and a semifinalist for the Bednarik Award. During the 2019 campaign, Parsons finished the season with 10 or more tackles in three straight games and six of the final seven games. He ranked fifth in the Big Ten averaging 8.4 tackles per game, while ranking third in the league and sixth nationally forcing 0.31 fumbles per contest. In the Cotton Bowl victory over Memphis, Parsons tied a career high with 14 tackles with 10 of those coming in the first half. He registered a career-high three tackles for loss, two sacks and two forced fumbles against the Tigers. He reached the 100-tackle mark, becoming the first Penn State player since Marcus Allen in 2016 to reach the feat. Parsons finished his career tied for seventh all-time at Penn State with six forced fumbles. Parsons was selected 12th overall in the 2021 NFL Draft by the Dallas Cowboys. He was the highest drafted Penn State defensive player since Aaron Maybin went 11th overall to the Buffalo Bills in 2009. Additionally, Parsons was the first Nittany Lion defensive player drafted in the first round since Jared Odrick (2010; 28th overall to the Miami Dolphins) and the first PSU linebacker selected in the first round since LaVar Arrington (2000; second overall to the Washington Redskins).

Jack Ham

Linebacker
Inducted: 1988

*Penn State, 1968-70
Pittsburgh Steelers, 1971-82*

A second-round draft choice in 1971, Jack Ham played on four Super Bowl title teams and was voted to the All-Pro team nine consecutive seasons in his career in which he made 32 pass interceptions. A unanimous choice for the NFL Team of the Decade for the 1970s, Ham was the 1975 National Football League Defensive Player of the Year.

Franco Harris

Fullback
Inducted: 1990

*Penn State, 1969-71
Pittsburgh Steelers, 1972-83
Seattle Seahawks, 1984*

In 13 NFL seasons, Franco Harris rushed for 12,120 yards on 2,949 carries and scored 91 touchdowns. He ranks No. 15 in the NFL in all-time rushing. He topped the 1,000-yard mark eight times and totaled more than 100 yards rushing in 47 games. The Most Valuable Player in Super Bowl IX, Harris was elected to play in nine Pro Bowls. He was the 13th player chosen in the first round of the 1972 NFL Draft. Harris joined teammate Jack Ham on the Pro Football Hall of Fame All-Pro team of the 1970s.

New York Yankees (NFL), 1927-28
Green Bay Packers, 1929-35, 37*

August "Mike" Michalske, who was born in Cleveland, Ohio, joined the New York Yankees of the American Football League after a distinguished career with the Nittany Lions. When the Yankees switched to the National Football League in 1927, he played two more seasons in New York before being traded to the Green Bay Packers, where he was a member of three NFL championship teams (1929-31). Although only 6-0 and 206 pounds, Michalske was an outstanding lead guard on running plays and a feared defender, whose blitzing technique was ahead of its time. A member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame's All-Pro team of the 1920s, Michalske died on Oct. 26, 1983.

Lenny Moore

Running Back
Inducted: 1975

*Penn State, 1953-55
Baltimore Colts, 1956-67*

Lenny Moore's high-stepping style as an offensive centerpiece of the Baltimore Colts' title teams of the late 1950s earned him the nickname "Spats." In 12 seasons, he was a five-time All-Pro, played in seven Pro Bowls and set an NFL record by scoring at least one touchdown in 18 consecutive games. He missed most of the 1963 season and was voted the 1964 Comeback Player of the Year, racking up more than 1,000 yards rushing and receiving and scoring 20 TDs. He had career-highs of 649 rushing yards (7.5 ypc) as a rookie in 1956, and 50 catches and 938 receiving yards in 1958. He scored 113 TDs and gained 12,451 yards of offense in his career. Moore was selected for the Hall of Fame All-Pro squad of the 1950s.

Mike Munchak

Guard
Inducted: 2001

*Penn State, 1979-81
Houston Oilers, 1982-93*

A standout guard for 12 years with the National Football League's Houston Oilers, Mike Munchak was a nine-time Pro Bowl choice in his career (1982-93). From Scranton, Pa., he was the eighth player selected and the first offensive lineman chosen in the 1982 draft. In his third year in the NFL (1984), he was named to the first of his seven American Football Conference all-star teams and was selected All-Pro for the first time. Munchak was the centerpiece of an offensive line which helped the Oilers to seven consecutive playoff appearances (1987-93), including AFC Central Division titles in 1991 and '93. He retired in 1993 after playing in 159 regular-season games. He joined the Oilers coaching staff in 1994 and was head coach of the Tennessee Titans from 2011-13. Munchak served as the offensive line coach for the Pittsburgh Steelers from 2014-18 and is currently the offensive line coach for the Denver Broncos.

Dave Robinson

Linebacker
Inducted: 2013

*Penn State, 1960-62
Green Bay Packers, 1963-72
Washington Redskins, 1973-74*

Dave Robinson was enshrined on August 3, 2013. From Mount Laurel, N.J., Robinson was a 1962 first-team All-American and a three-year letterman, helping Penn State to a 24-8 record from 1960-62, including wins in the 1960 Liberty Bowl and the 1961 Gator Bowl as an offensive and defensive end. The Green Bay Packers selected Robinson in the first round of the 1963 NFL Draft (14th overall). He played linebacker for the Packers from 1963-72 and the Washington Redskins in 1973-74. A three-time Pro Bowl pick (1966-67, 1969) and two-time first-team All-Pro (1967, 1969), he was a starter on three NFL title (1965-67) and Super Bowl (I and II) winning teams. Named to the NFL's 1960s All-Decade team, he intercepted 27 passes in his 12-year career. Robinson, who resides in Akron, Ohio, was enshrined into the National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame in 1997 and the Green Bay Packers Hall of Fame in 1982.

HALL OF FAME INDUCTEES

HUGO BEZDEK

Born in Prague, Czechoslovakia on April 1, 1884, Hugo Bezdek was head coach at Penn State for 12 years (1918-29), compiling a 65-30-11 record, including undefeated seasons in 1920 and 1921. A four-year All-American at the University of Chicago, he played fullback in football and second base in baseball. Bezdek enjoyed a 24-year collegiate coaching career in which he also served as head coach at Oregon (1906, 1913-17) and Arkansas (1908-12). His 1917 Oregon squad defeated Pennsylvania, 14-0, in the Rose Bowl. He later managed the Pittsburgh Pirates Baseball Club (1917-19). Bezdek, who died in 1952, was named to the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 1954 and the Helms Foundation College Hall of Fame in 1960.

BILL BOWES

Bowes was a team captain for Hall of Fame coach Rip Engle during the 1964 season. The 1962 squad finished 9-2 and ranked ninth in the Associated Press (AP) and United Press International (UPI) polls, while the 1963 team was 7-3 en route to a final ranking of 16th in the UPI poll. In his senior season, Bowes and the Nittany Lions finished 6-4 and voted down the opportunity to play in the Gator Bowl despite a stunning 27-0 over second-ranked Ohio State and a 28-0 win over Pitt to end the season. Following his graduation, Bowes served as a graduate assistant for the Nittany Lions for the 1965 season before joining the UNH coaching staff. A native of nearby Blanchard, Pennsylvania and Lock Haven High School, Bowes is the winningest coach in Yankee/Atlantic 10 Conference history, posting a 175-106-5 record during his 27 seasons (1972-98) as the head coach at the University of New Hampshire. Bowes took the reins for the Wildcats in 1972, becoming the youngest head coach in program history. He led UNH to four Yankee Conference championships and guided the Wildcats to the NCAA playoffs four times. Bowes was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame as a coach on December 6, 2016.

JOHN CAPPELLETTI

The 1973 Heisman Trophy winner, John Cappelletti helped the Nittany Lions to a perfect 12-0 season and No. 5 national ranking in both of the major polls. A consensus All-American, Cappelletti rushed for 1,522 yards and 17 touchdowns in 1973. The Upper Darby, Pennsylvania, native put together three straight 200-yard rushing games in the final month of the season, including a high of 220 against NC State. Cappelletti also received the Maxwell Trophy and was selected as Player of the Year by ABC-TV, United Press International, the Philadelphia Sports Writers Association, the Walter Camp Foundation and the Washington Touchdown Club. He played in the Hula and Senior bowl games. Cappelletti's career yardage total of 2,639 still ranks him No. 12 on the Lions' all-time rushing list. His 1973 rushing total is fourth on the school season rushing list to Larry Johnson (2,087), Lydell Mitchell (1,567) and Ki-Jana Carter (1,539). A first-round draft choice of the National Football League Los Angeles Rams, Cappelletti played 10 seasons in the professional ranks, six in Los Angeles and four with the San Diego Chargers. Cappelletti was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame on December 7, 1993.

KERRY COLLINS

A native of West Lawn, Pennsylvania, Kerry Collins was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame on December 4, 2018. He was selected an All-American by the Associated Press, United Press International, The Football News, Football Writers Association of America, Walter Camp and Sporting News in 1994. He also captured two of college football's major postseason prizes - the Maxwell Award (nation's outstanding player) and the Davey O'Brien Award (nation's top quarterback). Collins finished fourth in the Heisman Trophy balloting and garnered Player of the Year honors from ABC-TV/Chevrolet and the Big Ten. Collins posted the fourth-best season passing efficiency mark in NCAA history (172.8). At the end of his career, he had broken Penn State season records for total offense (2,660), completions (176), passing yardage (2,679), completion percentage (66.7), yards per attempt (10.15) and passing efficiency (172.86). He also set the mark with 14 consecutive completions at Minnesota, which was broken by Trace McSorley in 2017. Collins was the linchpin of an explosive offense that shattered 14 school records and led the nation in scoring (47.8 ppg) and total offense (520.2 ypg.). The first-round pick of the Carolina Panthers in the 1995 National Football League Draft and the fifth player selected overall, Collins enjoyed a 17-year career in the NFL. He played for Carolina (1995-98), the New Orleans Saints (part of the 1998 season), the New York Giants (1999-2003), Oakland Raiders (2004-05), Tennessee Titans (2006-10) and the Indianapolis Colts (2011). He capped the 2000 season by leading the Giants to Super Bowl XXXV.

Halfback John Cappelletti led Penn State to a 12-0 season in 1973 and won the Heisman Trophy, Maxwell and Walter Camp awards as the nation's outstanding player. Cappelletti ran for 1,522 yards as a senior and is the only Nittany Lion to rush for 200 yards in three consecutive games. An emotional Cappelletti dedicated the Heisman Trophy to his younger brother, Joey, who was battling leukemia, during a moving acceptance speech that has become part of Penn State and college football lore. Cappelletti was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 1993.

SHANE CONLAN

Shane Conlan, the leader of Penn State's outstanding defenses in 1985 and '86, was enshrined in the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 2014. A two-time first-team All-American, Conlan became the 18th former Nittany Lion player and 23rd member of the Penn State football family to be inducted into the Hall of Fame. A senior co-captain in 1986, Conlan was instrumental in Penn State's 23-1 record his last two seasons, with two National Championship game appearances. Conlan capped his career by leading a superlative defensive effort in the 1987 Fiesta Bowl to earn the game's Most Valuable Defensive Player, recording eight tackles and two interceptions to lead Penn State past previously unbeaten Miami, 14-10, for the 1986 national title. A four-year letterman and a three-year starter for Hall of Fame coach Joe Paterno, Conlan was a consensus first-team All-American in 1986. The Buffalo Bills selected Conlan with the No. 8 overall pick in the first round of 1987 NFL Draft and he earned NFL Rookie of the Year and Defensive Rookie of the Year honors. Conlan played nine years in the NFL, attaining three Pro Bowl selections and helping the Bills win three consecutive AFC Championships.

KEITH DORNEY

Keith Dorney, a two-time All-American at tackle for the Nittany Lions in 1977 and 1978, was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in December 2005. He is the 16th former Nittany Lion player so honored and the 20th member of the Penn State football family to earn college football's highest honor. Dorney was selected an All-American by the Football Writers in 1977 and in 1978 by the Associated Press, Football Writers, the American Football Coaches Association, NEA, Sporting News, United Press International and Walter Camp. A native of Allentown, Pennsylvania, he played nine seasons with Detroit (1979-87) of the National Football League.

CHARLES "RIP" ENGLE

Charles A. "Rip" Engle achieved national prominence as Penn State's 13th head coach. A native of Salisbury, Pennsylvania, he was a four-sport standout at Western Maryland College, graduating in 1930. Engle began his coaching career at Waynesboro (Pennsylvania) High School, where he compiled an 86-17-5 mark in 11 years, including three unbeaten seasons and eight conference championships. He joined the staff at Brown in 1942 and was promoted to head coach two years later. Engle was named head coach at Penn State in 1950 and guided the Lions to a 104-48-4 record in 16 years, winning three of four bowl games and three Lambert Trophies. In 1970, Engle won the Amos Alonzo Stagg Award for his contributions to football. He was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 1974. Engle died March 7, 1983, in Bellefonte, Pennsylvania. He was born March 26, 1906.

JACK HAM

An All-American in 1970, Jack Ham became the 10th Nittany Lion to be enshrined in the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame when he was inducted in 1990. Ham was the first Penn State product in both the college and professional football halls of fame (Dave Robinson). A nine-time All-Pro linebacker for the National Football League's Pittsburgh Steelers, Ham was enshrined at Canton in 1988. As a senior co-captain in 1970, Ham had 91 tackles and intercepted four passes. He still shares a pair of defensive records for blocked punts: four in his career, three in his final season. He had 251 career tackles (143 solo). A second-round draft choice of the Steelers in 1971, Ham developed into one of the NFL's most outstanding linebackers. He is a Penn State Distinguished Alumni Award recipient.

HISTORY & HONORS

DICK HARLOW

A Penn State graduate, Dick Harlow served as the Nittany Lions' head coach for three seasons (1915-17), compiling a 20-8 record. A two-year letterman, he also was a member of the baseball and track teams. After leaving Penn State, Harlow was the head coach at Colgate (1922-25), Western Maryland (1926-34) and Harvard (1935-42, 45-47). At Harvard, Harlow was voted Coach of the Year in 1936 and a year later was chosen as the Ivy League Coach of the Year. He was named to the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 1954. A native of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, Harlow died in 1962. He was born Oct. 19, 1889.

BOB HIGGINS

Bob Higgins, a native of Corning, New York, came to Penn State as a student in 1914 and became one of only five players in the history of Nittany Lion football to earn five letters. An end on Walter Camp's All-America team in 1919, he served as captain as a senior. Higgins also lettered in baseball, boxing and wrestling and played two years of professional football with the Canton Bulldogs. His coaching career included stays at West Virginia Wesleyan University and Washington University in St. Louis, before he returned to Penn State in 1928 as an assistant. Higgins was appointed the Lions' head coach in 1930 and compiled a 91-57-11 record in 19 seasons. His 1947 team was unbeaten in the regular-season and tied SMU, 13-13, in the 1948 Cotton Bowl. Higgins, who died in 1969, was elected to the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 1954. He was born Nov. 24, 1893.

GLENN KILLINGER

Glenn Killinger was named to the 1921 Walter Camp All-America team at quarterback after leading Penn State to two straight undefeated seasons. He earned nine letters in football, basketball and baseball. He also coached at Penn State, Dickinson, Rensselaer and Moravian and played professional football with the New York Giants. Killinger joined the faculty at West Chester (Pa.) State College in 1934 and served in various capacities, including head football and baseball coach, athletic director and dean of men. A native of Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, Killinger died July 25, 1988 in Stanton, Delaware. He was born Sept. 13, 1898.

Ted Kwalick was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 1989.

TED KWALICK

Penn State's second two-time All-American, tight end Ted Kwalick was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 1989. In his three-year career (1966-68), Kwalick caught 86 passes for 1,343 yards and 10 touchdowns. After making a pair of All-America teams as a junior, Kwalick was a consensus choice as a senior, while finishing fourth in the Heisman Trophy voting. He played in the College All-Star and the Coaches All-America games and the Senior Bowl following his senior season. Kwalick was a 1969 first-round draft choice of the San Francisco 49ers and enjoyed a distinguished career with the 49ers, Oakland Raiders and, briefly, the Philadelphia Bell of the World Football League, before retiring in 1977. He was a member of the Raiders' Super Bowl XI championship team and was selected to play in three Pro Bowls. In nine NFL seasons, Kwalick averaged 15.3 yards per catch on 168 pass receptions.

RICHIE LUCAS

Richie Lucas, who was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 1986, enjoyed an outstanding Penn State career as a two-way player from 1957-59. He won the Maxwell Award, was a first-team All-American at quarterback and was second in the 1959 Heisman Trophy balloting. As a senior, the Glassboro, Pennsylvania, native led Penn State to a 9-2 record and a 7-0 victory over Alabama in the first Liberty Bowl. He led the team in rushing (325 yards) and passed for 913 yards and five touchdowns, completing 58 of 117 passes. He also punted 20 times for a 34.0-yard average and returned five interceptions for 114 yards. Following a brief professional football career, he entered athletic administration at Penn State. He retired in 1998 as an assistant athletic director.

PETE MAUTHE

Pete Mauthe lettered four years (1909-12) at fullback during which time Penn State posted a 26-2-4 record. Mauthe, captain of the 1912 team, also was an outstanding punter and placekicker. As a senior, he kicked a 52-yard field goal and scored 119 points, including 11 touchdowns. Born July 8, 1890 in Turkey City, Pennsylvania, he became president of a mining company in Youngstown, Ohio. Mauthe, who died in 1967, was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 1957. He was honored in 1964 as a distinguished alumnus of the University.

SHORTY MILLER

Eugene E. "Shorty" Miller, a 5-foot-5 quarterback who was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 1974, earned Walter Camp third-team All-America honors after leading Penn State to an 8-0 record in 1912. A four-year letterman, the Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, native also served as captain of the baseball team. He played several seasons of professional football with Massillon (Ohio) and later served as a highly respected college and professional football official. He died in 1966 after a career as a teacher, coach and administrator in the Harrisburg school system. Miller was born on Nov. 15, 1890.

Lydell Mitchell was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 2004.

LYDELL MITCHELL

Penn State's long-time season and career touchdowns record-holder, Lydell Mitchell was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame on December 7, 2004. A product of Salem, New Jersey, Mitchell was a standout running back from 1969-71, helping the Nittany Lions to a 29-4 record. He earned first-team All-America accolades and finished fifth in Heisman Trophy balloting in 1971 after breaking three NCAA season records — most touchdowns (29), most rushing TDs (26) and points scored (174). Mitchell ran for 1,567 yards in 1971, a school season record that stood for more than 30 years. At the end of his career, he held Penn State records for touchdowns in a season (29), career touchdowns (41) and career rushing touchdowns (38). Mitchell played in the National Football League with Baltimore (1972-77), San Diego (1978-79) and the Los Angeles Rams (1980).

DENNIS ONKOTZ

One of only 12 Penn State players to be named first-team All-America in consecutive years, Dennis Onkotz was a defensive mainstay of the 1968-69 undefeated teams. A native of Northampton, Pennsylvania, Onkotz amassed 287 tackles, which still ranks seventh on the Lions' career list. His 11 interceptions are tied for 10th in school history. His three interception returns for touchdowns are a career record (since tied by Darren Perry). A versatile athlete who also returned punts, Onkotz's 13.2-yard average on 47 punt returns is No. 8 among the Nittany Lions' best-ever in that department. Onkotz made the 1969 Academic All-America team and was selected to play in the 1970 Hula Bowl. Chosen by the New York Jets in the third round of the 1970 NFL draft, Onkotz was forced to retire from professional football because of a severely broken leg suffered in his rookie season. Onkotz was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame on December 12, 1995.

Mike Reid was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1987.

JOE PATERNO

Joe Paterno's induction into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame took place on December 4, 2007, having been postponed from 2006 due to injuries he sustained in a sideline collision during a November game at Wisconsin. Paterno was scheduled to be among the first active players or coaches inducted into the Hall of Fame. He joined active coaches Bobby Bowden and John Gagliardi as inductees. Paterno and Bowden received the Gold Medal — the Foundation's highest and most prestigious honor — at the 2006 event via a video presentation. Paterno was the 21st member of the Penn State football family to gain induction into the Hall of Fame. From Brooklyn, New York, Paterno joined the Nittany Lions' coaching staff in 1950 soon after his graduation from Brown University. He was named head coach in 1966, introducing his "Grand Experiment" and rapidly turning Penn State into one of the nation's premier programs. A member of the coaching staff for 62 years, 46 as the head coach, Paterno is the winningest coach in the history of major college football, earning a 409-136-3 career record (74.9). Paterno was selected the American Football Coaches Association Coach of the Year an unprecedented five times and led the Nittany Lions to seven unbeaten, untied regular seasons and two National Championships in his 46 seasons. Paterno died from lung cancer at the age of 85 on Jan. 22, 2012 in State College, Pennsylvania.

Joe Paterno was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2007.

MIKE REID

Mike Reid, the only Penn State player to win the Outland Trophy as the "outstanding interior lineman in college football," was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 1987. A bulwark of the 1968-69 teams, he was an All-American and All-East choice in 1969, when he recorded 87 tackles and returned an interception for a touchdown against Maryland. He also finished fifth in the Heisman Trophy balloting. Reid enjoyed a varied career at Penn State (1966-69), which included a lead role in the play "Guys and Dolls" and winning the 1967 Eastern heavyweight wrestling title. He starred with Cincinnati in the National Football League (1970-74), winning All-Pro honors twice, before retiring to devote full time to his music career. He has won numerous music awards, including the Grammy Award. Also a Penn State Distinguished Alumni Award recipient, he was named an NCAA Silver Anniversary Award recipient in 1995.

GLENN RESSLER

A dominant two-way lineman from 1962-64, Glenn Ressler was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame on December 11, 2001. A native of Dornsife, Pennsylvania, Ressler won three varsity letters, excelling at center and middle guard. In his senior season of 1964, he was a consensus All-American and was the choice of Philadelphia's Maxwell Football Club as the nation's most outstanding player. Ressler played in the East-West Shrine Classic and Hula Bowl following his senior season in 1965. He played for 10 seasons with the Baltimore Colts of the National Football League after being selected in the third round of the 1965 draft. He was a member of the Colts' 1969 Super Bowl team and played on Baltimore's 1971 NFL Championship squad that defeated the Dallas Cowboys in Super Bowl V. Ressler was selected second-team All-NFL in 1968 by the New York Daily News.

DAVE ROBINSON

A dominant two-way end from 1960-62, Dave Robinson was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame on December 9, 1997. A product of Moorestown, New Jersey, Robinson was a three-year letterman playing on both sides of the ball for coach Rip Engle. As a senior in 1962, he led Penn State to a 9-1 regular-season, made 17 receptions for 178 yards and was named a first-team All-America by the Associated Press, NEA, Football Writers (Look), Post and Time magazines. The first-team All-East choice also was named the nation's top collegiate lineman by the Philadelphia Sportswriters. Robinson was a first-round draft choice of the Green Bay Packers and became an integral member of Vince Lombardi's squad, helping the Packers to the 1965 NFL Championship and victories in Super Bowls I and II. He was named All-Pro three times, playing for Green Bay from 1963-72 and concluding his career with the Washington Redskins in 1973-74. Robinson was enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2013.

STEVE SUHEY

Steve Suhey, whose Penn State career was interrupted by World War II, was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 1985. Born on Jan. 8, 1922 in Jamesville, New York, he enrolled in 1941 but left for three years of service in the Pacific with the Army Air Corps, before returning in 1946. He earned All-America honors as a member of the unbeaten 1947 team. He completed his degree while playing two years with Pittsburgh in the National Football League. He later coached at Waynesboro (Pennsylvania) High School before becoming a salesman for the L.G. Balfour Company until his death in 1977 on his 55th birthday. Suhey married the former Virginia Higgins, daughter of his collegiate coach, Bob Higgins. They had seven children, including Larry, Paul and Matt, who were all members of the 1976 Penn State football team.

Dave Robinson is a member of both the College Football Hall of Fame and the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

DEXTER VERY

Dexter Very, who was named to the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 1976, never missed a game in his Penn State career (1909-12). An end who also returned kickoffs, he was named a second-team All-American as a senior and was part of one of college football's earliest passing combinations. Born Nov. 27, 1889 in Fairdale, Pennsylvania, he lost just two bouts in four years as a Nittany Lion wrestler. Very went on to become a collegiate football official and business executive in the Pittsburgh area. He died in 1980 at the age of 90.

CURT WARNER

Penn State's longtime career rushing leader, Curt Warner was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame on December 8, 2009. He was the 17th former Nittany Lion player and 22nd member of the Penn State football family to gain induction into the Hall of Fame. A two-time first-team All-American, the Pineville, West Virginia product made a tremendous impact on the program from 1979-82. He led Penn State in rushing his final three seasons, helping the Nittany Lions compile a 31-5 record, with three bowl wins, including the 1982 National Championship. Upon completion of his career, Warner owned 42 school records, including Penn State career records for rushing yardage (3,398), 100-yard rushing games (18) and all-purpose yards in a game (341), among others. Warner averaged 5.2 yards per carry. He rewrote the school record by gaining 341 all-purpose yards in a victory at Syracuse in 1981, with a career-high 256 rushing yards. He gained a then-school record 4,982 career all-purpose yards. A two-time Fiesta Bowl Offensive Player of the Game, Warner is Penn State's career leader in bowl game rushing with 474 yards. The third player selected overall in the 1983 National Football League Draft, he had a productive eight-year career with the Seattle Seahawks and Los Angeles Rams. Warner owns an automobile dealership and lives in Camas, Washington.

HARRY WILSON

Harry "Light Horse" Wilson enjoyed an outstanding collegiate career and earned All-America recognition as a halfback at both Penn State (1921-23) and Army (1925-26). He led Penn State in scoring for two seasons (1922-23) and scored every touchdown for the Nittany Lions in the final six games of the 1923 season before leading Army in scoring for two consecutive years. Commissioned in 1928, he earned the Distinguished Flying Cross and the Air Medal with five oak leaf clusters after flying 45 combat missions as a pilot commander in the Army Air Corps in World War II. Born Aug. 6, 1902, he retired from the military in 1956. Wilson, who died on Oct. 26, 1990 in Rochester, New York, was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 1973.

PENN STATE HEAD COACHES

George Hoskins
1892-95

George "Doc" Hoskins served as Penn State's first head coach, while also a player for the Nittany Lions. A three-year letterman at center, he was the athletic trainer at Vermont before being appointed Penn State's first director of physical training and first instructor of physical education. His duties included coaching the football team to a record of 17-4-4. He later was head coach at Bucknell and served as a trainer for the Cincinnati Reds during baseball spring training for 23 years. He died in Cincinnati in 1957.

Samuel Newton
1896-98

Dr. Samuel Newton was Penn State's second head coach. He posted a 12-14 record, while also serving as the director of physical training. A native of Yarmouth, Maine, and a graduate of Williams College and the University of Pennsylvania Medical School, he was a physician and assistant coach at Pennsylvania, when named to the Penn State post. He also compiled a record of 57-28-2 at Lafayette and Lehigh. He retired from coaching after the 1905 season at Lehigh to devote full time to his medical practice.

Sam Boyle

Sam Boyle coached Penn State for just one season, but led the Nittany Lions to a 6-0 victory at Army to highlight a 4-6-1 campaign. It would be 60 years before Penn State won again at West Point. A three-year letterman at Pennsylvania, he coached at Dickinson the following season (1900), during which his squad downed Penn State, 18-0.

Pop Golden
1900-02

William Nelson "Pop" Golden compiled a 16-12-1 record in three seasons before being named Penn State's first athletic director. A Chicago native, he remained on the football staff as an assistant coach until 1909 and served as a recruiter for two years. He was the athletic trainer at Purdue and was in charge of physical education at YMCAs in Syracuse, New York, and Johnstown and Williamsport, Pennsylvania, before taking the Penn State position. He died in 1949 at the age of 81 in Pittsburgh after enjoying a successful career in insurance sales.

Dan Reed

Dan Reed led Penn State to a 5-3 record in his only season as head coach, including wins over Pittsburgh (59-0) and Navy (17-0). A two-year letterman at Cornell for the legendary Pop Warner, Reed later served as a Cornell assistant coach (1910-11). Reed, who also was on the Cornell track and wrestling teams, turned to politics after his coaching career. He was elected to Congress, where he served on the Ways and Means Committee. He died in 1959.

Tom Fennell
1904-08

Tom Fennell was named Penn State's first full-time head coach in 1904 and compiled a 33-17-1 record in five seasons. He was hired exclusively to coach football and held no additional duties. A graduate of Cornell, where he was a standout in football, Fennell gave up the Penn State post after the 1908 season. He returned to law practice in Elmira, New York, and later became a judge.

Bill Hollenback
1909, 1911-14

Bill Hollenback became the youngest head coach in the nation, when, at 23, he was named Penn State's head coach in 1909. He capped his senior year at Pennsylvania the previous season as captain and being named to the Walter Camp All-America team at fullback. He guided Penn State, in its initial year of play at Beaver Field, to its first unbeaten season (5-0-2) since 1893. He was lured to Missouri in 1910, but returned to lead the Nittany Lions to undefeated records in 1911 and 1912. He ended his Penn State career after the 1914 season with a record of 28-9-4.

Jack Hollenback

Jack Hollenback coached Penn State for one season (1910), when his brother, Bill, took the head position at Missouri. The Nittany Lions were 5-2-1 in a season which saw admission charged for the first time when Penn State met Bucknell on Nov. 12 at Beaver Field. A Pennsylvania graduate in dentistry, Hollenback also coached at Franklin & Marshall (1908-09) and at the Pennsylvania Military College (Widener) in 1911 before opening a dental practice in Philipsburg, Pennsylvania. He later joined his brother in the coal brokerage business in Philadelphia. Hollenback died in 1959 at the age of 75.

Dick Harlow
1915-17

Dick Harlow was the first Penn State graduate to serve as head coach, compiling a 20-8 record in three seasons. A two-year letterman, he also was a member of the baseball and track teams. He later served as head coach at Colgate (1922-25), Western Maryland (1926-34) and Harvard (1935-42, 45-47). He was recognized as Coach of the Year in 1936. A Philadelphia native, Harlow, who died in 1962, was named to the Helms Foundation College Hall of Fame in 1954.

Hugo Bezdek

Hugo Bezdek, a native of Prague, Czechoslovakia, posted a 65-30-11 record in 12 seasons (1918-29) as head coach, including consecutive undefeated seasons (1920-21). He also served as athletic director from 1918-36. Bezdek gained All-American status at Chicago, where he was a fullback in football and second baseman in baseball. His collegiate coaching experience included head jobs at Oregon (1906, 13-17), where his team defeated Pennsylvania, 14-0, in the 1917 Rose Bowl; and Arkansas (1908-12). He also managed the Pittsburgh Pirates baseball club (1917-19) and was head coach of the NFL's Cleveland Rams (1937-38). Bezdek, who died in 1952, was named to the National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame in 1954 and the Helms Foundation College Hall of Fame in 1960.

Bob Higgins

Bob Higgins served 19 years as head coach, compiling a record of 91-57-11, including an unbeaten season in 1947. A native of Corning, New York, he entered Penn State in 1914 and became one of only five players in school history to letter five years. He served as captain of the team as a senior when he was named to the 1919 Walter Camp All-American team. He also lettered in baseball, boxing and wrestling. Following two years of professional football with the Canton Bulldogs, he began his coaching career, which included stops at West Virginia Wesleyan and Washington University in St. Louis. He joined the Penn State staff in 1928 as an assistant coach. Higgins, who died in 1969, was named to the National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame in 1954.

Joe Bedenk

Joe Bedenk led Penn State to a record of 5-4 in his only season as head coach. A 1924 Penn State graduate from Williamsport, Pennsylvania, he lettered three years at guard and captained the 1923 squad. He also served as baseball coach, compiling a record of 410-161-6 from 1931-62. Nine of his baseball teams played in the NCAA Tournament and three appeared in the College World Series, including 1957, when the Nittany Lions placed second. Bedenk was elected to the College Baseball Hall of Fame in 1966 and was one of the founders of the American Association of College Baseball Coaches. He lived in State College, Pennsylvania, following his retirement in 1963, until his death in 1978.

Charles A. "Rip" Engle

"Rip" Engle achieved national prominence as Penn State's 13th head coach, compiling a record of 104-48-4 over 16 seasons (1950-65). His teams won three of four bowl games and the Lambert Trophy three times. A native of Salisbury, Pennsylvania, Engle was a four-sport standout at Western Maryland, graduating in 1930. He posted an 86-17-5 record in 11 seasons at Waynesboro (Pa.) High School, before joining the staff at Brown in 1942. He was named head coach in 1944 and led the Bears until coming to Penn State in 1950. Engle won the Amos Alonzo Stagg Award for his contributions to football and was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame in 1974. Following his retirement, he lived in State College, Pennsylvania, until his death on March 7, 1983.

Joe Paterno

An assistant coach on Rip Engle's staff for 16 years, Joe Paterno was named Penn State's 14th head coach on February 19, 1966. Paterno was the Nittany Lions' head coach for 46 years, the longest tenure by a major college coach at one institution, and a member of the Lions' coaching staff for an unprecedented 62 years. He was among the first three active coaches to be inducted into the National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame in 2007. Paterno is the winningest coach in major college football history, compiling a 409-136-3 career record (74.9). He led Penn State to National Championships in 1982 and 1986, Big Ten titles in 1994, 2005 and 2008 and seven unbeaten, untied regular seasons. Creator of "The Grand Experiment," his teams annually were among the national leaders in graduation rates and 47 of the student-athletes who played under his direction earned Academic All-America honors. Paterno passed away on January 22, 2012.

Bill O'Brien

Bill O'Brien was named the Nittany Lions' 15th head coach on January 6, 2012 and quickly established his vision and continued the program's athletic and academic success during the most challenging period in the University's history. Amidst an unprecedented situation in college athletics, O'Brien's work ethic and no-nonsense approach guided the team to two of the most rewarding seasons in program history. The Nittany Lions posted records of 8-4 and 7-5 during his two seasons, with a 10-6 Big Ten record, including a 6-2 mark in 2012. O'Brien's eight wins in 2012 were the most by a first-year coach in school history and led to numerous honors, including Bear Bryant and ESPN Coach of the Year and the Maxwell Football Club Collegiate Coach of the Year. He also was the Big Ten Dave McClain Coach of the Year. O'Brien came to Penn State after helping the New England Patriots to two Super Bowls from 2007-11, serving as quarterbacks coach the last three years. O'Brien was named head coach of the NFL's Houston Texans on January 3, 2014.

James Franklin

James Franklin, a 26-year football coaching veteran, was appointed Penn State's 16th head football coach on January 11, 2014 and enters his 11th season as a collegiate head football coach. Franklin's career head coaching record is 84-43 and is one of only six current FBS coaches to lead his team to a bowl game in each of his first nine seasons as a head coach. Franklin attributes his success on the field to the strength of his teams' dedication to four core values: positive attitude, great work ethic, compete in everything you do and must be willing to sacrifice. Under Franklin's direction, Penn State has finished in the top 12 in the final College Football Playoff rankings in four of the last five seasons, has earned berths in three New Year's Six bowl games with two wins and won the 2016 Big Ten Championship. Franklin has guided the Nittany Lions to an 86 percent graduation success rate, a perfect single-year 1,000 APR for the 2018-19 school year and record-breaking performances in the classroom.

HISTORY & HONORS

BEAVER STADIUM HOME OF THE NITTANY LIONS

Beaver Stadium, the home of the Nittany Lions, is one of the nation's premier football venues.

Installation of seating to meet standards established by the Americans with Disabilities Act before the 2011 season resulted in a reduction of the stadium's capacity to 106,572.

An expansion and renovation prior to the 2001 season added more than 12,000 seats, increasing the stadium's capacity to 107,282 and easing the waiting list for season ticket requests from Penn State fans.

The second-largest stadium in the nation, the renovation and expansion added restrooms and concession facilities, new scoreboards with video screens, and improved handicap access and pedestrian circulation patterns. Among the most visible additions to the venue were 60 skyboxes in a three-level structure erected above the east stands and an 11,500-seat two-tier upper deck located in the south end zone.

Beaver Stadium has more than doubled in size since it was moved from its former site northeast of Rec Hall on the west side of campus to the east end of the campus in 1960.

Originally built in a horseshoe configuration seating 46,284, the stadium now towers 110 rows on the east side, 100 rows on the west, 60 in the lower end zones, 35 in the north upper deck, 20 in the club level above the south end zone and 25 in the south upper deck.

The Nittany Lions dedicated Beaver Stadium with a 20-0 victory over Boston University on Sept. 17, 1960. Penn State halfback Eddie Caye scored the venue's first touchdown at 10:45 of the first quarter.

Additions of more than 2,000 seats in 1969 and more than 9,000 in 1972 raised the seating capacity to 57,538. Expanded bleachers in the south end zone in 1976 increased the seating capacity to 60,203.

A uniquely engineered expansion project during the winter, spring and summer of 1978 added more than 16,000 seats, upping the capacity to 76,639. The stadium was cut into sections, raised eight feet by hydraulic jacks and precast concrete seating forms inserted within the inner circle of the stadium, where a running track previously was located.

In 1980, expansion increased the capacity to 83,770. Lights were added in 1984. In 1985, the addition of walkways around the tops of the end zones and entry ramps at the four corners resulted in reducing the capacity to 83,370.

The addition of a 10,033-seat upper deck in the north end zone in 1991 and portable seats on the north end zone concourse increased the stadium's capacity to 93,967.

Penn State's first permanent football venue was Beaver Field, located between the present-day Osmond and Frear laboratories in the center of campus. Before that, games were played on the Old Main lawn.

The first game at 500-seat Beaver Field was played on Nov. 6, 1893 against Western University of Pittsburgh (later to become the University of Pittsburgh). The 32-0 Penn State victory was delayed two days because of bad weather and played on a Monday afternoon.

New Beaver Field, located near Rec Hall, was dedicated in 1909 with a 31-0 win over Grove City. Originally constructed of wood, the stadium was converted to steel in 1936. The area also contained facilities for baseball, lacrosse, soccer, and track and field.

New Beaver Field was the Nittany Lions' home through the 1959 season, after which the 30,000-seat facility was dismantled in 700 pieces and moved one mile to the east side of campus. There it was reassembled with 16,000 new seats to form Beaver Stadium.

The stadium is named in honor of James A. Beaver. A lawyer in nearby Bellefonte at the outbreak of the Civil War, he enlisted in the Union Army as a second lieutenant and rose to the rank of brigadier general prior to his discharge in 1864. Beaver, who died in 1914, served as a superior court judge, governor of Pennsylvania and president of the University's Board of Trustees. He is credited with being among the most influential leaders in the development of the University at the turn of the century.

PENN STATE FOOTBALL TIMELINE

SIGNIFICANT DATES IN PENN STATE FOOTBALL HISTORY

Penn State's first varsity football team began play in 1887 and recorded shutouts of nearby Bucknell in its only two games that season.

February 22, 1855 — Pennsylvania Governor James Pollock signs the charter creating the Farmers' High School of Pennsylvania with its location to be determined.

September 1855 — Two-hundred acres of farm land outside the village of Centre Furnace in Centre County are chosen as the location of the Farmers' High School after a review committee, headed by Governor James Pollock, visits other proposed sites in Allegheny, Butler, Erie and Perry counties.

February 16, 1859 — Sixty-nine students show up for the first day of classes at the new Farmers' High School of Pennsylvania.

1862 — The Farmers' High School of Pennsylvania is given a new name as the Agriculture College of Pennsylvania in anticipation of being given official recognition as a land grant college under the federal Morrill Act.

1874 — The name of the college is officially changed to Pennsylvania State College. The town's post office takes the name State College.

November 12, 1881 — Penn State College students organize a football team without administration support and play the first game against the University of Lewisburg (renamed Bucknell University in 1896) in Lewisburg. Penn State wins, 9-0, in a cold, sleet-like drizzle.

September 1887 — George "Lucy" Linsz arrives on campus as a freshman and, with the help of fellow freshman Charles Hildebrand, gets approval from President George Atherton to organize the first official football team for Penn State College.

Fall 1887 — Pink and Black are picked as the team colors.

November 12, 1887 — The first official game is played against Bucknell at Lewisburg. Penn State wins, 54-0.

November 19, 1887 — The first home game is played on Old Main lawn. Captain and quarterback "Lucy" Linsz scores three second-half touchdowns to lead Penn State to a 24-0 win over Bucknell.

Fall 1888 — The team colors are changed to blue and white. A Student Athletic Association is formed to help support athletics with three divisions, including football, baseball and general.

November 11, 1889 — Penn State is handed its worst all-time defeat, 106-0, by Lehigh at Bethlehem. Penn State plays the first half with only nine players; the referee mercifully stops the game with five minutes left to play.

March 18, 1890 — Blue and white are formally adopted as the college colors at a meeting of the Athletic Association.

November 7, 1891 — Penn State plays its biggest game since 1887 against Bucknell for the lead in the Pennsylvania Intercollegiate Foot-Ball Association and loses a mistake-prone game, 12-10.

January 9, 1892 — Penn State is awarded the first championship of the Pennsylvania Intercollegiate Foot-Ball Association after finishing with a 4-1 league record, edging out "bitter rival" Bucknell (3-1-1).

January 1892 — George "The General" Hoskins is hired as the first "official" head football coach and first director of physical training for the Athletic Association.

Spring 1892 — Football players participate in the first spring practice as George Hoskins stresses physical conditioning and teamwork.

November 6, 1893 — Beaver Field (later known as Old Beaver Field) is dedicated with General James Beaver and his wife present, as Penn State plays its first game against Pitt, then known as Western University of Pennsylvania, and wins easily, 32-0. Funding of $15,000 from the State Legislature helps in the construction of the venue, including a 500-seat grandstand, located between present-day Osmond and Frear laboratories in center campus.

October 13, 1894 — Charlie Atherton sets four all-time records that still stand in the opening game, a 60-0 win against Gettysburg. Atherton kicks 10-of-10 extra point attempts to set the game extra points record for accuracy, points and attempts, and also adds three touchdowns for the most points in a game by a senior (32).

November 10, 1894 — Bill Suter establishes a Penn State record for the longest touchdown run from scrimmage with a 90-yard dash around right end for the only Penn State touchdown in a 6-6 tie with Navy in Annapolis. The record was not broken until 2014 when Bill Belton scored a 92-yard touchdown in a 12-7 win at Indiana.

November 24, 1894 — Charlie Atherton kicks one of the first placements from scrimmage in the history of college football; his 25-yard boot in a 9-6 win over Oberlin is ignored by historians.

November 29, 1894 — Penn State finishes its first unbeaten season with a 14-0 win over the Pittsburgh Athletic Club and a final 6-0-1 record.

Summer 1896 — George Hoskins resigns as "head coach" to become coach at Pitt and Dr. Sam Newton is hired as his replacement.

September 1897 — "Henny" Scholl introduces the first helmet during fall practice. It actually is a derby hat with the brim cut off and rags stuffed inside for padding. It gets little usage. The Athletic Association sets a mandatory student fee of $2 to support athletic programs, including football.

October 30, 1897 — The "Hidden Ball Trick" is used for the first time in intercollegiate football by Cornell against Penn State in a game at Ithaca. Cornell wins, 45-0.

Fall 1898 — The school's loosely organized drum and bugle corps expands to create a full-sized Cadet Band, which later changes its name to the Blue Band.

December 1898 — Junior guard "Brute" Randolph becomes the first Penn State player named to the All-America team, when selected by Walter Camp for the 1898 third team.

Spring-Fall 1899 — Dr. Sam Newton resigns as "head coach" to coach at Lafayette. Sam Boyle of the University of Pennsylvania is hired as "head coach" but leaves at the end of the season.

October 7, 1899 — Star quarterback Earl Hewitt runs back a punt 65 yards for the only touchdown, then makes a game-saving tackle on the Penn State six-yard line late in the game as Penn State upsets Army, 6-0, in the first meeting of the two teams at West Point. Penn State will not beat Army again for 60 years.

Summer 1900 — William "Pop" Golden is hired as head coach and director of physical training for the Athletic Association.

October 1903 — Pop Golden is chosen as the school's first unofficial athletic director and gives up the position of head coach of the football team. Dan Reed of Cornell is hired as head coach for the last month of the season and decides not to return in 1904.

October 24, 1903 — In the first game at Pitt, Carl Forkum scores 39 points on five TDs and 9-of-10 PATs and Irish McIlveen scores two touchdowns — one on a 56-yard run — as Penn State clobbers Pitt, 59-0, in what would be the biggest margin of victory in the series for 65 years.

Winter 1904 — Tom Fennell, Cornell star of the 1890s, is hired as the first full-time head coach.

October 1, 1904 — Carl Forkum sets the all-time kickoff return record with a 115-yard runback for a touchdown in a 50-0 win over Allegheny.

November 3, 1905 — Penn State sets a team scoring record with a 73-0 win over Geneva at Beaver Field as nine players score touchdowns.

October 6, 1906 — Penn State wins one of its biggest games ever with a 4-0 victory over the Carlisle Indians before 4,000 fans at Williamsport as freshman "Bull" McCleary kicks a 35-yard field goal for the only points.

October 20, 1906 — Ed Cyphers runs the "wrong way" after recovering a blocked kick during the big game with Yale in New Haven and his "bad luck" error helps lose the game, 10-0. It will be the only defeat of the season.

November 29, 1906 — The first of Penn State's outstanding teams compiles an 8-1-1 record after beating Pitt, 6-0, on Thanksgiving Day in Pittsburgh on a touchdown in the last 30 seconds, setting a record of nine shutouts that remains the all-time best for the Nittany Lions.

December 1906 — Center William "Mother" Dunn becomes Penn State's initial first-team All-American when selected by Walter Camp.

March 17, 1907 — Senior H.D. "Joe" Mason advocates adopting a Lion as the college mascot in an article in the humor magazine Lemon. Mason says the idea evolved when he was a freshman baseball player during a 1904 game with the Princeton Tigers, and that he answered taunts by Princeton players that the "king of the beasts" — Lions — roamed the Nittany Valley until becoming extinct from hunting by Indians and settlers. Penn State beat Princeton that day in 1904, 9-1. Students later vote to adopt a mountain Lion as the mascot, and Penn State becomes the first college to use Lion as its symbol.

October 26, 1907 — Penn State sets a team scoring record with a 75-0 win over Lebanon Valley at Beaver Field. Sophomore "Bull" McCleary scores five touchdowns in the game, setting a season scoring record of 13 touchdowns (which remained the record until broken by Charlie Pittman in 1968).

November 28, 1907 — Penn State's former football captains and managers meet in Pittsburgh on Thanksgiving evening to form an organization that becomes the forerunner of today's Varsity Letterman's Club.

September 19, 1908 — Penn State loses its first and only game on Old Beaver Field in a shocking 6-5 upset by Bellefonte Academy.

November 7, 1908 — A record crowd of several thousand (exact figure unknown) turns out as Penn State plays the final game on Old Beaver Field, beating Bucknell, 33-6. The victory is the 48th against only one defeat on the playing field.

Spring-Summer 1909 — Tom Fennell resigns as head coach and Bill Hollenback, All-American fullback and captain of the 1908 University of Pennsylvania team, is hired as his replacement with the title of "advisory coach." Former Penn State player and then current baseball coach "Irish" McIlveen is given the title of "head coach."

PENN STATE FOOTBALL TIMELINE

September 1909 — Penn State's first great recruiting class enters school and starts football practice. The recruits include two future members of the College Football Hall of Fame — Pete Mauthe and Dexter Verry.

October 2, 1909 — Two major milestones in Penn State football history take place as Penn State records its 100th all-time victory and the first game is played at New Beaver Field near Rec Hall. A crowd of 500 sees Penn State beat Grove City, 31-0, with Captain Larry Vorhis, the quarterback, scoring the first touchdown and kicking a field goal.

October 9, 1909 — Penn State gives up the lead on a two-point safety in the last minute to allow Pop Warner's Carlisle Indians to gain an 8-8 tie before 10,000 at the neutral site of Wilkes-Barre. A major brawl breaks out after the game when Penn State and Carlisle players fight over which team gets the "victory" ball.

October 23, 1909 — After 15 consecutive defeats since the series began in 1890, Penn State ties Pennsylvania, 3-3, at Franklin Field. The Nittany Lions go on to finish the year at 5-0-2 for their second undefeated season in history.

Summer 1910 — Bill Hollenback resigns to accept a one-year position as head coach at Missouri. Hollenback's older brother, Jack, takes over as "advisory coach" and McIlveen continues as "head coach."

November 12, 1910 — An admission fee is charged at a home game for the first time as Penn State beats Bucknell, 45-3.

Summer 1911 — Bill Hollenback returns from Missouri to again become coach, still with the title of "advisory coach." Former star running back and 1908 captain "Bull" McCleary is named "head coach."

October 14, 1911 — Penn State pulls off a major upset over Cornell, 5-0, in Ithaca, touching off a riot in State College that has been called the worst in history following a football game. Students and townspeople fight with fists, clubs and shovels throughout the streets and alleys of the borough after which school officials apologized.

October 28, 1911 — Penn State beats Pennsylvania for the first time, 22-6, as "Shorty" Miller shocks the crowd of 15,000 at Franklin Field by running back the opening kickoff 95 yards for a touchdown.

December 12, 1911 — New eligibility rules are adopted by the Athletic Association requiring athletes to finish their education in four years and eliminating rules that allowed athletes to take less credit hours than the minimum requirements for a freshman.

Spring 1912 — Pop Golden resigns as unofficial athletic director to enter private business.

Summer 1912 — Bill Hollenback is formally given the title "head coach."

October 12, 1912 — The largest crowd at New Beaver Field since its opening in 1909 — 4,000 fans — watches as Penn State beats Washington & Jefferson, 30-0. Pete Mauthe kicks three field goals to set the record for most field goals in a game.

November 16, 1912 — Penn State "upsets" Ohio State at Columbus in the first game between the two teams by the unofficial score of 37-0. The Buckeyes walk off the field with nine minutes left to play claiming "unnecessary roughness" and the score is officially recorded as a 1-0 forfeit.

November 28, 1912 — Penn State's greatest team to date beats Pitt, 38-0, on Thanksgiving Day at Forbes Field to finish with an 8-0 record, outscoring opponents 256-6 and ending a two-year run of 16-0-1. Pete Mauthe sets the record for the longest field goal with a 51-yard boot. The kick remains the record until broken by Chris Bahr in 1975. Mauthe scores a total of 20 points, with two touchdowns and five extra points. Mauthe also sets an individual season scoring record of 119 points, that is not broken until 1971, with 11 touchdowns, 8 field goals and 29 PATs.

February 5, 1913 — A rule is adopted by the Athletic Association requiring athletes to "be in good standing for a four-year collegiate course." This tightened eligibility requirement eliminated the so-called "tramp athlete" who would be on a campus for only one year to play a specific sport while taking a few courses and then move on to another college.

Fall 1913 — A new fight song called "Victory" ("Fight, Fight, Fight, For the Blue and White") is introduced by its author, undergraduate Jimmy Leydon, and sung at all football games.

October 4, 1913 — "Shorty" Miller sets the game rushing record that lasts 68 years with 250 yards, including five touchdowns on runs of 23, 55, 47, 37 and 40 yards as Penn State beats Carnegie Tech, 49-0, at New Beaver Field in the 1913 season opener.

November 8, 1913 — Penn State loses its first game at New Beaver Field before a record crowd of "several thousand" in its first ever major intersectional game and first game against Notre Dame. The Fighting Irish win, 14-7, in a game that ends with a controversial referee decision nullifying a Penn State touchdown. Knute Rockne catches a touchdown pass from Gus Dorais for Notre Dame that helps end Penn State's 20-game home unbeaten streak.

October 25, 1914 — Penn State stops Harvard's 22-game winning streak with a 13-13 tie at Cambridge, as Harvard, considered the best team in the country, rallies on a trick-play touchdown in the last minutes of the game. A celebration on campus two days later causes injuries and major damage to school buildings as a bonfire explodes.

Center W.T. "Mother" Dunn was selected Penn State's initial first-team All-American in 1906. The team captain led Penn State to an 8-1-1 record, with eight shutout victories.

November 13, 1914 — A record crowd of 10,000, including governor John K. Tener, watch on Pennsylvania Day as Penn State loses its second major intersectional game at New Beaver Field in its first game with Michigan State, 6-3.

December 1914 — Bill Hollenback resigns as head coach to enter private business in Philadelphia.

January 2, 1915 — Assistant coach Dick Harlow becomes the first former Penn State player to be named as official head coach of the football team.

December 1, 1915 — Sophomore end Bob Higgins becomes the first Penn State underclassman to earn first-team All-American honors when picked by International News Service.

November 4, 1916 — Penn State breaks a nine-year-old scoring record with a 79-0 rout over Geneva at New Beaver Field.

October 6, 1917 — Junior Harry Robb sets a Penn State record that has never been broken for most touchdowns in a game with six in an 80-0 rout of Gettysburg at New Beaver Field, as the team again shatters the game scoring record.

October 13, 1917 — Penn State breaks its one-week old team scoring record with a 99-0 win over St. Bonaventure at New Beaver Field. Nine players score touchdowns, including three by Harry Robb.

November 17, 1917 — Harry Robb ties "Bull" McCleary's season record for touchdowns with 13 by scoring three touchdowns as Penn State plays Maryland for first time and wins, 57-0, at New Beaver Field.

July 1918 — Dick Harlow asks out of his contract as head coach to enter military service. He says he will return.

July 18, 1918 — Lt. Levi Lamb, a star lineman on the teams of 1912-14, is killed near Soissons, France, while leading his Army platoon against a German stronghold. He is one of two former players to die in World War I as 1912 teammate Red Bebout is killed on a French battlefield on Sept. 29, 1918.

August 25, 1918 — Hugo Bezdek, manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates Baseball Club, is hired as head football coach and director of physical education with supervision over intercollegiate sports.

November 27, 1918 — Penn State completes an unusual season because of World War I by losing, 28-6, at Pitt and finishing with a 1-2-1 record.

Fall 1919 — Dick Harlow returns to Penn State to serve as assistant coach to Hugo Bezdek.

October 4, 1919 — A new song — "The Nittany Lion" — is introduced at the opening game against Gettysburg at New Beaver Field. The first words, "Hail to the Lion, Loyal and True," written by Jimmy Leyden, will become familiar to generations of Penn State fans.

November 27, 1919 — End Bob Higgins takes a flat-pass near his own goal line from Bill Hess on a fake punt and officially runs 92 yards for a touchdown to set a Penn State record as the longest pass play in history until broken in 2018 by quarterback Sean Clifford and wide receiver Daniel George. Some sportswriters covering the game recorded the run at 95 yards. The surprise play helps Penn State down Pitt, 20-0, to finish with its best season since 1912, but Penn State will not beat Pitt again for 20 years.

September 25, 1920 — New wood grandstands are added to New Beaver Field's East side, raising the seating capacity to 5,500, but only 2,500 show up for the season-opening 27-7 victory over Muhlenberg.

October 9, 1920 — On the first alumni "Home-Coming" day, a record standing-room crowd of 12,000 turns out to see Penn State beat Dartmouth, 14-7.

October 16, 1920 — In only the third major intersectional game at New Beaver Field, and the first since 1914, Penn State clobbers NC State, 41-0.

October 23, 1920 — Penn State sets the all-time team scoring record with a 109-7 win over Lebanon Valley at New Beaver Field, coming back from a 7-0 first-quarter deficit. Charley Way scores three touchdowns in the first quarter to lead the rout.

November 6, 1920 — Penn State wins its fourth major intersectional game at New Beaver Field in its first game against Nebraska, 20-0, on Pennsylvania Day. Glenn Killinger and Charley Way combine to lead the team as each scores a TD and Killinger passes for another.

September 24, 1921 — New Beaver Field opens its first press box, located atop the West stands. The press box is used for the first time in a 53-0 season-opening win over Lebanon Valley.

October 22, 1921 — Penn State gives up a touchdown in the fourth-quarter darkness at Cambridge as heavily favored Harvard manages to come back for a 21-21 tie in a game many sportswriters at the time called "one of the greatest football games ever."

October 29, 1921 — In the first Penn State game played in New York City, Penn State easily beats national power Georgia Tech, 28-7, at the Polo Grounds as Glenn Killinger's 85-yard kickoff for a touchdown breaks open the game and helps make him a first-team All-American.

December 3, 1921 — Penn State plays its first game on the West Coast, beating Washington, 21-7, before 35,000 in Seattle to complete an 8-0-2 season and its 24th straight game without a defeat.

PENN STATE FOOTBALL TIMELINE

Spring 1922 — Dick Harlow quits as assistant coach after a final dispute with Hugo Bezdek and becomes head coach at Colgate.

September 23, 1922 — The New Beaver Field seating capacity is increased to 12,000 as the 1922 season opens with a 54-0 victory over St. Bonaventure.

October 27, 1922 — Ten surviving members of the first official team in 1887 are honored in New York City by the Alumni Association as the “founders” of Penn State football.

October 28, 1922 — The Nittany Lion mascot makes its first appearance on the field dressed in an African Lion uniform during Penn State’s first game against Syracuse played at New York’s Polo Grounds. Dick Hoffman, Class of ’23, dresses in the uniform of a maned African Lion that he had worn while appearing in the Penn State Players’ production of George Bernard Shaw’s “Androcles and the Lion.” Penn State and Syracuse battle to a 0-0 tie before a crowd of 25,000.

November 3, 1922 — Navy uses a fake punt and fumble recovery to end Penn State’s 30-game unbeaten streak, 14-0, before 35,000 spectators at Washington’s American League Park. Dozens of congressional, government and foreign leaders and many of college football’s leading coaches, players and sportswriters are in attendance.

January 1, 1923 — Penn State plays in its first bowl game, the 1923 Rose Bowl at Pasadena, and loses to USC, 14-7, but receives $21,350 for participating in the game. It is the first Rose Bowl played at its present site in Pasadena’s Arroyo Seco area and the first appearance in the game by USC. This also is the first time a Penn State game and a postseason bowl game is broadcasted on radio when Los Angeles radio station KHJ does it. The contemporary Los Angeles Times reported that the broadcast was sent by telephone lines to many stations in the east, including KDKA in Pittsburgh.

September 29, 1923 — Additional wooden bleachers are constructed at New Beaver Field, raising the seating capacity to 13,500. Just 3,000 turn out to see Penn State beat Lebanon Valley, 58-0, in the season opener.

October 20, 1923 — A New Beaver Field attendance record of 20,000 is set as Penn State upsets unbeaten Navy, 21-3, in the Homecoming game. “Light Horse” Harry Wilson has his greatest game, rushing for 123 yards and scoring all three Penn State touchdowns with a 55-yard interception return, a 95-yard kickoff return and a 72-yard run off a fake reverse.

Spring 1924 — Bas Gray becomes the first junior elected team captain.

September 15, 1924 — The football team moves into new Varsity Hall, across the street from New Beaver Field. Varsity Hall includes dormitory rooms, a training table and football locker room. The building name is later changed to Irvin Hall after athletes move out and now is an undergraduate residence hall.

October 25, 1924 — Penn State’s 29-game winning streak at New Beaver Field comes to an end as Syracuse wins the Homecoming game, 10-6. The streak began after a loss to Rutgers during World War I in 1918.

November 7, 1925 — Penn State surprises Notre Dame by tying the Irish, 0-0, in driving rain and mud on Homecoming at New Beaver Field before a record-breaking crowd reported as 25,000 by several newspapers. But official attendance is listed as 20,000.

November 14, 1925 — Penn State visits West Virginia for the first time to participate in dedication ceremonies for West Virginia’s new Mountaineer Field, and loses, 14-0.

November 26, 1925 — The annual Thanksgiving Day game with Pittsburgh is played for the first time at new Pitt Stadium and Penn State loses, 23-7.

January 14, 1926 — The Penn State administration appoints an alumni committee to study football policies in the wake of allegations by the Carnegie Foundation and others that Penn State over-emphasizes all sports to the detriment of educational goals of higher education.

October 9, 1926 — Penn State wins its 200th game by beating Marietta, 48-6, at New Beaver Field. Cy Lungren runs back a kickoff 95 yards for a touchdown to spark the win.

October 16, 1926 — Penn State loses its 100th football game as Notre Dame wins, 28-0, in the Nittany Lions’ first visit to South Bend, Ind.

December 25, 1926 — Dr. Ralph Hetzel becomes Penn State’s 10th president and calls for stronger supervision of the athletic programs, especially football, by the administration.

February 26, 1927 — A blue ribbon committee known as the Beaver White Committee issues its final report recommending the elimination of all athletic scholarships and the creation of two separate bodies to supervise Penn State’s athletic programs for athletes and students: the Board of Athletic Control and the Department of Physical Education.

August 10, 1927 — The newly organized Board of Athletic Control ends all financial aid to athletes beginning with 1928 incoming freshmen and recommends that Penn State athletic officials “not scout opponents’ games regardless of scouting policies of opponents.”

October 1, 1927 — The first radio broadcast of a Penn State football game is carried over the college station, WPSC. Assistant coach Larry Conover describes the action in a 34-13 win over Gettysburg. Conover goes on to broadcast four more games from New Beaver Field in the 1927 season.

October 22, 1927 — Penn State beats Syracuse for the first time, after four defeats and a tie, as captain Johnny Roepke shakes off an injury and sparks the team to victory by kicking a 21-yard field goal and making a game-saving tackle on the ensuing kickoff in a 9-6 victory at Archbold Stadium.

November 24, 1927 — The first away game is broadcast over radio by KDKA in Pittsburgh as undefeated Pitt scores the most points against Penn State in 11 years to win 30-0 at Pitt Stadium.

September 29, 1928 — The first radio broadcast of a Penn State game by students is done over the college station, WPSC. Sophomore Ken Holderman (later a university vice president and trustee) does play-by-play in a 25-0 victory over Lebanon Valley.

January 19, 1929 — A new athletic building, soon to be known as Recreation Hall, is used for the first time for “winter” football practice. The $600,000 building is dedicated on March 23, 1929 during the weekend of the Intercollegiate Boxing Championships.

October 26, 1929 — Cooper French and Frank Diedrich team for one of the greatest punt returns in history in an impromptu razzle-dazzle 60-yard lateral-and-run for a touchdown on the last play of the game to defeat Lafayette, 6-3, before a disbelieving, but cheering, Homecoming crowd of 10,000 at New Beaver Field.

Penn State and Gettysburg played every season from 1919-24 at New Beaver Field, with the Nittany Lions posting six consecutive shutout wins.

PENN STATE FOOTBALL TIMELINE

Penn State's appearance in the 1948 Cotton Bowl was significant on several fronts. Wally Triplett and end Dennie Hoggard became the first African-Americans to play in the Cotton Bowl game and helped Penn State to a 9-0-1 record in 1947, with the only blemish a 13-13 tie with SMU in the Cotton Bowl. Behind a defense that posted six shutouts, Penn State won its first Lambert Trophy and its No. 4 final ranking was its highest in program history to date.

October 29, 1929 — The Carnegie Foundation releases a 383-page report on the Advancement of Teaching condemning Penn State and other colleges for dishonesty in over-emphasizing football and other intercollegiate sports by giving athletic scholarships and urged a return to amateurism. Carnegie later issues an addendum declaring Penn State had changed policies two years previously, but the addendum is virtually ignored by the public and press and Penn State's educational image is damaged. (The stock market crashes this same day, precipitating a nationwide depression.)

January 20, 1930 — Hugo Bezdek is relieved of his football head coaching duties and named the first director of the new School of Physical Education.

March 27, 1930 — Former two-time All-American Bob Higgins is promoted from assistant coach to head coach of the football team.

October 31, 1931 — Pitt coach Jock Sutherland rests his first team and plays the scrubs the entire game as the Panthers clobber the Nittany Lions, 41-6, scoring the most points since the series began, then insults the New Beaver Field Homecoming crowd by working out his first team for 15 minutes after game. Fans did not know that Sutherland had received Bob Higgins' approval before the game for the workout. This was Pitt's first visit to Penn State since 1902, and the teams did not play again until 1935.

November 28, 1931 — Penn State ends a seven-game losing streak that remains the school record, by beating Lehigh, 31-0, in a postseason game for charity at Philadelphia's Franklin Field, ending the season with what is still its worst record in history, 2-8.

October 14, 1933 — Penn State football hits a low point when Muhlenberg wins in a major upset, 3-0, at New Beaver Field. The team goes on to a 3-3-1 record.

October 20, 1934 — Penn State wins its first regular-season road game in five years and the first away game in the Higgins era with 31-0 win over Lehigh in Bethlehem.

September 1, 1936 — Penn State opens preseason practice with its first all-alumni coaching staff: Bob Higgins ('20), head coach; Joe Bedenk ('24), Earle Edwards ('31) and Al Michaels (Mikelonis) ('35), varsity assistants; and Marty McAndrews ('30), freshman coach.

October 1, 1936 — Former head coach Hugo Bezdek agrees to a one-year leave of absence with pay from the position of director of the Physical Education School, and resigns a year later.

October 6, 1936 — Four surviving members of the 1881 "forgotten pioneers" team are officially recognized as playing in Penn State's first and only intercollegiate football game before 1887 and are given Varsity "S" letters.

Fall 1937 — Dr. Carl P. Schott is hired as the director of Physical Education and de facto Dean of Athletics.

October 2, 1937 — The first game is filmed on request by the coaches to help the team in practice. Penn State beats Gettysburg, 32-6, at New Beaver Field, but the film shot by student cameramen is too dark and Bob Higgins hires zoology instructor and part-time track coach Ray Conger to take charge of filming, a position Conger holds for 39 years.

November 13, 1937 — Penn State clinches its first winning season since 1929 and the first in Bob Higgins' coaching regime by beating Maryland in the last minute at New Beaver Field, 21-14, but loses the next week to National Champion Pitt and finishes with a 5-3 record.

September 26, 1938 — Ridge Riley writes and publishes the first "Football Newsletter" with a preseason analysis of the 1938 season.

October 1, 1938 — The first Penn State radio network is set up and starts broadcasting with an opening game against Maryland at New Beaver Field. KDKA Pittsburgh originates a broadcast with Bill Sutherland on play-by-play and Jack Barry doing color commentary as Penn State wins, 38-0.

October 29, 1938 — Two players each get 100 yards in a game for the first time as sophomore Chuck Peters (156 yards) and junior Steve Rollins (122) help lead Penn State to a 33-6 win over Syracuse at New Beaver Field.

November 20, 1938 — Penn State loses, 26-0, at Pitt to finish with 3-4-1 record that will be the last losing season for 49 years. Despite the record, the team sets three NCAA defensive records, including one for fewest yards passing allowed per game (13.1 yards average) that still stands.

November 25, 1939 — Future All-American Leon Gajewski leads Penn State to its first victory over Pitt in 20 years in a 10-0 upset before a record-tying crowd of 20,000 at New Beaver Field and Penn State finishes the year with its best record since 1921 at 5-1-2.

November 9, 1940 — Juniors Bill Smaltz and Lenny Krouse team for the greatest passing day to date as Smaltz completes 14-of-21 passes (including 12 in succession that remained a record until 1994) for 193 yards and two touchdowns and Krouse catches 10 for two touchdowns and 155 yards.

November 16, 1940 — Chuck Peters sets the all-time kickoff return record with a 101-yard touchdown return on the opening kickoff of a 25-0 win over NYU. It's his second touchdown run back of the season and establishes the season record for kickoff touchdown returns after running 96 yards with the second half kickoff in an earlier 18-0 win at Temple.

November 23, 1940 — Penn State loses its first and only game of the season and a chance for a bowl game when upset by Pitt, 20-7, at Pitt Stadium.

September 1941 — Dave Alston and his brother, Harry, of Midland, Pennsylvania, become the first African-American players on the Penn State team. Dave becomes the star of the unbeaten freshman team and is selected by some preseason magazines as college football's "sophomore of the year."

September 1941 — The State College Quarterback Club organizes and meets for the first time to sponsor Wednesday luncheons with head football coach Bob Higgins, players and other assistant coaches.

October 31, 1941 — Penn State plays its first night game, at New York's Polo Grounds, against New York University and wins, 42-0, in heavy rain on a sloppy field.

November 12, 1941 — Led by Dave and Harry Alston, Steve Suhey and Red Moore, the freshman team goes unbeaten for the first time since 1916 with a 5-0 record. Dave Alston scores eight touchdowns, passes for four others and drop-kicks six extra points in one of the school's outstanding individual freshman performances ever.

August 15, 1942 — Freshman star Dave Alston, Penn State's first African-American player, dies in Bellefonte Hospital after a tonsillectomy operation, but his death is traced to injuries suffered in a spring practice scrimmage against Navy. (Brother Harry is so shaken he never returns to school.)

September 1, 1942 — The first radio network, organized by KDKA, dissolves because of World War II. A major gasoline sponsor can't get enough gas to sell.

September 10, 1942 — The Athletic Board authorizes freshmen to play on varsity teams for the duration of World War II.

Freshman tailback Wally Triplett was Penn State's first African-American player to start a game (at Michigan State, 1945) and was instrumental in the Nittany Lions compiling a record of 23-3-2 from 1946-48.

PENN STATE FOOTBALL TIMELINE

October 24, 1942 — The Nittany Lion Shrine, created by famed sculptor Heinz Warneke, near the entrance of New Beaver Field is dedicated during halftime of a 13-10 Homecoming win over Colgate. H.D. "Joe" Mason, Class of 1907, who instigated the move for a Lion as the mascot, is among the crowd of 11,510.

November 14, 1942 — In one of the biggest upsets of the Higgins era, Penn State shocks Penn, 13-7, before 50,000 at Franklin Field behind the punting of Joe Colone and the running and defensive play of Larry Joe, who is carried off the field at the end of the game.

November 30, 1942 — Penn State is ranked for the first time by the Associated Press at season's end, tying at No. 19 with defending National Champion Minnesota and Holy Cross, as a team dominated by sophomores and freshmen surprises the nation with a 6-1-1 record.

November 13, 1943 — Snow forces some officials to be late for the Temple game at New Beaver Field as Doggie Alexander, owner of the Rathskeller tavern, comes out of the stands to be the field judge and Philadelphia Inquirer sportswriter Stan Baumgartner leaves the press box to serve as the head linesman. Only one 15-yard penalty is called in Penn State's 13-0 win.

October 21, 1944 — Larry Cooney, 16, of Pittsburgh becomes the youngest player ever to start a Penn State football game. He opens at right halfback against Colgate in the fourth game of the season, when freshmen were eligible because of World War II, and carries the ball five times for eight yards. Johnny Chuckran becomes the only freshman ever to serve as captain for a season, and runs back a punt 50 yards in the last minute to spark a 6-0 upset win over Colgate in Hamilton, New York.

October 28, 1944 — For the first time, an all-freshman starting lineup takes the field and loses to West Virginia, 28-27, in the first home loss since 1938.

November 17, 1945 — Freshman Wally Triplett becomes the first African-American player to start a Penn State game when he takes the field at right halfback (the tailback position in the single-wing formation) against Michigan State at East Lansing, Michigan. The Nittany Lions lose, 33-0, but Triplett is praised for his all-around play.

Summer 1946 — Jim O'Hara, a center at Penn State from 1933-35, and Earl Bruce, the high school coach from Brownsville, Pennsylvania, join Bob Higgins' coaching staff, O'Hara as assistant line coach and Bruce as freshman coach based at California (Pa.) State Teachers College.

Summer 1946 — Casey Jones and other Pittsburgh area alumni raise $19,000 to buy an old fraternity house off campus to house football players. New assistant coach Jim O'Hara agrees to be "counselor" of the facility and he and his family move in. All freshmen players are assigned to the campus of California State Teachers College, where they will train under the direction of Bruce.

November 9, 1946 — Penn State cancels the final game of season, set for Nov. 29, when University of Miami (Fla.) officials request that Penn State not bring its two African-American players, Wally Triplett and Dennie Hoggard, on the trip.

November 16, 1946 — A U.S. President makes his first known attendance at a Penn State game as Harry Truman gives Navy a pep talk before the game and at halftime in Annapolis. Penn State upsets the heavily favored Middies, 12-7, as Elwood Petchel runs back a pass interception for one touchdown and scores another on a one-yard run.

October 18, 1947 — Penn State sets an NCAA record for fewest total yards allowed by holding Syracuse to a minus-47 yards in a 40-0 Homecoming win at New Beaver Field.

October 25, 1947 — In the key game of the 1947 season, Penn State comes from behind to beat undefeated West Virginia, 21-14, before the largest New Beaver Field crowd (20,313) since the 1925 Notre Dame game and stays on track for its first bowl game in 25 years.

November 15, 1947 — Penn State wins its 300th game with a 20-7 conquest of Navy at Baltimore's Memorial Stadium. Fullback Jeff Burkota runs 48 and 42 yards for touchdowns on the identical inside-reverse play.

November 22, 1947 — Penn State beats Pitt, 29-0, to become the first Penn State squad in history to win all nine games of a regular-season and sets school records for giving up the least amount of points (27) and the most shutouts (6). The Nittany Lions also set NCAA defensive records for fewest rushing yards allowed per game (17) and per rush (0.64).

December 8, 1947 — Penn State finishes in the Top 10 for the first time when ranked fourth in the final Associated Press poll. The Nittany Lions also are awarded the Lambert Trophy as the best team in the East for the first time since the trophy's inception in 1936.

January 1, 1948 — Tailback Wally Triplett and end Dennie Hoggard become the first African-Americans to play in the Cotton Bowl game. Triplett scores a TD and plays an outstanding defensive game as Penn State and Doak Walker-led SMU battle to a 13-13 tie.

October 23, 1948 — A New Beaver Field attendance record of 24,579 is set during Homecoming as Penn State ties Michigan State, 14-14, in a game marked by controversy over a clipping penalty that nullified a Spartan 100-yard touchdown on an interception return.

November 6, 1948 — Penn State plays before the largest crowd to date — 71,180 — and defeats Penn at Franklin Field, 13-0, sparked by a razzle-dazzle touchdown run-and-pass play of Fran Rogel-to-Chuck Drzenovich-to-Elwood Petchel-to-Rogel.

Lenny Moore was among the greatest players to wear the blue and white. In 1954, he became the first Nittany Lion to rush for more than 1,000 yards in a season, gaining 1,082 with 11 touchdowns. Moore was selected by the Baltimore Colts in the first round of the 1956 NFL Draft and had a brilliant 12-year career with the Colts, playing in seven Pro Bowls and gaining induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1975.

November 27, 1948 — A Penn State team travels by airplane for the first time to play Washington State at Tacoma and wins the game, 7-0, to finish the season at 7-1-1 and achieve the No. 18 ranking in the Associated Press college football poll.

March 12, 1949 — Bob Higgins announces his resignation as head football coach and long-time assistant coach Joe Bedenk is named as his successor.

Spring 1949 — Earle Edwards resigns from the football coaching staff following spring practice and joins the Michigan State staff as an assistant coach. Joe Bedenk names former Penn State lineman Sever Toretta (1936-38) as line coach and ex-Pitt star Frank Patrick as defensive backfield coach.

1949 — Tuition scholarships for all sports are re-established by the Board of Trustees on the recommendation of the Athletic Board with 100 total scholarships approved.

September 1949 — The first class of scholarship players since 1927 enters Penn State but are sent to California State Teachers College because of crowded housing conditions on the main campus. Among the freshmen are future starters Joe Yukica, Don Barney, Jim Dooley and Joe Gratson.

October 1, 1949 — Penn State plays its 500th game since 1887 and loses, 42-7, to an Army team that would stay unbeaten and be rated No. 4 in the country. This contest also is the first known telecast of a Penn State football game. It is televised on WNBT-TV in New York City.

March 5, 1950 — Joe Bedenk resigns after one year as head football coach, but remains on the staff as an assistant coach.

March 31, 1950 — The Athletic Board sets 30 scholarships exclusively for football to include tuition, room and board.

April 22, 1950 — Charles A. "Rip" Engle, head coach at Brown University, is named head football coach by acting Penn State president James Milholland.

May 27, 1950 — Rip Engle names Joe Paterno, his senior quarterback at Brown, to the coaching staff and assigns him to coach the quarterbacks.

October 14, 1950 — Penn State loses for the first time at night after four wins at night dating to 1941, all played in the rain, as Syracuse wins, 27-7, on a clear night at Archbold Stadium.

November 11, 1950 — The first Band Day is held at Beaver Field, with nine Centre County high school bands participating as Penn State beats West Virginia, 27-0. Band Day was held annually for 25 years, with the final one taking place at the Nov. 16, 1974 game with Ohio University. The annual "Blue Band Jam" returned to Penn State in 2014.

December 2, 1950 — A major snow storm forces postponement of the final game of the season against Pitt at Pitt Stadium on November 25. The game is moved to Forbes Field one week later, where Penn State wins, 21-20, in what is now known as the first Snow Bowl.

December 1950 — The Athletic Board adds 15 scholarships for football, bringing the total to 45.

September 1, 1951 — The Athletic Board and Eastern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference agree to make freshmen eligible for varsity play because of the Korean War. The authorization only lasts one year before freshmen are banned again.

October 20, 1951 — Another Beaver Field attendance record — 30,321 — is set, again in a Homecoming game, against unbeaten (and eventual No. 2) Michigan State, but this time Penn State loses, 32-21.

July 1952 — Ernest "Ernie" McCoy, basketball coach at Michigan since 1948, takes over as Director of Athletics and Dean of the Physical Education Department.

September 20, 1952 — Former player and coach Joe Bedenk watches his first game since 1917 as a spectator after stepping down as assistant coach. He sees a 20-13 win over Temple at Beaver Field.

September 27, 1952 — Junior Tony Rados surprises fans and makes national headlines by giving Penn State its greatest passing day in 12 years, completing 17-of-30 passes for 179 yards and one TD (and 2 interceptions), and out-dueling Purdue's All-American passing sensation, Dale Samuels, in leading Penn State to a surprising 20-20 tie at Beaver Field.

November 13, 1952 — Penn State goes over 100,000 in total season home attendance for the first time in history (103,751 in five games) as 15,957 at Beaver Field watch the Lions escape with 7-6 win over underdog Rutgers.

November 22, 1952 — Penn State upsets Pitt, 17-0, to knock the Panthers from the Orange Bowl before 53,766 at Pitt Stadium. The Nittany Lions' defense, led by Jack Sherry's two interceptions, and Ted Kemmerer's punting throttles the Pitt attack, while Rados' passing sparks the Lions' offense.

October 17, 1953 — Mickey Bergstein, colorman and engineer for Penn State's radio network, makes a spectacular debut as play-by-play announcer in a game against Syracuse at Beaver Field, when he takes over in the fourth quarter for regular announcer Bob Prince, who has to leave to broadcast a Steelers-Eagles NFL game in Philadelphia that night. Bergstein describes how Penn State scores two touchdowns in the fourth quarter in a come-from-behind 20-14 win that ends with a brawl at the Syracuse bench.

November 7, 1953 — Heavy snow blankets State College in a 24-hour period, forcing major snow removal at Beaver Field for a game against Fordham. Kickoff is delayed by two hours because of the late arrival of the Penn State team, which was trapped in a Clinton County hunting camp known as "Camp-Hate-To-Leave-It." The Nittany Lions go on to win a 28-21 thriller before some 13,897 hearty fans. The game is now known as Penn State's second Snow Bowl.

PENN STATE FOOTBALL TIMELINE

A dominant two-way player from 1960-62, Dave Robinson was a consensus first-team All-American as a senior. A ferocious linebacker known for his big hits, he also made 17 receptions for 178 yards in 1962. A first-round choice of the Green Bay Packers in the 1963 NFL Draft, Robinson was an All-Pro linebacker with the Packers (1963-72) and Washington (1973-74). He was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 1997 and the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2013.

November 13, 1953 — Penn State becomes The Pennsylvania State University and the next day the Nittany Lions play their first game as Penn State and come from behind from a 14-6 second-quarter deficit to defeat Rutgers, 54-26, at New Brunswick.

December 1953 — The Levi Lamb Fund, named for the former Penn State star, is established at the suggestion of athletic director Ernie McCoy to assist in obtaining financial aid for athletes and the athletic department.

March 1, 1954 — J.T. White, who played on Michigan's 1948 National Champion team as well as at Ohio State as a center, joins Rip Engle's staff as an assistant coach.

September 25, 1954 — Underdog Penn State stuns preseason Big Ten Conference favorite Illinois, 14-12, in the opening game of the season played at Champaign, shocking the college football world and becoming an overnight front-runner to win the Lambert Trophy.

October 23, 1954 — Jesse Arnelle, Rosey Grier and Lenny Moore become the first African-Americans to play college football in Fort Worth, Texas, but the Nittany Lions make too many mistakes and lose to TCU, 20-7.

October 30, 1954 — Penn State plays its first game on national television and beats Penn, 35-13, at Franklin Field, scoring the most points in the long-time series against the Quakers. Lenny Moore rushes for 140 yards and scores three touchdowns.

September 1, 1955 — Penn State begins a year-long celebration of its Centennial Year with Navy scheduled to visit Beaver Field for the first time since 1923. A new dateline of "University Park" is established with the opening of a campus post office.

September 29, 1955 — The first game is televised from Beaver Field as CBS transmits the season opener with Boston University to a limited region in the East. The Nittany Lions win, 35-0, as an unknown fifth-string sophomore fullback — Joe Sabol — scores two touchdowns to lead the team to victory.

November 5, 1955 — Syracuse's Jim Brown outgains Lenny Moore, 159 yards to 146, and scores all the Syracuse points on three touchdowns and two extra point kicks, but Penn State comes back from a 20-7 deficit on the quarterbacking of Milt Plum to win a thrilling 21-20 Band Day contest in one of the greatest games ever played at Beaver Field before a crowd of 30,321 and a CBS regional TV audience.

September 29, 1956 — The first all-Penn State alumni broadcast team works its first game for the radio network as Mickey Bergstein ('43) moves from color commentary to play-by-play and Bob Wilson ('40) takes over color. Penn State beats Pennsylvania, 34-0, at Franklin Field.

October 20, 1956 — Penn State stuns heavily-favored Ohio State, 7-6, in Columbus, winning on Milt Plum's extra point kick before the largest crowd to see a Penn State football game up to that time, numbering 82,584.

October 19, 1957 — Pete Mauthe, captain of the undefeated 1912 team, becomes the first Penn State player inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame during halftime ceremonies of the Homecoming game against Vanderbilt. The Nittany Lions squander a 13-point lead and are upset, 32-20.

October 26, 1957 — The third game of the Engle era is televised from Syracuse by CBS on a regional basis as Penn State beats the Orangemen, 21-12, behind the surprise quarterbacking of sophomore Richie Lucas, who was forced to take over for the injured starter, Al Jacks.

December 1957 — Outstanding freshman running back Robert "Red" Worrell, who was a potential varsity starter on the 1958 team, is electrocuted at his family home in Denbo, Pennsylvania, while helping his father erect a TV antenna. Athletic officials establish an award in his name to honor the most improved player after spring practice. Lineman Andy Stynchula wins the first award in 1958.

Spring 1958 — Former linebacker Dan Radakovich, one of the standouts in the 7-6 upset over Ohio State in 1956, becomes Penn State's first linebackers coach when hired as an undergraduate assistant. The next year, Radakovich continues coaching as a graduate assistant.

September 27, 1958 — Penn State ends its longest series with one of its oldest opponents, Pennsylvania, with a 43-0 win at Franklin Field. The series, which began in 1890, was never played outside of Philadelphia and finished with Penn State winning 18, losing 25 and tying 4. The team's first ever two-point conversion is scored when Al Jacks passes to end John Bozick after Penn State's second touchdown. Richie Lucas later passes to Jim Schwab for a second two-point conversion.

December 19, 1959 — Penn State plays in the first Liberty Bowl and tackle Charlie Janerette becomes the first African-American to play against Alabama as the Nittany Lions beat the Crimson Tide, coached by Paul "Bear" Bryant, 7-0, in Philadelphia's Municipal Stadium.

April 1959 — The Nittany Lion Club is organized by 15 alumni who want to arouse interest in Penn State athletic affairs through contributions to the Levi Lamb Fund. Membership stipulated an annual contribution to the fund of at least $50 or at least $25 for graduates of less than 10 years. Members will receive "special consideration" on game tickets and "preferred parking" at the stadium.

November 7, 1959 — The all-time attendance record is set at Beaver Field as 34,000 watch a memorable battle of unbeaten play with national rankings and bowl berths at stake. Syracuse edges Penn State, 20-18, despite an electrifying 100-yard kickoff return by sophomore Roger Kochman as the Nittany Lions fail to make an extra point kick and two two-point conversions.

November 14, 1959 — Penn State downs Holy Cross, 46-0, in the 229th and last game played at Beaver Field as 20,000 spectators watch the final quarter in rain and heavy wind. The Nittany Lions end with a record of 184-34-11 at Beaver Field.

January 2, 1960 — Dan Radakovich is hired as a full-time assistant coach in charge of linebackers. He eventually will become known as "The Father of Linebacker U."

September 17, 1960 — Penn State opens Beaver Stadium before a less than capacity crowd of 22,559 as the Nittany Lions beat Boston University, 20-0. Lion senior halfback Eddie Caye scored the stadium's initial touchdown at 10:25 of the first quarter.

October 3, 1960 — What later becomes known as "Tailgating" is first suggested in a front-page column by Centre Daily Times Editor Jerry Weinstein after monumental traffic jams developed before and after the Homecoming game against Missouri at Beaver Stadium on Saturday, October 1. Weinstein advocates adoption of the Ivy League tradition of pregame "picnic lunches" and says Penn State fans should add "picnic suppers" for after the game while traffic disperses.

October 8, 1960 — The "hero" defensive back makes its debut in a 27-16 victory over Army at West Point. Senior Sam Sobczak is the first player designated as "Hero."

September 29, 1961 — The Athletic Department experiments with closed-circuit television by televising Penn State's first game ever against Miami (Fla.) from the Orange Bowl Stadium to Rec Hall and Schwab Auditorium on the Penn State campus.

December 30, 1961 — End Dave Robinson becomes the first African-American to play in the Gator Bowl and makes the defensive "play-of-the-game" with a quarterback sack and fumble recovery that helps the Nittany Lions beat Georgia Tech, 30-15.

Spring 1962 — Penn State joins Pitt, Syracuse and West Virginia in agreeing to forbid "redshirting," a practice that withholds athletes from competition for a year so they can "mature."

October 13, 1962 — Penn State becomes the first team to play three service academies in one season, losing to Army at West Point on this date, 9-6, after beating Navy, 41-7, and Air Force, 20-6, earlier in the season at Beaver Stadium.

October 27, 1962 — Assistant coach Joe Paterno is presented a game ball by the team for the first time since he joined Rip Engle's staff in 1950 when the Nittany Lions overcome the sensational debut of sophomore quarterback Craig Morton and defeat California, 23-21, in Berkeley.

December 1962 — End Dave Robinson becomes the first African-American player in Penn State football history to be named first-team All-American when selected by the Associated Press, the Football Writers and others.

Summer 1963 — Penn State joins Pitt, Syracuse and West Virginia in a Letter of Intent agreement for incoming freshmen football players, obligating recruits to a specific school for at least one year. The national agreement under consideration also would include the Big Ten, Southwest, Southeastern, Atlantic Coast, Big Eight and Missouri Valley conferences.

Summer 1964 — Joe Paterno is named associate coach and heir-apparent to succeed Rip Engle as head coach when Engle retires.

November 7, 1964 — Penn State, with a 3-4 record, shocks unbeaten No. 2 Ohio State, 27-0, in what the Associated Press calls the "college upset of the year." The Nittany Lions' defense limits the Buckeyes to 60 net yards, while the Lions' offense totals 341 yards.

November 24, 1964 — In a closed-door meeting without coaches, players vote down the opportunity to play in the Gator Bowl after overcoming an 0-3 start and ending a 6-4 season with stunning shutout victories over Ohio State and Pitt and winning the Lambert Trophy.

Fall 1965 — College football is changed forever with a rule change implementing unlimited substitution for the first time in the modern era.

December 4, 1965 — Rip Engle coaches his last game as Penn State beats Maryland, 19-7, at Byrd Stadium, in a game televised nationally by NBC, to finish a 5-5 season and wind up 16 years at Penn State with a 104-48-4 record and no losing seasons.

PENN STATE FOOTBALL TIMELINE

February 18, 1966 — Rip Engle officially announces his retirement as head coach, about one month from his 60th birthday (March 26).

February 19, 1966 — Associate head coach Joseph V. Paterno, 38, is named head football coach by University President Eric Walker and Director of Athletics and Dean of the Physical Education Department Ernest McCoy at an annual salary of $20,000.

September 17, 1966 — Joe Paterno wins his first game, 15-7, in the season opener against Maryland at Beaver Stadium before a crowd of 40,911 as sophomore middle guard Mike Reid is credited with scoring three safeties that is still the team record. The team presents Paterno with the game ball for only the second time in his coaching career.

September 24, 1966 — Joe Paterno suffers his first loss as No. 1 Michigan State, led by All-Americans Bubba Smith and George Webster, whip the Nittany Lions, 42-8, before 65,763 at East Lansing.

September 29, 1967 — In what becomes the “turning point” of Joe Paterno’s career, he replaces several defensive veterans with untested sophomores, including future All-American Dennis Onkotz, and tackle Steve Smear and Penn State beats Miami (Fla.), 17-8, at the Orange Bowl behind the running of Bobby Campbell and pass receiving of another future All-American, Ted Kwalick. Among the 39,516 spectators that night are 150 members of Penn State’s first Alumni Holiday Tour.

October 7, 1967 — A new policy requires students to buy tickets (at $4 each) for home games as the University eliminates pre-paid activity fees for football. Several thousand students are among the 46,007 in attendance to watch Penn State lose, 17-15, to No. 3 UCLA. The loss is the Nittany Lions’ last over the next 31 games, stretching into the 1970 season.

November 11, 1967 — A Paterno-coached team gains national recognition for the first time with a 13-8 upset over then No. 3 NC State after a fourth-down goal line stand in the last minute preserves the win at Beaver Stadium.

November-December 1967 — Junior tight end Ted Kwalick becomes the first first-team All-American coached by Joe Paterno when named by the Newspaper Enterprise Association and the American Football Coaches Association. Kwalick also is the first junior to win the honor and the first underclassman selected since Bob Higgins in 1915.

December 30, 1967 — Joe Paterno gains nationwide attention in the Gator Bowl by gambling for a first down on his own 15-yard line with a 17-0 third-quarter lead. When the gamble fails, Florida State rallies for a 17-17 tie in front of a record crowd of 68,019.

December 7, 1968 — The first Joe Paterno team to have a regular-season game televised nationally beats Syracuse, 30-12, at Beaver Stadium to become the first Penn State squad to be unbeaten in the regular-season since 1947 and the first one to win 10 games.

January 1, 1969 — Penn State beats Kansas, 15-14, in the Orange Bowl after the Jayhawks are penalized for having 12 men on the field. The team makes its highest finish in the final Associated Press poll at No. 2 behind Ohio State, which beats previous No. 1 USC and Heisman Trophy winner O.J. Simpson in the Rose Bowl.

July 1, 1969 — Ed Czekaj, placekicker and end on the undefeated 1947 team, becomes Athletic Director, succeeding the retiring Ernie McCoy.

September 27, 1969 — Some 2,000 seats and an enlarged press box are constructed at Beaver Stadium before a record crowd of 51,402 turns out to see Penn State beat Colorado, 27-3. Paul Johnson returns a kickoff 91 yards for a touchdown.

November 29, 1969 — Penn State completes a second straight unbeaten regular-season with its 21st straight win by beating NC State, 33-8, in Raleigh as part of the second half of a ABC national television doubleheader following the Army-Navy game. All-American Charlie Pittman scores two touchdowns to stretch his career touchdown record to 31, and break Pete Mauthe’s 67-year-old career scoring record with 186 points.

December 31, 1969 — Earl Bruce, long time assistant coach, retires.

January 1, 1970 — Penn State’s defense, led by Outland and Maxwell Trophy winner Mike Reid, sets an Orange Bowl record with seven intercepted passes as Penn State beats Missouri, 10-3, for its second consecutive 11-0 season, tying a 30-game school unbeaten streak set by teams from 1919-22, but again finishes No. 2 in the Associated Press (and United Press International) poll to Texas, which beat Notre Dame in the Cotton Bowl.

September 19, 1970 — Penn State sets a record for consecutive games won (23) and unbeaten games in a row (31) with a 55-7 pasting of Navy in the season opener at Beaver Stadium. Senior Mike Cooper of Harrisburg becomes the first African-American to start at quarterback for Penn State and throws for two touchdowns. The new six-station television network telecasts the first of five home games on a delayed basis at 11 p.m. The games are aired in Philadelphia, Altoona, Harrisburg, Scranton, Lancaster and York. Governor Ray Shafer helps do color commentary with Dick Scherr of WTAF (Philadelphia) and Dick Richards of WFBG (Altoona) handling play-by-play and other commentary, respectively.

September 26, 1970 — Colorado ends Penn State’s consecutive game winning and unbeaten streaks by beating the Nittany Lions, 41-13, in Boulder before an ABC national television audience.

September 18, 1971 — Albert Vitiello, a native of Naples, Italy, becomes the first junior college transfer to play for Penn State, the first placekicking specialist to be recruited and given a “grant-in-aid” and the first soccer-style placekicker for the Nittany Lions. He debuts by kicking eight extra points in a season-opening 56-3 win at Navy.

November 20, 1971 — Lydell Mitchell establishes an NCAA record for scoring and touchdowns and breaks Pete Mauthe’s 59-year-old season scoring record with 174 points and Charlie Pittman’s career touchdown record with 29 by scoring three touchdowns in a 55-18 win over Pitt.

December 4, 1971 — In one of the most significant losses of the Paterno era, the Nittany Lions are upset by Tennessee, 31-11, in Knoxville, ruining an unbeaten season.

December 1971 — Tackle Dave Joyner becomes Penn State’s first pure offensive interior lineman to be named a first-team All-American when selected by six organizations, including United Press International, the American Football Coaches and the Football Writers.

January 1, 1972 — Penn State rallies from a 6-3 halftime deficit to stun Texas, 30-6, in the Cotton Bowl in a game Joe Paterno said was one the Nittany Lions “had to win” more than any other in Penn State history. The victory helps quiet criticism of Penn State’s football program and establishes the Lions solidly as a legitimate national power.

Spring 1972 — For the first time in history, the team elects four co-captains, choosing quarterback John Hufnagel and guard Carl Schaukewitch for offense and tackle Jim Heller and safety Greg Ducatte on defense.

September 23, 1972 — The Beaver Stadium seating capacity expands to 57,538 as 5,600 seats are added to the east side and 3,570 to the north end zone, but just 50,547 turn out to watch Penn State come from behind to beat four-touchdown underdog Navy, 21-10, in the season-opening game.

September 30, 1972 — The majorettes debut with the Blue Band as a corps of 12 co-eds, led by junior Judy Shearer, before a record crowd of 58,065 at the Iowa game.

Fall 1972 — Freshman eligibility, which since the early 1900s had been allowed only in the war years of 1918, 1944-45 and 1951, is restored for Division I NCAA football teams. However, Coach Joe Paterno refuses to play freshmen until the 1973 season.

November 25, 1972 — Pitt announces it will no longer follow a mutual agreement with Penn State, Syracuse and West Virginia prohibiting “redshirting” and a maximum of 25 football grants-in-aid per year.

December 31, 1972 — Penn State plays in the first Sugar Bowl held on New Year’s Eve and loses, 14-0, to second-ranked Oklahoma after star running back John Cappelletti is forced to miss the game with a virus. Oklahoma is later forced to forfeit the game to Penn State after the NCAA penalizes Oklahoma for using ineligible players.

September 1973 — Defensive tackle Randy Crowder becomes the first African-American elected captain when he is chosen as a defensive co-captain along with linebacker Ed O’Neil. Tailback John Cappelletti and center Mark Markovich are elected offensive co-captains.

September 22, 1973 — Dave Shukri and Brad Benson become the first freshmen to play varsity football since 1951 when they play in the second half of a 39-0 win at Navy.

September 19, 1973 — Women become members of the marching Blue Band as the band entertains a near record Homecoming crowd of 59,980 in the home season opener with Iowa. The five co-ed pioneers include Debbie Frisbee, flag carrier; Carol Gable, alto horn; Linda Hall, clarinet; Kit Murphie, alto horn; and Susan Nowlin, drums.

Penn State recorded one of its most satisfying wins when quarterback Todd Blackledge (above) and the defense sparked a turnaround from a 14-0 deficit to a 48-14 win at No. 1 Pitt on November 28, 1981. Penn State beat USC in the 1982 Fiesta Bowl to finish 10-2 and ranked No. 3.

PENN STATE FOOTBALL TIMELINE

December 13, 1973 — John Cappelletti becomes the first Nittany Lion to win the Heisman Trophy as college football's outstanding player and accepts the award with an emotional speech about his younger brother, stricken with leukemia, before Vice President Gerald Ford and 4,000 other dignitaries in New York.

January 1, 1974 — Penn State beats LSU, 16-9, in the Orange Bowl to become the first Nittany Lion team to win 12 games without a loss, but the squad is voted No. 5 by the Associated Press and United Press International. Joe Paterno calls the team "the best I've ever coached" and votes it No. 1 in the "Paterno Poll."

July 1, 1974 — Penn State withdraws from the Eastern College Athletic Conference in a dispute over financial arrangements with its 214 member schools. Penn State balks at paying 1/5th of the ECAC's total budget, plus 10 percent of television and bowl revenues.

September 21, 1974 — In what might have been the biggest upset of a Joe Paterno team ever, 24-point underdog Navy, coached by former Paterno assistant George Welsh, beats the Nittany Lions, 7-6, in rain and wind at Beaver Stadium.

October 12, 1974 — Tight end Randy Sidler becomes the first freshman to start since 1951 when two-year regular Dan Natale is sidelined by injury in the Homecoming game against Wake Forest. Sidler catches two passes for 41 yards, but another freshman wingback, Jimmy, Cefalo thrills the crowd by scoring touchdowns on a 57-yard pass from Tom Shuman and a 39-yard run.

November 16, 1974 — Penn State wins its 500th game by beating Ohio University, 35-16, at Beaver Stadium despite 85 yards in penalties and four lost fumbles as Tom Donchez scores three touchdowns.

December 31, 1975 — Penn State plays in the first Sugar Bowl held at the Louisiana Superdome and loses to Alabama, 13-6.

January 6, 1976 — Ridge Riley, creator of the alumni "Football Letter," dies of a heart attack in the kitchen of head coach Joe Paterno while interviewing Paterno for the final chapter of his soon-to-be-published book, "Road to Number One."

August 1976 — John Black takes over the alumni "Football Letter" and writes the first issue analyzing the team before fall practice.

September 18, 1976 — A record crowd of 62,503 and a regional TV audience watch as Ohio State visits Penn State for the first time in history and avenges four previous losses in five games at Columbus with 12-7 win.

November 6, 1976 — Joe Paterno wins his 100th game as a head coach as the Nittany Lions beat NC State, 41-20, before 60,462 at Beaver Stadium.

July 1, 1977 — Assistant coaches Jim O'Hara and Frank Patrick retire; O'Hara after 31 years and Patrick after 24 years of coaching and three as athletic academic counselor.

September 19, 1977 — The last record crowd before another Beaver Stadium expansion — a standing room only gathering of 62,554 — turns out in the second game of the season to see Penn State beat Houston, 31-4. Junior quarterback Chuck Fusina hits 15-of-23 passes for 245 yards and a TD and All-American Randy Sidler makes 11 tackles and causes one fumble to lead the victory.

October 15, 1977 — Joe Paterno misses the first game of his head coaching career when his 11-year-old son, David, is severely injured in a trampoline accident. Paterno spends the day in a hospital in Danville, Pennsylvania, as his team, coached by offensive coordinator Bob Phillips and defensive coordinator Jerry Sandusky, staves off a fourth-quarter comeback at Syracuse and wins, 31-24.

September 1, 1978 — The addition of 16,000 seats to Beaver Stadium is completed after lifting the existing stadium, constructing 20 to 40 new rows of concrete stands, eliminating the track that had encircled the field, closing the south end of the horseshoe and expanding the press box.

All-Americans Bobby Engram (left) and Kerry Collins celebrate Penn State's thrilling 31-24 win at Michigan on October 15, 1994 in Penn State's first game in Ann Arbor. Engram and Collins were among five first-team All-Americans that led the Nittany Lions to Big Ten and Rose Bowl titles, becoming the first Big Ten team to finish 12-0.

September 11, 1978 — A Beaver Stadium record crowd of 77,154 sees Penn State beat Rutgers, 26-10, in the home season opener. Matt Bahr ties his brother Chris' record of four field goals and Chuck Fusina hits Scott Fitzkee for a 53-yard touchdown pass in the first quarter to spark the win.

November 6, 1978 — In a watershed battle of unbeaten teams before another record crowd of 78,019 and a national TV audience, No. 2 Penn State defeated No. 5 Maryland, 27-3, limiting the Terps to minus-32 yards rushing, intercepting five passes (three by Pete Harris) and recording 10 quarterback sacks (three by Larry Kubin). Matt Bahr kicked two field goals and Chuck Fusina connected on a 63-yard TD pass to Tom Donovan.

November 13, 1978 — For the first time in history, Penn State is voted No. 1 in the polls by the Associated Press and United Press International after beating NC State, 19-10, thanks to another record four field goals by Matt Bahr.

November 16, 1978 — The Nittany Lion Shrine near Recreation Hall is damaged for the first time since it was dedicated in 1942, when vandals smash off the right ear.

January 1, 1979 — No. 1-ranked Penn State plays for the National Championship for the first time and loses to No. 2 Alabama, 14-7, in the Sugar Bowl when Mike Guman is stopped on fourth-and-inches at the goal line in the fourth quarter in what was the biggest play of the game.

November 3, 1979 — Miami (Fla.) upsets Penn State, 26-10, at Beaver Stadium behind the passing of surprise starting freshman quarterback Jim Kelly. The Hurricanes' new coach, Howard Schnellenberger, tells reporters, "This day will go down in the history of Miami football as the day we turned our football program around."

December 1, 1979 — The first Penn State punt to be blocked in 10 years occurs when Ralph Giacomarro's punt is blocked by Pitt after 629 consecutive successful kicks in a 29-14 loss to the Panthers at Beaver Stadium.

March 1, 1980 — Joe Paterno becomes Athletic Director succeeding Ed Czekaj, but Paterno remains head football coach.

July 1, 1980 — J.T. White, the last assistant coach from the Rip Engle era except for Joe Paterno, retires after 26 years of coaching the defensive ends.

September 6, 1980 — Beaver Stadium's seating capacity increases to 83,770 with the addition of 7,000 seats. An electronic scoreboard also debuts as a record crowd of 78,926 watches Penn State whip Colgate, 54-10.

October 10, 1981 — A new Hall of Fame room and Indoor Sports Complex is dedicated at Homecoming festivities as the No. 2 Nittany Lions win their fourth straight by beating Boston College, 38-7, before a record crowd of 84,473.

October 20, 1981 — Penn State is voted No. 1 for only the second time in history after beating Syracuse, 41-16, in the Nittany Lions' first appearance at the Carrier Dome. Curt Warner breaks Shorty Miller's 69-year-old rushing record with 256 yards and a touchdown on 26 carries. But with Warner sidelined by injury, the Lions lose two weeks later at Miami, 17-14, and drop to No. 6 as Pitt moves up to No. 1.

November 28, 1981 — Penn State pulls off one of its finest come-from-behind victories, snapping back from a 14-0 second-quarter deficit to rout No. 1 Pitt, 48-14, and end the national title chances of the Sugar Bowl-bound Panthers before a national television audience and 60,260 at Pitt Stadium. The victory was sparked by interceptions of Dan Marino passes by Roger Jackson and Mark Robinson and the passing combination of Todd Blackledge to Kenny Jackson.

January 1, 1982 — Penn State plays in the first Fiesta Bowl held on New Year's Day and beats USC, 26-10, holding Heisman Trophy winner Marcus Allen to 85 yards as Curt Warner gains 145 yards on 26 carries. Penn State finishes No. 3 in the Associated Press and United Press International rankings.

March 1, 1982 — Associate Athletic Director Jim Tarman succeeds Joe Paterno as Athletic Director as Paterno continues as head coach of the football team.

September 11, 1982 — Penn State wins its 100th game at Beaver Stadium in a 39-31 shootout with Maryland. Todd Blackledge passes for 262 yards and four touchdowns and Maryland's Boomer Esiason throws for 276 yards and two TDs before a sellout crowd of 84,567.

September 25, 1982 — In one of the most thrilling games ever played at Beaver Stadium, No. 8 Penn State comes from behind with a 65-yard drive in the last 1:18 to beat No. 3 Nebraska. Todd Blackledge throws the winning two-yard touchdown pass to tight end Kirk Bowman with four seconds left on the clock before a record crowd of 85,304 and a national television audience.

November 26, 1982 — Curt Warner establishes a Penn State career rushing record of 3,398 yards and Todd Blackledge sets the career touchdown passing record of 41 as they lead the Nittany Lions to a 19-10 win over once-beaten Pitt at Beaver Stadium to take a No. 2 ranking to the Sugar Bowl. Warner gains 118 yards and Blackledge throws a 31-yard touchdown to Kenny Jackson in the victory.

January 1, 1983 — Penn State wins its first National Championship by beating previously No. 1 Georgia, 27-23, in the Sugar Bowl. Todd Blackledge passes 47 yards to Gregg Garrity for a key fourth-quarter touchdown and Curt Warner out-duels Heisman Trophy winner Herschel Walker with 117 yards and two touchdowns.

August 29, 1983 — Penn State plays in the first Kickoff Classic at Giants Stadium in the New Jersey Meadowlands and loses to a Nebraska team that would finish the regular-season ranked No. 1.

September 9, 1983 — A new Penn State athletic logo is introduced featuring a sleek Lion head.

October 8, 1983 — Unranked Penn State upsets No. 3 Alabama, 34-28, at Beaver Stadium on two last-minute defensive plays that lead to one of the biggest controversies in Penn State history when the back judge nullifies an end zone pass reception by Alabama, ruling the receiver juggled the ball as he fell out of bounds.

November 19, 1983 — In one of most bizarre finishes in Penn State history, Nick Gancitano kicks a 32-yard field goal to tie Pitt, 24-24, after most of the 60,283 spectators and TV viewers thought the game at Pitt Stadium had ended. The clock showed no time left after a Nittany Lion running play had been stopped, but officials said six seconds remained because of a penalty a few moments earlier. Players had to be called back from the locker room and the field cleared for the game to finish. It was the second tie in Joe Paterno's coaching career.

Spring 1983 — Running backs coach Fran Ganter is promoted to offensive coordinator to succeed Dick Anderson, who takes the head coaching position at Rutgers.

LaVar Arrington (left) and Courtney Brown (right) were the second and first selections, respectively, in the 2000 NFL Draft.

September 8, 1984 — Former offensive coordinator Dick Anderson returns to Beaver Stadium as head coach of Rutgers and in the first game of his career, his team loses to Penn State, 15-12. The “Hawaiian Wave” makes its first appearance in Beaver Stadium as 84,409 fans help the “wave” roll around the stadium several times.

Fall 1984 — Permanent lights costing $575,000 are installed at Beaver Stadium after the U.S. Supreme Court rules against the NCAA’s control of televised games and permits individual colleges to make their own arrangements.

September 14, 1985 — A new home team locker room and media room open at Beaver Stadium along with additional permanent seats in the North end zone for the handicapped and the visiting band. Four circular concrete ramps to help spectators reach their seats are part of the renovation.

October 26, 1985 — Penn State wins its 600th game by beating West Virginia, 27-0, before a sellout Homecoming crowd of 85,534 and an ABC regional TV audience. John Shaffer throws two touchdown passes and the defense limits the Mountaineers to 268 yards with three interceptions, two fumble recoveries and four sacks.

November 6, 1985 — Penn State is voted No. 1 for the fourth time in program history when the United Press International coaches board selects the Nittany Lions first after a 16-12 come-from-behind fourth-quarter win over Boston College. But, in the Associated Press poll, the Lions remain No. 2 behind Florida, coached by former Penn State quarterback Galen Hall.

November 13, 1985 — Penn State moves to No. 1 in the Associated Press rankings after beating Cincinnati, 31-10, in Riverfront Stadium, while Florida loses to Georgia.

January 1, 1986 — Oklahoma beats the No. 1 Nittany Lions, 25-10, in the Orange Bowl to win the National Championship as two Penn State interceptions and a fumble help the Sooners to victory.

September 6, 1986 — Penn State plays the first night game at Beaver Stadium in the season opener against Temple that helps launch the celebration of the first 100 years of Penn State football. Quarterback John Shaffer passes for three touchdowns and runs for another in the 45-15 victory.

October 25, 1986 — The sixth-ranked Nittany Lions shock the country with a dominating 23-3 upset win over No. 2 Alabama in Tuscaloosa behind a defense led by linebackers Shane Conlan and Trey Bauer and the running of D.J. Dozier. It is just the Crimson Tide’s third loss in 25 years at Bryant-Denny Stadium. The victory pushed Penn State to No. 2 in the polls and on track to play No. 1 Miami (Fla.) for the national title.

January 2, 1987 — Penn State wins its second National Championship in four years by upsetting previous No. 1 Miami, 14-10, in the Fiesta Bowl with a four-down goal line stand in the last minute of play behind a defense led by All-American Shane Conlan. The Nittany Lions fluster Heisman Trophy winner Vinny Testaverde with five sacks and five interceptions, including one by linebacker Pete Giftopoulos at the goal line on the game’s last play.

September 5, 1987 — Joe Paterno wins his 200th game in a 45-19 victory over Bowling Green in the season-opening game at Beaver Stadium and later tells the media, “I may live to be 100, but I’ll never be around for another 100 victories.”

October 1, 1988 — Tony Sacca becomes the first true freshman to start at quarterback in the Paterno and Engle eras and leads Penn State to 45-9 win over Temple at Veterans Stadium in Philadelphia.

November 19, 1988 — Penn State loses to Notre Dame, 21-3, in South Bend to finish with a record of 5-6, the Nittany Lions’ first losing season in 49 years.

December 19, 1989 — Representatives of Penn State and the Big Ten Conference announce that an “invitation in principle” has been extended for Penn State to join the Big Ten. The invitation is made formal on June 4, 1990 in a 7-3 vote of the Council of 10 ruling body and Penn State accepts.

December 29, 1989 — In one of the zaniest games in Penn State history, the Nittany Lions best BYU in a Holiday Bowl shootout, 50-39, scoring 21 points in a wild fourth quarter that includes two spectacular plays, one by All-American linebacker Andre Collins and another by defensive back Gary Brown. Collins scores Penn State’s first-ever two points off an opponent conversion attempt when he returns an interception 102 yards following a BYU touchdown. Moments later, Brown strips the ball from Cougars’ quarterback Ty Detmer and runs 53 yards for another TD with 45 seconds remaining.

November 17, 1990 — Penn State pulls off one of the biggest upsets in program history as freshman Craig Fayak kicks a 34-yard field goal with 58 seconds left to give the 18th-ranked Nittany Lions a 24-21 victory at No. 1 Notre Dame after trailing at halftime, 21-7.

Spring 1991 — The Big Ten announces Penn State football will be fully integrated into the Big Ten for the 1993 season. Iowa becomes the first opponent on the schedule, fulfilling dates previously set with Notre Dame in 1993 and 1994. The new Big Ten schedule is expected to mark the end of games with traditional rivals Pitt and West Virginia.

September 7, 1991 — A 10,000-seat upper deck is added in the north end of Beaver Stadium and a new attendance record of 94,000 is set as Penn State beats Cincinnati, 81-0, in the home-opener. The score is the largest winning point differential in the Paterno era.

January 1, 1992 — In the most bizarre and exciting four-minute span in program history, the Nittany Lions come back from a 17-7 third-quarter deficit with 28 points in less than four minutes to defeat Tennessee, 42-17, in the Fiesta Bowl. A crowd of 71,133 helps take Penn State’s total season attendance over one million for the first time, with 1,017,843 attending the Lions’ 13 games.

September 12, 1992 — A new policy is implemented banning smoking inside Beaver Stadium, starting with the season opener against Temple. For just the second time in the Paterno era, a true freshman starts at quarterback as Wally Richardson leads the Nittany Lions to 49-8 victory over Temple.

October 10, 1992 — In what is the biggest game at Beaver Stadium in several years and a clash of unbeaten teams, No. 2 Miami (Fla.) beats No. 5 Penn State, 17-14, with the help of an interception return for a TD and sends the Nittany Lions into a tailspin for the season.

January 1, 1993 — Penn State loses to Stanford, 24-3, in the Blockbuster Bowl in Joe Robbie Stadium in its final game as an independent.

September 4, 1993 — Penn State ends 106 years of independence with a 38-20 win over Minnesota in its first game as a member of the Big Ten Conference. Redshirt sophomore wideout Bobby Engram catches four touchdown passes of 29, 31, 20 and 31 yards from junior quarterback John Sacca to set an all-time touchdown receiving record. Minnesota’s Tim Schade sets two Penn State opponent records, completing 34-of-66 pass attempts, which stood until the 2012 TicketCity Bowl (Case Keenum; 45-of-69).

September 18, 1993 — Joe Paterno wins his 250th game as head coach and receives the game ball from the players as the Nittany Lions shut out Iowa in Iowa City, 31-0, behind a defense that sets up three touchdowns with interceptions and sacks the Hawkeye quarterback nine times for 89 yards in losses.

October 16, 1993 — Penn State plays its 1,000th game in history and loses at Beaver Stadium in the first meeting with Michigan, 21-13, for its initial defeat in the Big Ten Conference.

November 27, 1993 — The Nittany Lions rally from a 37-14 deficit late in the third quarter on the passing of Kerry Collins to Bobby Engram to beat Michigan State, 38-37, at East Lansing and clinch third place in their first year of Big Ten conference play.

December 30, 1993 — Jim Tarman retires as Athletic Director and is succeeded by former football walk-on Tim Curley.

October 15, 1994 — Unbeaten Penn State beats Michigan, 31-24, in Ann Arbor before the then-largest crowd ever to see the Nittany Lions play, 106,832, and is voted No. 1 for the first time since the 1987 Fiesta Bowl victory over Miami (Fla.) in polls by both the Associated Press writers and broadcasters and the USA Today/CNN coaches.

October 29, 1994 — The Nittany Lions trounce Ohio State, 63-14, but still lose their No. 1 Associated Press ranking to previously No. 3 Nebraska. Ohio native Ki-Jana Carter scores four touchdowns and runs for 137 yards and quarterback Kerry Collins passes for 265 yards and two TDs as the defense limits Ohio State to 214 net yards, while intercepting three passes.

November 5, 1994 — The Nittany Lions lose their No. 1 USA Today/CNN ranking to Nebraska after two last-minute touchdowns by Indiana make a 35-29 win in Bloomington look closer than it was.

November 12, 1994 — Penn State claims its first Big Ten Championship by overcoming a 21-0 first-quarter deficit with one of the greatest clutch drives in school history, a 96-yard, 15-play march into the rain and wind late in the fourth quarter to beat Illinois, 35-31, at Champaign in a late afternoon game televised by ABC. The drive is keyed by passes from quarterback Kerry Collins to Bobby Engram and Kyle Brady and the running of Ki-Jana Carter and Brian Milne, who scored the winning TD on a two-yard plunge with 57 seconds left in the game.

January 2, 1995 — Penn State beats Oregon, 38-20, to win the Rose Bowl, but, despite a 12-0 season, finishes No. 2 to Nebraska, which is named National Champion by the Associated Press and USA Today/CNN. The New York Times computer rankings list Penn State No. 1 with a schedule rated the 19th toughest by the NCAA compared to Nebraska’s 57th rating.

PENN STATE FOOTBALL TIMELINE

November 18, 1995 — State College is hit with a rare 18-inch snowfall three days before No. 12 Michigan visits Beaver Stadium. Volunteers, including some local inmates, clear the stands of snow. An estimated 80,000 watch in what is now known as Penn State's third Snow Bowl as Joe Nastasi's runs for a two-yard touchdown on a fake field goal late in the game that seals the Nittany Lions' 27-17 win.

November 25, 1995 — Wide receiver Bobby Engram climaxes his career and cements his standing as one of the greatest dutch players in Penn State history, scoring the winning touchdown with eight seconds left and no time outs on a four-yard flanker screen pass from Wally Richardson, ducking under two Michigan State tacklers, to give the Nittany Lions a thrilling 24-20 win over Michigan State at East Lansing.

August 25, 1996 — Penn State introduces a new logo with a Lion head looking more fierce as Penn State upsets USC, 24-7, before a record Kickoff Classic crowd of 77,716. Tailback Curtis Enis comes within 15 yards of Curt Warner's game rushing record with 241 yards and three touchdowns at Giants Stadium.

September 28, 1996 — Penn State becomes just the sixth school in college football history to win 700 games, beating Wisconsin, 23-20, at Madison in a last-second thriller.

October 12, 1996 — Tackle John Blick becomes the first true freshman to start in the interior offensive line in the Paterno era in a 31-14 Homecoming win over Purdue.

September 2, 1997 — For first time, Penn State is rated No. 1 in the Associated Press preseason poll. The USA Today/CNN coaches poll ranks the Nittany Lions No. 2 behind Washington.

September 20, 1997 — Penn State scores 50 points in the first half to tie the record of the unbeaten 1947 team in a 57-21 romp at Louisville, but loses the No. 1 ranking in the Associated Press poll to Florida, which beats Tennessee.

October 11, 1997 — The Nittany Lions come from behind to beat No. 7 Ohio State, 31-27, before a record crowd of 97,282 at Beaver Stadium and move to No. 1 in the Associated Press and USA Today/CNN polls for the first time since October 23, 1994, as LSU upsets previous No. 1 Florida.

October 18, 1997 — Penn State has to come from behind to beat Minnesota, 16-15, and loses the No. 1 ranking in both the Associated Press and USA Today/CNN polls to Nebraska, which beats Texas Tech.

September 12, 1998 — Joe Paterno wins his 300th career game, becoming only the sixth coach in history to reach the milestone and the first to do it all at one college, as the Nittany Lions beat Bowling Green, 48-3, before 96,291 in Beaver Stadium.

October 31, 1998 — Sophomore linebacker LaVar Arrington makes one of the most spectacular plays in program history, leaping over the Illinois center and guard as the ball is snapped and stops the runner cold just as he gets the hand-off. Sports Illustrated later cites the "LaVar Leap" as college football's "defensive play of the year" as the Nittany Lions beat the Fighting Illini, 27-0.

December 28, 1999 — The Nittany Lions shutout No. 18 Texas A&M, 24-0, in the Alamo Bowl to finish the season 10-3 and ranked No. 11 in the Associated Press and ESPN/USA Today polls.

Joe Paterno was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2007. He was forced to delay his induction by one year due to leg injuries suffered in the 2006 game at Wisconsin.

April 15, 2000 — Courtney Brown and LaVar Arrington are selected No. 1 and No. 2, respectively, in the 2000 NFL Draft, making them the only Penn State players to be taken with the top two picks in the same draft.

September 30, 2000 — One week after freshman cornerback Adam Taliaferro suffers a career-ending spinal injury in a game at Ohio State, the Nittany Lions rally to beat eventual Big Ten champion Purdue, 22-20, in Beaver Stadium.

September 1, 2001 — Less than one year after suffering a serious spinal injury, Adam Taliaferro leads the Nittany Lions onto the field against Miami (Fla.) in the first game in the newly-expanded Beaver Stadium, which grows to a capacity of 107,282.

October 27, 2001 — Penn State rallies from a 27-9 deficit to score the final 20 points and defeat Ohio State, 29-27, giving Joe Paterno his 324th career victory and moving him past Paul "Bear" Bryant and into the all-time victories lead among major college coaches. The comeback is then Penn State's greatest at home under Paterno. Quarterback Zack Mills gains a school-record 418 yards of total offense.

August 23, 2002 — The NCAA adds postseason statistics of players and teams to its official football record book starting with the 2002 season. The NCAA started keeping statistics in 1937 when there were few postseason bowl games being played. A poll of membership favored the change. However, the new edict stipulates that statistics from bowl games played before 2002 will not be retroactively included.

September 14, 2002 — The Nittany Lions bury unbeaten and No. 8 ranked Nebraska, 40-7, in a primetime meeting in front of a Beaver Stadium record crowd of 110,753.

November 16, 2002 — Senior tailback Larry Johnson rushes for a Penn State record 327 yards, scoring four touchdowns, to lead the Nittany Lions to a 58-25 win at Indiana.

November 23, 2002 — Larry Johnson rushes for 279 yards and four touchdowns against Michigan State to become the first Nittany Lion and only the ninth player in NCAA Division I-A history to gain 2,000 yards in a season. The Maxwell and Doak Walker awards winner, Johnson finishes the season with 2,087 yards on 271 attempts, scoring 20 touchdowns.

October 9, 2004 — The first Penn State Student Whiteout makes a strong and lasting impression on the Nittany Lions, the Beaver Stadium faithful and the opposition, as No. 9 Purdue escapes with a 20-13 win.

November 13, 2004 — The Nittany Lion defense stops Indiana on four consecutive running plays from the Penn State 1-yard line to preserve a dramatic 22-18 win in Bloomington. The victory began a streak that saw Penn State post a 51-13 record through the end of the 2009 season.

September 24, 2005 — Penn State stages a critical come-from-behind 34-29 win at Northwestern in the Big Ten opener. After falling behind, 23-7, and still trailing, 29-27, with less than 2:00 to play, the Nittany Lions convert a fourth-and-15 play from their own 15-yard line, gaining 20 yards on a pass from Michael Robinson to tight end Isaac Smolko. Robinson then throws his third touchdown pass of the game, connecting on a 36-yard strike to freshman Derrick Williams with 51 seconds remaining for the dramatic win. All-America linebacker Paul Posluszny makes 22 tackles (14 solo).

October 1, 2005 — Paul Posluszny's leaping tackle at the goal line highlights the Nittany Lions' 44-14 thumping of No. 18 Minnesota, lifting Penn State to 5-0 and back into the national rankings. Quarterback Michael Robinson (114) and tailback Tony Hunt (112) become the first Penn State tandem to gain 100 rushing yards in a Big Ten game.

October 8, 2005 — In the second student "White Out," All-American Tamba Hali forces a fumble near midfield with 1:21 to play that Scott Paxson recovers to spark the three-point underdog and 16th-ranked Nittany Lions to a 17-10 win over No. 6 Ohio State before an electrifying night time crowd of 109,839 and a national ESPN TV audience. The stunning victory vaults Penn State into the Top 10 for the first time in the regular season since 1999. ESPN's TV analyst, one-time Ohio State quarterback Kirk Herbstreit, enthusiastically cites Penn State as having "the best student section in the country -- they're crazy." His words, often repeated later, turn the "Penn State "White Outs" into a college football icon.

January 3, 2006 — Kevin Kelly's 29-yard field goal in the third overtime lifts Big Ten Champion Penn State to a 26-23 victory over Florida State in the 2006 FedEx Orange Bowl. In a meeting of the two winningest major college coaches of all-time, the then-longest game in Penn State history ends at 12:57 a.m. The Nittany Lions (11-1) finish No. 3 in the final polls.

January 3, 2006 — Play-by-play broadcaster Steve Jones and analyst Jack Ham break the record as the longest tenured Penn State football radio team of six years held by Fran Fisher and George Paterno. Jones and Ham began working together on August 27, 2000 at the New York Giants Stadium in the Meadowlands of East Rutherford, NJ, when Penn State played the University of Southern California in the now-defunct Kickoff Classic that then marked the unofficial start the collegiate football season.

September 30, 2006 — Sophomore wide receiver Deon Butler makes 11 receptions for a school-record 216 yards, breaking O.J. McDuffie's mark of 212 (Boston College, 1992), to lead the Nittany Lions to a 33-7 win over Northwestern.

November 4, 2006 — Joe Paterno suffers serious leg and knee injuries in the third quarter at Wisconsin when two players tumble into him on the sideline. Paul Posluszny becomes Penn State's all-time leading tackler with 14 stops, passing Greg Buttle's mark of 343 that had stood since 1975. A two-time All-American and Bednarik Award winner, Posluszny finishes his career with 372 tackles.

November 11, 2006 — Joe Paterno misses just the third game in his Penn State coaching career, while recovering from surgery on his left leg six days earlier. The Nittany Lions limit Temple to two first downs and 74 yards in a 47-0 win in Beaver Stadium.

January 1, 2007 — Cornerback Tony Davis scoops up a fumble and returns it 88 yards to break a 10-10 fourth-quarter tie, lifting Penn State to a 20-10 win over No. 17 Tennessee in the Outback Bowl. Facing their fifth ranked opponent of the season, the Nittany Lions force three Volunteer turnovers and finish No. 24 in the final Associated Press poll.

PENN STATE FOOTBALL TIMELINE

September 1, 2007 — The Big Ten Conference launches its own network, the Big Ten Network, and Penn State makes its debut during the network's launch weekend, pounding FIU, 59-0, in the season opener in Beaver Stadium. The Big Ten Network would be available in more than 70 million homes by the end of its second year on the air.

September 8, 2007 — The first full stadium "Whitehouse" crowd of 110,078 sees Derrick Williams' punt return touchdown ignite the Nittany Lions to a 31-10 defeat of Notre Dame in front of an ESPN primetime audience.

November 3, 2007 — All-America linebacker Dan Connor records 11 tackles in the Nittany Lions' 26-19 Senior Day win over Purdue, moving him past Paul Posluszny to become Penn State's all-time leading tackler. A two-time All-American and winner of the 2007 Bednarik Award, Connor finishes his career with 419 tackles.

November 10, 2007 — Junior kicker Kevin Kelly becomes Penn State's all-time leading scorer in the Nittany Lions' 31-0 blanking of Temple in Philadelphia, kicking a 32-yard field goal and connecting on all four PAT attempts. Kelly surpasses Craig Fayak's total of 282 points from 1990-93.

December 4, 2007 — Joe Paterno becomes just the third active coach to be inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame. Paterno is forced to delay his induction by one year due to leg injuries suffered in the 2006 game at Wisconsin.

December 29, 2007 — Joe Paterno coaches his 500th game as head coach of the Nittany Lions. His team erases a 14-0 first-quarter deficit to defeat Texas A&M, 24-17, in the Valero Alamo Bowl. A diving 30-yard touchdown catch by Deon Butler and an 11-yard scoring run by Daryll Clark spark the win and a No. 25 ranking in the final USA Today Coaches poll.

September 27, 2008 — Kevin Kelly breaks the NCAA record for consecutive games with at least one field goal (25) when he connects on a 25-yarder in the third quarter of a 38-24 primetime victory over Illinois in Beaver Stadium. Kelly's streak would reach 31 games, ending when he did not attempt a field goal in the season-finale with Michigan State.

October 11, 2008 — Senior Derrick Williams becomes the first player under Joe Paterno to return five kicks for a touchdown in his career (three punts, two kickoffs) when he returns a punt 63 yards for a score in Penn State's 48-7 win at Wisconsin.

October 18, 2008 — Jared Odrick records a safety on a sack to break a 17-17 third-quarter tie and spark the Nittany Lions' 46-17 Homecoming win over Michigan. December 6, 2017 — Saquon Barkley wins the Paul Hornung Award for the most versatile player in college football.

December 7, 2017 — Running back Saquon Barkley wins his second-straight Chicago Tribune Silver Football for the Big Ten's best player. He is the fifth player since the award's inception in 1924 to claim the honor twice, joining the elite list of Minnesota's Paul Giel (1952-53), Ohio State's Archie Griffin (1973-74), Indiana's Anthony Thompson (1988-89) and Ohio State's Braxton Miller (2012-13).

Dec. 9, 2017 — Running back Saquon Barkley finishes fourth in the 2017 Heisman Trophy voting. Barkley is the 18th Penn State player to finish in the Top 10 in Heisman voting and the first since Michael Robinson came in fifth during the 2005 season. Barkley's fourth-place finish is the highest for a Penn State player since Larry Johnson came in third in 2002.

December 14, 2017 — Running back Saquon Barkley becomes the 42nd Consensus All-American in program history and 14th to earn unanimous honors. Barkley is also the 100th Nittany Lion to gain first-team All-America status in program history.

December 30, 2017 — Led by Offensive MVP Trace McSorley and Defensive MVP Marcus Allen, the Nittany Lions notch a 35-28 win over No. 11 Washington to improve to an unprecedented 7-0 in the PlayStation Fiesta Bowl. The win also marks the 16th 11-win season in program history.

January 29, 2018 — Penn State wins its unprecedented 31st Lambert Trophy as the top team in the East.

April 26-28, 2018 — Saquon Barkley leads a contingent of six Penn State players selected in the 2018 NFL Draft in Arlington, Texas. Barkley was the No. 2 overall selection by the New York Giants. Mike Gesicki (2nd round; Miami), Troy Apke (4th; Washington), DaeSean Hamilton (4th; Denver), Marcus Allen (5th; Pittsburgh) and Christian Campbell (6th; Arizona) all heard their names called at the NFL Draft. Barkley becomes Penn State's fifth top-2 pick, joining Ki-Jana Carter (1995), Courtney Brown, LaVar Arrington (2000) and Blair Thomas (1990).

September 15, 2018 — Redshirt freshman quarterback Sean Clifford enters the Kent State game in the fourth quarter and connects with true freshman Daniel George for a 95-yard touchdown pass to break the school record held by Bill Hess and Bob Higgins for the longest passing play from scrimmage that stood for 101 years.

September 29, 2018 — Penn State hosts ESPN College GameDay for the second-straight year. Quarterback Trace McSorley breaks the Penn State single-game record for total offense with 461 yards (286 passing, 175 rushing) in front of a Beaver Stadium-record 110,889 fans against No. 4 Ohio State. McSorley's 175 rushing yards were a career-high and the second-most by a Penn State quarterback in program history, behind Eugene "Shorty" Miller's 250 yards against Carnegie Tech in 1913.

Linebacker Micah Parsons became the highest drafted Penn State defensive player since Aaron Maybin went 11th overall to the Buffalo Bills in 2009.

October 13, 2018 — Quarterback Trace McSorley becomes Penn State's all-time passing leader, breaking the previous mark of 8,457 yards set by Christian Hackenberg (2013-15). McSorley finished his career with 9,899 career passing yards, which also ranks sixth in Big Ten history. McSorley threw for a touchdown in his school-record 34th-straight game.

October 20, 2018 — Defensive end Shaka Toney ties the school record with four sacks in the fourth quarter in a win at Indiana. He tied the mark set by Terry Killens (1995 vs. Indiana), Jimmy Kennedy (2002 at Wisconsin) and Tamba Hali (2005 vs. Wisconsin).

November 17, 2018 — In his 38th career start, quarterback Trace McSorley leads Penn State to a 20-7 win at Rutgers to become Penn State's all-time wins leader with 30 victories as a starting quarterback, surpassing the previous record of 29 set by Todd Blackledge (1980-82) and Tony Sacca (1988-91). McSorley finished his career with a 31-9 record as a starting quarterback. In the win over the Scarlet Knights, McSorley also became just the third quarterback in Big Ten history to register 100 career touchdowns responsible for, joining Purdue's Drew Brees and Ohio State's J.T. Barrett.

December 4, 2018 — Former quarterback Kerry Collins is inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame, becoming the 26th member of the Penn State football family (20 players, 6 coaches) in the Hall of Fame. In addition, quarterback Trace McSorley was honored as a National Football Foundation (NFF) Scholar-Athlete. He was the 18th Nittany Lion to be selected as a Scholar-Athlete.

October 12, 2019 — A pair of second-half takeaways and big fourth-quarter runs by freshman running back Noah Cain led No. 10 Penn State to a 17-12 win over No. 17 Iowa in Kinnick Stadium. It was the Nittany Lions' first win over a ranked opponent in a true road game since 2013. With the victory, Penn State became eligible for its 50th bowl in program history.

Oct. 19, 2019 — For the third consecutive year, Penn State hosts ESPN College GameDay. The seventh-ranked Nittany Lions jumped out to a 21-0 lead on No. 16 Michigan in front of a Beaver Stadium whiteout and held on for a 28-21 victory. It marked the first time since 2005 that Penn State had defeated ranked opponents in back-to-back games (No. 17 Iowa, 17-12; No. 16 Michigan, 28-21).

November 30, 2019 — Penn State closes the regular season with a 27-6 victory over Rutgers to improve to 10-2. It marked the 24th 10-win season in program history and 10th time since joining the Big Ten in 1993. The Nittany Lions reached the 10-win mark in the regular season for the 19th in program history.

December 28, 2019 — Led by a team-bowl-record 202 rushing yards by running back Journey Brown, No. 10 Penn State rushes for a team-bowl-record 396 yards en route to a 53-39 victory over No. 17 Memphis in the 84th annual Goodyear Cotton Bowl Classic in AT&T Stadium. Penn State finished with an 11-2 record for its 17th 11-win season in program history and third in the last four years, repeating a feat not accomplished since 1968-71. The Nittany Lions also improved to 3-0-1 all-time in the Goodyear Cotton Bowl Classic and earned their second consecutive win in a New Year's Six bowl game (Fiesta, 2017).

April 23-25, 2020 — A total of five Nittany Lions are selected in the 2020 NFL Draft, including defensive end Yetur Gross-Matos (38th overall, Carolina Panthers), wide receiver KJ Hamler (46th overall, Denver Broncos), cornerback John Reid (4th round, 141st overall, Houston Texans), linebacker Cam Brown (6th round, 183rd overall, New York Giants) and defensive lineman Robert Windsor (6th round, 193rd overall, Indianapolis Colts). It the third-straight year that Penn State has had at least five draft picks. The last time the Nittany Lions had three consecutive years of five or more picks was 1991-93.

October 24, 2020 — The Big Ten Council of Presidents and Chancellors (COP/C) adopted significant medical protocols including daily antigen testing, enhanced cardiac screening and an enhanced data-driven approach when making decisions about COVID-19 practice/competition. The COP/C voted unanimously to resume the football season starting the weekend of October 24, 2020. Penn State opened the season at Indiana.

November 28, 2020 — Penn State collected a season-high 254 rushing yards as it earned a 27-17 win over Michigan. It was Penn State's first win in The Big House since 2009.

December 5, 2020 — Penn State added to its impressive football history as it earned the program's 900th win. The Nittany Lions' used a strong defensive effort to pick up a 23-7 win over Rutgers at SHI Stadium. Penn State became the nation's eighth program to reach 900 wins, joining Michigan (964), Ohio State (928), Alabama (924), Texas (921), Notre Dame (917), Oklahoma (914) and Nebraska (903).

December 19, 2020 — Penn State scored 42 unanswered points to earn a 56-21 win over Illinois on Saturday in Beaver Stadium. The Nittany Lions and Fighting Illini played as part of the inaugural Big Ten Champions Week. Jahan Dotson scored on two receptions over 70 yards and the Nittany Lions added four rushing touchdowns.

Information from the Penn State Football Encyclopedia by Lou Prato, a noted Penn State football historian, was used in this compilation. Current as of July 1, 2021.

Wide receiver Chris Godwin set the Penn State record for receiving yards in a bowl game with 187 in the 2017 Rose Bowl vs. USC.

Placekicker Sam Ficken is pursued by his jubilant teammates celebrating the senior's PAT that lifted Penn State over Boston College, 31-30, in overtime in the 2014 Pinstripe Bowl at Yankee Stadium. The Nittany Lions ended the 2014 season with a 7-6 season record in James Franklin's first year as head coach.

BOWL GAME RECAPS

1923 ROSE: January 1, 1923

Penn State fought a gallant fight, but USC was just too strong in a 14-3 victory in the 1923 Rose Bowl.

The 29-member Penn State travel party departed State College by train on December 19 and, after stops in Chicago and the Grand Canyon, arrived in Pasadena on Christmas Eve. The morning of the game, the team took in the Tournament of Roses Parade, then returned to its hotel. The Lions left in several taxi cabs at 11 a.m. for the Rose Bowl, but as the 2:15 p.m. kickoff approached, the team was mired in post-parade traffic. Only after the cabbies drove over the lawns of local residents did the Penn State contingent finally reach the Rose Bowl.

When the team arrived, they found kickoff had already been delayed by 10 minutes. Penn State coach Hugo Bezdek and USC coach "Gloomy Gus" Henderson almost came to blows as the Lions' skipper successfully lobbied game officials for additional warmup time. The game finally started an hour late and ended in moonlight, with sportswriters lighting matches in order to finish their stories. Even with the 60-minute delay, many of the 43,000 spectators did not reach their seats until the second quarter.

Penn State took an early 3-0 lead on Mike Palm's 20-yard drop-kick field goal, but Roy "Bullet" Baker rushed for 123 yards and one touchdown for the Trojans and the Lions were held to five first downs and 104 yards. Penn State's share of the proceeds — $21,349.64 — was directed toward the $2 million Emergency Building Fund and in particular the construction of Varsity Hall (now Irvin Hall).

1948 COTTON: January 1, 1948

Penn State climaxed a 25-year climb back to national prominence with a 13-13 tie against SMU in the Cotton Bowl. Unheralded quarterback Elwood Petchel matched SMU All-American Doak Walker yard-for-yard as the Lions rallied from 13-0 back and had several chances to win the game.

Petchel threw for scores in the second and third quarters and nearly had a third at the end of the game, when a defender tipped away the ball at the last second. In the third quarter the Lions tied the game at 13 and Ed Czekaj's PAT kick appeared to be good, but was ruled no good by a hesitating referee. The Lions outgained SMU 258 to 206, but two lost fumbles hurt their chances. Petchel completed seven of 15 passes for 165 yards and two touchdowns. Fran Rogel gained 95 yards on 25 carries, easily out-rushing Walker.

Because two Lions, Wally Triplett and Dennie Hoggard, were African-American, none of the Dallas hotels would allow the team to stay in their facilities, forcing the squad to stay at a Naval Air Station 14 miles from Dallas.

Coach Bob Higgins' squad finished 9-0-1, won its first Lambert Trophy and was No. 4 in the Associated Press poll.

1959 LIBERTY: December 19, 1959

Coach Rip Engle took the advice of veteran bowl participant Bobby Dodd of Georgia Tech and installed some new plays to keep his Penn State team busy for the 1959 Liberty Bowl. That advice paid off as Penn State scored on a fake field goal play to upend Alabama, 7-0, in the inaugural Liberty Bowl in Philadelphia. The play came in the final seconds of the first half with Galen Hall passing 18 yards to Roger Kochman for the score. Game conditions at Municipal Stadium (later renamed JFK Stadium) were less than ideal and Penn State's defense made the points stand up.

Directed by quarterback Richie Lucas, the Maxwell Award winner and Heisman Trophy runner-up, the Lions' offense completely dominated the game, outgaining Coach Bear Bryant's Crimson Tide 319 to 131, including a 278 to 104 edge on the ground. The victory was the first bowl win for the Nittany Lions, improving their postseason mark to 1-1-1. Penn State has not been below the .500 mark in bowl games since the historic win.

BOWL HISTORY

1960 LIBERTY: December 17, 1960

Penn State's second team — the "Reddie" unit — proved the value of depth as the Nittany Lions rolled over Oregon, 41-12, for their second straight Liberty Bowl win in as many years. Twenty-one unanswered points in the second quarter gave the Lions a lead they would not relinquish on a cold, windy day in Philadelphia.

Oregon's long first-quarter TD drive produced an early lead, but quarterback Dick Hoak and his second unit marched for two scores, while quarterback Galen Hall led another in the second quarter for a 21-6 halftime bulge. The Ducks scored in the third quarter, but again, the Reddie unit produced three TDs in the fourth quarter. Hoak enjoyed an outstanding day on defense as well as running and passing on offense. He ran for 61 yards and two scores on nine carries; and completed three of five passes for 67 yards and a TD strike.

It was the running game that was the difference as the Lions outgained Oregon 301 to 187 and 420 to 360 overall. The 420 yards of total offense was a school bowl record until 1975. The Lions also forced four turnovers.

1961 GATOR: December 30, 1961

Penn State justified its selection as the Lambert Trophy winner with a decisive 30-15 victory over Georgia Tech, notching its third straight bowl victory in as many years in its first postseason game in the South. Despite three early-season losses, the Lions downed the Yellow Jackets, who had allowed only 4.4 points a game, registering four shutouts.

Galen Hall threw three touchdown passes as Penn State rallied from a 9-0 deficit. The Nittany Lion defenders caused five turnovers and took advantage of a misfired fake punt and an interception to put the game away with 10 fourth-quarter points. All-America end Dave Robinson made a stunning play midway through the third quarter and with the Lions leading 14-9, leaping over two blockers and forcing quarterback Stan Gann to fumble, which Robinson recovered at the Jackets' 35-yard line. Hall struck quickly, tossing a 35-yard scoring strike to Junior Powell.

The Jackets carried the day statistically (outgaining Penn State 412 to 313), but special teams play for Penn State was critical as Yellow Jacket errors and a superb Lion punting game (eight punts for a 41.0 yard average) helped offset Georgia Tech's rushing game. Hall was superb, hitting 12-of-22 passes for 175 yards and three touchdowns to earn game MVP honors.

1962 GATOR: December 29, 1962

Penn State posted a 9-1 regular season in 1962, losing by three points at Army, and was ranked No. 9 in the final Associated Press poll, earning its second-straight Lambert Trophy. But, the Lions were snubbed from a New Year's Day bowl and accepted an invitation to play in the Gator Bowl for the second consecutive year, facing unranked, 6-4 Florida.

The Lions managed only eight first downs and 147 yards and lost to the Gators, 17-7. Except for a 76-yard touchdown march culminated by Pete Liske's one-yard TD run in the second period, Rip Engle's squad didn't slightly resemble the offensive terror that had swept its last six games, scoring 164 points in the process.

Florida quarterback Tommy Shannon completed seven of nine passes for 79 yards and two scores and mixed his plays to befuddle the big Penn State defense. The Gators added the longest field goal in Gator Bowl history and forced five turnovers to snap the Lions' two-game bowl winning streak.

The best experience of this postseason may have been the squad's trip to the White House where they gave President John F. Kennedy a Nittany Lion statue. The Lions practiced for more than a week at the U.S. Naval Academy before encountering difficult travel from Harrisburg to Jacksonville, having to bus to Pittsburgh and land in Orlando due to poor weather conditions in Pennsylvania and Florida.

1967 GATOR: December 30, 1967

Penn State led for 59 minutes and 45 seconds, but Florida State rallied from a 17-0 deficit and kicked a field goal with 15 seconds remaining to earn a 17-17 tie in the Gator Bowl.

The Nittany Lions did all their scoring in the first half, thanks largely to quarterback Tom Sherman. He kicked a 27-yard field goal in the first period and then threw touchdown passes to Jack Curry and Ted Kwalick for a 17-0 bulge at halftime.

Early in the second half, the Lions stopped the Seminoles on downs at the Penn State five-yard line. Three rushes by Charlie Pittman appeared to give Penn State a first down, but the measurement came up six inches short. In his first bowl game as head coach, Joe Paterno decided to go for it, but Sherman's fourth-down sneak was short. Florida State quarterback Kim Hammond tossed a 20-yard scoring pass to Ron Sellers soon after to swing the momentum. Hammond was 37-of-53 passing for 362 yards, with four interceptions, while Sellers had 14 receptions for 145 yards.

After the game, Paterno told the Philadelphia Inquirer, "I may be rationalizing, but in the long run, that fourth-down call may be the best thing I ever did for Penn State football."

1969 ORANGE: January 1, 1969

"There was no way Penn State could win...The last two minutes were pure unadulterated insanity." — Pittsburgh Press

The Nittany Lions posted perhaps the school's most dramatic victory with an unbelievable 15-14 win over sixth-ranked Kansas in the 1969 Orange Bowl. In the final 1:16 seconds of the game, Penn State turned what appeared to be a Jayhawk victory into an incredible cap to an 11-0 season and the No. 2 national ranking.

With Kansas leading, 14-7, with 10 minutes to play, Jayhawk coach Pepper Rodgers passed on a field goal from the Penn State five-yard line and running back John Riggins was stopped on fourth-and-one by Paul and Pete Johnson, keeping the Lions within a touchdown.

The game took on legendary status in the last two minutes after Penn State was forced to punt. The Lions had all three timeouts left and used them well. After tackle Mike Reid dropped quarterback Bobby Douglass for 13 yards in losses on consecutive plays of Kansas' final offensive series, Penn State helped its cause when Neal Smith partially blocked the punt, providing one last opportunity from the 50 yard-line with 1:16 left. Quarterback Chuck Burkhardt connected with Bob Campbell on a 47-yard pass to the Kansas three, just as Kansas running back Donnie Shanklin was being announced as the game MVP. After fullback Tom Cherry tried the middle twice, Burkhardt faked a handoff to Charlie Pittman and carried around the left end for the touchdown with just eight seconds remaining.

Never one fond of ties, Joe Paterno elected to go for the win, but Burkhardt's two-point pass to Campbell was knocked away and the Kansas players began to celebrate with fans who were coming onto the field. But, a penalty had been called on the Jayhawks for 12 men on the field and, as game films would later reveal, Kansas had 12 men on the field for four plays, including Burkhardt's touchdown.

Presented with a second opportunity, this time from the one-and-a-half-yard line, Campbell swept around the left side and into the end zone for the scintillating 15-14 victory as Penn State became the first Eastern school to win the Orange Bowl since 1937.

If ever a defense won a bowl game, it happened in the 1970 Orange Bowl as Penn State repeatedly slammed the door on Missouri's highly-touted offense for a 10-3 victory. It was a superlative performance by the Lion defenders as they led Penn State to its second straight Orange Bowl victory, its 22nd straight win and its 30th consecutive game without defeat.

But, a second straight 11-0 campaign again earned the Lions the No. 2 national ranking, not their first National Championship. Having already voted to play in the Orange Bowl, the fifth-ranked Lions saw No. 1 Ohio State lose to Michigan, leaving the winner between unbeaten Texas and Arkansas as the likely new No. 1. President Richard Nixon was in attendance in Austin and after the Longhorns' 15-14 win, declared Texas national champions, much to the chagrin and outrage of Joe Paterno, his squad and Nittany Lion fans.

With the controversy about Number One still being debated, the Nittany Lion defense was outstanding in stopping the Big Eight champions. Nineteen times the powerful Missouri offense got possession of the ball and nine times the Lion defenders forced a turnover, intercepting seven passes and recovering two fumbles. The seven interceptions remain an Orange Bowl record, bettering the six turned in by Georgia against TCU in the 1942 contest, as well as being tied for the second-highest ever for any bowl game.

All of Penn State's scoring came within a 21-second span late in the first quarter, with Mike Reitz kicking a 29-yard field goal with 3:44 remaining and Chuck Burkhardt passing moments later to Lydell Mitchell for a 28-yard touchdown. The second score was set up after All-American Mike Reid jarred the ball loose from Missouri's Joe Moore on the kickoff and Mike Smith recovered the fumble. Burkhardt completed 11 of 26 passes for 187 yards to earn Most Valuable Back honors, while Reid was chosen Most Valuable Lineman.

Missouri connected on a 33-yard field goal late in the first half and reached the Penn State 14-yard line with 1:42 to play. But, George Landis grabbed his second interception of the game at the two and the Lions remained unbeaten in their 30th straight game, tying the school mark set from 1920-22.

1972 COTTON: January 1, 1972

Stung by a season-ending loss at Tennessee, Penn State looked at the 1972 Cotton Bowl as an opportunity to redeem itself and make a statement to the college football nation. With the No. 1 snub of 1969 not far removed, the game with Texas would provide a great opportunity for the Nittany Lions to earn some national respect. In what some considered a "must" win for the rising national powerhouse, Penn State blitzed highly-touted Texas, 30-6, for its third straight major bowl victory.

Neither team was able to do much in a sluggish first half that wound up with Texas holding a 6-3 edge. The Longhorns had moved the ball from their famed Wishbone offense early in the contest, but the Penn State defense began to take control as the game wore on. The second half was all Penn State. The Lions took the lead for the first time early in the third quarter after Charlie Zapiec recovered a fumble at the Texas 41-yard line. A 19-yard run by Lydell Mitchell and a 19-yard pass from John Hufnagel to tight end Bob Parsons helped the Lions reach the Texas 1. Mitchell followed a block by All-American Dave Joyner for the game's first touchdown.

The game-breaker came the next time the Lions got the ball. On second down from their 35-yard line, Hufnagel faked to Mitchell and lofted a pass to split end Scott Skarzynski dashing alone down the right sideline for a 17-6 lead. Alberto Vitiello added two more field goals and Hufnagel scored on a four-yard run, as the Lions controlled the ball for 13 minutes in the fourth quarter.

Defensive end Bruce Bannon was voted the Outstanding Defensive Player of the Game, although it was a team effort that held the Longhorns to 242 yards and without a touchdown for the first time in 80 games. Mitchell was an overwhelming choice as the game's Outstanding Offensive Player, as the All-American capped his brilliant career with 146 yards in 27 carries and one score.

"It is one of the greatest victories in Penn State history," stated a joyous Joe Paterno. "I don't think we've ever had a game that we had to win more than this one."

1972 SUGAR: December 31, 1972

Penn State was matched against one of the nation's top teams in the 1972 Sugar Bowl on New Year's Eve, and while battling No. 2 Oklahoma throughout the game, fell 14-0, snapping a three-game bowl win streak.

The game did not get off to a good start when the Lions learned just hours before kickoff that leading rusher John Cappelletti had a virus and a 102-degree temperature and would be unable to play. Without Cappelletti's ball-control running, the defense spent a great deal of time on the field. As it turned out, the Lion defenders did a spectacular job against one of the nation's most explosive offenses, holding the Sooners' Wishbone attack to just 14 points. Oklahoma out-gained Penn State 453 to 196, including 278 to 49 on the ground, but the stingy Lion defense forced eight Sooner fumbles, five of which Penn State recovered.

Several weeks after the game, Oklahoma was discovered to have used two ineligible freshmen players and the NCAA forced the Sooners to forfeit the games the players had participated in. Joe Paterno and school athletic officials refused to accept the win.

Prior to that revelation, Paterno accepted an offer to become the Boston Patriots' head coach and general manager four days after the Sugar Bowl, but changed his mind the following night.

1974 ORANGE: January 1, 1974

For the third time in six seasons, Penn State found itself in the Orange Bowl attempting to complete a perfect season. And, as they did in the 1969 and 1970 Orange Bowls, the Nittany Lions rose to the occasion. LSU provided stiff competition, but a hard-fought 16-9 win over the Tigers put the finishing touches on Penn State's first 12-0 campaign.

The Tigers took the opening kickoff and quickly scored on a three-yard run by Steve Rogers. The Lion defense made a few adjustments and LSU's only other points came on a safety when Penn State punter Brian Masella downed a bad snap in his own end zone in the third quarter.

Chris Bahr got Penn State on the scoreboard with a 44-yard field goal in the first quarter. The Nittany Lions grabbed control in the second period, sparked by Chuck Herd, who made a brilliant one-hand catch of a Tom Shuman pass on the LSU 20-yard line and ran it in to complete a memorable 72-yard score. The Lions continued their surge moments later when Gary Hayman, the nation's leading punt returner in 1973, returned a punt 36 yards to the LSU 25-yard line. Heisman Trophy winner John Cappelletti vaulted over from one yard out for a 16-7 halftime edge.

Despite being one of only three unbeaten, untied teams entering the bowls, Penn State was ranked No. 5 in the Associated Press poll and the Sugar Bowl match-up between unbeaten Alabama and Notre Dame was being touted as the game for the national title.

Penn State completed a 10-2 season with a record-setting 41-20 victory over Southwest Conference champion Baylor in the Cotton Bowl. Joe Paterno's Nittany Lions came from behind for the fifth time in its 10 wins, erasing a 7-3 halftime deficit with a 38-point second-half explosion for a Cotton Bowl record 41 points.

Quarterback Tom Shuman and fullback Tom Donchez, the mainstays of the offense all season, led the record-breaking efforts. Shuman completed 10 of 20 passes for 226 yards and a touchdown and added 14 yards and another score on the ground. Donchez carried 25 times for 116 yards and a touchdown and caught four passes for 50 yards. Freshman Jimmy Cefalo also contributed greatly to the victory, rushing for 55 yards, catching three passes for 102 yards and scoring two touchdowns.

It was a close game as the third quarter ended, with Penn State holding a 17-14 edge. Three straight scores — a 3-yard run by Cefalo, a 33-yard field goal by Chris Bahr and a 2-yard run by Shuman — gave the Lions an insurmountable 34-14 lead. Shuman earned his second-straight postseason award, grabbing the Outstanding Offensive Player award as he led Penn State with a then-school bowl record 491 yards of total offense.

1975 SUGAR: December 31, 1975

Penn State and Alabama made history in the first Sugar Bowl played in the newly-constructed Louisiana Superdome, with a capacity crowd of 75,212 on hand. The contest also was the first of four meetings between Joe Paterno and Paul "Bear" Bryant, two of only five Division I-A coaches with at least 300 career wins.

The game was typical of the Nittany Lions' 9-3 season, featuring outstanding defense and kicking. Alabama managed the only touchdown of the game, a 14-yard run by Mike Stock in the third quarter, which was enough to allow the Tide to pull out a 13-6 victory.

Chris Bahr, the Lions' record-setting placekicker, accounted for all of Penn State's scoring with a 42-yard field goal in the third period and a 37-yarder early in the final quarter. Alabama specialist Danny Ridgeway countered Bahr's boots with field goals of 25 and 28 yards.

Bahr's first field goal with 4:33 left in the third quarter tied the game at 3-3, but Alabama came right back with an 80-yard drive for what proved to be the winning touchdown. The game wasn't decided until Alabama stopped the Lions on a fourth-and-one try from the Penn State 39-yard line with 1:19 to play.

1976 GATOR: December 27, 1976

Meeting Notre Dame for the first time since 1928, a 3-0 turnover deficit proved to be Penn State's undoing as the Irish posted a 20-9 victory.

It was apparent in the early going that the teams were evenly matched and breaks would be the determining factor. After Penn State took an early 3-0 lead that Notre Dame erased with a first-quarter touchdown, the Irish used a turnover and solid offense to outscore the Lions, 13-0, in the second period, cruise to a 20-3 halftime lead and never relinquish their hold.

Penn State out-gained the Irish, 274-273, led by the rushing tandem of Bob Torrey and Matt Suhey. Quarterback Chuck Fusina hit 14 of 33 passes for 118 yards, including Penn State's only touchdown, an eight-yard strike to Suhey in the fourth quarter. Jimmy Cefalo made five catches for 60 yards and had three carries for 18 yards to earn Penn State Outstanding Player of the Game honors. All-America linebacker Kurt Allerman made a game-high 16 tackles.

1977 FIESTA: December 25, 1977

A then-record Fiesta Bowl crowd was treated to an exciting shootout between two of the nation's finest teams, with Penn State winning the showdown against hometown Arizona State, 42-30, to cap an 11-1 season.

The Lions won their first of seven Fiesta Bowls (without a loss), with an opportunistic kicking game, a grinding second-half running game, an alert defense and some big plays by Jimmy Cefalo.

Penn State led, 17-14, at halftime despite being held to 45 yards rushing. Joe Lally returned a blocked punt 21 yards for the first Lion touchdown, the fifth score by the punt return team in 1977. A 67-yard punt return by Cefalo then set up a 23-yard field goal by Matt Bahr. Penn State scored the third quarter's only touchdown and out-slugged the Devils, 18-16, in a furious fourth quarter, with Matt Suhey's two-yard TD run with three minutes left providing some breathing room.

Steve Geise led all rushers with 111 yards, while Bob Torrey added 107 on only nine carries, marking the only time Penn State has had two runners crack the century mark in a bowl. Suhey added 76 yards, helping the Lions to a 268-90 edge on the ground. Matt Millen made 18 tackles to capture Outstanding Defensive Player honors.

1979 SUGAR: January 1, 1979

A goal-line stand by Alabama in the fourth quarter was the key in depriving Penn State of its first National Championship. The Lions, 11-0 during the regular season and ranked first in the polls entering the Sugar Bowl in the Louisiana Superdome, twice came up short from inside the one-yard line as No. 2 Alabama hung on for a 14-7 win and the national title.

In one of the greatest defensive games ever played for the national title, the hitting was ferocious on both sides. Alabama posted the first half's only score with eight seconds left, on a 30-yard pass from Jeff Rutledge to Bruce Bolton, who made what appeared to be a diving, spectacular catch in the end zone for a 7-0 halftime lead. Photographs and video would later reveal the ball had bounced on the turf before Bolton caught it.

The Lions capitalized midway through the third quarter. Pete Harris intercepted a Rutledge pass on the Alabama 48-yard line and Chuck Fusina passed 17 yards to Scott Fitzkee to tie the score. But, 'Bama's Lou Inker returned a punt 62 yards to the Penn State 11 and Major Ogilvie's eight-yard TD run gave the Tide a 14-7 lead later in the stanza.

With about seven minutes to play, Matt Millen forced a fumble which Joe Lally recovered at the Alabama 19. On second-and-goal at the six, Fusina hit Fitzkee near the flag, but as he turned to cross the goal line, Don McNeal knocked him out two feet from the stripe. Matt Suhey's dive on third down was six inches short and on fourth down, Mike Guman was stopped short by Barry Krauss and the Tide defense in one of the memorable defensive stands in college football history. On Penn State's final possession, the Nittany Lions drove to the Alabama 41-yard line, but the Tide defense held again to seal the win.

Herb Menhardt's 20-yard field goal with 18 seconds remaining lifted Penn State to a 9-6 win over Tulane in the 21st Annual Liberty Bowl in Memphis. The win was the first in a string of five consecutive bowl victories for the Nittany Lions.

After a scoreless first quarter, the Penn State offense got untracked early in the second period. Quarterback Frank Rocco directed the Lions on a 13-play, 68-yard drive that culminated with a 33-yard Menhardt field goal for a 3-0 lead. Rocco was starting for the first time in 1979, replacing 11-game starter Dayle Tate, who suffered a shoulder injury in the Pittsburgh game earlier in the month. A 63-yard drive culminated in a 27-yard Menhardt trey later in the period for a 6-0 halftime lead.

Tulane tied the game with a pair of fourth-quarter field goals, the latter coming with less than three minutes to play. With just under 50 seconds left and the Lions at the 50, assistant coach Bob Phillips suggested a halfback option, which worked to near perfection. Rocco pitched out to Joel Coles, who pulled up on a sweep around the left side and threw a 39-yard pass to a wide open Tom Donovan, to set up Menhardt's game-winner.

1980 FIESTA: December 26, 1980

Buoyed by a field goal in the final 10 seconds of the first half, Penn State played a superb second half in a satisfying 31-19 victory over Ohio State in Fiesta Bowl X in front of a record crowd of 66,738. The contest remains the Lions' only bowl game against a Big Ten opponent.

After Curt Warner's 64-yard touchdown run on the first play of the game, Ohio State used Art Schlichter's super passing to grab a 19-7 lead before Herb Menhardt's 38-yard field goal with eight seconds left in the half made it 19-10. Schlichter was 15-of-22 for 244 yards and three touchdowns in the first half.

Like many Joe Paterno teams in bowl games, the Lions made adjustments at the break and dominated the second half. On their first possession of the third quarter, Todd Blackledge directed a 75-yard drive, scoring from three yards to cut the lead to 19-17. After holding the Buckeyes to zero yards in the third stanza, Jon Williams scored on a four-yard run early in the final quarter and Booker Moore's 37-yard run climaxed an 85-yard drive and sealed the 10-2 campaign. Schlichter was 5-of-13 for 58 yards in the second half as the Lions frustrated Earl Bruce's squad.

Penn State outgained the Buckeyes 468 to 412, including a school bowl record 351 yards rushing. Warner had 18 carries for 155 yards, to establish a Nittany Lion bowl record, and one touchdown to earn the Outstanding Offensive Player Award and Frank Case earned both the Outstanding Defensive Player and Sportsmanship awards.

1982 FIESTA: January 1, 1982

Penn State rode its rugged defense to a dominating 26-10 victory over USC in the first Fiesta Bowl game played on New Year's Day. Making its second consecutive appearance in Tempe, Penn State held the Trojans to 60 yards rushing and only three offensive points in the win.

Curt Warner stole the spotlight from USC's Heisman Trophy-winning running back Marcus Allen, gaining 145 yards with two touchdowns to Allen's 85 yards on 30 carries and no touchdowns, his lowest output of the season. For the second-straight year in Tempe, Warner scored the first time he touched the ball, reaching paydirt from 17 yards out for a 7-0 lead as he became the only player to be selected the Fiesta's Offensive Player of the Game two straight years.

A 52-yard scoring strike from Todd Blackledge to Gregg Garrity gave the Lions the lead for good in the second quarter and Warner added a 21-yard scoring burst in the third.

The Lions outgained the Trojans 393 to 262, recording 11 tackles for loss, including six sacks.

Penn State concluded a 10-2 season and earned the No. 3 national ranking, playing opponents with a cumulative record of 82-37-2 (68.6), including six teams ranked among the nation's top 20.

1983 SUGAR: January 1, 1983

A mid-year loss to Alabama could have proven devastating, but instead, Penn State rallied to win its last six games, rising to No. 2 in the polls, and garnering a national title match-up with unbeaten and No. 1 Georgia in the 1983 Sugar Bowl. The Sugar Bowl had not been kind to Penn State with the Lions going 0-3 in New Orleans, but on this day those prior games were forgotten, as Penn State defeated the Bulldogs, 27-23, to post an 11-1 record and earn its first National Championship after several near-misses under Joe Paterno.

Penn State jumped to a 7-0 lead, scoring in the first three minutes of the game. On consecutive plays, Todd Blackledge drilled a 33-yard pass to Mike McCloskey and found Gregg Garrity for 27 yards to the Georgia 9-yard line. Curt Warner's 2-yard run around left end gave the Lions a lead they would not relinquish. Following a Georgia field goal, treys of 38 and 45 yards by Nick Gancitano sandwiched a nine-yard Warner TD run for a 20-3 lead with less than a minute left in the half.

The Bulldogs responded with just five seconds remaining in the half on a 10-yard TD pass to Herman Archie. Georgia then took the second-half kickoff and drove 69 yards to score on Herschel Walker's one-yard run, to cut the margin to 20-17.

With Warner bothered by leg cramps, the offense struggled in the third period, but early in the fourth quarter Blackledge faked to Warner and threw a perfect 47-yard strike to Garrity, who made a sensational diving catch in the end zone. A fumbled punt set up a Georgia touchdown with 4:54 to play, but the Lion defense stuffed Walker on the two-point try to make the score 27-23. With two minutes left, Blackledge found Garrity for a first down on third down and the Lions ran out the clock, hoisting Paterno on their shoulders with his right index finger raised.

"Penn State No. 1!" shouted long-time Nittany Lion radio announcer Fran Fisher to his audience, trying to be heard above the din of the delirious blue and white clad fans who were finally able to celebrate a National Championship.

Warner gained 117 rushing yards on 18 attempts and two scores, gaining 63 gutsy yards in the second half despite the leg cramps, while Blackledge was 13-of-23 for 228 yards to earn MVP honors.

BOWL HISTORY

1983 ALOHA: December 26, 1983

Penn State tied an NCAA record with its fifth consecutive bowl victory, edging Washington, 13-10, in the 1983 Aloha Bowl, thanks to excellent punting, outstanding defense and a clutch fourth-quarter scoring drive.

The defense held potent Washington without a touchdown, but Danny Greene's 57-yard punt return for a score midway through the second quarter loomed as the key play of the game, with the Huskies holding a 10-3 lead at the start of the final quarter. Lion punter George Reynolds, whose 47.7-yard punting average on seven kicks earned him Defensive Player of the Game honors, booted a 50-yard punt to the Washington 16 late in the third quarter. The defense held and the offense answered with Nick Gancitano's 49-yard field goal to trail, 10-6, early in the final stanza.

Reynolds' next punt went to the Washington six, the defense held again, and after the ensuing punt to the Penn State 38, Kevin Baugh handed off to Kenny Jackson on a reverse for one first down. Doug Strang then hit Baugh for 16 yards to the Huskie four and tailback D.J. Dozier took the pitch over the right side for a two-yard touchdown with three minutes to play for a 13-10 victory.

The Lions gained just 213 yards, but the defense held the Huskies to 279 and Reynolds' punting proved to be a key in keeping Penn State in the game.

Oklahoma's defense turned in an outstanding effort and the Sooners made two big offensive plays for a 25-10 victory over Penn State in the 1985 Orange Bowl's national title battle.

The Nittany Lions, 11-0 and No. 1, also played well defensively against Oklahoma's wishbone, allowing just 12 first downs. The No. 2 Sooners relied on the big play — a 71-yard TD pass from Jamelle Holieway to tight end Keith Jackson on third-and-24 and a game-clinching 61-yard touchdown run by Lydell Carr — plus four Tim Lashar field goals to win. The loss was Penn State's first in the Orange Bowl after three victories.

Penn State took a 7-0 lead on its first possession. John Shaffer drove the Lions 62 yards, capped by a Tim Manoa one-yard touchdown run. But, the Sooners would score 16 unanswered points. Despite four turnovers, the Lions trailed just 19-10 as Massimo Manca attempted a 26-yard field with 2:46 to play. Manca's kick was no good and a minute later Carr's long TD run sealed the crown for the Sooners.

Penn State mustered just 14 first downs but had 267 yards against a defense which had held opponents to less than 200 yards during the regular season.

1987 FIESTA: January 2, 1987

Linebacker Pete Gifopoulos thrust his 233-pound frame between Vinny Testaverde and a possible winning touchdown in the waning seconds of the 1987 Fiesta Bowl, intercepting Testaverde's final pass at the Lions' 1-yard line to preserve Penn State's 14-10 victory over No. 1 Miami (Fla.) and earn the underdog Nittany Lions their second National Championship in four years.

In one of the most memorable National Championship games ever, the No. 2 Nittany Lions intercepted Testaverde, the Heisman Trophy winner, five times to frustrate the Hurricanes and earn their second 12-0 season.

Unbeaten Miami rolled up 22 first downs and 445 yards to eight first downs and 162 yards for the Lions, but the Hurricanes could not convert yards into points against a staunch Penn State defense that was no stranger to adversity.

Penn State answered the only Miami touchdown of the game in the second quarter with a 13-play, 74-yard drive. One of the big plays was a 23-yard pass from John Shaffer to Eric Hamilton on third-and-12. Later in the drive, Shaffer rolled around the right side four yards into the end zone with 1:14 left in the half and Massimo Manca's PAT made it 7-7 at the break.

Miami regained the lead early in the fourth quarter on a 38-yard field goal by Mark Seelig. All-America linebacker Shane Conlan, who had grabbed a third-quarter interception, did it again, intercepting Testaverde's toss and returning it 39 yards to the Hurricanes' five. After a heart-stopping first-down fumbled snap was recovered by Keith Radecic, D.J. Dozier got the most important six yards of his collegiate career when he darted through a gaping hole for the go-ahead touchdown with 8:13 to play. Manca's conversion pushed the Penn State margin to 14-10.

With 18 seconds remaining, Miami had a fourth-and-goal at the Penn State 13-yard line. Testaverde tested the Lions' secondary one more time, looking for Brett Perriman in the end zone, but his pass came to rest in the arms of Gifopoulos, who cradled his second theft of the night and a Penn State National Championship as he fell on the ball after returning it to the 10-yard line with just nine seconds to play in another of the greatest moments in Lion football history.

1988 CITRUS: January 1, 1988

Clemson successfully blended the expected with the unexpected to post a 35-10 conquest of Penn State in the 1988 Florida Citrus Bowl, the first-ever meeting between the two schools. The Tigers rushed for 285 yards and quarterback Danny Williams threw for an uncharacteristic 214 yards (15-of-24) in the Nittany Lions' first appearance in Orlando.

The Lions played without leading rusher and receiver Blair Thomas, who suffered a serious knee injury in an early December practice which would sideline him for the 1988 season. He had rushed for 1,414 yards and 11 touchdowns in 1987. Freshmen Leroy Thompson and Gary Brown posted 106 yards from the tailback position in Thomas' absence. Thompson, who rushed for 55 yards and added 146 more on pass receptions (19) and kickoff returns (127), was voted the Lions' offensive MVP with 201 all-purpose yards.

Penn State's touchdown came on a perfect 39-yard pass from Matt Knizner to Mike Alexander that tied the issue at 7-7 in the second quarter. The Tigers led 14-7 at halftime but, Penn State cut it to 14-10 on a 27-yard field goal by Eric Etze early in the third stanza. Clemson responded with a TD and added two more scores in the fourth period to hand the Lions their worst bowl loss.

Senior linebacker Trey Bauer, who had six stops, three tackles for losses and a quarterback sack, was Penn State's defensive MVP.

1989 HOLIDAY: December 29, 1989

In a game which featured explosive offense on both sides, two freak defensive plays decided the issue between Penn State and BYU in the 1989 Holiday Bowl. By the time Penn State's high-octane 50-39 victory over BYU was finished, the Lions and Cougars put 89 points on the scoreboard, including an NCAA bowl record 64 in the second half; gained 1,115 total offensive yards; rolled up 61 first downs; and punted only three times.

Andre Collins made the first of the decisive defensive plays after the Cougars had closed to within 41-39 with 2:58 remaining. Collins intercepted Ty Detmer's two-point conversion pass attempt and returned it 100-plus yards to score two for the Lions.

On the ensuing BYU series, Gary Brown blitzed past Outland Trophy-winner Mohammed Elewonibi to steal the ball from Detmer as he prepared to pass and returned it 53 yards for the touchdown in the final minute that secured the wild and wacky win.

Among the flood of big plays earlier in the game was a spectacular, 52-yard TD catch by David Daniels, who leapt high in the air to grab Tony Sacca's aerial at the goal line, was hit, juggled and caught the ball as he landed on his back in the end zone for one of the superlative catches in school history.

Penn State tailback Blair Thomas broke the then-school bowl rushing record with 186 yards on 35 carries with one touchdown. Thomas also gained 46 additional yards on a pair of pass receptions for 232 all-purpose yards.

The 64 second-half points (Penn State, 38 and BYU, 26) remain tied for the then-NCAA bowl record.

1990 BLOCKBUSTER: December 28, 1990

The inaugural Blockbuster Bowl wasn't being played on New Year's Day, but was one of the most intriguing postseason contests, pitting No. 7 Penn State and No. 6 Florida State and their legendary coaches, Joe Paterno and Bobby Bowden.

After spotting the Seminoles 10 points in the first eight minutes of the game, Penn State applied pressure the rest of the way before finally bowing, 24-17, in a marquee matchup of 9-2 independents at Joe Robbie Stadium.

With Florida State leading, 24-10, senior quarterback Tom Bill came off the bench to ignite a 62-yard scoring drive in three plays, finding Terry Smith behind the secondary for a 37-yard touchdown with 6:27 to play. But two Penn State drives later came up empty, including an interception at the one-yard line with less than three minutes to play.

Penn State's other touchdown was scored on a 56-yard pass from Tony Sacca to David Daniels in the first quarter, but the Lions could not overcome three interceptions, a partially blocked punt which led to the Seminoles' first TD and a blocked field goal.

1992 FIESTA: January 1, 1992

Penn State turned up the heat in a furious eight-minute span in the second half and buried the bewildered Volunteers, 42-17, beneath an avalanche of big plays on both sides of the ball in the first of what stretched to eight consecutive January bowl visits.

Penn State grabbed an early 7-0 lead, recovering a fumble on the opening kickoff and converting three plays later when Sam Gash scored on a 10-yard pass from Tony Sacca. At halftime, Tennessee had 17 first downs and 324 yards, while Penn State had just five first downs and 59 yards, but the Vols only led 10-7. Vols' quarterback Andy Kelly, who was 16-of-26 for 204 yards in the opening half, hit Cory Fleming on a 44-yard score on the initial possession of the third stanza for a 17-7 lead.

A 39-yard punt return by O.J. McDuffie ignited the Lions and Sacca found Chip LaBarca on a three-yard scoring toss to cut the margin to 17-14 with 2:56 left in the third period. No one among the crowd of 71,133 was prepared for the onslaught which followed.

On Tennessee's second play after the score, Tyoka Jackson stripped Kelly of the ball and recovered at the Vol 13. On the ensuing play Sacca hit Kyle Brady and suddenly the Lions had a 21-17 lead. On the Vols' second play, Reggie Givens' interception set up a 2-yard run by Richie Anderson early in the fourth quarter. On Tennessee's next play, Derek Bochna hit Kelly and Givens grabbed the ball and ran it in from 23 yards. In less than four minutes, Penn State had scored 28 points to take a 35-17 lead.

Sacca set a Penn State bowl record with four touchdown passes and McDuffie caught four passes for 78 yards and a touchdown and had 71 yards on punt returns to earn Most Valuable Offensive Player honors. Keith Goganious recorded a game-high 15 tackles, but Givens earned Defensive MVP accolades. Punter Doug Helkowski set Fiesta Bowl records with his nine punts for a 47.9-yard average.

Stanford proved it was one of the nation's top teams as it raced past the Nittany Lions, 24-3, in the 1993 Blockbuster Bowl, ending a Penn State string of four straight wins over Pac-10 teams in postseason games.

Stanford, the Pac-10 co-champions with Washington, moved 71 yards in eight plays with the opening kickoff to score all the points the Cardinal would need in Joe Robbie Stadium.

A 33-yard V.J. Muscillo field goal made it 7-3 at the end of the first quarter, but Stanford led, 14-3, at halftime and added 10 points in the third quarter.

Stanford tallied 365 yards to Penn State's 263. All-American O.J. McDuffie made six catches for 111 yards and Richie Anderson carried the ball 13 times for 40 yards as the Lions were held to their second-lowest point total in a bowl game.

1994 CITRUS: January 1, 1994

A Citrus Bowl record crowd of 72,456 was treated to the Nittany Lions' strongest effort of the season, a 31-13 knockout of sixth-ranked Tennessee. The hard-earned and satisfying victory capped a 10-2 season and vaulted Penn State to another top-10 finish.

Trailing, 10-0, Penn State retaliated with tailback Ki-Jana Carter bursting for a three-yard score. The key play was a 36-yard strike from quarterback Kerry Collins to Bobby Engram. The momentum continued to swing in the Lions' favor on Tennessee's next possession, as Tyoka Jackson tipped a Heath Shuler pass which Lee Rubin snared just inches above the turf. Engram then made a 16-yard reception and gained 35 yards on a reverse. Craig Fayak's 19-yard field goal knotted the score at 10-10.

Tennessee tallied its final points of the afternoon with a field goal, but Penn State had its two-minute offense humming late in the first half. Passes to Engram and Brian O'Neal took the ball to the Vol 14-yard line with :10 left. With the majority of the packed stadium expecting a pass, offensive coordinator Fran Ganter called Carter's number and he swept left and hurtled behind an Engram block into the end zone with just three ticks left on the clock to stun the crowd. Fayak's PAT kick put the Lions on top for good, 17-13, capping what may have been the game's most pivotal play.

A seven-yard pass from Collins to Kyle Brady made it 24-13 in the third quarter and Engram made a 15-yard TD catch to close the scoring. Engram made seven catches for 107 yards and his 184 all-purpose yards made him the overwhelming choice as the Offensive MVP, while Rubin was the Defensive MVP. Collins was 15-of-24 passing for 162 yards and two scores, outplaying Shuler, the Heisman Trophy runner-up, who was sacked four times in the second half.

1995 ROSE: January 2, 1995

In a landmark season, the Nittany Lions brought proper closure to a magnificent 1994 campaign by beating Oregon, 38-20, in the Rose Bowl, Penn State's first appearance in the "Granddaddy of Them All" since the 1923 contest. Having won their first Big Ten Championship in their second year of conference play, the Lions became the first Big Ten squad to earn a 12-0 record and the first Conference team to earn an unblemished record since Ohio State in 1968.

In a microcosm of a brilliant season, Heisman Trophy runner-up Ki-Jana Carter flashed through the line on Penn State's first play from scrimmage, bounced off a defender and burst into the lush green carpet for an 83-yard score in the game's initial five minutes. The Rose Bowl throng of 102,247 rose in unison as Carter raced toward the end zone in front of the frenzied blue and white backers.

The Lions, though, were confronted by a relentless Oregon squad, which gained a 14-14 tie in the third quarter before Penn State pulled away for the 38-20 victory. The significance of the win in Pasadena stretched in many directions: Penn State earned its fifth unbeaten, untied season under Joe Paterno and its third 12-0 campaign; Paterno became college football's all-time winningest bowl coach with his 16th postseason win and became the first coach in college football history to win the traditional four major bowls.

Carter rushed for 156 yards on 21 carries and three touchdowns, sharing Rose Bowl Co-Most Valuable Player honors with Duck quarterback Danny O'Neil, who set six Rose records with his 41-of-61 effort for 456 yards and two scores. Carter's 83-yard run was the longest of his career, Penn State's longest in a bowl game and the third-longest in Rose Bowl history. Lion quarterback Kerry Collins concluded his brilliant season with a 19-of-30 display for 200 yards, setting a school completion mark for a bowl game and fullbacks Brian Milne and Jon Witman each tallied once.

The offensive fireworks by both squads produced 13 Rose Bowl records and tied two others. Penn State also eclipsed seven individual and two team school bowl records.

1996 OUTBACK: January 1, 1996

Facing a new opponent, in a new bowl, the Penn State Nittany Lions were determined to send a superb class of 21 seniors out in a familiar fashion. Playing in its first Outback Bowl, a strong finish was the precursor to a solid bowl effort, as the Nittany Lions played arguably their finest game of the year in crushing Auburn, 43-14, to finish 9-3.

Penn State seized control of the Outback with a Wally Richardson to Mike Archie touchdown pass with :05 left in the first half for a 16-7 lead and then deluged the Tigers with an unanswered 27-point avalanche in the third quarter.

A group of seniors who were the backbone of Penn State's impressive 31-5 record the past three seasons again led the way in their final game. Archie ran for 41 yards in addition to his big touchdown catch. Stephen Pitts rushed for 118 yards and also made a touchdown reception. Fullback Brian Milne rushed for a career-best 82 yards. The senior offensive line quartet of Keith Conlin, Jeff Hartings, Andre Johnson and Marco Rivera dominated the line of scrimmage, helping the Lions rush for 266 yards and pass for 221 with no sacks. Terry Killens recorded a pair of sacks to spark the defense.

And then there was Bobby Engram. The three-time All-American concluded his career the Lions' all-time greatest receiver with another typically superlative effort, earning game MVP honors for the second time in a bowl. He made four catches, three of which were typically spectacular, for 113 yards and two scores. Just as he had demolished the school's career receiving records, the 1994 Biletnikoff Award winner did so with Penn State's career bowl receiving marks. His two TD catches also broke the school bowl standard, giving the dynamic player 13 records.

1997 FIESTA: January 1, 1997

Penn State improved to 6-0 in Tempe with a 38-15 win over Big 12 champion Texas in the 1997 Fiesta Bowl.

Gaining only 95 yards while allowing 242, Penn State was fortunate to trail the Longhorns only 12-7 at halftime, having quickly scored after a Mark Tate interception on the game's second play. The defense had stiffened twice inside the 15-yard line, holding Texas to a pair of field goals and one touchdown.

As the Lions did so many times under Joe Paterno, they made adjustments at the break and then dominated the last 30 minutes. Freshman Kenny Watson took the second-half kickoff 81 yards, a school bowl record, to inside the Texas 20. A five-yard Aaron Harris TD run and a two-point pass from Wally Richardson to Curtis Enis provided a 15-12 lead less than three minutes into the half.

Texas gained a 15-15 tie midway through the stanza, but the momentum clearly was swinging in Penn State's direction. On its next drive, Enis scored from two yards. The defense held and on second down, Chafie Fields took a double reverse 84 yards to the Texas five-yard line, the longest run in school and Fiesta Bowl history. Anthony Cleary cracked over for a 28-15 margin and the Lions never looked back, outscoring Texas, 31-3, in the second half. The Lions outgained the Longhorns 330-118 in the second half, including a whopping 292 to minus-19 yard edge on the ground.

Richardson completed his tenure with a 21-5 record as a starter as the 16 seniors closed their careers with a 42-7 record and four bowl victories.

BOWL HISTORY

1998 FLORIDA CITRUS: January 1, 1998

With their schools meeting for the first time since the 1962 Gator Bowl, Joe Paterno and Steve Spurrier, matched wits for the first time in the 1998 Florida Citrus Bowl. The normally pass-happy Gators stuck primarily to the ground and posted a 21-6 victory.

Playing without starters Curtis Enis and Joe Jurevicius, the Lions struggled offensively, but the defense kept Penn State within striking range after the Gators took a quick 14-0 lead. Jim Nelson collected an interception at the Penn State four-yard line to stop a Florida drive late in the first stanza. On the Gators' next possession, Shawn Lee returned an interception 33 yards to the Florida 31. The Lions moved the ball to the seven, but had to settle for a Travis Forney field goal.

The defense and special teams made two huge plays to give Penn State first-and-goal chances in the second quarter. Brandon Short knocked the ball away from Gator QB Doug Johnson and after a wild scramble, Short recovered at the Gators' six. But, on fourth-and-inches, Chris Eberly was stopped short of the goal line. The defense held and Kenny Watson delivered a 52-yard punt return to the Florida six with 1:14 left in the half. Again, the Lions were faced with fourth-and-one, but Mike McQueary's pass was picked off in the end zone, denying Penn State its best opportunities for touchdowns.

A Forney field goal made it 14-6 entering the fourth quarter, but Florida scored on the second play of the stanza to end the scoring. Gator tailback Fred Taylor set Citrus Bowl records with 43 carries for 234 yards, most ever for a Lion foe in a bowl game. The Lions could muster only nine first downs and 139 yards in offense, the lowest in Paterno's tenure. The 16 Lion seniors completed their careers with a superb 41-8 (83.7) record.

1999 OUTBACK: January 1, 1999

Facing one of college football's most talented players — the eventual No. 1 pick in the 1999 National Football League draft — the Penn State defense was superb in limiting high-flying Kentucky to only two scores in a 26-14 Outback Bowl win before a soldout crowd of 66,005 in the new Raymond James Stadium.

Joe Paterno led the Lions to their eighth-straight January bowl game and improved his NCAA record for bowl victories to 19.

While Heisman Trophy finalist Tim Couch did pass for 336 yards, it took him a whopping 48 attempts to do so. The Lion defense intercepted him twice, sacked him five times and had numerous near-sacks and hurries. Kentucky broke out to an early 14-3 lead, but in the second quarter, Penn State made adjustments and scored 10 unanswered points to cut the lead to 14-13.

A 56-yard TD pass from Kevin Thompson to Joe Nastasi preceded three Travis Forney field goals. Forney also had made a trey in the first quarter, breaking the Outback and school bowl records with four field goals. Despite dominating the second and third quarters, the Lions only led 19-14 entering the final period. But, the defense, which had gotten a blocked field goal from LaVar Arrington in the third quarter, stuffed the Wildcats on fourth-and-one at the Kentucky 34. Several plays later, Chafe Fields took his second reverse of the game 19 yards to paydirt for the final 26-14 margin.

As it had done all season, the defense led the way, paced by Anthony King's 11 tackles, two interceptions and a fumble recovery. Courtney Brown made the seven stops, including four for loss, and two sacks on consecutive plays in the final period to earn game MVP honors.

1999 ALAMO: December 28, 1999

Their resolve was firm. A team that was in position to play for the National Championship in early November was looking to finish the season on a positive note after three straight narrow losses to end the regular season.

The Nittany Lions turned in a marvelous defensive performance to record a 24-0 blanking of the Aggies. The whitewash was the Lions' 20th since 1977.

Finishing 10-3, the Lions won at least 10 games for the 18th time under Paterno and earned the No. 11 ranking in the final Associated Press and USA Today/ESPN Coaches polls.

The game was Paterno's 30th bowl contest, breaking a tie with "Bear" Bryant for appearances. The all-time bowl wins leader improved his postseason record to 20-9-1.

On A&M's first scrimmage play, All-American LaVar Arrington set the tone, as he chased quarterback Randy McCown and hit him as he threw, with David Macklin making the first of four Lion interceptions at the A&M 40-yard line.

On A&M's second possession, Derek Fox collected a McCown pass at the A&M 34, and weaved his way to the end zone for a 7-0 lead midway through the first quarter.

With Kevin Thompson sidelined by a shoulder injury, Rashard Casey made his first career start at quarterback. He fired a 45-yard TD strike to Eddie Drummond for a 14-0 lead.

Early in the second half, the Aggies advanced to the Lions' 14. But, on third down, Arrington tipped McCown's pass and Ron Graham grabbed it at the eight to thwart another drive.

Arrington flattened McCown to halt A&M's last drive and Casey quickly had the Lions on the move. A 34-yard completion to John Gilmore took the pigskin to the A&M 26. A 20-yard completion to Tony Stewart set up Casey's four-yard naked bootleg on the first play of the fourth quarter for a 21-0 lead.

On the ensuing kickoff, Askari Adams forced a fumble which was recovered by Shawn Mayer at the A&M 23. A 39-yard Travis Forney field goal made it 24-0.

2003 CAPITAL ONE: January 1, 2003

Penn State rode the momentum of four consecutive wins to close the regular season into the 2003 Capital One Bowl against Auburn, but some missed offensive opportunities resulted in a difficult 13-9 loss.

The Lions finished with a 9-4 record, with all four losses coming by seven points or less, including two in overtime, to teams that were ranked in the Top 15 of the final Associated Press poll (three in the Top 10).

Anthony Adams forced an early fumble that Derek Wake pounced on at the Auburn 15-yard line. The Lions had a first-and-goal at the four, but were forced to settle for a 21-yard field goal by Robbie Gould.

The Tigers advanced to the Lions' seven early in the second quarter, but Wake blocked a 34-yard field goal attempt, his fourth blocked kick of the year. Midway through the quarter, the Lions reached the Auburn 16, but Gould's 33-yard field try was wide.

Penn State's next possession began at the Auburn 43 and the Lions moved to the 10, but again had to settle for a Gould field goal, a 27-yarder, for a 6-0 lead with 1:44 left in the half. Three trips inside the Auburn 20 had resulted in only six points, which would come back to haunt the Lions.

Early in the fourth period, Michael Robinson completed a 34-yard pass to Tony Johnson and then scrambled 20 yards to the Auburn 19. Gould's 31-yard field goal gave Penn State a 9-7 lead, but 10:10 was left to play.

A sack by John Bronson forced an Auburn punt, which the Tigers downed at the Penn State one. The Tigers forced a three-and-out and got excellent field position at the Penn State 40 with 5:04 to play. Brown carried the ball five straight times, the last one a 17-yard touchdown burst with 2:19 to play for a 13-9 lead. Campbell's two-point pass was incomplete.

Zack Mills returned to the contest, but on third down, was intercepted by Roderick Hood and Auburn held on.

Adams recorded nine tackles (eight solo), including a sack, and the forced fumble to earn team Defensive MVP honors. Robinson was the team Offensive MVP.

2006 ORANGE: January 3, 2006

Kevin Kelly's 29-yard field goal in the third overtime lifted Penn State to a thrilling 26-23 victory over Florida State in the Orange Bowl.

Austin Scott carried five times for 57 yards on Penn State's second drive and scored from two yards out for a 7-0 lead. Scott gained 110 yards on 26 carries and two TDs, replacing an injured Tony Hunt. Two of the nation's premier defenses then kept each side in check until a wild final 4:09 of the second quarter.

Florida State tied the game at 7-7 on Willie Reid's 87-yard punt return. Then Drew Weatherford hit Lorenzo Booker on a 57-yard TD pass, but the PAT kick was missed.

The Lions quickly responded, as Big Ten MVP Michael Robinson lofted a 25-yard pass to Ethan Kilmer, who made a leaping catch over a defender for the TD with just :06 left in the half. Kelly's PAT made it 14-13 at the half.

The Lion defense did not allow any points in the third period despite great field position for Florida State throughout the quarter.

Jeremy Kapinos pinned Florida State deep as the fourth quarter began. Jim Shaw pressured Weatherford in the end zone, he threw the ball away and was called for intentional grounding, giving Penn State a safety and a 16-13 lead with 13:36 to play.

Florida State later advanced to the Lions' 29, but Penn State stiffened and Gary Cismesia hit a 48-yard field goal with 4:08 to play.

A 38-yard completion from Robinson to Jordan Norwood took the ball to the Seminoles' 11. With :32 left in regulation, Kelly's 29-yard field goal attempt was wide, but he would later emerge as the hero. Robinson was 21-of-39 for 253 yards, accounting for 28 touchdowns during the season.

The Lions held No. 22 Florida State to 26 yards rushing, 12 first downs and three-of-17 on third down. Linebacker Dan Connor made seven tackles, (two TFL) and defensive tackle Scott Paxson had six stops (1.5 TFL). Jay Alford made four hits, with 2.5 TFL, and forced a fumble deep to win a spot on ESPN.com's All-Bowl team. All-America cornerback Alan Zemaitis grabbed his Big Ten-leading sixth interception of the season (12th career).

2007 OUTBACK: January 1, 2007

Facing its fifth ranked opponent, Penn State played its most complete game of 2006 to defeat No. 17 Tennessee, 20-10, in the Outback Bowl. The Lions held the Vols to a season-low 10 points, 19.3 below their average, and forced three turnovers.

Tennessee became the 10th team, and seventh consecutive, to score 17 or fewer points against Penn State. Over the last five games, the Lions allowed just 36 points (7.2 avg.) with two shutouts. Over the last 25 quarters of the season, Penn State permitted just three TDs. Tennessee also became the eighth opponent held under 100 rushing yards during the season, netting 83.

Tony Hunt was spectacular in his final game as a Lion, rushing for 158 yards on a career-high tying 31 attempts to earn Outback Bowl Most Valuable Player honors. Hunt posted his eighth 100-yard game of 2006 (15th career).

Hunt's 158 yards were the second-highest of his career and the second-highest by a Lion in a bowl game (186, Blair Thomas vs. BYU, 1989 Holiday Bowl). Hunt finished second on the Penn State career rushing charts with 3,320 yards and first all-time with 654 carries (5.08 avg.). He finished just 78 yards behind career leader Curt Warner's total of 3,398 yards.

The Vols scored late in the half to tie the game and it was 10-10 entering the fourth quarter, when the Lion defense delivered the game-changing play. On first down from the Nittany Lions' 14, Dan Connor and Sean Lee crunched Tennessee's Arian Foster and cornerback Tony Davis picked up the pigskin and flew 88 yards for the go-ahead TD with 10:01 to go.

Penn State forced a three-and-out and Derrick Williams returned the punt 20 yards to the Volunteers' 45. Hunt had seven consecutive carries, netting 39 yards, to set up a 22-yard trey by Kelly, making it 20-10 with just 3:29 to play.

Anthony Morelli was a strong 14-of-25 for 197 yards with no interceptions.

All-American Paul Posluszny recorded eight tackles and 2.5 tackles for loss. He finished his career as Penn State's all-time tackle leader with 372 and 12th all-time with 35 tackles for loss. Posluszny became the first player to lead Penn State in tackles three consecutive seasons and the first with a trio of 100-tackle campaigns.

BOWL HISTORY

2007 ALAMO: December 29, 2007

Penn State overcame a 14-0 first-quarter deficit to defeat Texas A&M, 24-17, in the Valero Alamo Bowl in Joe Paterno's 500th game as head coach of the Nittany Lions.

The Lions overcame their largest deficit of the season and held the Aggies to just three points over the last three quarters in front of an Alamo Bowl record crowd of 66,166 in The Alamodome. Penn State took the lead for good at 24-17 with :19 left in the third quarter on a season-long 38-yard burst by redshirt freshman tailback Evan Royster.

Early in the fourth quarter, Jeremy Boone boomed a 55-yard punt and Texas A&M's Roger Holland was dropped at the Aggies' one by A.J. Wallace and Justin King. But, Texas A&M proceeded to march downfield looking to tie the game. On fourth-and-one from the Penn State two, McGee ran the option to the right, but slipped and fell at the six, giving the ball back to the Lions, who used two possessions to run out the final 7:43.

Junior linebacker Sean Lee recorded a game-high 14 tackles, with a TFL and a pass breakup, to earn Defensive MVP honors. Lee's 14 stops tied the Alamo Bowl record, as he recorded double figures in tackles for the 10th time in the season. His 138 tackles ranked No. 4 on the school season list.

All-America linebacker Dan Connor made nine tackles to finish the season with 145, passing Shawn Mayer's 144 for second place on the Lions' season list. Connor's 419 career tackles broke the school record. Safeties Mark Rubin and Anthony Scirrotto made eight tackles each and defensive end Maurice Evans had six stops and forced two fumbles. Cornerback A.J. Wallace made five stops, grabbed his first career interception and had a huge fumble recovery to set up a score.

Penn State ran for a season-high 270 yards, averaging 6.6 yards on its 41 carries. Rodney Kinlaw gained 143 yards on 21 attempts (6.8) for his sixth 100-yard game of the season. Reserve quarterback Daryll Clark gained 50 yards on just six attempts (8.3), including an 11-yard touchdown run.

Senior quarterback Anthony Morelli was 15-of-31 for 143 yards, including a 30-yard scoring strike to a diving Deon Butler to swing the momentum of the game.

2009 ROSE: January 1, 2009

Sixth-ranked Penn State came into its Rose Bowl battle with No. 5 USC among the nation's leaders in fewest penalties and turnovers, but mistakes proved costly as the Trojans captured a 38-24 win in the meeting between national powers.

The Nittany Lions gained 410 yards, the most by a USC opponent for the season. Penn State became just the third team to score more than 20 points against the nation's No. 1 scoring defense (7.8 ppg average) in 2008.

Daryll Clark broke then-Penn State bowl records with 273 passing yards and 290 yards of total offense. Clark was 21-of-36, with two TDs and two interceptions. Clark also ran for a 9-yard touchdown late in the first quarter to tie the game, 7-7. He accounted for a school season-record 29 TDs, throwing for 19 and rushing for 10.

Tailback Stephon Green saw extensive duty, as Evan Royster left the game late in the first quarter with a knee injury. Green led Penn State with 57 yards on 10 carries and five receptions for 67 yards, including a 30-yard play. Royster gained 34 yards on just six carries.

Senior Deon Butler had four catches for 97 yards, but had a 45-yard first-quarter catch nullified by a penalty.

The Lions held the Trojans to 61 rushing yards, 145 yards below their season average. USC became the eighth team to fail to gain 100 rushing yards against Penn State in 2008.

Sophomore linebacker NaVorro Bowman made a school bowl-record five tackles for loss (minus-21), tying Andy Katzenmoyer's Rose Bowl record from the 1997 game. Bowman had his fourth sack of the season among his eight tackles (seven solo), finishing the year with a team-best 106 tackles and 16.5 tackles for loss. Junior linebacker Josh Hull made a game-high nine tackles, including one for a five-yard loss. Senior Tony Davis made eight hits and recovered a fumble and senior Lydell Sargeant had seven tackles (six solo).

USC quarterback Mark Sanchez was 28-of-35 for 413 yards, with four touchdown passes.

2010 CAPITAL ONE: January 1, 2010

Senior quarterback Daryll Clark, the game MVP, led Penn State on a 65-yard drive in the waning minutes of the game and Collin Wagner connected on a 21-yard field goal with :57 left to play to lift the Nittany Lions to a dramatic 19-17 win over LSU in the 64th Capital One Bowl.

Wagner made a career-high four field goals, connecting from 26, 18, 20 and 21 yards. He had never made four field goals during his prep or Penn State career. His four field goals tied Travis Forney's Penn State bowl record (1999 Outback).

Having taken a 16-3 lead into the third quarter, the Nittany Lions saw the Tigers rally to score two touchdowns in a span of 2:24, grabbing a 17-16 lead with 12:49 to play on a one-yard run by Stevan Ridley. Penn State had to punt, but the defense held LSU to one first down and forced a punt, with the Lions taking over at their 31 with 6:54 to play.

Penn State converted two third downs on the dramatic 12-play scoring drive. Clark hit Graham Zug for a first down at the LSU 37. On the next play, Zug made a huge 17-yard sideline reception to the 20. On third-and-4 from the Tigers' 14, Stephon Green burst through the line for a 6-yard gain. Clark carried to the LSU two to set up Wagner's game-winner.

On the Tigers' final possession, they faced a third-and-21 from their own 40 with time for one more play. Jordan Jefferson completed a pass to Rueben Randle, who reached the Lions' 35, but was hit by Eric Latimore and fumbled. Nick Sukay recovered to seal the win.

Clark was 18-of-35 for 216 yards, with one TD and no interceptions. Clark became the first Penn Stater to surpass 3,000 passing yards in a season, finishing with 3,003.

Andrew Quarless made a career-high and school bowl record eight receptions for 88 yards to break school records for catches by a tight end in a season (41) and career (87).

The defense held the Tigers to 243 yards and forced three turnovers. Penn State limited LSU to just nine first downs and 41 rushing yards on 25 attempts, becoming the eighth opponent to rush for less than 100 yards in 2009.

All-America linebacker NaVorro Bowman made nine tackles (seven solo), with 1.5 tackles for losses. Josh Hull had six stops and Sean Lee had six hits.

2011 OUTBACK: January 1, 2011

Penn State's bid for a fourth New Year's Day bowl victory in the past six years was turned back in the final minute as Florida captured a 37-24 win in the 25th Outback Bowl in Raymond James Stadium.

The Nittany Lions took a 24-17 lead late in the third quarter, but the Gators scored the next 13 points for a 30-24 lead midway through the fourth frame.

After both teams exchanged punts, Penn State took possession at its own 21-yard line with just 3:04 left to play. Matt McGloin completed an 18-yard pass to Derek Moye and Evan Royster's 23-yard burst made him the first Nittany Lion with a trio of 1,000-yard rushing seasons. With the ball at the Florida 25, a McGloin pass was picked off by Ahmad Black, who returned it 80 yards for a touchdown to seal the game with 55 seconds to play.

Penn State's career rushing yardage leader, Royster gained 98 yards on 20 carries against the Gators to finish the season with 1,014 yards on 208 carries.

On Florida's first play from scrimmage, cornerback D'Anton Lynn grabbed his third interception of the season at the Gators' 39-yard line. McGloin completed passes of 16 yards to Brett Brackett and 15 yards to Graham Zug to give the Nittany Lions a first-and-goal. On third down from the Florida 5, McGloin lofted the ball to Derek Moye, who snared it for his eighth touchdown catch of the season. Collin Wagner's PAT kick gave Penn State a 7-0 lead with 9:08 left in the first quarter.

Moye had game highs with five catches and 79 yards and made his 15th career touchdown catch. Making his fifth career start, McGloin was 17-of-41 for 211 yards, with one touchdown and a school-record five interceptions.

The Penn State defense limited Florida to just 279 yards (101 passing) and an average of 3.9 yards per play.

Junior defensive tackle Devon Still recorded a career- and season-high 3.5 TFL against the Gators, with a career-best seven stops (six solo) overall. Senior linebacker Chris Colasanti made a game-high 10 hits, compiling his fifth double-figure tackle game of the season.

2012 TICKETCITY: January 1, 2012

In the first meeting between Penn State and high-powered Houston since 1977, the No. 20 Cougars beat the No. 24 Nittany Lions, 30-14, in the TicketCity Bowl.

Houston entered the game No. 1 in the nation in total offense (599.0 ypg), passing offense (44.3 ypg) and scoring offense (50.8 ppg) and was impressive, gaining 600 yards. The Cougars' NCAA record-setting quarterback, Case Keenum, broke the Penn State opponent bowl and all-time records for completions (45) and attempts (69) in a game. He threw for 532 yards and three scores.

Penn State allowed just 41 points total during the first quarter in the regular season, but Houston grabbed a 17-0 lead after the opening period. The Lions outscored the Cougars, 14-13, over the final three quarters, but were not able to pull within a score.

In his final game as a Nittany Lion, Stephon Green ran for a game-high 63 yards on 15 carries. He scored on a six-yard run midway through the second quarter, his sixth rushing touchdown of the season, to pull Penn State within 17-7. But, the Cougars responded with a 75-yard touchdown pass from Keenum to Patrick Edwards, the longest play from scrimmage allowed by the Penn State defense in the 2011 season and an opponent bowl mark. Edwards' 228 receiving yards also were a Houston bowl record and an opponent bowl mark.

With Houston leading, 27-7, in the third quarter, quarterback Rob Bolden connected with junior wideout Justin Brown on a 69-yard scoring strike to pull the Nittany Lions within two scores. The catch was a career-long for Brown and the second-longest completion in Penn State bowl history behind Chuck Herd's fingertip 72-yard reception from Tom Shuman in the 1974 Orange Bowl.

In his final game as a Nittany Lion, senior linebacker Nate Stupar made a game-high 12 tackles (seven solo), the second-highest total of his career. Linebacker Gerald Hodges recorded nine tackles and safety Drew Astorino had eight stops. Senior All-America tackle Devon Still was limited by turf toe suffered in practice days before the game.

2014 PINSTRIPE: December 27, 2014

Sam Ficken hit a pair of pressure filled kicks to send Penn State to a 31-30 overtime win over Boston College in the New Era Pinstripe Bowl.

Ficken, who used Derek Jeter's old locker, converted a 45-yard field goal with just 20 seconds left in regulation to tie the game, 24-24, and was true on the game-winning extra point to lift Penn State to the win.

Christian Hackenberg earned MVP honors after he produced one of the finest passing games in Penn State bowl history. He set or tied nine Penn State bowl game records, including completions (34), attempts (50), passing yards (371), total offense (371) and offensive plays (58).

The Nittany Lions scored first on Hackenberg's 72-yard TD pass to Chris Godwin down the right sideline with 5:22 left in the first. The play is tied for the longest pass in Penn State's illustrious bowl history.

Murphy found Shakim Phillips in the corner end zone for a 19-yard touchdown and a 14-7 lead early in the third. He then showed he could also score using his feet with a 40-yard dash that put the Eagles ahead 21-7.

That is when Hackenberg went to work on the Eagles defense. He led Penn State on a six-play, 63-yard scoring drive that ended with a Geno Lewis 7-yard touchdown grab with no time left in the third quarter to pull Penn State within seven points, 21-14.

Hackenberg threw his third touchdown pass of the game, a toss over the middle to Hamilton that threaded the needle to tie the game with 6:48 left in the fourth quarter.

Mike Knoll put the Eagles back in the led, 24-21, on a 20-yarder with 2:10 left in the fourth, which set up Ficken's game-tying kick with 0:20 remaining.

Murphy hit David Dudeck for a 21-yard TD pass on Boston College's overtime drive, but Knoll missed the extra point for the Eagles and that was the opening Penn State needed to complete its comeback.

In overtime, Hackenberg arched a perfect ball into the hands of Carter for a 10-yard touchdown. Carter's first TD grab of the season set up Ficken's automatic kick that sent the Nittany Lions dancing on top of the Yankees' dugout.

BOWL HISTORY

2016 TAXSLAYER: January 2, 2016

Facing a 21-point deficit in the third quarter, Penn State rallied to within a touchdown of Georgia, but the Nittany Lions ran out of time as the Bulldogs held on, 24-17, to win the 71st annual TaxSlayer Bowl.

Leading 24-17, Georgia tried to ice the game with less than two minutes remaining by going for it on fourth-and-2 from the Penn State 23. Jason Cabinda and Garrett Sickels stuffed Georgia's Keith Marshall for a 2-yard loss, giving the Nittany Lions a chance to tie the game with a touchdown and extra point with 1:52 remaining.

Redshirt freshman quarterback Trace McSorley, who entered the game midway through the second quarter after quarterback Christian Hackenberg left with an injury, led the Nittany Lions to the Georgia 39 with eight seconds remaining, but his Hail Mary pass attempt was batted down near the goal line.

McSorley finished completing 14-of-27 pass attempts for 142 yards and two touchdowns while also rushing seven times for 31 yards. Godwin caught six passes for 133 yards, finishing the season with 1,101 receiving yards.

Georgia took a 24-3 lead on a Sony Michel touchdown run with 4:15 remaining in the third quarter, but the Lions started their rally on the next drive, scoring their first touchdown on the first play of the fourth quarter on fourth down, capping a 10-play, 75-yard touchdown drive.

A 21-yard completion to Godwin on third-and-6 moved the Lions to midfield and a 29-yard rush by Saquon Barkley to the Georgia 15 setup the drive. Facing fourth-and-12, McSorley found Geno Lewis just inside the right sideline in the end zone following the final quarter break.

Both teams would punt and Penn State forced another Bulldog punt before finding the end zone again. A 20-yard run by Barkley started the seven-play drive, and a leaping catch by DaeSean Hamilton for a 20-yard touchdown capped it with 6:14 remaining.

Georgia was able to run 4:15 off the clock on its ensuing possession, and withstood Penn State's final rally.

Penn State running back Saquon Barkley totaled a career-high 306 all-purpose yards and scored three touchdowns and wide receiver Chris Godwin caught nine passes for a career-high 187 yards and two touchdowns, but No. 9 USC rallied in the fourth quarter to win the 103rd annual Rose Bowl Game on a 46-yard field goal as time expired, 52-49.

With 101 combined points, it was the highest-scoring game in the storied history of the Rose Bowl, and both teams trailed by double-digit margins in the thriller.

No. 5 Penn State trailed USC by 13, 27-14, with 6:16 remaining in the second quarter, but scored touchdowns on four consecutive offensive plays from its final play of the first half to its first three plays of the second half, building a 42-27 lead.

Tight end Mike Gesicki caught an 11-yard touchdown pass to start the run and pull Penn State within six before the halftime break. Barkley crisscrossed the field and eluded multiple Trojan defenders for a 79-yard touchdown run on the Nittany Lions' first offensive play of the third quarter, giving Penn State its first lead of the game, 28-27. On Penn State's next possession, quarterback Trace McSorley connected with Godwin for a 72-yard touchdown pass down the sideline. A Brandon Bell interception that he returned 24 yards to the USC 3 then set up a McSorley touchdown run for a game-high 15-point advantage.

The drives ranked as three of the 12 fastest scoring drives in Rose Bowl history, with McSorley's five-second touchdown run setting a record.

Both teams would trade touchdowns before the quarter ended, resulting in a 49-35 Penn State lead, but USC would score 17 points in the fourth quarter to inch back in front.

2017 FIESTA: December 30, 2017

Quarterback Trace McSorley eclipsed 400 yards of total offense and became Penn State's all-time bowl game passing leader to lead the No. 9 Nittany Lions past No. 11 Washington, 35-28, in the 2017 PlayStation Fiesta Bowl. Penn State improved to 7-0 all-time in the Fiesta Bowl.

McSorley led a Penn State offense that totaled a program bowl-record 545 yards of offense, as he completed 32-of-42 passes for 342 yards and two touchdowns, while rushing 12 times for 60 yards. McSorley was particularly strong on third downs, completing 12-of-12 passing attempts for 194 yards and two touchdowns, resulting in 11 of Penn State's 13 third down conversions - its most since 2008. McSorley completed passes to nine different receivers, with DaeSean Hamilton catching five passes for 110 yards and two touchdowns to lead the group.

McSorley was named the game's offensive MVP, while safety Marcus Allen was named the defensive MVP. Allen had a team-high six solo tackles, and tied for the team lead with seven total tackles.

Running back Saquon Barkley also had a record-breaking performance, setting a Fiesta Bowl and Penn State bowl record with a 92-yard touchdown run and also tying Penn State's all-time longest run record. He finished with 137 yards rushing and two touchdowns, while also catching a team-high seven receptions and totaling 38 yards receiving.

Penn State led the game from its opening possession until the end, with Washington getting no closer than a touchdown. The Nittany Lions' 35 points scored snapped Washington's 26-game streak of holding opponents to less than 30 points. Washington entered the game with the leading FBS rushing defense at 92.3 yards per game and had allowed just one play of more than 40 yards all season, however Penn State rushed for 203 yards and had two plays go for more than 40 yards.

Quarterback Trace McSorley led a fourth-quarter comeback attempt in his final game as a Nittany Lion, but it was not enough as No. 14 Kentucky held off No. 12 Penn State, 27-24, in the VRBO Citrus Bowl on New Year's Day in Camping World Stadium.

Penn State trailed by 20 points entering the fourth quarter, but McSorley rushed for one touchdown, threw for another and led a field goal drive. However, Kentucky took possession of the ball with 4 minutes and 12 seconds remaining and left Penn State with just 1 second on offense. Running back Benny Snell Jr. rushed for 25 yards and two first downs on eight carries. The first downs were the first of the quarter for the Wildcats, as Penn State had held them to 11 total yards previously in the frame.

After stopping Kentucky in the waning seconds, the Nittany Lions could only run one play from their own 17, and a fumble on a lateral was recovered by Kentucky's Chris Oats to secure the victory.

McSorley completed 17-of-33 passes for 246 yards and two touchdowns with one interception and was also the team's leading rusher with 75 yards and a touchdown on 19 carries. Fellow senior DeAndre Thompkins was the team's leading receiver with four receptions for 74 yards.

Snell led Kentucky with 144 rushing yards and two touchdowns on 26 carries and was named the game's Most Valuable Player.

Defensively Josh Allen paced Kentucky with three sacks, while Micah Parsons registered a career-high 14 tackles and forced a fumble for Penn State. Additionally, Kevin Givens had two sacks for the Nittany Lions, tying a school bowl record.

Kentucky dominated the odd-numbered quarters, while Penn State dominated the even-numbered quarters. The Wildcats jumped out to a 10-0 lead in the first quarter on a field goal and a Lynn Bowden Jr. 58-yard punt return before Penn State pulled within three in the second quarter on a McSorley pass to tight end Nick Bowers. Kentucky built its largest lead in the third quarter, 27-7, after a pair of Snell rushing touchdowns and another field goal. Penn State cut the deficit to three with 17 points in the fourth.

Led by a team-bowl-record 202 rushing yards by running back Journey Brown (Meadville, Pa.), No. 10 Penn State rushed for a team-bowl-record 396 yards en route to a 53-39 victory over No. 17 Memphis in the 84th annual Goodyear Cotton Bowl Classic Saturday in AT&T Stadium.

Penn State concludes the 2019 season with an 11-2 record for its 17th 11-win season in program history and third in the last four years, repeating a feat not accomplished since 1968-71. The Nittany Lions also improved to 3-0-1 all-time in the Goodyear Cotton Bowl Classic and earned their second consecutive win in a New Year's Six bowl game (Fiesta, 2017).

Brown and fellow running back Noah Cain (Baton Rouge, La.) rushed for two touchdowns each. Additionally, Brown totaled a career-high and Penn State bowl-record 202 yards, while Cain rushed for a career-high 92 yards and surpassed the school record for most rushing touchdowns by a freshman in a season (8). Brown was named the game's Most Outstanding Offensive Player and linebacker Micah Parsons (Harrisburg, Pa.), who totaled a career-high-tying 14 tackles, 3.0 tackles for loss, 2.0 sacks and two forced fumbles, was named the Most Outstanding Defensive Player.

Penn State's seven total touchdowns and five rushing touchdowns both tied Cotton Bowl records.

Memphis (12-2) was led by quarterback Brady White, who threw for 454 yards and kicker Riley Patterson, who set team, Cotton Bowl and Penn State opponent records with six field goals. However, White was intercepted twice in the second half, as senior safety Garrett Taylor (Richmond, Va.) made a pick-six late in the third quarter and freshman cornerback Marquis Wilson (Windsor, Conn.) picked off a pass at the Penn State 2-yard line late in the fourth quarter to secure the win. White was also sacked six times as Penn State surpassed the 40-sack mark for a fifth-straight season.

PENN STATE UNIVERSITY A Land Grant Institution

Penn State's historic mission of teaching, research, and public service — launched under the most modest of circumstances more than 150 years ago — now reaches into virtually all parts of Pennsylvania. Consider, for example, that the University now has 24 campuses across the Commonwealth, putting a Penn State education within practical reach of nearly every Pennsylvanian. In fact, more than 95 percent of Pennsylvania residents live within a 30-mile radius of a Penn State campus and about 70 percent of Penn State's undergraduates are Pennsylvania residents.

Penn State is Pennsylvania's largest nongovernmental employer and has employees and expenditures in every one of its 67 counties. The University generates a total economic impact across the Commonwealth that surpasses $11.6 billion annually and is consistently ranked among the top 1% of the world's universities.

Part of that impact is derived from Penn State's research program, which brought more than $633 million in federal funds to Pennsylvania last year, and an additional $101 million from private industry. In addition, as part of its Invent Penn State initiative, the University has funded 21 innovation hubs, designed to bolster entrepreneurship and economic development in communities surrounding its campuses across Pennsylvania.

Penn State's outreach and online programs — ranging from 4H to Cooperative Extension, from summer camps to public broadcasting — provide educational and service programs to more than a million Pennsylvania households annually.

The University's presence throughout Pennsylvania today contrasts sharply with its humble beginnings. Chartered as a college of scientific agriculture, the institution was located in rural Centre County after James Irvin, a partner in the Centre Furnace iron works (remains of which can be seen today along East College Avenue), offered to donate 200 acres of farmland for a campus.

Founding President Evan Pugh wanted the fledgling institution to embody a new approach to higher education that blended classical studies with subjects that had practical value. He joined similar visionaries in other states in convincing Congress to pass the Morrill Land-Grant Act in 1862. The act gave individual states tracts of federal land to sell; the proceeds supported colleges that agreed to include engineering, science and the liberal arts as well as agriculture in their course of studies. In 1863, the Pennsylvania legislature designated Penn State the Commonwealth's sole land-grant institution. The lawmakers in effect bestowed on the privately incorporated college a public character. In return for state support, the institution assumed obligations of teaching, research and service that are normally associated with publicly owned land-grant universities in other states.

By the 1890s Penn State was making its mark. It ranked among the nation's 10 largest undergraduate engineering schools, a distinction it still holds. It established one of the nation's first collegiate agricultural experiment stations, and Professor Whitman Jordan's pioneering research on using fertilizers for soil enrichment had global impact on crop yields.

Penn State in 1871 became one of the first land-grant schools in the Northeast to admit women, graduated its first international student in 1890, and its first African-American student in 1905. Today, Penn State draws more than 9,000 students from around the world to study at its campuses, and the international students, researchers and scholars who come to Penn State represent more than 140 countries.

In the early 1900s, President Edwin E. Sparks supported a number of efforts to "carry the college to the people," as he liked to say. Technical institutes were established in various locations statewide for engineering education, beginning with an evening school in Allentown in 1910. In 1912, Penn State helped create a system of county agents in agriculture and home economics. Today, the Penn State World Campus, which offers one curriculum at multiple access points to meet people where they are, builds on that outreach tradition.

But undergraduate education remained foremost. Enrollment surpassed 5,000 students by 1936, including those attending several undergraduate centers that were created for students who, in the depths of the Great Depression, could not afford to leave their hometowns to get a college education. The centers offered the first year of baccalaureate studies and were the predecessors of today's statewide system of campuses. Thanks to this innovative approach to higher education, Penn State in the 1930s became Pennsylvania's largest single source of baccalaureate degrees, a distinction it holds to this day.

Following World War II, Penn State underwent unprecedented expansion, first to meet the needs of returning military veterans and later to accommodate the Baby Boom generation. Total enrollment at all Penn State campuses climbed to 40,000 by 1970.

The University also emerged on the national scene as a research powerhouse in fields as diverse as dairy science, acoustics, psychology and diesel engineering. The expansion of research went hand in hand with a steady increase in the number of graduate students. The University awarded its first graduate degree — a master's degree in scientific agriculture — in 1862, and the Graduate School was established in 1922. But overall graduate enrollment remained modest until the 1950s, then swelled steadily. The Graduate School has awarded to date approximately 130,000 master's, doctoral and other advanced degrees.

The University Park campus is Penn State's administrative and research hub. In addition, there are 19 primarily undergraduate campuses; Penn State Health Milton S. Hershey Medical Center and the College of Medicine; the Pennsylvania College of Technology; Penn State Law; Dickinson Law; the Penn State Great Valley School of Graduate Professional Studies; and the Penn State World Campus.

To date, Penn State has awarded more than 909,000 degrees, hallmarks of an educational experience second to none in quality. In addition, Penn State alumni — including 371,000 in Pennsylvania alone — have job- and social-networking opportunities that no other college or university in the Commonwealth can surpass.

PRESIDENT ERIC J. BARRON

Eric J. Barron took the helm of Pennsylvania's flagship public university on May 12, 2014, arriving from Florida State University, where he had been president for four years. No stranger to Happy Valley, he had previously spent 20 years of his career at Penn State, serving as a faculty member and dean of the College of Earth and Mineral Sciences.

David Marshall

As leader of Penn State, Barron oversees a research enterprise of more than $1.01 billion and 24 campus locations. His responsibilities include oversight of two law schools, the internationally recognized online educational enterprise known as Penn State World Campus, and a nearly $2 billion health enterprise, including the Penn State College of Medicine, the Milton S. Hershey Medical Center and the Penn State Health network, which extends throughout Central Pennsylvania. Penn State's current enrollment is approximately 97,000 students, and the University boasts the world's largest dues-paying alumni association in the world.

During his tenure as president of Penn State, Barron has prioritized access and affordability; diversity, equity and inclusion; student engagement; economic development; job creation and student career success; technological innovation; and the arts.

Under Barron's leadership, Penn State has achieved record-setting results in the University's fundraising campaign, A Greater Penn State for 21st Century Excellence. Penn State has now raised more than $1.7 billion of the $2.1 billion goal.

Barron's Invent Penn State initiative supports investment in entrepreneurship and innovation programs, tools and resources that accelerate the movement of great ideas to the marketplace and make a substantial economic development impact in Pennsylvania and beyond. Since its inception in 2015, Invent Penn State has partnered with the University's campuses across the Commonwealth to open 21 LaunchBox and innovation hubs available to the surrounding communities. These hubs have provided resources to more than 3,325 entrepreneurs, engaged more than 9,360 students in entrepreneurial thinking and startups, graduated 345 startup teams from accelerator programs, resourced 247 product development projects, and created more than 194 new jobs.

VP OF INTERCOLLEGIATE ATHLETICS SANDY BARBOUR

Recognized as one of the nation's premier Athletic Directors, Sandy Barbour enters her eighth year as the dynamic leader of the Penn State Intercollegiate Athletics program. With student success and comprehensive excellence as a steadfast focus, Barbour has helped the Nittany Lions continue to ascend and thrive as one of the nation's most successful athletic departments.

Barbour began her passionate and effective leadership of the Penn State Intercollegiate Athletics program in August 2014. President Eric J. Barron named Barbour the Nittany Lions' ninth Director of Athletics after she served for 10 years as Director of Athletics at the University of California, Berkeley.

In February 2019, Barbour received a contract extension through August 31, 2023 and assumed the title of Penn State Vice President for Intercollegiate Athletics.

"Sandy has consistently promoted excellence in intercollegiate athletics — in academics and athletic competitions, and she is widely hailed among the best athletic directors in the nation," Barron said at the time of her contract extension. "She is a powerful advocate for those who wear the blue and white, and her leadership has helped advance our shared vision of what intercollegiate athletics can be. I'm proud of our student-athletes, the coaches and staff, and I'm very pleased that Sandy will be able to lead them to even greater success."

Leader of Premier Athletic Department in Academic, Athletic and Community Engagement

One of the nation's most highly-respected Athletic Directors, Barbour has more than 40 years of varied experiences as a collegiate administrator and coach, with a demonstrated record of championships, academic success, innovation, facility modernization and revenue growth.

Barbour directs one of the nation's most comprehensive and successful athletic programs that boasts an NCAA Graduation Success Rate of 92 percent, while capturing 79 national championships and 116 Big Ten titles all-time. She oversees a broad-based program that supports approximately 800 students in 31 sports (16 men's/15 women's) and an Intercollegiate Athletics staff of more than 300 whose daily mission is preparing students for a lifetime of impact. Penn State's 31 programs are tied for fourth-largest among all 130 FBS institutions.

During Barbour's initial seven years of leadership in Happy Valley, Penn State student-athletes have consistently raised the bar and broken or tied school academic records, including the number of Academic All-Big Ten and Big Ten Distinguished Scholar recipients. A total of 140 Nittany Lion students graduated during the 2020 fall and 2021 spring semesters. A combined total of 1,064 student-athletes have earned their degrees during Barbour's tenure.

The 2020-21 athletic year was unlike any others in the history of collegiate athletics. Barbour served as the co-chair of the medical subcommittee on the Big Ten's Return to Competition Task Force, which developed stringent medical protocols to ensure the health and safety of student-athletes while returning to sport. Despite the unprecedented circumstances, the Nittany Lion women's soccer team claimed the Big Ten regular-season championship, wrestling earned a share of the Big Ten dual meet title, women's hockey won its first CHA regular-season crown and men's volleyball won the EIVA regular-season and tournament championships. Under Barbour's direction, Penn State has won six NCAA Championships and 36 conference crowns.

In addition to the competitive and academic achievements, Barbour has taken pride in the diversity and inclusion work done by the department and its student-athletes. In 2020-21, Barbour set action steps for intercollegiate athletics to continue the work of fostering and advancing a diverse, inclusive and respectful environment where staff, coaches, student-athletes and all other members of the Penn State family feel supported. Penn State United was introduced to construct a culture of respect, appreciation and empathy for all differences, while recognizing we are rooted in diversity, shared experience and hope. Under Barbour, Penn State Athletics' Advisory Council for Diversity, Equity and Inclusion (ACDEI) has expanded its work, providing diversity and inclusion resources to staff and student-athletes, and will continue Barbour's action steps by listening, taking action and supporting growth and change.

Nittany Lions Students are the "Why" for Penn State Athletics

Soon after her arrival at Penn State, Barbour began to implement her vision for Penn State Intercollegiate Athletics and creating conditions for success for the department's purpose and "Why" — the more than 800 Nittany Lion student-athletes.

Six months into her tenure, Barbour announced a reorganization of ICA that introduced a more vertical structure to encourage communication and collaboration across functional units and sports. Four administrative divisions were formed: student-athlete performance, health and welfare; external relations and operations, administration and business and finance.

In 2015, Penn State Athletics launched a wide-ranging strategic planning process and conducted a series of town hall meetings. Students, faculty and staff, alumni, donors and the public were presented with the initial findings and were presented with an opportunity to provide feedback. The project helped determine strategies and priorities for the formalized strategic plan.

Barbour also oversees a comprehensive facilities master plan, which was announced in March 2017. Penn State partnered with Populous, one of the world's leading architecture and sport event planning firms, to collaborate on developing a comprehensive facilities master plan to provide a 20-year road map for addressing current and long-term needs for all of the Nittany Lions' facilities (competition, practice, performance enhancement and training).

Less than two months after the facilities master plan was unveiled in 2017, Penn State announced a $3.55 million gift from men's lacrosse letterman and graduate Ken Panzer and his business partner, Jordan Kaplan, to launch construction on a new lacrosse facility. The project transformed the Penn State Lacrosse Field into one of the top lacrosse venues in the nation when Panzer Stadium opened to rave reviews in 2019.

Since the first Lasch Football Building renovation project was announced in January 2015, Barbour has helped raise more than $32 million for the Football Excellence Fund to finance several phased upgrades of the football facilities, including a $48.5 million phase, currently under construction and slated for completion in time for the 2022 season.

During Barbour's tenure, Penn State Athletics has had four of the top seven fundraising years in department history.

Barbour initiated the additional utilization of ICA's physical assets, resulting in the first NHL pre-season games in Pegula Ice Arena and the initial concert in Beaver Stadium — the Happy Valley Jam, featuring Blake Shelton, in July 2017. Pegula Ice Arena has also hosted three NHL preseason contests, all featuring the Buffalo Sabres, since 2016.

Academic Excellence Among Record-Setting Achievements; 92 Percent NCAA Graduation Rate

Penn State student-athletes have consistently delivered academic excellence and record performances during Barbour's tenure.

In November 2020, the NCAA released its annual national graduation rates study, which disclosed that Penn State student-athletes earned a school-record Graduation Success Rate (GSR) of 92 percent, marking the fourth consecutive year of a GSR of 90 percent or higher. The GSR was the fourth-straight record-breaking or record-tying effort in department history. Nine Nittany Lion teams earned a perfect 100 percent Graduation Success Rate.

Nittany Lion students posted a 3.51 grade-point average, and all 31 teams had a 3.30 GPA or higher following the 2020 fall semester with the University's COVID-19 alternative grading system in place. In the fall semester, 742 student-athletes posted at least at 3.0 GPA, and 327 were named to the Dean's List for earning at least a 3.5 GPA (minimum 12 credits).

For the fourth consecutive year, more than 350 Penn State student-athletes earned Academic All-Big Ten honors with 446 Nittany Lions posting a 3.0 GPA or higher in 2020-21.

Starting with the 2014 fall semester, Barbour's first as Penn State AD, Penn State student-athletes have achieved the 10 highest semesters all-time for the number of students earning at least a 3.0 GPA (please note: record performances do not include spring 2020, fall 2020 and spring 2021 due to COVID-19 alternative grading system).

Six NCAA Team Championships and 36 Conference Titles

In the seven years Barbour has led Penn State Athletics, the Nittany Lions have captured six NCAA Championships in women's soccer, women's volleyball and wrestling and won 28 Big Ten titles, seven EIVA crowns and one CHA championship for a total of 36 conference championships.

In 2020-21, the Nittany Lion women's soccer team claimed its 20th Big Ten regular-season title, marking the first regular-season crown for the women's soccer team since 2018 and 11th under head coach Erica Damback. The wrestling team won a share of the Big Ten dual meet championship for the seventh time with a 6-0 record. The women's hockey team claimed their first CHA regular-season title with a 16-2-2 conference record. The women's hockey squad becomes the 27th Penn State team to win a conference championship.

The men's volleyball squad claimed its 35th EIVA regular-season title and 32nd EIVA Tournament championships with a 22-4 record. The Nittany Lions made their first NCAA Tournament appearance since 2017 and earned their first win since the 2015 season with a first-round win over Belmont Abbey.

A total of 24 Penn student-athletes have won NCAA individual national championships since 2016-17, including a combined total of 18 the past three years from six different sports. Fencer Ryan Griffiths earned the NCAA epee individual title in 2020-21, while Roman Bravo-Young (133 lbs), Nick Lee (141 lbs), Carter Starocci (174 lbs) and Aaron Brooks (184 lbs) guided the Nittany Lions wrestlers to a perfect 4-for-4 effort on NCAA Championship night.

In 2020-21, five Nittany Lions claimed Big Ten individual titles to give Penn State 41 individual championships in the past four years. Swimmer Michael Daly won the 400 IM, while Aaron Brooks captured his second Big Ten crown with a victory at 184 pounds. At the Big Ten Indoor Track & Field Championships, Dom Perretta won his second 800-meter title, while Sincere Rhea on the men's 60-meter hurdles and Victoria Vanrie won the women's 800 meters for a Penn State sweep in the event.

Penn State Athletics has finished in the top 10 twice and top 15 three times in the final Learfield IMG College Directors' Cup standings under Barbour's direction. Penn State also was ranked No. 8 among the nation's 65 Power Five institutions in 2017-18, according to Yahoo! Sports.

Nittany Lion Student-Athletes Engaged in Student Athlete Welfare and Development Programming and Community Service with 40-Plus Organizations

In addition to their academic and athletic achievements, student-athletes have helped support Penn State's comprehensive excellence by investing in themselves through ICA's Student-Athlete Welfare and Development programming with the Athletic Director's Leadership Institute (ADLI), the Nittany's, SAAB, financial literacy and career networking programs. In addition, Penn State student-athletes spend thousands of hours each year involved in community engagement. Nittany Lion students annually participate in a range of activities from clinics and visits and team up with more than 40 organizations on projects and events. Among the organizations Penn State student-athletes are involved are THON, Special Olympics, Uplifting Athletes, Pennsylvania Pink Zone, Coaches vs. Cancer, United Way Day of Caring and LifeLink.

AD of the Year Recipient in 2016-17 and Finalist in 2018

Barbour's leadership was recognized with her selection for the prestigious National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) Under Armour AD of the Year Award in 2016-17, having directed Penn State to nine conference championships and one NCAA title. She was among four Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) Athletic Directors to be honored at the 2017 NACDA Convention, marking the second time in her career she had received the NACDA honor.

In 2020, Barbour was among the honorees on Sports Illustrated's "The Unrelenting" list of the most powerful, most influential and most outstanding women in sports.

In 2018, she was named one of five finalists for Sports Business Journal's prestigious Athletic Director of the Year. Barbour, the recent chair of the Big Ten Athletic Directors, was recognized at the 11th Annual SBJ Sports Business Awards Gala in New York City in May, the second time she's been a finalist for SBJ's Athletic Director of the Year.

Barbour is a member of the NCAA Football Oversight Committee and in 2017, she was selected as one of the inaugural members of the United States Olympic and Paralympic Committee's (USOC) Collegiate Sports Sustainability Think Tank. The Think Tank is also charged with bridging the gap between high-contributing collegiate stakeholders and the Olympic Movement.

Barbour will serve as the chair of the NCAA's Football Oversight Committee in 2021-22 and will also represent the Big Ten Conference on the NCAA Management Council.

Recognized by Forbes Among Top Executives in Sports

Forbes has recognized Barbour twice in recent years among the top executives in sports. In 2018, Barbour was selected No. 13 among the Most Powerful Women in Sports. She was among four executives listed who work primarily in intercollegiate athletics and was the highest ranked Athletic Director — No. 2 overall in college sports.

In 2015, Forbes named Barbour one of the Top 25 Most Powerful People in College Sports, ranking among six Athletic Directors and two female administrators on the list. Forbes said that Barbour "has developed a reputation for being one of the most forward-thinking administrators in all of college sports."

Ten Years Leading Cal Athletics to Consistent Comprehensive Excellence

The Director of Athletics at Cal from 2004-14, Barbour guided the Golden Bears through one of the most successful periods in school history as the athletic department became one of the consistently elite programs in the country. Barbour's 10-year term as AD was the longest for the department since men's and women's athletics merged into a single entity in 1992.

During her tenure overseeing Cal's 30-sport program, the Golden Bears won 20 team national championships, 97 individual national titles, finished in the top 10 in the annual Learfield Directors' Cup standings six times, including a program-best third in 2011, and reached record levels in ticket sales, sponsorships and fundraising.

Among Cal's many team athletic accomplishments under Barbour's leadership were a 2006 Pac-12 co-championship and seven bowl game invitations in football; the men's basketball team's first conference title in 50 years in 2009-10; a first-ever NCAA Final Four berth in women's basketball in 2013, two trips to the national semifinals in women's volleyball and six NCAA Championships in men's and women's swimming and diving.

In 2013-14, Cal secured the largest field naming-rights deal in collegiate sports history at the time, when technology company Kabam signed on to name Kabam Field at California Memorial Stadium.

Named one of the "100 Most Influential Women in Business" in the Bay Area according to the San Francisco Business Times, NACDA named Barbour a regional Athletic Director of the Year for 2008-09 and she was a finalist for National AD of the Year at the Sports Business Awards. She also was recognized as the 2006 National Association of Collegiate Women Athletics Administrators (NACWAA) Division I-A National Administrator of the Year.

Prior to her tenure at Berkeley, Barbour was the deputy director of athletics at Notre Dame, serving as the university's senior athletic administrator from July 2002 to September 2004. She previously held an associate athletic director position there starting in 2000.

In her position at Notre Dame, Barbour oversaw facilities and event operations for the school's 26-sport program, including football game management and the department's two golf courses. She was also responsible for developing, maintaining and implementing Notre Dame's $127 million athletics facilities master plan.

In 1996, Barbour was appointed Tulane's director of athletics at age 36, and during her three years overseeing the program, Green Wave teams won 12 conference championships. In her first year in the position, the school captured four conference titles, a feat never before accomplished in Tulane history. She also hired Tommy Bowden as head football coach during her first year. Bowden proceeded in 1997 to post the Green Wave's first winning season (7-4) in 16 years, and then directed the school to a 12-0 record, a Conference USA championship and a No. 7 national ranking the following season as the 1998 Liberty Bowl champions. Barbour was recruited to Tulane as an associate athletic director in 1991.

Born in Annapolis, Md., Barbour grew up in a military family. Her father was a career aviator in the U.S. Navy, and her family lived in various U.S. locations as well as in Western Europe during her childhood.

Barbour graduated cum laude in 1981 with a B.S. degree in physical education from Wake Forest University, where she was a four-year letterwinner and served as captain of the field hockey team. She also played two seasons of women's basketball for the Demon Deacons.

Barbour earned advanced degrees at the University of Massachusetts (an M.S. in sports management in 1983) and Northwestern's Kellogg School of Management (an MBA in 1991). Barbour's career in intercollegiate athletics began as a field hockey assistant coach and lacrosse administrative assistant at Massachusetts in 1981.

Between master's programs, Barbour served as assistant field hockey and lacrosse coach at Northwestern from 1982-84. She also held the position of director of recruiting services during that period, before being promoted to assistant athletic director for intercollegiate programs in 1984, a position she held until 1989.

Prior to joining Tulane, Barbour worked in programming and production for FOX Sports Net in Chicago during the summer of 1990.

PENN STATE ATHLETICS:

A NATIONAL LEADER IN COMPREHENSIVE EXCELLENCE

2020 Big Ten women's soccer regular season champions.

2020-21 HIGHLIGHTS

- There are approximately 800 Penn State student-athletes, participating in 31 varsity programs (16 men's, 15 women's), tied for the fourth-highest number of sports sponsored by a Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) institution.
- Penn State is one of 15 Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) institutions that reported they were self-supporting (does not receive funds from the University) during fiscal 2019-20. (Knight Commission)
- Penn State Football has ranked in the top 5 nationally in average home attendance 27 times since 1991. The Nittany Lions ranked second nationally in average home attendance in 2018, 2019.
- With an official capacity of 106,572, Beaver Stadium is the second-largest team sports venue in the nation and the third-largest in the world.
- When Penn State Football plays at home, State College becomes the third-largest city in Pennsylvania.
- Forbes ranked Penn State No. 10 among the "Top 25 Schools That Dominate Academically and Athletically" (April 2019)
- Penn State is one of only five schools that have won at least 10 NCAA Championships since 2012 and earned at least a 90 percent Graduation Success Rate in the 2019-20 NCAA report (Stanford, UCLA, USC, Virginia). Penn State posted a school-record Graduation Success Rate of 92 percent in the 2019-20 report.
- Yahoo! Sports ranked Penn State No. 9 among the nation's top athletic programs (July 2019)
- Vice President for Intercollegiate Athletics Sandy Barbour was ranked No. 13 on Forbes "Most Powerful Women in Sports," in 2018 as well as No. 24 on Forbes "Most Powerful People in College Sports."
- Sandy Barbour was among four FBS NACDA AD of the Year recipients in 2016-17 and was among five finalists for the 2018 Sports Business Journal Athletic Director of the Year award.

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

- The 92 percent Graduation Success Rate (GSR) by Penn State student-athletes in the 2019-20 NCAA report set a school record. It broke Penn State's previous record of 91 percent, which was achieved in the 2018-19 NCAA report. It also marked the fourth consecutive year that Penn State recorded a GSR of 90 percent or higher.
- Penn State student-athletes have delivered a Graduation Success Rate in the 88-91 percent range in each of the past 14

NCAA reports, improving from 88 percent in the 2015 report, to 89 percent in 2016, to 90 percent in 2017 and 2018, to 91 percent in 2019, and the record-breaking 92 percent effort in 2020.

- Nine Nittany Lion squads earned a 100 percent Graduation Success Rate in the 2019 NCAA report. The field hockey and women's tennis teams posted their 16th consecutive perfect GSR.
- For the 11th consecutive year, the Penn State football (85 percent compared to 79 percent) and Nittany Lion basketball (90 to 84) teams all earned four-year Graduation Success Rates higher than the national average for their respective sports.
- A school-record 20 Penn State teams earned perfect single-year APR scores of 1,000. (May 2020; APR was not released in 2021.)
- Six Penn State squads (women's cross country, women's fencing, men's golf, women's golf, men's hockey and women's track and field) earned perfect multi-year NCAA Academic Progress Rate scores of 1,000. (May 2020)
- The football team posted its first 1,000 single-year APR in program history in 2018-19, topping the previous high of 993 in 2014-15.
- A total of 189 Nittany Lions posted perfect 4.0 GPAs during the 2020-21 academic year.
- A total of 140 student-athletes graduated in the 2020-21 school year. (May 2021)
- Penn State student-athletes had a record-setting 185 Big Ten Distinguished Scholars (3.7 GPA for the academic year) in 2020-21, shattering the previous school record of 144 in 2019-20.
- Penn State has had 1,139 Big Ten Distinguished Scholars (3.7 yearly GPA) since the program began in 2008-09.
- Penn State is second among all conference institutions with 7,399 Academic All-Big Ten honorees since 1991-92, its first year of competition in some Big Ten sports.
- The spring semester saw 83 percent (682) of student-athletes record a 3.0 semester GPA or higher, while 36.5 percent (299) earned Dean's List honors. Penn State used an alternative grading system in 2020-21 academic year due to COVID-19.
- Penn State's 211 CoSIDA Academic All-Americans all-time rank No. 4 among all Division I institutions. (July 5, 2021)

MISSION OF PENN STATE INTERCOLLEGIATE ATHLETICS

Consistent with the institutional mission of The Pennsylvania State University, Intercollegiate Athletics strives for excellence by offering all students model programs to develop meaningful standards of scholarship, athletic performance, leadership, community service, ethical and sportslike conduct within the institution's extant educational and social environments. Intercollegiate Athletics is committed to creating a climate for students and staff that reflects diverse values and needs; fosters an appreciation of a multicultural human society; assures equal access to opportunities without regard to personal characteristics not related to ability, and seeks greater involvement with an increasingly interdependent world.

PENN STATE SPORTS NETWORK

More than 60 radio stations across Pennsylvania, New York and West Virginia will carry Penn State football to fans throughout the Northeast this season on the Penn State Sports Network.

Steve Jones and Jack Ham will team up for their 23rd season as the play-by-play voice and color analyst, respectively, on the Penn State Sports Network.

The football broadcasts begin 90 minutes before kickoff with the one-hour "Dietz & Watson Tailgate Show" with host Roger Corey, along with Jones and Ham. "The Penn State Bookstore Kickoff Show," a 20-minute conversation with Head Coach James Franklin follows, before Jones and Ham bring listeners the starting lineups, health reports, field conditions and late-breaking news in the final minutes leading up to kickoff.

The broadcasts conclude with the "Pennsylvania Propane Gas Association Postgame Show" featuring locker room interviews, game statistics, stars and plays of the game, as well as scores from around the nation.

"The Penn State Football Show — Presented by Pepsi," a weekly live remote radio show with Coach James Franklin and hosted by Jones and Corey is broadcast statewide and airs Thursday evening during the football season.

"Inside Penn State Athletics," a three-minute daily update show hosted by Jones airs Monday through Friday on most Network affiliates; check local station for times.

All Penn State Sports Network broadcasts also can be heard via the Penn State Intercollegiate Athletics website: www.GoPSUsports.com.

The Penn State Sports Network is syndicated by Penn State Sports Properties, a property of Learfield, one of the country's largest syndicators of college sports.
